

Jessamine County Candidates Smoking Pipe of Peace.

The warring Democrats of Jessamine county have buried the hatchet and are now holding out the olive branch of peace. William J. Baxter, who was defeated in the August primary by Wm. Watts for county attorney, has withdrawn the contest suit instituted sometime ago, leaving the field clear for Watts, the Democratic nominee, as the Republicans did not make any nomination for that office.

Anderson Jacobs who was defeated by R. Z. Moss for the Democratic nomination for sheriff, and who instituted contest proceedings, also withdrew his suit.

County Court Day

Next Monday, October 6, is county court day. Farmers will have completed housing their tobacco crop by that time; also corn cutting will be through with, and it is expected a big crowd will be in town. Call at The Madisonian office and see our useful premiums and inquire about our clubbing rates. We can supply you with entertaining and instructive reading matter for the long winter months.

The Passing Circus

Another circus has come and gone. The last one to exhibit here being Sig. Sautelle's big shows. Big crowds witnessed the afternoon and evening exhibitions. The summer is ended, the sad and melancholy days are upon us, and Louis Williams of the Danville Messenger, will have to forego the pleasures of the circus another season.

Honor Roll Report of Miller School

The Miller School completed first half of the term Friday, September 26. Those on the honor roll report for the third month were: Eighth Grade—Bernard Weaver and Rice Tudor; Fifth Grade—Nannie Gilbert, Ida B. Howard and Jesse Tudor; First Grade—Esther Perkins. Miss Myrtle Dalton, Teacher.

Gypsies

A band of gypsies are camping about two miles from town on the Otter Creek pike. They generally hit this territory on their return trip south, after spending the summer months in northern states. As usual, they have several horses and make their living principally from trading horses and fortune telling.

School Trustees' and Teachers' Duties

School trustees should see that the compulsory attendance law is enforced. Teachers should report all delinquent pupils to the proper authorities, who will take such steps as will be required to have each child receive the benefits of free public schools.

Women Must Register

Women who wish to vote at the November election must register on the day set apart for registration. They will register at the same time and place that the men register if they want to vote in the election following registration.

Movie War

A movie war, or in other words a war between moving picture theaters has commenced in Cincinnati. The weapons to be used are free admission tickets.

Oh, that the Alhambra and the Opera House would fight!

Baptizing

As the result of a series of meetings at the Baptist Church at Valley View, about seventeen converts were immersed in Kentucky river at that place last Sunday.

Church Notes

Rev. C. K. Marshall will supply the Christian Church at Stanford next Sunday.

Rev. G. C. Banks is attending the National Convention at Toronto, Canada.

Rev. C. K. Marshall and Mr. John Arnold attended the Convention at Bowling Green.

Services at the Episcopal Church Sunday were conducted by Rev. H. H. Sneed, of Gulfport, Miss.

Miss Kathleen Poyntz entertained the French Mission Circle very pleasantly last Friday at the Glyndon Hotel.

Rev. Horton filled the pulpit Sunday morning and evening, at the Methodist Church and was greeted with good audiences.

Dr. E. B. Barnes was elected Vice President of the State Convention of Christian Churches at the meeting in Bowling Green.

A banquet will be given by the laymen of the First Presbyterian Church on October 6. All men of the church are expected and elaborate preparations are being made by Dr. J. G. Bosley, E. S. Wiggins, A. R. Deany, Robert Burnham, Jr., and C. F. Higgins.

Rev. B. C. Horton, the former pastor of the Methodist Church at Mt. Sterling, has been assigned to the Methodist Church of this place, succeeding Rev. G. W. Crutchfield. Rev. Crutchfield has been sent to Jenkins, the new city in Letcher county.

Rev. H. G. Turner, who was formerly a pastor of the Methodist Church of this place, has been sent to Frankfort for the ensuing year. Rev. O. B. Crockett has been assigned to Nicholasville, and Rev. J. M. Fuqua has been sent to Versailles, Rev. Tom Robinson to Winchester, W. S. Grinstead to London, L. A. Fryman to West Liberty, and W. P. Fryman has been returned to Irvine.

The Aid Society of the Christian Church met on Thursday at four o'clock with a good attendance on hand. It was decided to give a bazaar on December sixth and also a "Kitchen Shower" on Halloween night. Further particulars will be given later. Mrs. Joe Chenault gave a handsome mission table towards furnishing the parlors of the church and a vote of thanks is tendered her for her generous gift.

Mr. G. W. Martin delivered a very interesting address at the Presbyterian Church recently on "Civic Righteousness." He made the point well known to every one that the laws were no stronger than the will of the people, and pointed out to the people that if the laws for the betterment of society were not enforced, it was their own fault. His reasoning was forceful and the address was characteristic and undoubtedly has done much towards awakening a better feeling for the enforcement of law and order. The Madisonian has been preaching this for many months.

Dies Suddenly

Mr. E. A. Duncan, aged about fifty years, died suddenly at his home in Nicholasville last Tuesday. A few hours before his death he complained of feeling pains around his heart, and was told to go and lie down awhile, and he would feel better. He had been a sufferer for sometime with rheumatism, which hastened his demise.

THIEVES IN TOWN.

Their Activities Alarming Citizens of Residential Sections.

The citizens of the residential sections of the town are greatly alarmed over the fact that thieves have entered the homes recently of a number of people.

Last Saturday night thieves entered the residence of George Noland on Fifth street and secured $9.71. The money was taken from the pocket of his pants. They did not take anything else.

The thieves also entered the homes of Mrs. Chambers and Mrs. Dora Griggs the same night, but did not secure any money, of which there was a small amount at the home of Mrs. Griggs. Monday night a member or members of the gang effected an entrance to the home of Mr. Best and others in another section of town.

It is believed to be home talent doing the looting. The robbers fail to take jewelry or other things of value, which gives rise to the suspicion that it is not the work of professional burglars.

School Fair to Be Held November 15.

That the educational interest among the teachers, pupils and parents of Madison county, is on the increase, is due to the able management of Supt. Noland of the schools of Madison county, is manifested by the announcement of a Madison County School Fair to be held, November 15, at the Caldwell High School. All the public schools of the county will participate in the affair.

There will be prizes offered in all grades, many of our leading merchants, and others interested in the betterment of our public schools, will give valuable prizes.

Popular Lectures To Young Men.

Beginning next Sunday night, Dr. Quisenberry will begin a series of lectures, one each Sunday night for six consecutive Sunday nights. The lectures will be delivered at the Opera house. Lack of space and time forbid an extended notice of these meetings, which notice will be extended in next issue of this paper.

Circuit Court

The October term of Circuit Court, with Judge J. M. Benton presiding, will begin court here next Monday. The docket is unusually light. The most important case to be tried is the Maupin case. His trial is docketed for the second week of the term.

Editor Honored

Judge Grant E. Lilly has been commissioned by Gov. McCreary as a delegate to represent Kentucky at the meeting of the Appalachian Good Roads Association which meets at Asheville, N. C., October 22 and 23.

Will Appear in Next Issue.

A very interesting paper read by Dr. C. H. Vaught before the Prandennial Club, was to have been in this paper, but for lack of space it will appear in our next issue.

Judge Greenleaf Hands Stone a Lemon The Morning After.

Willis Stone, colored, was fined sixty dollars and trimmings in Judge Greenleaf's court Friday morning for having in his possession 53 quarts of whiskey in dry territory. Policeman Allman and Deputy Sheriff "Trim" Deatherage caught Stone Thursday evening when he landed here on his return from Lexington with the goods. Stone claimed the whiskey was the property of another, which seems to be an old racket with the members of the bootlegging gang when apprehended.

Historian and Journalist Dead

Col. R. T. Durrett, one of Kentucky's most noted historians and publicists, died at his home in Louisville, last Tuesday at 2:30 p. m. Col. Durrett was a member of many learned historical, literary and scientific societies both in this country and abroad. He was president of the Childrens Free Hospital and the Episcopal Orphans Home, director of several noted banks. He was always a useful man and Kentucky mourns his loss.

Bull Holds Farmer Prisoner In Burning Tree

Attacked by a bull and forced to take refuge in a tree which later caught fire from burning brush was the thrilling experience of R. T. Lane, an Eggleston farmer living near Muskegon, Mich., last Tuesday. Lane managed to beat out the fire in the tree. He had his eye brows burned off and his clothing scorched. He climbed sixty feet into the tree before he was able to check the flames that spread through the branches.

Favor Viva Voce System

The country press has taken up the proposition of changing the method of voting in the State primary from the secret ballot to the old-time viva voce system, and the proposed change by the next Legislature is meeting with the hearty indorsement of the out-in-the-State newspaper. In fact, some of them say that if the constitution barrier was not in the way it would be a mighty good thing to return to the old way of voting in general elections. In some counties of the State the Democratic tickets are endangered because of the fact that Republicans took advantage of the present law and helped to select the Democratic nominees.—Louisville Times.

Got Missing Figures

The General Manager was presenting plans for an extension of the factory to the company's directors at Detroit. He found that he had left an estimate sheet in his desk at the factory. He called up the factory on the Bell Long Distance Telephone. His assistant read the figures to him and the directors were able to act without delay.

Annoying delays are avoided by the use of the Bell Telephone.
