

In Society

Telephone all social news to 638.
—Anna D. Lilly, Social Editor

Mr. R. R. Burnam entertained at dinner Tuesday evening in honor of his father-in-law, Hon. W. B. Smith, it being his 82nd birthday. We congratulate Mr. Smith and wish him many more happy birthdays.

IN HONOR OF TEACHERS

Miss Carrie Allman entertained very delightfully on last Friday evening in honor of her former teachers and the graduating class of Caldwell.

Miss Allman finishes school this year with high honors.

The following invitation has been issued to friends of the families:

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Jones request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter Lucy to Mr. Richard Fowler Parks Thursday morning, June eleventh nineteen hundred and fourteen at eleven o'clock Union City, Kentucky

PICNIC

The faculty and parents of the Model and Normal Schools held a very delightful picnic at Lake Reba on Friday afternoon. In the cool of the evening a bounteous lunch was spread, after which the party returned to the city, having had a royal good time.

BOATING PARTY

A most enjoyable boating party composed of Mr. McCreary Simmons, Miss Jane D. Stockton, Mr. Ed. Stockton, Miss Callie Miller Shackelford, Mr. Geo. Goodloe, Miss Mary Katherine White, went down the river in Mr. Simmons' new launch on Friday afternoon.

FIVE HUNDRED CLUB

Miss Duncan Foster entertained the Five Hundred Club on Thursday afternoon. Besides the club members there were present: Misses Elizabeth Blanton, Hattie Lee Milion, Annie Mae Walker and Marianne Collins. Following the games a tempting lunch of salads and ices was served.

The trophy went to Miss Tommie Cole Covington and the consolation prize to Miss Russell White.

RECEPTION TO SENIORS

The Juniors of the Eastern State Normal entertained with a beautiful reception in honor of the Faculty and Senior Class on Thursday evening from eight until eleven o'clock. Tables were spread in the grounds which were prettily lighted with Japanese lanterns. Ice cream in the class colors, green and white, was served with delightful cake. Many spicy toasts were given, and beautiful music closed a most enjoyable evening.

GRIFFITH-TODD

On Thursday, May 21, Mr. Jas. Prescott Todd, of Elizabethtown, and Miss Griffith of Somerset, were united in marriage. Mr. Todd will be remembered as an employee of the Richmond Electric & Power Co. of this city several years ago, but he is now manager of the Kentucky Utilities Co. at Elizabethtown. Mr. Todd made many friends while here who extend to the happy young couple their warmest congratulations.

D. A. R.

The D. A. R. held a very successful meeting on yesterday afternoon with the Regent, Mrs. A. R. Burnam. An interesting paper was given by Mrs. B. H. Neale on Argentina. Nine members were present and one new member, Mrs. Hugh Bates. The next meeting will be on the first Monday in July, when Mrs. G. W. Phelps and Miss Laura Bright will prepare the program.

MILWARD-MOORE

The marriage of Miss Annie Featherstone Milward to Mr. H. Lee Moore, of Georgetown and Pittsburg, Pa., will be solemnized Wednesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. It will be a very quiet wedding at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Stanley Milward, on North Broadway, the Rev. I. J. Spencer officiating. After the ceremony the couple will leave for a trip and will then go to Pittsburg to reside, where Mr. Moore is now in business.—Lexington Herald.

Miss Milward is well known here where she has often visited, and the good wishes of many friends follow her.

MRS. HANGER RECEIVES MUCH SOCIAL ATTENTION

A New York special to the Courier-Journal says: "Mrs. Harry B. Hanger, of Richmond, Ky., who is spending some time in New York, has been the recipient of much social attention during the past several weeks, and is becoming one of the most popular Southern matrons who visit New York. Recently she attended the meeting of Southland, an organization of Southern women, and received much applause when she sang a solo for the one hundred or more guests assembled. Last week Mrs. Hanger was a guest at the "white breakfast" of the Rubenstein Club, the largest musical organization of women in the country, at the Waldorf-Astoria. Mrs. Hanger was the guest of Mrs. William Grant Brown, at one time president of the New York Federation of Women's Clubs, at the breakfast."

SHERWOOD CLUB

Miss Austin Lilly entertained the Sherwood Club on Saturday afternoon, at which time the annual election of officers took place. Miss Elizabeth Burnam was made president, Miss Elizabeth Turley vice president, Miss Mary Allen Deatherage, secretary, and Miss Austin Lilly, treasurer.

A delightful miscellaneous programme was given, the following members taking part: Misses Marie Louise Kellogg, Elizabeth Turley, Mary Allen Deatherage, Duncan Foster, Elizabeth Burnam and Henrietta Luxon.

Misses Lucy Doty and Elizabeth Blanton were guests of the club.

CECILIAN CLUB

Miss Julia White entertained the Cecilian Club charmingly on Wednesday afternoon. The subject was "Bendel" and a choice programme was rendered. Those who took part were: Mrs. Kellogg who played "Goodnight," Mrs. Middleton a "Sonata" by Clementi, Mrs. T. D. Chenuault two lovely vocal numbers, Miss Marie Louise Kellogg an instrumental selection "On the Sea," Miss McKee a violin number, Miss Quisenberry a song by Chadwick, Miss Elizabeth Burnam played "Crescendo" by Lassen, Mrs. Hoskinson and Miss Julia White gave two beautiful "Bendel" numbers and Miss Julia Higgins the "Current Events." After the musicale, ice cream, strawberries and cake were served.

BEAUTIFUL RECEPTION

One of the beautiful social events of the past week was the reception given by Mrs. Jas. J. Neale on Thursday afternoon in honor of her sister, Miss Bessie W. Tribble. The parlors were lovely with a profusion of pink roses and lilies and here Mrs. Neale received her guests. In the receiving line with the hostess were: Miss Bessie Tribble, Mrs. Smith, of Lexington, and Mrs. John Williams, of Paris. In the room to the left as you entered, Misses Laura Bright and Madge Burnam served punch from a large bowl covered with pink roses.

The dining room was exquisitely decorated with daisies; in the center of the table-covered with a cloth of luney lace, was a wicker basket of these flowers; suspended high above the table was a wreath of daisies tied with a bow of pale green tulle. Here delicious brick cream in green and white and individual cakes were served. On the side of each plate was a dainty card with a hand painted cupid holding the love-knot and the ring, while letters faintly traced told the secret of the engagement of Miss Bessie W. Tribble to Mr. H. Vernon Leer.

Mrs. Neale was gracefully assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Benjamin Howard Neale, Miss Mattie Tribble and Mrs. Mary Neale Thompson. During the afternoon some two hundred guests called and enjoyed one of the most charming entertainments of the season.

BENNETT-SHELBY

The marriage of Miss Sallie McChesney Bennett to Mr. William Washington Shelby, Jr., of Henderson, Ky. and Pilares de Nacovarez, Mex., was celebrated Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Samuel Bennett on West Sixth Street.

It was a quiet wedding with only the members of the family and a few intimate friends present, Dean Robert K. Massie officiating.

The wedding music was played by Miss Hester Lowry, of Nicholasville, one of the bride's most intimate friends. It was a rose wedding, the house being decorated with many pink and white roses, pink peonies, palms and ferns.

Miss Sue Bennett was her sister's maid of honor, Mr. J. Waller Rodes, of Danville, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, the best man, and Miss Mary Rodes, the bridesmaid. The Bridal March from Lohengrin was played for the entrance, "Spring Song," by Mendelssohn, softly during the marriage service, and the Wedding March from "Mid-summer Night's Dream," for the congratulations.

The bride wore a beautiful gown of white charmeuse and lace and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley and blue roses.

The maid of honor was lovely in white crepe de chine draped in chiffon with bouquet of pink roses and lilies of the valley, and the bridesmaid wore white tulle and carried a French basket of pink roses. Mrs. Bennett was gowned in black crepe de chine.

After the ceremony and congratulations, sandwiches, coffee, ices, cakes and bonbons were served in the dining room, the table being decorated with a French basket of pink roses tied with tulle. From the bride's cake were taken the emblems of fate. The cake was topped with a bouquet of pink candy roses.

The bride is the older of two charming sisters. She is accomplished and much admired and will be much missed when she settles in her far-away home.

Mr. Shelby is a representative of the Shelby family of Kentucky. He was graduated from State University in 1908 and is now holding a prominent position in Mexico.

The couple were remembered with many handsome gifts and all join in wishing them much happiness. They left after the ceremony for Douglas, Ariz., to make their home for a time. Mr. Shelby will go to Mexico where he will resume the duties of his position.

Those present for the wedding from a distance were: Mr. and Mrs. Rodes, of Danville; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jefferson Smith, of Frankfort; Mr. and Mrs. Samuel McChesney, of St. Louis; Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Bowmar and Miss Emily Bowmar, of Versailles; Mr. and Mrs. Waller Bennett, Miss Helen Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Warfield Bennett, and Mr. James Bennett, of Richmond, Ky.—Lexington Herald.

Personal

Phone 638 or 659 for all personal items

Dr. R. C. Boggs spent last Sunday with Lancaster friends. Judge J. J. Greenleaf was in Lancaster last week on legal business.

Rev. E. H. Burnam visited friends in this city several days last week.

Miss Mary Barrett Smith has returned from Sharpsburg, where she has been teaching for the past year.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. T. Bogard were in Lexington last Wednesday.

Mrs. Lucy MacDonald attended the closing exercises of the Kentucky D. & D. College at Danville last Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. Milward, of Lexington, was a visitor in our city on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Z. T. Rice are at home, after a short visit to relatives in Garrard county.

Hon. J. Tevis Cobb spent last week in Louisville.

Mrs. Lucy MacDonald is at home from a visit to friends in Columbus, Ohio.

Mrs. Maurice Ashley and little daughter of this city, are visiting Misses Lena and Pearl Hampton, at Stanford.

Editor E. C. Walton, of Orlando, Fla., passed through here Tuesday on his way to Catlettsburg, at which place he was married on Wednesday, May 27, to Miss Maud Marcum.

Miss Elizabeth Farley is at home from Columbia for vacation.

Judge Grant E. Lilly was in Irvine several days last week on business.

Mrs. Bessie Chenuault spent several days last week with Mrs. Carl Grant at Winchester.

Mrs. R. B. Terrill and Mrs. Thomas Best have returned home, after a pleasant visit to friends in Paris.

Mrs. Beecham Lackey, of Nicholasville, is visiting relatives in the city.

Mr. Clarence Hicks is at home, after a visit to friends in Lexington, Lawrenceburg and Lancaster.

Dr. and Mrs. Nelson Mays and daughter, Mrs. Ellen Wilson, attended the funeral of Senator Bradley, Mrs. Mays' brother.

Mrs. Elmer Deatherage is at home after a visit to relatives in Lexington.

Prof. and Mrs. Hoskinson, who have been members of the State Normal School faculty for the past two years, will spend next year in Chicago. While here they have made many friends who will regret to see them leave.

Miss Mabel Mason has returned from Lancaster, where she has been teaching in the High School.

Prof. D. W. Bridges and son, D. Warren attended the commencement exercises of the Lancaster High School last Wednesday.

Mr. Howard Neale Thompson is at home from State University, where he won high honors in mechanical and electrical engineering.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Turley, Mrs. Roark, Misses McKee and Ames motored to Berea to hear "Queen Esther" on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clay Herrick, of Cleveland, O., have been the guests of Mrs. Mary B. Clay.

Mr. Harry Cockrell, of Irvine, was the weekend guest of friends in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Arnold have returned from a short visit to Cincinnati.

Mrs. Corrie Clay has been the guest of Judge and Mrs. L. L. Walker, of Lancaster.

Messrs. H. B. Cosby and Paul Burnam, of this city, attended the Southern National Bank Association at Pineville.

Mrs. J. B. Stouffer is visiting her daughter Miss Russell, who will graduate at Randolph-Macon College in Virginia this week.

Mrs. Robt. Harris has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Vance, in Louisville.

Dr. Craig, of the Richmond Drug Co., visited his family in Stanford last week.

Miss Mamie Dickerson, of this city, is the guest of the Misses Brown in Lancaster.

Miss Martha Kavanaugh, who has been attending the Normal School, is visiting her parents in Lancaster.

Mrs. S. J. McGaughey has returned from a visit to her mother and sister in Russellville.

Mrs. Willis Hise and Miss Mary Frances Hise left Thursday for an extended visit in Kansas City.

Prof. E. K. Broadbuss, of this city, was re-elected principal of the Ford Graded School, with considerable increase in salary, which speaks well for him as a teacher.

Mr. George English left last week for Newellton, La., where he will be located for several months.

Mrs. S. J. Hise spent several days with relatives in Lexington last week.

Mr. Gaines Jasper is at home from Cluster Springs, Va., where he graduated this year.

Miss Kathleen Sullivan, who is a student at State University, is the charming guest of Miss Austin Lilly.

Mr. Harry Abell, of Paducah, is spending a few days with Mr. Curt Park.

Mr. W. J. Newsom, representing the Richmond Monumental Works, has been in the county this week delivering work to various parties. He also secured several orders for handsome tomb stones about Irvine.—Estill Tribune.

Miss Nannie Gratz Clay, of Lexington, is the guest of Mrs. L. B. Weisenburgh.

President R. H. Crossfield was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. E. B. Barnes on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Oldham were visitors in Lexington on Sunday.

Mr. Elmer Deiss, of Clarksville, Tenn., returned to his home yesterday, after a visit to Judge Jere A. Sullivan.

Miss Elizabeth Shackelford has returned from Washington where she attended school the past year.

Mr. David Phelps has returned from State University.

Mr. Logan Burnam is at home from New Jersey where he has been attending school.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Turley, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Turley, Jr., and Mrs. Joe Chenuault, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Bruce at their home near Stanford.

Miss Lee Prather, of Lexington, spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. J. R. Quisenberry, on Second Street.

Mrs. Carlisle, of Mansfield, Ohio, is the guest of her parents, Hon. and Mrs. John F. White, at Whites Station.

Miss May Hurt, of this city, is in Wilmore, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Millard.

Serious Accident

Mrs. Ella Park, wife of W. H. Park, a prominent farmer living near this city on the Tate's Creek Pike, had a very narrow escape last Monday night. She was in the yard looking after some young chickens and walked into an open well. The well was in a new one which they had commenced to sink only a few days before that and had gone only about six or seven feet. Mrs. Park was very violently shaken up and injured about the shoulder and spine, but at the present time is getting along nicely with ever hope of a speedy recovery. Fortunately no bones were broken.

Lecture By Mrs. Glenn

Mrs. Glenn, State Organizer of Kentucky Equal Rights Association, delivered a lecture at the courthouse Friday evening at half past seven. The lecture was in the interest of the movement to promote votes for women.

The speaker was most interesting and presented a striking personality. A good crowd heard her, and seemed much impressed with her argument.

The speaker was introduced by Hon. D. M. Chenuault, of this city.

Big Deal

Mr. L. B. Weisenburgh and Mr. H. B. Hanger have bought the Middletown Artificial Ice Co., Inc., of Middletown, Ohio.

The plant is one of the largest in the State, having a capacity of 80 tons. The transaction involves $80,000 and is considered a splendid deal.

Mr. Weisenburgh and Mr. Hanger are two of our most progressive business men and both are genial, courteous, gentlemen.

Horse Becomes Frightened

Miss Margaret Noland, of this city, and a girl friend of hers were driving out the Irvine pike on Friday afternoon when their horse became suddenly frightened, throwing them out of the buggy and dragging them for some distance. While both of the young ladies received bruises, they were not serious, and we are glad to note that they are able to be out again.

Horsemen Visit Lexington Track

The Lexington Herald of Wednesday gave the names of some of the well known horsemen from this end of the State who visited the track there. They were Edgar T. Doty, of this city, and W. B. Burton, Dr. Pontius and Mr. Bourne, of Lancaster. Dr. Doty is a saddle-horseman, but blossomed out as a race driver last season behind Lord Rion and other trotters.

Saturday, May 30 was Decoration Day, a legal holiday, which was observed by all the banks.

Save your fruit by spraying with LIME SULPHUR. Get it at Perry's Drug Store. (17ft)

Musical

Miss Florence Simpson closed her school of music at Irvine last Friday night with a recital, which was greatly enjoyed by all. The music was of a high order and was faultlessly rendered. The following program was given:

- Country Dance.....Nevin
- Happy West, Mamie West
- Waltz.....Spaulding
- Hershel Powell
- At Twilight.....Gonschols
- Glady's Scott
- Reverie.....Read
- Dance Modern.....Dennee
- Viola Powell
- The Swallows.....Bochman
- Happy West
- Valse.....Holst
- Tennie White
- Polka.....Boccherini
- Hazel Crawford, Elvira Crawford
- Intermezzo.....Mascayni
- Mazurka.....Lack
- Alice Riddell
- Albumblatt.....Greutzmacher
- Witch Dance.....MacDowell
- Mamie West
- Waltz from Faust.....Gustav Lange
- Milton Scribner
- Reverie.....Beaumont
- Evelyn Crawford
- Devotioni.....Bennett
- Mazurka.....Godard
- Bertha Snowden
- Polonaise Brillante.....Merhel
- Viola Powell
- Spring Song.....Mendelssohn
- L'Amour Valse.....Schutt
- Mamie West

Mr. Harry Cockrell assisted Miss Simpson.

Miss Simpson is from Winchester, and is a niece of the celebrated Will Lampton, and has very high musical talents. She will teach at Irvine again.

William Hall Dead

Mr. William T. Hall, aged 77, died at his home on the Crutcher pike Sunday May 31. Mr. Hall is a well known citizen and in his earlier life was a political factor in this county. He was one of the Republican leaders. He left the following children: M. C., Milton, Wilson, Albert and Chas. Hall. His wife survives him. The funeral will be held Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, thence his burial in the Richmond cemetery.

Dramatic Entertainment

The dramatic entertainment given on Monday evening in the Normal Chapel under the direction of Miss Hurst, was an excellent amateur performance. Some of the actors were real stars. Miss Julia Ethel Brown as "Jennie Northcott" will awake this morning to find herself famous in local circles. The entire cast was good.

A charming feature of the evening was the music, both vocal and instrumental.

Odd Fellows Meeting

The I. O. of O. F. observed memorial day at Panola, with open ceremonies. Hon. O. P. Jackson was one of the orators of the day. A bountiful feast was spread which was greatly enjoyed by over four hundred in attendance. After the exercises, the graves of the dead were decorated.

Kentucky Wins Second

In the first Southern intercollegiate oratorical contest in which six States were represented which was held at Jefferson City, J. L. Willis, of Transylvania University Lexington, Ky., got second.

LOST—Monday night, May 25, at Lake Reba, a Brownie 2A Camera, containing 12 films. Reward for return to this office.

Manhattan!

Stands for The Best in Shirts that fit and wear, colors fast, patterns exclusive. Also the Manhattan Union Suit for men has all the excellency that high-grade underwear possesses.

That Silky Finish

that gives the comfort that you so much want in Summer Underwear. Short lengths, Cool and Comfortable. Many other styles in Men's Underwear and Shirts. Call and see.

RICE & ARNOLD

THE ONE PRICE HOUSE

Have You Appointed a Successor to Your Winter Clothes?

The cheery note of Summer is in the new Adler Clothes Styles.

There is a glad and refreshing newness, a delightful variation that every man will readily appreciate.

Nothing commonplace; nothing hackneyed.

You note the jauntness of Summer in fabric and design; you quickly get the reflection of the Summertime.

Right in weight, right in color and pattern.

Right in style, and right in price, too.

Adler Clothes

as usual set the pace.

And they spell good service.

So if you want a real natty Summer Suit at a price that will please your purse come in and we will be glad to show you the various models.

$15 to $25.

J. S. Stanifer

THE CLOTHIER
Cor. Main and Second RICHMOND, KY.

We handle all kinds of flower seeds and bulbs. Field and garden seeds.

Hay, Corn and Oats.

Staple and Fancy Groceries

McKINNEY & DEATHERAGE

TWO PHONES—35 and 42

—making country homes more comfortable and sanitary

Hoosier Pneumatic Water Supply Systems bring to the country home all the benefits of running water under pressure. At a very low cost you may have, with one of these systems, running water in the kitchen, bath room, sleeping rooms and laundry; you may have hydrants about the premises for filling stock tanks, sprinkling the lawn and garden, and for flushing the stables.

Hoosier Pneumatic Water Supply Systems

are planned separately to meet exactly the conditions under which they must operate. They may be inexpensively installed in old or new buildings. Come in and let us help you plan your system now, or write or phone and we will call, take measurements and quote you prices. You owe it to every member of your family to do away with the drudgery of pumping and carrying water, so act on this matter now.

Richmond Heating & Plumbing Co.
Long Distance, Phones 270 & 658. Clay Bld. W. Main St.