Mr. J. Speed Smith, Jr., and Miss Margaretta Smith will reach here tomorrow from Washington to spend July with Mrs. J. Speed Smith. They will bring with them Miss Estill Gulick, who will be their guest for several weeks.

The Mt Sterling Democrat, in mentioning the guests who attended the Sterling hop in that city recently, had the following to say of two Richmond girls: Miss Sara White, of Richmond, one of the handsomest and loveliest of Kentucky's daughter, miss Margaret White, of Richmond, a lovely girl and most graceful dancer.

Miss Minnie Dwyke who spent the month of June most delightfully with Mr. W. D. Oldham, in Lexington, returned last Friday to spend a few days with home folks. She left yesterday for New York, where she will study during July and August at the DeKoven school of music, returning in time to resume her class the second Monday in September.

Pres. and Mrs. Frost left early this morning for New York City, where on next Tuesday they will sail on a ship of the Cunard Line for Liverpool, England. From there they will go north through the Lake District to Glasgow, Scotland, and then will go south through York, visiting Bedford, the home of John Bunyan, the author of "Pilgrim's Progress," and Epworth the home of the Wesleys. From there they will go to Scrooby, whence the Pilgrim Fathers set sail for America, then to London and Liverpool, sailing for Montreal, Canada on August 25, and reaching Berea in time for the opening of the Fall Term.

Mrs. R. E. Coleman and Mrs. Rosser received their friends Tuesday afternoon, to meet their guests, Mrs. J. Hamilton Browning, Miss Marie Keller and Miss Carrie Beckham, of Virginia, and Mrs. Corzelius and Miss Moberly, of Richmond, Ky. Between the hours of three and six nearly a hundred ladies called and enjoyed their cordial hospitality. The decorations were lilies, palms and ferns with great bowls of fragrant beautiful sweet peas everywhere. Elegant refreshments were served. Misses Margaret Moberly and Wyndham Rosser dispersed Sappho punch and Misses Alexander and Tabetta Cardwell presided at the coffee table.—Harrodsburg Herald.

The wedding of Mr. J. C. Rucker, and Miss Fannie Shugars occurred Thursday evening at Newport. Rev. Leoidas Robinson officiating. The bride has a very expressive face and was handsome in a blue tailored gown with gloves and hat to match. She is a daughter of Judge William Shugars and is a universal favorite and one of our most popular young women. The groom is a well-known young business man and a fine fellow. He is L. & N. agent at Ford, Ky. Mr. and Mrs. Rucker left immediately for several weeks trip to St. Louis and California and on their return they will reside at Ford. A host of friends wish the bride and groom every possible happiness.—Central Record.

Mr. Edwin, of Lexington, has returned home after spending several days with Mrs. G. G. Frewitt.

to Mr. John Rucker the popular engineer at Lake Reba.

Society among the younger set has been unusually gay during the last two weeks, since the return from school, of so many members of this set, who together with quite an influx of visitors, have made things lively. A number of beautiful dances and parties have been given, the last one being on last Friday night, when Miss Florrie Rayburn entertained at her home in the Eastern part of the city. The old fashioned house is well suited and arranged for dancing and the young people entered into the spirit of the dance with such vim and merriment that the time passed all too quickly. Delicious refreshments were served and the occasion will dwell long in the memories of all present. Miss Rayburn is an ideal hostess which fact added much to the pleasure of her guests. Among the guests of the evening were: Misses, Pendleton, Hodgkin and Haggard of Winchester, Misses Fannie and Bessie Sparks of Mt. Vernon, Miss Margaret Ballard, of Lexington, and Messrs. Edwin Oldham of Lexington and Pendleton of Winchester.

Mrs. March Clark Kellogg at home Tuesday, June 28th from 3 to 6

The above card was an invitation to one of the handsomest receptions that has marked the social calendar this season. The elegant new Kellogg home on the "Summit" is well suited for entertaining with its spacious hall, parlors, etc., and never did it look lovelier than on yesterday afternoon. It had been converted into a beautiful flower garden. The mantels, plate shelves, chandeliers, stairway and every available place being banked with flowers, the principle decorations being nasturtiums and sweet peas, although grapes hung effectively over the chandeliers and trumpet vines and tiger lilies formed a beautiful second to the dainty blooms of the sweet pea and nasturtiums. Besides the hostess in the receiving line were, Mrs. R. C. Morgan, of Lexington, miss Ida Fisher, of Pittsburgh, Penn., Mesdames T. J. Smith, Jr., L. R. Blanton and J. T. Shackelford, of this city. Others who assisted in entertaining were, Misses Sarah and Mary Shackelford, Olivia Baldwin, Mattie Letcher, and Anne Bennett, while Misses Mary Barrett Smith, Mary Bates Shackelford and Gladys Perry presided at the punch bowl which was arranged in a cozy nook on the front porch. During the afternoon delicious refreshments consisting of substantial and ices were served. The affair was perfect in every detail and only adds another brilliant social event to the already long list for which Richmond is noted, and it will be a pleasant memory to all who attended.

Public Sale
Of Splendid
Blue Grass Farm
At White Hall, Ky
JULY 20, 1904

The fine Blue Grass Farm of Samuel Bennett, deceased, will be sold on the premises at White Hall, Kentucky, Wednesday, July 20, at or about 10 o'clock a. m. The place contains about three hundred acres, all in a high state of cultivation, and is one of the finest farms in the State. It is located on the Richmond and Lexington turnpike, six miles north of Richmond and twenty miles south of Lexington; it is three miles west of the L. & N. depot at Red House and four miles east of Millton on the L. & A. R. R. and directly on the projected Interstate Electric Road from Richmond to Lexington. There is on the farm an

of fourteen rooms, besides halls, porches and portico with six room dry cellar under it, well adapted for keeping fruits, vegetables and flowers in the winter; an ice house on the bank of a pond, that keeps ice all the year round; a carriage house, a servants house, etc.

The neighborhood is exceptionally fine, and there are two country stores and three brick churches, all quite convenient. There are at present forty acres of corn and forty acres in good timothy meadow, second year growth, and about two hundred and twenty a res in fine blue grass soil very standing on the farm. The fencing is good and stock water abundant and never failing. There is a fine young orchard, selected by H. H. Meyer of one hundred apple trees, besides cherries, plums, pears and strawberries. Possession given on or before November 1, 1904. The usual selling privileges will be granted the purchaser. Terms liberal and made known on day of sale. This farm should be seen to be appreciated. Visitors will be shown every courtesy, and further information that may be wanted can be obtained from

222 South Peoria St.,
Chicago, Ill., Oct. 7, 1902.

Eight months ago I was so ill that I was compelled to lie on my back nearly all the time. My stomach was so weak and upset that I could keep nothing on it and I vomited frequently. I could not urinate without great pain and I coughed so much that my throat and lungs were raw and sore. The doctors pronounced it Bright's disease and announced it Bright's disease and others said it was consumption. It mattered little to me what they called it and I had no desire to live. A sister visited me from St. Louis and asked me if I had ever tried Wine of Cardui. I told her I had not and she bought a bottle. I believe that it saved my life. I believe many women could save much suffering if they but knew of its value.

Don't you want freedom from pain? Take Wine of Cardui and make one supreme effort to be well. You do not need to be a weak, helpless sufferer. You can have a woman's health and do a woman's work in life. Why not acquire a bottle of Wine of Cardui from your druggist today?
