

The Woman Who's Hard to Please

Just send them to us for we select our goods for the fastidious women—the one's other merchants find hardest to please. As to our we have the newest diagonal weave in all colors from 89c to $1.98 per yard. Our FOULARDS are the choice of the season's silks. Handsome patterns and all shades from 89c to $1.79 per yard.

Dress Goods

Beautiful Swiss Embroideries

in white and colors at all prices. MUSLIN UNDERWEAR—the prettiest and cheapest in town. Wash Materials and Novelties. Look at our

Ready-made Waists and Skirts

All styles and prices

Owen McKee

See Our Bargain Counter

Butterick Patterns

ter Record.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry R. Hanger spent several days last week in Cincinnati, Mr. Hanger being enroute to New York on a business trip. Recently Mr. and Mrs. Hanger entertained with a box party to see Olga Netherole, at the Lexington opera house. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Warfield Bennett and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Smith. This was followed by a lovely dinner party at the Hanger's elegant suburban home, Arlington. It is interesting to know that in this beautiful home there is to be a grandfather's clock of great artistic value, selected by the owners with much care. The case is of solid mahogany, with a mechanism producing both the Westminster and Whittington chimes. The Westminster is taken from a movement of the fifth bar of the opening of Handel's symphony, and the Whittington is taken from the first movement of the same work. These chimes are reproduced on a larger scale in the Victoria clock tower of the House of Parliament. The chimes are tuned also to the beautiful words, so familiar to all within hearing of the bells.

Revival at Baptist Church.

A revival will begin at the Baptist church Saturday night. The pastor, Dr. C. C. Marshall, will be assisted by Rev. T. N. Campbell, of Owensboro, a gifted speaker. The public is cordially invited to attend these services.

In Session.

The Daviess District Conference is in session this week at the Methodist church and a great many visiting delegates are in our midst. Each day at 11 and again at 7:30 p. m., regular preaching is conducted and during the day there are discussions of doctrinal periods, reports, etc. The public is cordially invited to all of the exercises, which will prove beneficial to all. The home people are looking after the comfort and welfare of the guests. The noon meal is being served each day by that expert caterer, Bertie Little, in the Elks Club rooms, and as on all former occasions, the reputation of Richmond's hospitality is being upheld.

Kentucky The First.

Kentucky is the first State in the Union to employ the services of a Field Secretary in the fight against tuberculosis. Mr. Eugene Kermer, of New York, who has had wide experience in such work, has his headquarters in Louisville, and his duties will be such as gathering information regarding the situation in this State, to ascertain from death records, the death rate from the white plague. He will also check in each photograph typen house and factory conditions in various parts of the State which are a factor in producing the disease. Mr. Kermer will try to organize local Anti-tuberculosis Associations to affiliate with the State organization and nothing will be left undone in this fight against the disease. There is something every citizen should be interested in and Mr. Kermer invites correspondence from all persons interested in the stamping out of tuberculosis. His address is 215 E. Walnut street, Louisville, Ky.

DEATHS.

Dr. J. T. Lapsley, aged ninety-two years, and one of the best known Presbyterian ministers in the state died Monday at his home in Danville.

Big Cattle Deal.

A press dispatch from Lebanon says: Probably the largest deal in this section of this kind that has ever been made, was consummated a day or two ago when Fox, O'Daniel & Co., of this city, sold to R. S. Starns & Sons, of New York, 300 head of cattle, which the local firm has been steadily working until the end of the year. The cattle will be shipped to New York in two special trains, the first will leave here next Thursday. The average weight of the cattle was 1,200 pounds, and the purchase price was $7 per hundred pounds. All the cattle were bought in Marion and Washington counties last fall at 4 to 4 1/2 cents.

Ruthlon

Mr. and Mrs. White and children spent Saturday and Sunday with Messrs. Foley and Lewis near Kingston.

Madison Institute Daughters To Enjoy Reunion.

A meeting of the Alumnae Association of Madison Institute was held Saturday afternoon at which time arrangements were commenced for the regular bi-annual Alumnae celebration. May 19 was selected as the date and an elegant luncheon will be served in the afternoon, and it goes without saying that, judging by past records, it will be a feast of good things. The officers elected were as follows: Miss Anne DeWitt, President; Mrs. Corrie Clay, 1st Vice President; Mrs. A. R. Bernam, 2nd Vice President; Mrs. Thomas Phelps, 3rd Vice President; Miss Jessie Miller, Corresponding Secretary; Mrs. George Phelps, Recording Secretary and Mrs. J. M. Foster, Treasurer. The President appointed the following committees to look after the details of the luncheon: Program, Mrs. George Phelps, Miss Lucia Bernam, Miss Mary Tribble, Decorations, Mrs. S. P. Deatherage, Miss Marianne Collier, Miss Dudley Doty, Miss Kate Collier, Menu, Mrs. A. D. Miller, Mrs. Bessie Turley, Miss Kate Douglas, Mrs. Elmer Tate, Mrs. A. D. Miller, Miss Jessie Miller, Miss Miriam Noland, Mrs. A. R. Bernam was appointed toast mistress and this year's reunion and luncheon promises to be the most brilliant in the history of Madison Institute. It is hoped that a large number of members will be present.

Right in Style Right in Quality Right in Price

Rice & Arnold

TRY OUR LAUNDRY ONE PRICE HOUSE

Blue Grass League Opens May 5.

All lovers of good, clean athletics in this county are greatly interested in the opening of the Blue Grass Ball League in this city, on Thursday, May 5. The opposing teams for the opening game will be Richmond and Winchester, which fought each other last year's pennant, and the old fight will be taken up where it was left off last season. Both teams have been greatly strengthened, and the best of last year's material being retained and the weak places have been filled by men of high class. Winchester will have the famous pitchers, Barney and Burden, as well as fielders, Taylor, Schmidt, Ellis and others. They have recently purchased from the Louisville American Association a splendid infielder in Callahan.

He Needed It.

A traveling man told a Southern Kentucky editor one of his experiences the other day. He said he was riding in a smoking car of an express train, when a man rushed in from the car behind the smoker evidently in great agitation, and said: "Has anybody in the car any whiskey? A woman in the car behind has fainted." Instantly a dozen flasks were produced. The man who had asked for it picked out the largest one, drew the cork and put the bottle to his lips. With a long, satisfied sigh he handed it back and remarked: "That did me a lot of good. I needed it, for it always makes me feel so queer to see a woman faint."

True As Gospel.

Did you ever think it? Suppose every business man in the city took as much interest in the upbuilding of a city as a newspaper man. He works for railroads, manufacturers, better roads, churches, good streets and a hundred and one other good things for the general good of the city, never makes badgers and carvers around generally until he gets what he sets out for. Imagine his feelings then, when some fellow comes along and nine times out of ten that same fellow has never paid one cent toward supporting the paper and the paper he reads with marked regularity is either borrowed from his neighbor or picked up from the counter at the store at which he trades.—Breathitt County News.

Fault Finders.

This is a splendid world and this is a splendid age of the world, and instead of denouncing it you had better get down on your knees and thank God that you live now. And yet in this agreeable world there are a great many people who persist in seeing faults in everything. There is the fault finder. Sometimes he joins a church, and the church has its hands full. He criticizes everything. Wishes the minister would preach so long. Thinks he's too argumentative and so dialectic. Is dissatisfied with the choir and disposed to pick flaws in the financial arrangements. He sighs, groans, grumbles and whines all the way up to heaven. He frets and stews and stings himself and others. He is like a porcupine—all quills; like a crowfoot—always going backward; and we don't see for the life of us how he will ever get to heaven unless he goes in that same way, most likely he will stop at the gate to pick a quarrel with Saint Peter. When he is fairly inside we are afraid he won't enjoy it. The singing will be pitched too high, the exercises dull, the services too long. We shouldn't wonder at all if he spent the first century of torturing squinting at the wall to see if it was crooked all right.

Plea For The Operator.

When the girl at "Central" says "busy", don't tell yourself he worked into a fret and a sweat, don't tell her in language all freckled with fire, you think she's quite a near approach to a liar. Don't paw at the carpet, don't chew at the rag, nor roar as a bull when it sees a red flag, nor tell her in voicing that paints the air red, you'll have her in manured ere the sun goes to bed, but turn round in sugar, marshmallow words, 'till fall on her ear as the carol of birds to please ring you up when the line is at rest, and she raises the party of whom you're in quest, and when she replies she will do so, just hang the receiver gently and follow with a bang. Your scolding old fellow, if you had to bear but half of the hell's girl's burdens of care, that temper of yours would explode with a boom; 'twould scatter oath fragments all over the room. They often are excited and growled at by men when trying to do just the best that they can to keep service moving along without hitch, when sorrows belittle them as sleep at the stretch, and sometimes the harsh words which fall on their ears fill their throats full of lumps and their eyes full of tears. Just do unto them as you'd have others do unto a sister of yours were she one of the crew, and you'll find that your service far better will be than if by your crossness you rattled them, see! And all of the girls will pronounce you a dear, instead of an ill-tempered scorching bear. Just give it a try, and if our words lack in truth you can bet we'll be bright and best!

FOR SUMMER COMFORT

COOK WITH GAS CHEAPEST, SAFEST, CLEANEST, QUICKEST, WAY.

Richmond Water & Light Co. Incorporated.

He Needed It.

A traveling man told a Southern Kentucky editor one of his experiences the other day. He said he was riding in a smoking car of an express train, when a man rushed in from the car behind the smoker evidently in great agitation, and said: "Has anybody in the car any whiskey? A woman in the car behind has fainted." Instantly a dozen flasks were produced. The man who had asked for it picked out the largest one, drew the cork and put the bottle to his lips. With a long, satisfied sigh he handed it back and remarked: "That did me a lot of good. I needed it, for it always makes me feel so queer to see a woman faint."

True As Gospel.

Did you ever think it? Suppose every business man in the city took as much interest in the upbuilding of a city as a newspaper man. He works for railroads, manufacturers, better roads, churches, good streets and a hundred and one other good things for the general good of the city, never makes badgers and carvers around generally until he gets what he sets out for. Imagine his feelings then, when some fellow comes along and nine times out of ten that same fellow has never paid one cent toward supporting the paper and the paper he reads with marked regularity is either borrowed from his neighbor or picked up from the counter at the store at which he trades.—Breathitt County News.

Fault Finders.

This is a splendid world and this is a splendid age of the world, and instead of denouncing it you had better get down on your knees and thank God that you live now. And yet in this agreeable world there are a great many people who persist in seeing faults in everything. There is the fault finder. Sometimes he joins a church, and the church has its hands full. He criticizes everything. Wishes the minister would preach so long. Thinks he's too argumentative and so dialectic. Is dissatisfied with the choir and disposed to pick flaws in the financial arrangements. He sighs, groans, grumbles and whines all the way up to heaven. He frets and stews and stings himself and others. He is like a porcupine—all quills; like a crowfoot—always going backward; and we don't see for the life of us how he will ever get to heaven unless he goes in that same way, most likely he will stop at the gate to pick a quarrel with Saint Peter. When he is fairly inside we are afraid he won't enjoy it. The singing will be pitched too high, the exercises dull, the services too long. We shouldn't wonder at all if he spent the first century of torturing squinting at the wall to see if it was crooked all right.

Plea For The Operator.

When the girl at "Central" says "busy", don't tell yourself he worked into a fret and a sweat, don't tell her in language all freckled with fire, you think she's quite a near approach to a liar. Don't paw at the carpet, don't chew at the rag, nor roar as a bull when it sees a red flag, nor tell her in voicing that paints the air red, you'll have her in manured ere the sun goes to bed, but turn round in sugar, marshmallow words, 'till fall on her ear as the carol of birds to please ring you up when the line is at rest, and she raises the party of whom you're in quest, and when she replies she will do so, just hang the receiver gently and follow with a bang. Your scolding old fellow, if you had to bear but half of the hell's girl's burdens of care, that temper of yours would explode with a boom; 'twould scatter oath fragments all over the room. They often are excited and growled at by men when trying to do just the best that they can to keep service moving along without hitch, when sorrows belittle them as sleep at the stretch, and sometimes the harsh words which fall on their ears fill their throats full of lumps and their eyes full of tears. Just do unto them as you'd have others do unto a sister of yours were she one of the crew, and you'll find that your service far better will be than if by your crossness you rattled them, see! And all of the girls will pronounce you a dear, instead of an ill-tempered scorching bear. Just give it a try, and if our words lack in truth you can bet we'll be bright and best!

Cattle Wanted.

We desire to buy some fat butcher cattle and large and small calves. Also fresh milk cows or good early springers. Also good last years lambs, and good butcher hogs. Telephone 484 or write to Fox & Hamilton, Richmond, Ky.

A Delicate Method.

A Scotchman who had survived three wives and who had a fourth in contemplation decided upon a delicate method of proposing to the object of his affections. Accordingly he took her to walk one afternoon and before she realized where their footsteps tended they had arrived at the graveyard where his last loved ones lay buried. Standing before three tombstones he said: "There lies Jeanie, there lies Grissel, there lies Maggie, and," he added, pointing to the next vacant space and taking her hand tenderly, "how would you like to lie there?"

Hogs Get Drunk.

A distillery owned by G. P. Addehott and located near Bronston, Pulaski county, was burned and 17 gallons of whiskey and 180 gallons of beer went up in flames. When discovered about 5 o'clock the fire had made such headway that nothing could be saved. Much of the whiskey from the burning and broken barrels flowed down the small stream that runs past the distillery site. About 25 hogs were in the field by the stream and they drank the whiskey and soon there could be seen the spectacular sight of drunken hogs going through all the antics of drunken men.

Mule Beats Alarm Clock.

Jeff Clarke, a Bath county farmer, owns a mule that plays the part of an alarm clock every morning with such regularity that Clarke has about discarded the little alarm clock that hangs on the bed post, and firmly refuses to part with the animal. Promptly at 4 o'clock this mule kicks the sides of the barn four times in succession. At first Clarke thought the animal ill, and for several mornings he got up and investigated. To look note, however that the going of the alarm clock started bawling when the mule started kicking. He put two and two together and reached the conclusion that the mule knows the hour when the Clarke household should arise and begin the day's work.

Once Was Enough.

Criticism of newspaper work and editors would be less frequent if more people had enjoyed an experience similar to that of the Rev. Malcolm James McLeod, who edited just one issue of the Pasadena, (Cal.) Star. At the conclusion of his self imposed task he indicated these trenchant sentiments: "My time is now almost up as I pen his last line: my hand is almost paralyzed, my brain is befuddled, and I am free to confess that I am right glad to vacate the holy spot. Such rush and dirt and disarray, such a jumble and potpourri! It strikes me as the daily effort to bring order out of chaos, and to be lightly quick, I am reminded of the memorable words 'The earth without form and void, and darkness was upon the face of the deep, and the spirit moved upon the face of the waters.' Never shall I criticize newspaper men more. I shall pray for them. They will have my heart's forbearance henceforth and forever, the hardest worked, shortest lived, poorest paid brain workers on this weary old world of ours."

Plea For The Operator.

When the girl at "Central" says "busy", don't tell yourself he worked into a fret and a sweat, don't tell her in language all freckled with fire, you think she's quite a near approach to a liar. Don't paw at the carpet, don't chew at the rag, nor roar as a bull when it sees a red flag, nor tell her in voicing that paints the air red, you'll have her in manured ere the sun goes to bed, but turn round in sugar, marshmallow words, 'till fall on her ear as the carol of birds to please ring you up when the line is at rest, and she raises the party of whom you're in quest, and when she replies she will do so, just hang the receiver gently and follow with a bang. Your scolding old fellow, if you had to bear but half of the hell's girl's burdens of care, that temper of yours would explode with a boom; 'twould scatter oath fragments all over the room. They often are excited and growled at by men when trying to do just the best that they can to keep service moving along without hitch, when sorrows belittle them as sleep at the stretch, and sometimes the harsh words which fall on their ears fill their throats full of lumps and their eyes full of tears. Just do unto them as you'd have others do unto a sister of yours were she one of the crew, and you'll find that your service far better will be than if by your crossness you rattled them, see! And all of the girls will pronounce you a dear, instead of an ill-tempered scorching bear. Just give it a try, and if our words lack in truth you can bet we'll be bright and best!

Don't Send Your Husband here to buy meats if you want to keep down the household expenses. For the sight of our succulent chops, juicy steaks, and rich red roasts will tempt him so that he would buy twice as much as you would. That would be good for us, but we are looking after your interests as well as our own. Come yourself.

C. C. CULTON

Successor to Douglas & Culton

231 WEST MAIN STREET TELEPHONE 125

Pride of Bloomington Canned Corn and Guess on Paid Attendance at Opening Ball Game here with Winchester on May 5th

With every TEN WRAPPERS taken from Pride of Bloomington Canned Corn you are entitled to one guess as to what will be the paid attendance. The following prizes will be given to those guessing the correct, or the nearest correct attendance.

For the Nearest Correct Guess One Case—two dozen—Pride of Bloomington Corn and Two Admission Tickets to the next game after the prizes have been awarded.

For the Second Nearest Correct Guess One Dozen Pride of Bloomington Corn and Two Admission Tickets to the next game after the prizes have been awarded.

For the Third Nearest Correct Guess Two Admission Tickets to the next game after the prizes have been awarded.

HOW TO GUESS

Enclose ten wrappers pinned together in an envelope. On one of the wrappers write your NAME and GUESS. Seal the envelope, write your name on the OUTSIDE and leave envelope at your retailer store. All guesses MUST be in the hands of your retail grocer not later than 12 o'clock noon of May 5, the day of the opening game. Guess which are not in by that time will not be counted. The quality and purity of Pride of Bloomington Corn is guaranteed second to none at the price.

KELLOGG and Co.

Incorporated

The Best in Jewellerydom

Invites You to This Store

We gathered from every where good and well. Today we are asking your opinion of our stock as a whole. We ask for criticisms—request your critical looking. And when you have seen and bought, we are sure you will carry away an impression that will be sure to bring you back. It's your privilege to buy or look just as you please—and if you only look you're welcome.

L. E. LANE

Big Watch Sign 210 Main Street

Something New

In My Line For You

I have made preparations, by putting in the necessary equipment, to do all kinds of Carriage Painting and Trimming

I have made this addition, believing our many customers would appreciate our efforts to take care of all needed repairs for vehicles. Bring your carriage, buggy or wagon and have it repaired, painted and trimmed and made good as new. If you need new on your old vehicle, a perfect job is guaranteed at this shop. All work guaranteed both as to workmanship and prices.

Rubber Tires

James A. Moores

Southern Railway

LOW EXCURSION RATES

SUNDAY, MAY 1st BETWEEN

Richmond, Lexington, Danville, Georgetown, Lawrenceburg, Shelbyville and Versailles and intermediate Stations in each direction.

$1.50 Between Lexington, Danville, Georgetown and Louisville

For round trip tickets, limited to return date of sale. Proportionately low rates between intermediate points. Consult any Southern Railway Ticket Agent, or write:

H. C. King, C. T. A. Lexington, Ky.
A. R. Cook, D. P. A. Louisville, Ky.
J. C. Beach, Jr., A. G. P. A. St. Louis, Mo.

The Richmond Climax.

PUBLISHED EVERY WEDNESDAY BY THE CLIMAX PRINTING CO (Incorporated.)

A. D. MILLER EDITOR

Member of KENTUCKY PRESS ASSOCIATION and NORTH DISTRICT PUBLISHERS LEAGUE.

PRICE $1.00 PER YEAR IN ADVANCE

WEDNESDAY APR. 27 - - - 1910

There was a banquet at Louisville last Saturday night, given to the Democratic members of the last General Assembly from that city. There was plenty to eat and drink, and when all were comfortably full of good things the flow of hot air began and candidates for the state offices were brought out as fast as a slight-of-hand man produces live pigeons from a plug hat; and they lived about as long. Candidates produced at banquets are about as durable as soft-shelled eggs.—Carlisle Mercury.

The Rev. John G. Schally, new pastor at Grace M. E. church Covington, will preach next Sunday evening on "The Man at the Bat, or a Home Run," and has invited the baseball teams of Northern Kentucky and Southern Ohio to hear the sermon. Such a subject for a sermon would draw a full house in Richmond and we are quite certain the Covington pastor will not have to preach to empty pews on this occasion.

If one can believe all they read in the sensational daily papers, it is quite sure nearly all the world's people are going to the bad. Murders, thefts and all the unpleasant acts are paraded before the public gaze in glaring headlines, while the deeds of charity and benevolence and other performances of our Christian people seldom appear in this class of journals.

Governor Patterson, who pardoned the murderer of Senator Carmack, is again a candidate for the Democratic nomination. We cannot believe the good people of Tennessee will endorse the action of the notorious Governor, who deserves even greater opprobrium than has yet been heaped upon him and the splendid State over which he presides.

The Court of Appeals Thursday reversed Judge Parker's decision in the contested election case of John Skain vs. W. R. Milward, which also carries with it three other contests growing out of the 1905 city election in Lexington. This action on the part of our highest court sustains the titles of the present Democratic officials whose offices were contested.

The publicity department of an exposition proposed to furnish original matter to exploit the city where the exposition is to be held. But the cheekiest thing lately is a proposition from the wholesale liquor dealers association to furnish prepared articles to prove that prohibition is a failure.—Winchester Sun-Sentinel.

Some people are so pessimistic that they never see good in anything or anybody. If those people who are addicted to this terrible malady will get out into the sunshine and smile and be happy with the world for a day, they will realize some of the blessings they have missed.

A warning to Madison county enumerators who state that George Pratt, who was acting in that capacity in an Iowa district, fell dead at the feet of Mrs. C. W. Gillin last Monday while asking her to state her age. This is the first sacrifice of life reported since the census began.

More than 18,000 voters of Monroe county, N. Y., changed from the Republican to the Democratic column, last week, and elected the first Democratic Congressman that has represented that district in twenty years. This is only an indication of what will happen this fall.

The Harlan Enterprise suggests that when Helley's comes lists the earth, the ladies can prevent the fancy smiles from being extracted from their faces during the trying ordeal, by using a double portion of face powder and a little larger than they usually display in church.

Transact two sides to every story. Never accept one side until you have heard the other.

CHICAGO has recently passed a law making it a fifty dollar misdemeanor for a woman to wear a hat pin extending one-half inch beyond the hat crown. The men who brought up the question stated that they had no objection to the use of carots and roosters on hats, but they opposed their wearing concealed weapons.

SINCE Teddy's visit to Paris, the Chanticleer hat now adorns the trash barrel, and the gay Parisiennes are wearing the Teddy bear hat, which is pictured as the original Rough Rider hat, ornamented with a cunning Teddy bear and an cigarette in the form of a Big Stick.

RECENT developments in Ohio have increased the probability that Governor Judson Harmon will be re-elected by the Democrats the coming fall, in which case Mr. Harmon would be a more promising presidential possibility than heretofore.

THE tremendous gains made by Democrats in Republican States is causing considerable alarm at the White House. President Taft will evidently send out a few more emissaries in an effort to hold the old party together.

IF there is anyone in this world to be pitied, it is the man or woman who hasn't anything to do but gossip. The poison of a viper would be an antidote for the tongue of one of these venomous creatures.

THE days of miracles are not over. A Boston newspaper reporter has come into an inheritance of $3,000,000, but he is sticking to his job, until, as he expresses it, "he gets use to handling money."

AT Callettsburg the grand jury, which was in session two weeks, returned 735 indictments. It is said that over 500 of the indictments were against "soft drinks" vendors at Ashland.

DID you ever notice how fond one child becomes of another when that other has a penny or a nickel to spend? And yet adults are only grown up children.

IF you see any of your neighbors' husbands going through strange actions, don't be alarmed. He is merely getting in training to beat the carpet.

DANIEL WALDO FIELDS, a several times millionaire and aged forty-five, has entered Harvard University, because he needs the college course.

THE death of Dr. Louis Klopfch, a distinct loss to religious, philanthropic and magazine circles.

IT is a good thing there are not too many early birds. There might not be worms enough to go around.

MANY a woman has driven her husband to drink, and he didn't stop at the watering trough, either.

Personal

Mr. J. D. Adams is in the West on a prospecting trip.

Dr. C. C. Marshall, of the Baptist church, is in Louisville this week.

Miss Trinnie Walter, of Cannel City, is the guest of Mrs. A. C. Buchanan.

Mrs. Hattie White, of Lancaster, was a guest of her niece, Miss Jesse Doty, last week.

Mrs. J. H. Toy of Maysville, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Curtis Mobley.

Mrs. John G. Taylor visited her daughter, Mrs. J. R. White, in Irvine, last week.

Miss Mary Carrington, of Cincinnati, will arrive Friday to visit Dr. and Mrs. D. H. Scanlon.

Mr. C. K. Oldham, of Mt. Sterling, has been a visitor to his brother, Mr. W. D. Oldham.

Mrs. Clarence Emore, of Covington, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. Jeatt this week.

Mrs. Gilbert Grinstead, of Somerset, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Parrish.

Miss Agnes Clark, Begonia Stevens and Virginia Slade spent the week end with Clark county relatives.

Miss Elizabeth Crowe, of Versailles, spent the week-end with her grandmother, Mrs. William Crowe.

Miss Julia Green, who has been staying at the home of her mother, Mrs. E. L. Lilly, has returned to her home in Lexington.

Mr. Joe Jeff Martin has returned from the Philippine Islands, where he spent one-half year in the service of "Uncle Sam."

Mr. and Mrs. Warfield Bennett went over to Frankfort in their motor car for a little visit to Mrs. Frank Chinn and family.

Mr. Joe Schlegel, who has been seriously ill of typhoid fever, is improving, much to the gratification of his many friends.

Mr. J. P. Vaughn and granddaughter, Miss Annie Vaughn, of Lawrenceburg, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Vaughn.

Little Miss Julia Hills entertained a number of friends yesterday afternoon from three to six, the occasion being her birthday.

Mrs. J. H. Kennedy and daughters and Mrs. Mary Stagner went to Stanford last week to attend the funeral of Mr. John Taylor.

Prof. J. G. Crabbe will go to Louisville Friday to be present at a meeting of School Masters Club, which will be held at the Seelbach.

Mr. J. M. Barlow, of Bourbon county, has been here for a visit to his wife, who has opened a ladies' furnishing parlor in this city.

Mrs. J. A. Stevens was in Clark county Monday. She was accompanied home by Mr. Stevens mother, who will visit with her for several days.

Mrs. Stella P. Kayes, superintendent of the Pattie A. Clay Infirmary, is making a flying visit to Mobile, Alabama, this week, to see her sister.

Mrs. James Lackey, who underwent a serious operation for gall stones last week, is doing nicely and strong hopes are entertained for her recovery.

Mr. Steve Marcum, of Manchester, was a guest of Miss Lillian Maupin last Monday at his home in Danville.

The many friends of Mr. A. K. McCown will be glad to learn of his improved condition at the Pattie A. Clay Infirmary where he recently underwent a serious operation for gall stone.

Mrs. Elmer Tate entertained the Trimble Club Friday afternoon. A pleasing diversion was the singing of Mrs. Hanley Nippert (Miss Minnie Dykes) whose voice retains its richness and sweetness.

Dr. D. H. Scanlon, of the First Presbyterian church, informs The Climax that his brother, Frank C. Scanlon, who graduates this year from the medical department of the University of Nashville, has been chosen to deliver the valedictory address.

Rev. J. J. Dickey and wife will go to Richmond today to attend the Danville District Conference. T. J. Haney and Sam Matheny are delegates from the Stanford church and Samuel Roberts from the Logan Creek church.—Stanford Journal.

Mrs. Theodore Wilson, of Moberly, is expected home in a few days from Mt. Jackson Sanitarium, where she has been undergoing treatment for rheumatism. She is greatly improved, and since leaving the Sanitarium has visited her two sons, R. W. and Lee Wilson, at Brownburg and Havesville, Indiana.

Miss Mable Mason entertained the sewing society at her beautiful country home near Richmond last Saturday. Among those present were Mesdames Jennie West, U. D. Simpson, D. W. Bridges, and Miss Helen and Martha Gill, Sallie Elkin, Katie Simpson and Miss Brashear.—Lancaster Record.

Friends here will be interested in the announcement of the approaching marriage of Miss Bird Wells, of Cynthiana, to Dr. Earl Rice, of Augusta. Miss Wells has frequently been the guest of Mrs. Clarence Vaughn, this city, and is an unusually attractive young woman.

It is with sincere regret that their many friends learn of the intended removal of Mr. L. E. Weisenburg and family from our midst. They will go to Covington-on-the-Hudson, where Mr. Hange has a large engineering contract. Both Mr. and Mrs. Weisenburg are extremely popular here and their going will prove a distinct loss to social circles.