RICHMOND, KY., WEDNESDAY, OCT. 21, 1914.

CONCENTRATION.

If the present status of the great prohibition reform suggests anything, says E. H. Parkinson, D. D., of Chicago, it is the pressing need of concentration upon the part of the various organizations in the Nation-wide movement.

WILLSON HARD HIT.

There is a general curiosity to read the correspondence between ex-Gov. A. E. Willson and Theodore Roosevelt. It is said that Willson made a pitiful appeal to the ex-President to come to his rescue in Kentucky, assuring him that he would be for him in 1916 and that he had always been his friend.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE.

Dr. E. B. Barnes delivered a powerful sermon at the First Christian church Sunday night on the question of Christian Science. One of the largest and most representative audiences ever assembled in the church was present to hear the discussion.

DRAWN BIG CROWDS.

Gov. Beckham is drawing great crowds wherever he speaks, even in Republican districts his speeches have been received with great favor and hundreds of Republicans have pledged him their votes.

States Senate. He will speak every day from now until the election, but he would have to speak half a dozen times a day to meet the demands that are being made upon him.—Exchange.

Masonic Grand Lodge Meets In Louisville.

The Kentucky Masons met in Louisville yesterday for the annual session of the Grand Lodge, and will convene for three days. This is the 114th annual session of the Grand Lodge, which was located in Lexington from 1809 to 1831.

Bryan Swings Through Ky.

Thursday, Kentucky was honored with a flying visit from Col. Bryan, the distinguished democrat and cabinet member and the personal representative of President Wilson. The day was as bad as could have been ordered from the lower regions but notwithstanding this, Col. Bryan was greeted with large and enthusiastic audiences at all stopping places.

William Martin Commits Suicide.

William R. Martin committed suicide in this city in the store room of T. O. Broadus on second street Monday afternoon. Mr. Martin, who is a son-in-law of Mr. James Church, and his wife had separated and had not been living together for some time.

FACTS ABOUT CHRISTIAN SCIENCE.

Excerpts from Sermon Preached By Dr. E. B. Barnes.

Dr. E. B. Barnes spoke Sunday to a large congregation on the subject, "What is Christian Science?" He desires to say that all the quotations he made were taken from the volume of Dr. Haldeman, of New York City, and can be verified.

The first chapter in the 74th edition has been changed to the sixth in the 1900 edition; the second to the seventh; the third to the eighth; the fourth to the ninth; the fifth to the tenth; the sixth to the fourth; the seventh to the third; the eighth to the fifth; the ninth to the eleventh; the tenth to the first and the eleventh to the second.

The 74th edition is still in existence. This fact is stated for the benefit of those who, not finding the quotations I gave on the page specified, might conclude that no such quotation exists.

Why the volume was thus recast we will leave the reader to judge. I have used Dr. Haldeman's work in the preparation of my address because, so far as I know, the Christian Scientists have never attempted a refutation of its propositions.

It denies the existence of sin.

It denies the facts of sin.

It denies that God formed man from the dust of the earth.

It denies that God is three persons in one Godhead.

It denies that Mary ever gave birth to corporeal Christ.

It denies that Jesus ever had a real body.

It denies that Jesus is the Christ.

It denies that the blood of Jesus, shed on the Cross, is of any avail to cleanse from sin.

It denies that Christ bore our sins in His own body on the tree.

It denies that Christ died for our sins.

It denies that Christ offered Himself as a sin-offering.

It denies that Christ died at all.

It denies that for three days the body of Christ was dead in the tomb.

It denies that Jesus rose in flesh and bones.

It denies that Jesus was an infinite personality.

It denies that Jesus continued to exist after the Cross.

It denies that He ascended up into heaven and now sitteth at the right hand of God.

It denies the priesthood of Christ.

It denies justification by faith.

It denies regeneration, or second birth.

It denies the resurrection of the body, either for the righteous or the unrighteous.

It denies a final judgment.

It denies that a single soul is unsaved today, or can be finally lost.

It denies the efficacy and value of prayer.

It denies the necessity of marriage as a basis of procreation.

It denies that the name of Jesus should be exalted above every name and His personality worshipped.

These denials justify us in saying that while Christian Science is a religion, it has very little respect for the teachings of the New Testament.

Mrs. Eddy handles that book in the most irreverent fashion. She repudiates the ordinances of the Church, such as Baptism and the Lord's Supper.

But as it would be asking too much of the editor to give space for the sermon in full, let us consider the teaching of Christian Science on the subject of health:

Mrs. Eddy says: "Man is never sick."

The Bible says: "They brought unto Jesus all sick people."

Science and Health, page 46: "You say a boil is painful; but that is impossible. The boil simply manifests your belief in pain."

Page 52: "A man's belief produces disease and all its symptoms."

Page 65: "Our ancestors never indulged in the refinement of inflamed bronchial tubes, because they were as ignorant as Adam, before he ate the fruit of false knowledge, of the existence of such things as tubes and trochies, lungs and lozenges."

That it to say, that if parents will keep their children in ignorance that there dentists, oculists and aurists, there will never be any toothache, defective eyes or ears. Does any sane man believe this? Did the specialist produce the disease, or the disease the specialist?

Page 69: "All disease is the result of education."

Page 294: "One disease is as much a delusion as another."

Page 385: "Catarrh, rheumatism or consumption are not because of climate, but on account of belief."

could reconstruct ourselves, so that the senses did not convey impressions to the brain, we could all be Christian Scientists. But as man is constituted as he is at present, he will likely accept the testimony of his senses for some time to come.

But if the evidence of the senses is not to be accepted in case of sickness, is it to be accepted in case of health?

Page 400: "Some time it will be learned that mind constructs the body and that with its own materials. Hence no breakage or dislocation can really occur."

That can only be true in a world where there are no bones to break.

Opposed to the teachings of Mrs. Eddy is the teachings of the New Testament. Jesus said, "They that are whole need not a physician, but they that are sick." He did not think that sickness was an illusion.

"And all the city was gathered together at the door. And He healed many that were sick of divers diseases."—Mark 1:33-34.

If Jesus knew that these people were not sick and did not tell them so, He is not worthy of our trust. If they only pretend they were sick He should have said so as an honest man.

Besides, if they were not sick He pretended to work miracles which were no miracles, and is guilty of deception. The very suggestion of such things is a reflection upon the character of Christ.

He healed a man who was deaf and dumb; He healed the sick of the palsy; He healed a woman who had an issue of blood; He healed the paralytic and the blind, and many others.

According to Christian Science, these people were not sick and were not healed. The New Testament says they were sick and that Jesus healed them. Are we to believe Mrs. Eddy or the Son of God?

The Apostles worked many miracles of healing. Did they deceive the people and pretend to heal them when they were not sick?

We have already trespassed upon the editor's space, but we close with this statement: According to the teachings of Mrs. Eddy, Christian Science never worked a single cure.

For if there is no sickness, how can anyone be sick? And if no one is sick, how can anyone make them well?

If people only think they are sick, the alleged Christian Science cures are in the class with those effected by the bread pills of the physicians.

If sickness is real, then Mrs. Eddy's teaching is false. If sickness is not real, then all claims of Christian Science healing are false.

They that are whole need not a physician.

Ford School Wins Spelling Match.

There was a large crowd in attendance and about $65 was realized from the pie supper.

Spelling classes of the Ford graded school and the Hunt high school met at the former place Friday evening in one of the most heated contests ever waged here and which resulted in a victory for the Ford school.

There was a large crowd in attendance and after the spelling match a pie supper was held. In a contest for the prettiest girl present, it resulted in a tie between Misses Susie Tharp and Mary Morton.

This contest created a great deal of interest, as did the ugly man's contest. The names of the winners of the latter are withheld from publication at their request.

Fox Hunters Are Invited To Chase.

Delegates to Woman's Suffrage Convention.

Madison county will beably represented at the coming Woman's Suffrage convention to be held at Owensboro on the 5th to 7th of November. Mrs. James Bennett, Mrs. Jas. W. Caperton, Miss Lucia Burnam, Mrs. Mary Rank, Mrs. Wm. Park, Mrs. Walter Park, Mrs. A. R. Burnam, Mrs. J. W. Bales, Miss Willie Kennedy and Mrs. George Simmons have been named as delegates from this county.

These are representative women, are able defenders of their side of the woman's suffrage question. We look forward to some excellent speeches from these good women.

Bank Robber Caught.

James C. Smith, alias Lee McKinney, who was apprehended here some days ago and placed in jail as a suspected felon, was taken to Pineville Monday where he is wanted on a charge of robbing the First National Bank of that city some weeks ago. He is a smooth article. He had by some look or crook, got on the police force of the city of Pineville and was making a most valiant officer for criminals in general and was bringing many of them in to feel the halter draw, but in some way suspicion rested on him as being an accomplice in some robbery that was going on in that city. He had two accomplices in the bank robbery business. Smith would do police duty but of course could never see any one attempting to make a bank robbery. But when his two accomplices were apprehended, they peached on him and hence his present predicament. Mr. Smith will now face a jury and present the spectacle of the "Catcher being caught."

"The Girl of My Dreams." This delightful musical play—"refined and charming musical play"—as the Chicago, Philadelphia, Boston and New York observers declare. "The Girl of My Dreams" will be seen here at the Opera House on Thursday, Oct. 29. It is notable, they say, for the infectious lift of its melodies and for the especially artistic performance of Viola Cain in the leading feminine role of Lucy Medders and Bert Gardner as Harry Swifton, the bachelor, who is "ready to quit and be good."

The success of the music may be foreseen, inasmuch as the composer of the score was the late Karl Hoschna, who wrote the "featuring" tunes encoired in "Madame Sherry" and "High Jinks." The librettists, whose work proved in many cases to be no less entertaining for children than for adults, are Wilbur D. Nesbit, the Chicago Post humorist, and Otto Haerbach, the adapter of "Madame Sherry." The joint effort of Messrs. Nesbit, Haerbach and Hoschna had its first interpretation at the Illinois Theatre, Chicago, enjoying an extended run and returning later to the Chicago Opera House. This delightful musical play has been enthusiastically received in all the large Eastern cities, including a successful run at the Criterion Theatre, New York City. A large and excellent supporting company includes Irving Brooke, Roberta Taylor, Bud Murray, Marie Gronier, Adele Boulaise, George Carpenter, John Berkson and Harry Humphreys, the original De Luxe Pony Ballet and a big American Beauty chorus.
