It is not the desire of the Climax to introduce the temperance question and make it an issue in the State Senatorial race, yet it is a God-given privilege, seldom recognized, of every voter to know how a candidate stands on this or any other question in which the people are interested before casting his vote. If candidates for the various offices were all required to state their positions on questions which vitally affect the people of the State, county or precinct, whichever the case may be, we would have fewer men in office who misrepresent rather than to adhere to the wishes of the voters whose suffrage placed them in their exalted offices. A candidate who hesitates to state his position on any question in which the people are interested may be counted on to do the unexpected when elevated to office.

The usual fatalities following the opening of the hunting season are being recorded daily. Madison county has had but few serious accidents, but other counties throughout the State have recorded many deaths, which were evidently due to carelessness of inexperienced hunters in handling firearms. In the deer section of the North so far eleven deer have been slaughtered and twenty-three hunters killed or crippled. At this rate the deer of the Northern woods will be responsible in a few years for the extermination of the hunters.

COL. L. S. FITZGERALD and Mr. G. C. May, prominent business men of Wilmore, and J. L. Sowers, of Nicholasville, will launch a new paper at Wilmore next week.

The solution of two of our modern problems will be solved if Harry Sommers' suggestion to "take all prisoners out of politics and put all politicians in prison" is adopted.

We wonder how many of those clamoring for war with Mexico would enlist for service in the event this government should resort to hostilities with that country.

It is a mistaken idea that a dollar will not go far these days. Send one or more of them to a mail order house and they get so far that you never get one of them back.

The following item from Winchester will be read with much interest here: "A pretty party of the week was the afternoon tea given by Mrs. William Garner, when about fifty guests were invited to meet the members of the Sans Souci Club. It was the first meeting of the club for the season, and was thoroughly enjoyed by all present. A feature of the occasion was the singing of Mrs. Harry Hanger, of Richmond. Other out-of-town guests present for the affair were: Mrs. Dan Chenault, Mrs. Beatrice Hagen, of Louisville, Mrs. Nett, of Richmond, and Mrs. Withers Davis, of Paris. The home was decorated with a yellow color scheme, with pleasing effect. The handsome table bore a dainty covering, with splendid Sheffield service. The attractive hostess, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Vertner Mitchell, served a delicious salad course, in which the color scheme was artistically carried out, the ices being served in dainty orange baskets. A delightful season was predicted for the club members by present for the first session. An amusing diversion of the afternoon was a weighing contest, in which the guests were required to draw numbers from a large receptacle. The guests, as they were weighed, the same were weighed together on a large pair of scales, and prizes were awarded to the "heavyweight champions," and the "lightweight champions." The prize for the first, tiny ivory elephants, was awarded to Mrs. E. C. Chenault, and Mrs. Dan Chenault, while the "lightweight" prize, a miniature purse bearing the inscription, "I am no bigger than a dime," was awarded to Mrs. Frank Dudley and Mrs. S. W. Willis. This contest caused much amusement, and was an enjoyable feature of a charming afternoon."

Paul Hanger Meets With Serious Accident.
A serious accident befell Paul Hanger, sixteen-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Hanger, yesterday morning, and as a result, the unfortunate young man is in a critical condition at the Patten A. Clay Infirmary. Young Hanger left his home about 7:30 a. m., on his motorcycle for the Normal School and when nearing residence of Mr. B. B. Herrington, on West Main street, lost control of his machine and collided with the sidewalk, sustaining injuries, the seriousness of which cannot yet be determined. The injured boy was carried into the residence of Mr. Herrington and Drs. Vaughn and Smoot reached his bedside a few moments later. An examination revealed the fact that the young man was dangerously injured. In addition to concussion, his right ear was nearly severed, the lower jaw-bone fractured and the left side of his face contused. Mr. Hanger was later taken to the Infirmary and Dr. Bullock, of Lexington, was summoned in consultation with the local physicians, and up to the hour of going to press the young man had not regained consciousness. His physicians would not make a prediction as to the outcome of the accident.

Stricken With Paralysis.
About 2 o'clock on Monday afternoon, Miss Mary Pickels suffered a stroke of paralysis at the home of her brother, Mr. Geo. W. Pickels, on Third street. Her entire right side is affected and at the hour of going to press, her condition is unchanged. The many friends of this popular lady trust that she will survive the shock and soon be restored to her former health.

Dr. Crabbe in Wreck.
Dr. J. G. Crabbe, of Eastern Kentucky Normal School, was considerably shaken up in a wreck on the interurban between Lexington and Nicholasville, Monday afternoon. The car in which Dr. Crabbe was riding ran into a traction engine which had been left standing on the interurban track, and in the shake-up Dr. Crabbe was considerably bruised about the lower limbs; however, his injuries were not of such a nature as to keep him from attending to his business duties.
