

HAVING decided to reduce our stock of GLASS and QUEENSWARE, and perhaps close out this entire line, we have determined to take off 20 per cent. on any article in this line, regardless of what it cost. Anyone needing Glass or Queensware, now or in the near future, will save 20 per cent. on the investment. These prices are strictly for CASH!

If you want anything special in the way of

Fancy Groceries

Clover, Timothy and Blue Grass Seed, CALL UP

E. DEATHERAGE & CO.

—Dr. Hobson, Dentist, Richmond, Ky. apr17-4f.

Mission Band Entertainment.

An entertainment will be given in the chapel of Madison Institute, January 24 for the benefit of the children's Mission Band. There will be fancy dress plays, instrumental music and living pictures. A pleasant and profitable evening is promised. Admission, 25 cents, children under twelve 10 cents.

Committees Announced.

The Senate committees were announced by Hon. N. W. Utley, president of the Kentucky Senate Monday morning, and the name of Hon. Curtis F. Burnam appears on four of the most important. They are the committees on Banks and Trust Companies, Constitutional Amendments, Courts of Justice and Religion and Morals.

No Small-ga.

We the undersigned practicing physicians of Kicksville, Ky., say there is no small-pox in this town and the people need not fear in the least to come here.

H. K. MIDDLETON, M. D.
J. B. OELHUIS, M. D.
D. L. FRY, M. D.
H. M. BOYLE, M. D.
Members Board of Health.

Stoves.

We have on hand a few air-tight heating stoves that we will close out at a low price for cash, some early and get choice. When in need of anything in the hardware line come in and see us. We carry a fine line of the best that's to be had and you will always find our prices the lowest. We also have an experienced tinner and would be glad to figure with you on your work. Give us a call. We will give you good work and the lowest price. Respectfully yours,
ARNOLD & SIMMONS.

Removals.

Mr. W. G. Powell has moved his family in the G. D. Chennault residence, West Main street, which he recently purchased.

Mr. John Rupard has taken the house on the Campus, formerly occupied by Dr. W. W. Burgin.

Mr. C. R. Boucher has rented the residence on Third street, which Mr. Rupard left.

Attorney W. Rhodes Shackelford has moved his office into one of the handsome rooms over Middleton's drug store.

Legs Wanted.

The Home Coverage Company are in the market for 1,000 white oak logs. Call at their office for specifications and prices. 1300-SW

For Sale.

We offer for sale privately a thirty foot boiler and long stroke engine, shafting etc., ready for use, will very cheap. For particulars apply to D. F. or J. D. Chennault at this office, dec 4 f.

Last Warning.

All unpaid taxes will be advertised February County Court-day and sold promptly March County Court day noon after your taxes and get receipts at once, no by bidding every thing goes. H. H. Colyer S. M. C.

Found Party.

The Daughters of the Confederacy will give a found party at the home of Mr. J. M. Poyntz, Saturday evening at 7 o'clock, for the benefit of the Confederate Home, you are invited to attend. There will be an auction of pound articles.

Revenue Assignments.

Mr. T. C. Adams, who has been off duty for several months, will be assigned to the Searcy distillery in Anderson county, as Storekeeper. Merritt H. Williams, of Red House, has been assigned as Storekeeper to the T. B. Ripy distillery in Anderson.

In the Federal Court Room.

Judge Cochran's number is 108. The Richmond Telephone Company placed a phone in the Federal Court room yesterday. It is the first instrument in the Custom House and will be a great convenience to the gentlemen who have offices in the building.

Fire in "Chicago."

An alarm of fire at four o'clock, Saturday afternoon, caused a run to the negro settlement known as "Chicago" on Irvine street. The fire which was in a small house adjoining the Transfer stable, was extinguished before any serious damage was done.

Had a Revolver.

The Cincinnati Post says: Charles Johnson, colored, of Richmond, Ky., an ex-convict, arrested at Fifth and Broadway Saturday evening, had a revolver. He had been terrorizing persons in Pearl Street Market. In Police Court Monday he was given $30 and costs.

Situation Wanted.

A young man, sober, industrious, moral and of fair education, wishes a position as clerk in a mercantile house, drygoods preferred, reasonable compensation only demanded. Best references given including Mr. A. D. Miller, of the Richmond Climax. Address, B. U. W., care Richmond Climax. 1140-4f

Right of Way Granted.

The Fiscal Court of Jessamine county last week granted the right of way through the county to the Blue Grass Traction Company. The franchise is, in substance, the same as granted by Madison county. The company proposes to extend their line south, from Nicholasville to Danville and Lancaster.

Kicked by a Cow.

During the parade of the Gorton militia, last week, a wild cow came off from some cause and made an attack on the band. One young man was knocked down and kicked so that it was some time before his breath could be pumped back again. When he got his senses back the parade passed on.

Teeth extracted without pain, 25 cents.
Dr. Hobson, Richmond, Ky.

The Regan P. O.

The fight for the Berea Post-office gets warmer every day. There are three contestants now, J. M. Hart, the present incumbent, D. N. Welch and C. M. Rowling. Hon. Vincent Borland is said to have endorsed Welch, but Senator Deboe has not yet said who his favorite is. The contest will probably be decided by his choice.

Burned to death.

Minnie Ross, the eleven year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Ross near Palm Lick, caught fire while playing in front of an old fashioned fire place, one day last week. The child ran from the house to the barn, where her father was, a distance of 300 yards and before she fell exhausted, her clothing was consumed and her body burned to a crisp. She lived for two days, but all the while suffered great agony.

Lee Smitha

Elsewhere in to-day's CLIMAX will be found the advertisement of that interesting dry goods firm, Lee Smitha, which is owned and operated by every man, woman and child in this and adjoining counties. In order to make room for spring goods this firm is offering great bargains in winter dry goods, notions, shoes, etc., and these needing anything in their line should call on them at once. Mr. Smitha is assisted by a number of pleasant and agreeable salesladies, who will give you every attention possible. Read their advertisement elsewhere.

On the Health Board.

Dr. L. J. Frazee received, Saturday a commission, bearing the Great Seal of the Commonwealth and signed by Dr. J. N. McCormick, Secretary of the State Board of Health, appointing him to the Health Board of Madison county. The appointment of Dr. Frazee is a high compliment to his ability as a physician and his wide experience and thorough knowledge of the affairs of the office admirably fit him for his position on the Board of Health. The citizens of the county may feel assured that they are in good hands, when they have such officers as he to look after them.

Question for the Sufrers.

From our window of last Court day we could see threestreet fairs, "giving away" their goods to the gullible buyers, who doubtless thought they were getting bargains. Various kinds of patent medicines guaranteed to cure all the ills the flesh is heir to, cheap boots with gaudy coverings, paper boot shoes and clothing of such shoddy quality that no merchant in the city would have the nerve to offer to the trade. In thinking of it, these following questions naturally force themselves upon the thinking man:

Do peddlers trust you until you sell your coat?
Do peddlers pay taxes on your town?
Do you warm your shins at the fire furnished by peddlers when you come to town?
Do peddlers help keep up the schools and churches?
Have peddlers any interest in you except to get your money?
Do peddlers correct mistakes?
Are peddlers traveling through the country for their health?
Do peddlers sell you goods when you have no money?
Did you ever buy anything of a peddler that you could not have bought as cheap in town?

A Pretty Tribute to Mr. McCreary.

As Governor McCreary ascended the steps of the speaker's platform Thursday night says the Frankfort Roundabout, Chairman Hickman, of the caucus, presented the new Senator with a handsome bouquet of choice flowers, to which were attached ribbons of the national colors. A card bore this inscription:

"United States Senator
"James B. McCreary,
"From the
"Prædential Club of Richmond,
"Kentucky.
"Clarence E. Woods, Secretary."

The bouquet was guarded by Mr. Woods all during the caucus, and he held it fast whenever a telling point was made by the speakers nominating the Madison county man. The Senator fittingly acknowledged the gift in his speech of acceptance of the nomination.

The Prædential Club is an organization composed of nineteen members of the profession and business men and clergy of Richmond, and for several years Gov. McCreary has been its president, never missing a meeting except by absence from the city. Its members regardless of party, hold the Governor in affectionate esteem, and sent this superb floral tribute upon the occasion of his recent election. It was the solitary floral decoration of the grand Old Statehouse and attracted attention throughout the evening, the ladies especially being lavish in their compliments upon its beauty and appropriateness.

Mat Cohen is Declared the Most Popular Elk.

About five weeks ago, the well known tailoring firm of Jacobs & Mahler started the popular Elk's contest, offering a forty-dollar suit of clothes to the most popular Elk in Richmond or Madison county. The coupons were held at 5 cents each, and each coupon entitled the holder to one vote. The contest was a lively one from the first and it was not known until the closing hour of the professional and business men who would be the winner. The voting closed at 9 p. m. last Monday night, and a committee, previously appointed, set about to count the votes. Mr. Cohen was declared the winner, having received 2281 out of 4041 votes cast.

Gas Reduction.

About one year ago this company materially reduced gas and water rates. It has been so encouraged by increased patronage in both during the present year that it has determined to allow a discount of 25 per cent on all billings. This was put into effect on Monday, Dec. 1, 1901, thereby reducing the net price of gas from $2.00 to $1.50.

But notice is especially given that this discount on gas will not be allowed to any person who fails to pay his gas bill on or before the 10th of each month at the office, or who is indebted to the company for water. All delinquent persons will be required to pay the present rate penalty without exception.

Respectfully,
RICHMOND WATER & LIGHT CO.
Nov. 27, 1901. dec 4 f

When We Were Twenty-one.

"When We Were Twenty-one" gathers its interest from the comradeship which exists between four men in middle life, growing out of the companionship of their youth. There were five in the little circle of close friends, but one died and the others devote themselves to the care and training of their dead friend's son, a young seaman known as the "Imp," who has barely reached the age of twenty-one and is industriously sowing seeds of wisdom for the future. The five in the circle of close friends, but one died and the others devote themselves to the care and training of their dead friend's son, a young seaman known as the "Imp," who has barely reached the age of twenty-one and is industriously sowing seeds of wisdom for the future. The five in the circle of close friends, but one died and the others devote themselves to the care and training of their dead friend's son, a young seaman known as the "Imp," who has barely reached the age of twenty-one and is industriously sowing seeds of wisdom for the future.

Tea and Coffee.

The attention of our reader is called to the new ad. of the Lexington Tea and Coffee Company, which appears to-day. Realizing that they can profit by speaking to the people of this section through the best medium in the county, they have taken space for the year.

Office Taken to Stanford.

Mr. Wallace Varmon, who succeeds Mr. P. F. Adams as general storekeeper-generals, will have his headquarters of this division at Stanford where he resides. Mr. Varmon assumed the duties of his office last week, and has transferred the records, papers, etc., to Stanford. He is still thankful that the post-office remains undisturbed and that the business will continue getting our mail as usual.

Kind Words.

Mrs. John M. Price, of Atchison, Kansas, in renewing her subscription, writes, "I find it impossible to do without the CLIMAX, and each week read with much interest, the contents of THE CLIMAX. I wish the paper and all connected with it this happy and prosperous new year." This is a sample of the scores of letters we receive from ex-Madisonians by which we are highly appreciated by THE CLIMAX.

Resigns from Confederate Home Committee.

Mr. L. P. Young, of Lexington, has resigned from the committee which has charge of the management of the home for the disabled Confederate veterans of the State. Mr. Young is one of a committee of twenty-five veterans, appointed by Gen. J. M. Poyntz, last November. In resigning he explained that he is not in favor of the plan as it has been proposed, and says that his plan which he will broach at some future time.

Sold Out.

The office furniture of the Ideal Realty and Guaranty Company was sold under the hammer last Wednesday morning to satisfy a judgment of court in favor of N. B. Deatherage, in the proceeds of the sale amounted to about $70. The default company was a home affair, and did a good business until a few months ago, when the opposition against such companies became so strong that they were unable to find resources to cover all indebtedness.

For the Good of All.

A special meeting of the City Council was held last Thursday night to discuss the proposition of appropriating the three thousand dollars to the L. & A. carshops. The meeting was largely attended by the prominent business men who are most interested in the city's welfare. After some discussion it was decided that the charter of the city would not allow the council to do so. The council will meet again on Monday, to vote on the matter. Every member of the council as well as every member in the house, favored the proposition, and the Mayor advised the council to consult the various lawyers of the town in regard to the matter, to see if an appropriation could be made legally. Before the house adjourned, the committee to see how much money could be raised by a public subscription. This committee went to work at once and has met with fair success. Every business enterprise of the city should be represented in this subscription as every one will be benefited by the business it brings to town.

Legislative Officers.

The Kentucky General Assembly was convened Tuesday noon. The Senate and House were organized without a hitch, and the following list of those who will serve in both Houses:

SENATE.
President pro tem—N. F. Utley, of Logan.
Chief Clerk—William Crowell, of Franklin.
Assistant Clerk—W. O. Jones, of Graves.
Sergeant-at-Arms—J. F. Swango, of Marshall.
Doorkeeper—John H. McWaters, of Marshall.
Enrolling Clerk—Miss Jennie McDonald, of Franklin.
Janitor—John L. Norris, of Garrard.
Clerk-room Keeper—Thomas Watson, of Graves.

HOUSE.
Speaker—Gerald T. Finn, of Simpson.
Clerk—James E. Stone, of Breckinridge.
Assistant Clerk—Gerrard H. Peters, of Hopkinsville.
Enrolling Clerk—Miss Amy Lyons, of Jessamine.
Sergeant-at-Arms—C. W. Longate, of Fayette.
Doorkeeper—W. A. Plunkett, of Owen.
Clerk-room Keeper and Assistant—Harris K. Alexander, of Mason, and Gaudin Sledge, of Warren.
Janitor—Walter Snodgrass, of Mercer.
Pages—James B. Knox, of Hancock; Charles M. Parrish, of Clark; John W. Monfort, of Franklin, and George S. Lawrence, of Trigg.

Struck Gas.

Mr. J. K. Worrell, who has met with great success in his efforts to find oil during the past year, returned from Cuba on Monday, where he had cured losses on several thousand acres of land. Mr. Worrell told the CLIMAX that he had just discovered one of the most promising gas fields he had ever seen and was expecting his company to take the matter up at once. The place is on White Oak, and has always been known as the "Boiling Spring." Although the existence of the spring has been well known for years, yet strange to say, it never occurred to anyone before that the property was valuable. As soon as Mr. Worrell heard of the spring, he was satisfied that it was near the surface. After probing around in the sand for a few minutes, he struck a match, and to his surprise a flame several feet high shot into the air. He had some trouble in extinguishing the flames and confining the gas, but he was able to get out a quantity of gas, which was sold at once. The property is on a tract of about five hundred acres, and was bought as soon as a trade could be made. After that lease was taken on six thousand acres, so that now the company controls a strip three miles wide. There is no doubt whatever in the minds of Mr. Worrell and his associates as to the success of their enterprise in East. They propose to construct a pipe line to Lexington and expect to be fully prepared to furnish gas for both cities on the route. At the mouth of White Oak, and on the route to Lexington, there are several wells, which are in a very perceptible way. Mr. Worrell, during the last few days, has received letters from promoters all over the country, who are desirous of coming into this new field.

PERSONAL.

Miss Ann Bennett is visiting friends in Cincinnati.

Ex-Mayor Claude Smith was in Irvine last week.

Miss Janie Feland visited friends in Lexington last week.

Miss Boone, of Louisville, is the guest of Miss Carlisle Walker.

Mr. Thomas H. Pickles spent Sunday with friends in Lexington.

Mrs. Lee Smitha has returned from a visit to friends in Lexington.

Miss Elizabeth Luxon, of Lexington, is the guest of Mrs. Wm. Luxon.

Miss Emily Chennault is visiting Miss Christine Bradley, in Lancaster.

Mr. H. G. McEveain has returned from a business trip to New York.

Capt. Joe Harris, of Beautyville, was in this city Thursday on business.

Mr. James P. Bush, of Winchester, is the guest of Mr. P. B. Broadbent.

Mrs. T. D. Chennault, Jr. is visiting Mrs. John B. Chennault, in Frankfort.

Prof. David Chennault, of Lexington, visited relatives in this city last week.

Mrs. C. E. Smith, of Lexington, was the guest of Miss Mollie Fie last week.

Mr. W. W. Hosson, of Virginia, is the guest of his son, Dr. V. H. Hobson.

Mr. William Denny, of Garrard county, spent Sunday with friends in the city.

Miss Mary Newton, of Layfayette, Tennessee, is visiting relatives in this city.

Miss Nettie B. Chennault is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Prewitt, on Third street.

Mrs. Harris, of Detroit, is visiting her son, Rev. Dr. Harris, on High street.

Little Rosie and Ethel Seifried visited Mrs. G. W. Gates Saturday at Silver Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Pigg are visiting the family of Mr. M. H. Pigg in Lexington.

Senator McCreary came up from Frankfort, Friday, to spend Sunday at home.

Hon. C. L. Searcy returned to Frankfort yesterday, after spending Sunday at home.

Mrs. Clark Kellogg has as her guest this week, Miss Annie Millard, of Lexington.

Miss Carlisle Chennault has returned from a visit to Miss Kit Chennault, in Lexington.

Rev. Dr. Harris is able to be out again after a severe illness of nearly three weeks.

Miss Mollie Warford, of Eminence, is the guest of Mrs. W. S. Pryor, on West Main street.

The friends of Mrs. Arch Dyer will be sorry to learn that she is very ill at her home near Kingston.

Mrs. John R. Pates and daughter have returned home after a pleasant visit to relatives in Versailles.

Miss Lottie Farris has returned to her home at Kirksville, after a visit to Mrs. Feland, at Lawrenceburg.

Miss Florie Chennault has returned from a visit of several weeks to Miss Vernon L. Jones in St. Louis.

Dr. Harry Blanton, of Richmond, was here Sunday to see one of our charming visitors—Central Record.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bennett will entertain at cards Friday evening, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Burnett.

Misses Berthenia McCord and Earle Chennault were in Lancaster, last week, the guests of Miss Florence Burnsides.

Misses Catherine and Pearl Ely have returned home after a pleasant visit with Miss Lettie Swearingen, on Oak street.

Misses Mabel and Ethel Swearingen have returned to their home in Sidney Ohio, their sister Miss Lettie, accompanying them so far as Cincinnati.

Mrs. T. D. Chennault, Miss Carlisle Chennault and Miss Mariah Lynn left yesterday for Victoria, Texas, where they will remain for several weeks.

Miss Bettie Taylor, who has been visiting Mrs. Vernon L. Beggs, in St. Louis for several weeks, returned by way of Lebanon, where she visited relatives.

Dr. and Mrs. Hobson entertained handsomely at cards last Friday evening. The prizes were won by Mrs. Smith and Mr. Joplin. Mr. Fred L. Grinstead won the guests prize.

Mr. and Mrs. James Bennett have returned from a two week's visit to Louisville, where Mr. Bennett was under the treatment of Dr. Cartledge. His friends are glad to hear of his great improvement in health.

Mr. Samuel C. Lowry, who graduated from Central University in 1892, visited his friends in the city, last week. Mr. Lowry has been practicing law in La Grange, Texas, for several years, and has been very successful in his profession, having recently been elected to the office of County Attorney.

Mr. S. Cardwell, of Louisville, passed the Civil Service examination at Chicago, last week, and has been notified that he will be appointed as second Lieutenant in the regular army. Mr. Cardwell was a popular student at Central University, four years ago, and his friends here will be glad to learn of his success. He left college to go to Cuba, in '98.

DEATHS.

McCLINTOCK.—Mr. Alexander McClintock, one of the most prominent citizens of Lexington, died suddenly at his home last Friday, aged sixty-eight. His wife and seven children survive one of whom is Rev. W. D. McClintock, formerly pastor of the Christian Church of this city, but who is now Dean of Chicago University.

In Memoriam.

Just as the old year had passed out and the new was in the full tide of its new bonny day, a soul winged its flight into the Great Beyond. In the death of Robert Lee Porter, Rockcastle and Clay county, have lost one of their most beloved and valued citizens. Although young in years, being only twenty-six, he was well qualified to hold any position, and at the time of his death was associated with Judge J. C. Chennault of Richmond, Ky., who conducts a general merchandise store at this place. Mr. Porter was born and reared to young manhood in Clay county. He entered the academy at Mt. Vernon where he graduated with high honors. After finishing a most successful school for one term, he was engaged as clerk by George T. Johnson at Bush Creek, which position he retained until Judge Chennault bought out Mr. Johnson in June 1901. Nor was he then forced to seek new fields. For Mr. Chennault having been notified of Robert Lee Porter, Rockcastle and Clay county, had lost one of their most beloved and valued citizens. Although young in years, being only twenty-six, he was well qualified to hold any position, and at the time of his death was associated with Judge J. C. Chennault of Richmond, Ky., who conducts a general merchandise store at this place. Mr. Porter was born and reared to young manhood in Clay county. He entered the academy at Mt. Vernon where he graduated with high honors. After finishing a most successful school for one term, he was engaged as clerk by George T. Johnson at Bush Creek, which position he retained until Judge Chennault bought out Mr. Johnson in June 1901. Nor was he then forced to seek new fields. For Mr. Chennault having been notified of Robert Lee Porter, Rockcastle and Clay county, had lost one of their most beloved and valued citizens. Although young in years, being only twenty-six, he was well qualified to hold any position, and at the time of his death was associated with Judge J. C. Chennault of Richmond, Ky., who conducts a general merchandise store at this place. Mr. Porter was born and reared to young manhood in Clay county. He entered the academy at Mt. Vernon where he graduated with high honors. After finishing a most successful school for one term, he was engaged as clerk by George T. Johnson at Bush Creek, which position he retained until Judge Chennault bought out Mr. Johnson in June 1901. Nor was he then forced to seek new fields. For Mr. Chennault having been notified of Robert Lee Porter, Rockcastle and Clay county, had lost one of their most beloved and valued citizens. Although young in years, being only twenty-six, he was well qualified to hold any position, and at the time of his death was associated with Judge J. C. Chennault of Richmond, Ky., who conducts a general merchandise store at this place. Mr. Porter was born and reared to young manhood in Clay county. He entered the academy at Mt. Vernon where he graduated with high honors. After finishing a most successful school for one term, he was engaged as clerk by George T. Johnson at Bush Creek, which position he retained until Judge Chennault bought out Mr. Johnson in June 1901. Nor was he then forced to seek new fields. For Mr. Chennault having been notified of Robert Lee Porter, Rockcastle and Clay county, had lost one of their most beloved and valued citizens. Although young in years, being only twenty-six, he was well qualified to hold any position, and at the time of his death was associated with Judge J. C. Chennault of Richmond, Ky., who conducts a general merchandise store at this place. Mr. Porter was born and reared to young manhood in Clay county. He entered the academy at Mt. Vernon where he graduated with high honors. After finishing a most successful school for one term, he was engaged as clerk by George T. Johnson at Bush Creek, which position he retained until Judge Chennault bought out Mr. Johnson in June 1901. Nor was he then forced to seek new fields. For Mr. Chennault having been notified of Robert Lee Porter, Rockcastle and Clay county, had lost one of their most beloved and valued citizens. Although young in years, being only twenty-six, he was well qualified to hold any position, and at the time of his death was associated with Judge J. C. Chennault of Richmond, Ky., who conducts a general merchandise store at this place. Mr. Porter was born and reared to young manhood in Clay county. He entered the academy at Mt. Vernon where he graduated with high honors. After finishing a most successful school for one term, he was engaged as clerk by George T. Johnson at Bush Creek, which position he retained until Judge Chennault bought out Mr. Johnson in June 1901. Nor was he then forced to seek new fields. For Mr. Chennault having been notified of Robert Lee Porter, Rockcastle and Clay county, had lost one of their most beloved and valued citizens. Although young in years, being only twenty-six, he was well qualified to hold any position, and at the time of his death was associated with Judge J. C. Chennault of Richmond, Ky., who conducts a general merchandise store at this place. Mr. Porter was born and reared to young manhood in Clay county. He entered the academy at Mt. Vernon where he graduated with high honors. After finishing a most successful school for one term, he was engaged as clerk by George T. Johnson at Bush Creek, which position he retained until Judge Chennault bought out Mr. Johnson in June 1901. Nor was he then forced to seek new fields. For Mr. Chennault having been notified of Robert Lee Porter, Rockcastle and Clay county, had lost one of their most beloved and valued citizens. Although young in years, being only twenty-six, he was well qualified to hold any position, and at the time of his death was associated with Judge J. C. Chennault of Richmond, Ky., who conducts a general merchandise store at this place. Mr. Porter was born and reared to young manhood in Clay county. He entered the academy at Mt. Vernon where he graduated with high honors. After finishing a most successful school for one term, he was engaged as clerk by George T. Johnson at Bush Creek, which position he retained until Judge Chennault bought out Mr. Johnson in June 1901. Nor was he then forced to seek new fields. For Mr. Chennault having been notified of Robert Lee Porter, Rockcastle and Clay county, had lost one of their most beloved and valued citizens. Although young in years, being only twenty-six, he was well qualified to hold any position, and at the time of his death was associated with Judge J. C. Chennault of Richmond, Ky., who conducts a general merchandise store at this place. Mr. Porter was born and reared to young manhood in Clay county. He entered the academy at Mt. Vernon where he graduated with high honors. After finishing a most successful school for one term, he was engaged as clerk by George T. Johnson at Bush Creek, which position he retained until Judge Chennault bought out Mr. Johnson in June 1901. Nor was he then forced to seek new fields. For Mr. Chennault having been notified of Robert Lee Porter, Rockcastle and Clay county, had lost one of their most beloved and valued citizens. Although young in years, being only twenty-six, he was well qualified to hold any position, and at the time of his death was associated with Judge J. C. Chennault of Richmond, Ky., who conducts a general merchandise store at this place. Mr. Porter was born and reared to young manhood in Clay county. He entered the academy at Mt. Vernon where he graduated with high honors. After finishing a most successful school for one term, he was engaged as clerk by George T. Johnson at Bush Creek, which position he retained until Judge Chennault bought out Mr. Johnson in June 1901. Nor was he then forced to seek new fields. For Mr. Chennault having been notified of Robert Lee Porter, Rockcastle and Clay county, had lost one of their most beloved and valued citizens. Although young in years, being only twenty-six, he was well qualified to hold any position, and at the time of his death was associated with Judge J. C. Chennault of Richmond, Ky., who conducts a general merchandise store at this place. Mr. Porter was born and reared to young manhood in Clay county. He entered the academy at Mt. Vernon where he graduated with high honors. After finishing a most successful school for one term, he was engaged as clerk by George T. Johnson at Bush Creek, which position he retained until Judge Chennault bought out Mr. Johnson in June 1901. Nor was he then forced to seek new fields. For Mr. Chennault having been notified of Robert Lee Porter, Rockcastle and Clay county, had lost one of their most beloved and valued citizens. Although young in years, being only twenty-six, he was well qualified to hold any position, and at the time of his death was associated with Judge J. C. Chennault of Richmond, Ky., who conducts a general merchandise store at this place. Mr. Porter was born and reared to young manhood in Clay county. He entered the academy at Mt. Vernon where he graduated with high honors. After finishing a most successful school for one term, he was engaged as clerk by George T. Johnson at Bush Creek, which position he retained until Judge Chennault bought out Mr. Johnson in June 1901. Nor was he then forced to seek new fields. For Mr. Chennault having been notified of Robert Lee Porter, Rockcastle and Clay county, had lost one of their most beloved and valued citizens. Although young in years, being only twenty-six, he was well qualified to hold any position, and at the time of his death was associated with Judge J. C. Chennault of Richmond, Ky., who conducts a general merchandise store at this place. Mr. Porter was born and reared to young manhood in Clay county. He entered the academy at Mt. Vernon where he graduated with high honors. After finishing a most successful school for one term, he was engaged as clerk by George T. Johnson at Bush Creek, which position he retained until Judge Chennault bought out Mr. Johnson in June 1901. Nor was he then forced to seek new fields. For Mr. Chennault having been notified of Robert Lee Porter, Rockcastle and Clay county, had lost one of their most beloved and valued citizens. Although young in years, being only twenty-six, he was well qualified to hold any position, and at the time of his death was associated with Judge J. C. Chennault of Richmond, Ky., who conducts a general merchandise store at this place. Mr. Porter was born and reared to young manhood in Clay county. He entered the academy at Mt. Vernon where he graduated with high honors. After finishing a most successful school for one term, he was engaged as clerk by George T. Johnson at Bush Creek, which position he retained until Judge Chennault bought out Mr. Johnson in June 1901. Nor was he then forced to seek new fields. For Mr. Chennault having been notified of Robert Lee Porter, Rockcastle and Clay county, had lost one of their most beloved and valued citizens. Although young in years, being only twenty-six, he was well qualified to hold any position, and at the time of his death was associated with Judge J. C. Chennault of Richmond, Ky., who conducts a general merchandise store at this place. Mr. Porter was born and reared to young manhood in Clay county. He entered the academy at Mt. Vernon where he graduated with high honors. After finishing a most successful school for one term, he was engaged as clerk by George T. Johnson at Bush Creek, which position he retained until Judge Chennault bought out Mr. Johnson in June 1901. Nor was he then forced to seek new fields. For Mr. Chennault having been notified of Robert Lee Porter, Rockcastle and Clay county, had lost one of their most beloved and valued citizens. Although young in years, being only twenty-six, he was well qualified to hold any position, and at the time of his death was associated with Judge J. C. Chennault of Richmond, Ky., who conducts a general merchandise store at this place. Mr. Porter was born and reared to young manhood in Clay county. He entered the academy at Mt. Vernon where he graduated with high honors. After finishing a most successful school for one term, he was engaged as clerk by George T. Johnson at Bush Creek, which position he retained until Judge Chennault bought out Mr. Johnson in June 1901. Nor was he then forced to seek new fields. For Mr. Chennault having been notified of Robert Lee Porter, Rockcastle and Clay county, had lost one of their most beloved and valued citizens. Although young in years, being only twenty-six, he was well qualified to hold any position, and at the time of his death was associated with Judge J. C. Chennault of Richmond, Ky., who conducts a general merchandise store at this place. Mr. Porter was born and reared to young manhood in Clay county. He entered the academy at Mt. Vernon where he graduated with high honors. After finishing a most successful school for one term, he was engaged as clerk by George T. Johnson at Bush Creek, which position he retained until Judge Chennault bought out Mr. Johnson in June 1901. Nor was he then forced to seek new fields. For Mr. Chennault having been notified of Robert Lee Porter, Rockcastle and Clay county, had lost one of their most beloved and valued citizens. Although young in years, being only twenty-six, he was well qualified to hold any position, and at the time of his death was associated with Judge J. C. Chennault of Richmond, Ky., who conducts a general merchandise store at this place. Mr. Porter was born and reared to young manhood in Clay county. He entered the academy at Mt. Vernon where he graduated with high honors. After finishing a most successful school for one term, he was engaged as clerk by George T. Johnson at Bush Creek, which position he retained until Judge Chennault bought out Mr. Johnson in June 1901. Nor was he then forced to seek new fields. For Mr. Chennault having been notified of Robert Lee Porter, Rockcastle and Clay county, had lost one of their most beloved and valued citizens. Although young in years, being only twenty-six, he was well qualified to hold any position, and at the time of his death was associated with Judge J. C. Chennault of Richmond, Ky., who conducts a general merchandise store at this place. Mr. Porter was born and reared to young manhood in Clay county. He entered the academy at Mt. Vernon where he graduated with high honors. After finishing a most successful school for one term, he was engaged as clerk by George T. Johnson at Bush Creek, which position he retained until Judge Chennault bought out Mr. Johnson in June 1901. Nor was he then forced to seek new fields. For Mr. Chennault having been notified of Robert Lee Porter, Rockcastle and Clay county, had lost one of their most beloved and valued citizens. Although young in years, being only twenty-six, he was well qualified to hold any position, and at the time of his death was associated with Judge J. C. Chennault of Richmond, Ky., who conducts a general merchandise store at this place. Mr. Porter was born and reared to young manhood in Clay county. He entered the academy at Mt. Vernon where he graduated with high honors. After finishing a most successful school for one term, he was engaged as clerk by George T. Johnson at Bush Creek, which position he retained until Judge Chennault bought out Mr. Johnson in June 1901. Nor was he then forced to seek new fields. For Mr. Chennault having been notified of Robert Lee Porter, Rockcastle and Clay county, had lost one of their most beloved and valued citizens. Although young in years, being only twenty-six, he was well qualified to hold any position, and at the time of his death was associated with Judge J. C. Chennault of Richmond, Ky., who conducts a general merchandise store at this place. Mr. Porter was born and reared to young manhood in Clay county. He entered the academy at Mt. Vernon where he graduated with high honors. After finishing a most successful school for one term, he was engaged as clerk by George T. Johnson at Bush Creek, which position he retained until Judge Chennault bought out Mr. Johnson in June 1901. Nor was he then forced to seek new fields. For Mr. Chennault having been notified of Robert Lee Porter, Rockcastle and Clay county, had lost one of their most beloved and valued citizens. Although young in years, being only twenty-six, he was well qualified to hold any position, and at the time of his death was associated with Judge J. C. Chennault of Richmond, Ky., who conducts a general merchandise store at this place. Mr. Porter was born and reared to young manhood in Clay county. He entered the academy at Mt. Vernon where he graduated with high honors. After finishing a most successful school for one term, he was engaged as clerk by George T. Johnson at Bush Creek, which position he retained until Judge Chennault bought out Mr. Johnson in June 1901. Nor was he then forced to seek new fields. For Mr. Chennault having been notified of Robert Lee Porter, Rockcastle and Clay county, had lost one of their most beloved and valued citizens. Although young in years, being only twenty-six, he was well qualified to hold any position, and at the time of his death was associated with Judge J. C. Chennault of Richmond, Ky., who conducts a general merchandise store at this place. Mr. Porter was born and reared to young manhood in Clay county. He entered the academy at Mt. Vernon where he graduated with high honors. After finishing a most successful school for one term, he was engaged as clerk by George T. Johnson at Bush Creek, which position he retained until Judge Chennault bought out Mr. Johnson in June 1901. Nor was he then forced to seek new fields. For Mr. Chennault having been notified of Robert Lee Porter, Rockcastle and Clay county, had lost one of their most beloved and valued citizens. Although young in years, being only twenty-six, he was well qualified to hold any position, and at the time of his death was associated with Judge J. C. Chennault of Richmond, Ky., who conducts a general merchandise store at this place. Mr. Porter was born and reared to young manhood in Clay county. He entered the academy at Mt. Vernon where he graduated with high honors. After finishing a most successful school for one term, he was engaged as clerk by George T. Johnson at Bush Creek, which position he retained until Judge Chennault bought out Mr. Johnson in June 1901. Nor was he then forced to seek new fields. For Mr. Chennault having been notified of Robert Lee Porter, Rockcastle and Clay county, had lost one of their most beloved and valued citizens. Although young in years, being only twenty-six, he was well qualified to hold any position, and at the time of his death was associated with Judge J. C. Chennault of Richmond, Ky., who conducts a general merchandise store at this place. Mr. Porter was born and reared to young manhood in Clay county. He entered the academy at Mt. Vernon where he graduated with high honors. After finishing a most successful school for one term, he was engaged as clerk by George T. Johnson at Bush Creek, which position he retained until Judge Chennault bought out Mr. Johnson in June 1901. Nor was he then forced to seek new fields. For Mr. Chennault having been notified of Robert Lee Porter, Rockcastle and Clay county, had lost one of their most beloved and valued citizens. Although young in years, being only twenty-six, he was well qualified to hold any position, and at the time of his death was associated with Judge J. C. Chennault of Richmond, Ky., who conducts a general merchandise store at this place. Mr. Porter was born and reared to young manhood in Clay county. He entered the academy at Mt. Vernon where he graduated with high honors. After finishing a most successful school for one term, he was engaged as clerk by George T. Johnson at Bush Creek, which position he retained until Judge Chennault bought out Mr. Johnson in June 1901. Nor was he then forced to seek new fields. For Mr. Chennault having been notified of Robert Lee Porter, Rockcastle and Clay county, had lost one of their most beloved and valued citizens. Although young in years, being only twenty-six, he was well qualified to hold any position, and at the time of his death was associated with Judge J. C. Chennault of Richmond, Ky., who conducts a general merchandise store at this place. Mr. Porter was born and reared to young manhood in Clay county. He entered the academy at Mt. Vernon where he graduated with high honors. After finishing a most successful school for one term, he was engaged as clerk by George T. Johnson at Bush Creek, which position he retained until Judge Chennault bought out Mr. Johnson in June 1901. Nor was he then forced to seek new fields. For Mr. Chennault having been notified of Robert Lee Porter, Rockcastle and Clay county, had lost one of their most beloved and valued citizens. Although young in years, being only twenty-six, he was well qualified to hold any position, and at the time of his death was associated with Judge J. C. Chennault of Richmond, Ky., who conducts a general merchandise store at this place. Mr. Porter was born and reared to young manhood in Clay county. He entered the academy at Mt. Vernon where he graduated with high honors. After finishing a most successful school for one term, he was engaged as clerk by George T. Johnson at Bush Creek, which position he retained until Judge Chennault bought out Mr. Johnson in June 1901. Nor was he then forced to seek new fields. For Mr. Chennault having been notified of Robert Lee Porter, Rockcastle and Clay county, had lost one of their most beloved and valued citizens. Although young in years, being only twenty-six, he was well qualified to hold any position, and at the time of his death was associated with Judge J. C. Chennault of Richmond, Ky., who conducts a general merchandise store at this place. Mr. Porter was born and reared to young manhood in Clay county. He entered the academy at Mt. Vernon where he graduated with high honors. After finishing a most successful school for one term, he was engaged as clerk by George T. Johnson at Bush Creek, which position he retained until Judge Chennault bought out Mr. Johnson in June 1901. Nor was he then forced to seek new fields. For Mr. Chennault having been notified of Robert Lee Porter, Rockcastle and Clay county, had lost one of their most beloved and valued citizens. Although young in years, being only twenty-six, he was well qualified to hold any position, and at the time of his death was associated with Judge J. C. Chennault of Richmond, Ky., who conducts a general merchandise store at this place. Mr. Porter was born and reared to young manhood in Clay county. He entered the academy at Mt. Vernon where he graduated with high honors. After finishing a most successful school for one term, he was engaged as clerk by George T. Johnson at Bush Creek, which position he retained until Judge Chennault bought out Mr. Johnson in June 1901. Nor was he then forced to seek new fields. For Mr. Chennault having been notified of Robert Lee Porter, Rockcastle and Clay county, had lost one of their most beloved and valued citizens. Although young in years, being only twenty-six, he was well qualified to hold any position, and at the time of his death was associated with Judge J. C. Chennault of Richmond, Ky., who conducts a general merchandise store at this place. Mr. Porter was born and reared to young manhood in Clay county. He entered the academy at Mt. Vernon where he graduated with high honors. After finishing a most successful school for one term, he was engaged as clerk by George T. Johnson at Bush Creek, which position he retained until Judge Chennault bought out Mr. Johnson in June 1901. Nor was he then forced to seek new fields. For Mr. Chennault having been notified of Robert Lee Porter, Rockcastle and Clay county, had lost one of their most beloved and valued citizens. Although young in years, being only twenty-six, he was well qualified to hold any position, and at the time of his death was associated with Judge J. C. Chennault of Richmond, Ky., who conducts a general merchandise store at this place. Mr. Porter was born and reared to young manhood in Clay county. He entered the academy at Mt. Vernon where he graduated with high honors. After finishing a most successful school for one term, he was engaged as clerk by George T. Johnson at Bush Creek, which position he retained until Judge Chennault bought out Mr. Johnson in June 1901. Nor was he then forced to seek new fields. For Mr. Chennault having been notified of Robert Lee Porter, Rockcastle and Clay county, had lost one of their most beloved and valued citizens. Although young in years, being only twenty-six, he was well qualified to hold any position, and at the time of his death was associated with Judge J. C. Chennault of Richmond, Ky., who conducts a general merchandise store at this place. Mr. Porter was born and reared to young manhood in Clay county. He entered the academy at Mt. Vernon where he graduated with high honors. After finishing a most successful school for one term, he was engaged as clerk by George T. Johnson at Bush Creek, which position he retained until Judge Chennault bought out Mr. Johnson in June 1901. Nor was he then forced to seek new fields. For Mr. Chennault having been notified of Robert Lee Porter, Rockcastle and Clay county, had lost one of their most beloved and valued citizens. Although young in years, being only twenty-six, he was well qualified to hold any position, and at the time of his death was associated with Judge J. C. Chennault of Richmond, Ky., who conducts a general merchandise store at this place. Mr. Porter was born and reared to young manhood in Clay county. He entered the academy at Mt. Vernon where he graduated with high honors. After finishing a most successful school for one term, he was engaged as clerk by George T. Johnson at Bush Creek, which position he retained until Judge Chennault bought out Mr. Johnson in June 1901. Nor was he then forced to seek new fields. For Mr. Chennault having been notified of Robert Lee Porter, Rockcastle and Clay county, had lost one of their most beloved and valued citizens. Although young in years, being only twenty-six, he was well qualified to hold any position, and at the time of his death was associated with Judge J. C. Chennault of Richmond, Ky., who conducts a general merchandise store at this place. Mr. Porter was born and reared to young manhood in Clay county. He entered the academy at Mt. Vernon where he graduated with high honors. After finishing a most successful school for one term, he was engaged as clerk by George T. Johnson at Bush Creek, which position he retained until Judge Chennault bought out Mr. Johnson in June 1901. Nor was he then forced to seek new fields. For Mr. Chennault having been notified of Robert Lee Porter, Rockcastle and Clay county, had lost one of their most beloved and valued citizens. Although young in