Exploits of Elaine

I turned and saw Elaine looking over our shoulders, fascinated. It was evidently the first time she had realized that Kennedy was in the room.

"How can you tell anything by that?" she asked.

"Why, easily," he answered, picking up a glass paper weight which lay on the desk. "You see, I place my finger on this weight—so. You could see it even without the powder on this glass. Do you see those lines? There are various types of markings—four general types—and each person's markings are different, even if of the same general type—loop, whorl, arch or composite."

He continued working as he talked. "Your thumb marks, for example, Miss Dodge, are different from mine. Mr. Jameson's are different from both of us. And this fellow's finger prints are still different. It is mathematically impossible to find two alike in every respect."

Kennedy was holding the paper weight near the bust as he talked.

I shall never forget the look of blank amazement on his face as he bent over closer.

"My God!" he exclaimed excitedly, "this fellow is a master criminal! He has made stencils or something of the sort on which, by some mechanical process, he has actually forged the hitherto infallible finger prints!"

I, too, bent over and studied the marks on the bust and those Kennedy had made on the paper weight to show Elaine.

THE FINGER PRINTS ON THE BUST WERE KENNEDY'S OWN.

W. H. Holmes, of the Decatur, Iowa, Journal says: "I have been a sufferer from Piles and Hemorrhoids for years. I got no relief until my druggist recommended Meritol Pile Remedy. Before I had taken half the package the distress was gone and I have had no trouble since. I would not take a thousand dollars and be back in my former condition." Farmers' Big Rally.

Dr. Fred Mutchler, of State University, president of the Kentucky Farmers Union, will speak at the Court House in Richmond, Saturday afternoon, Feb. 13, at 1:30 o'clock, on topics of vital interest to every landlord and tenant in Madison county.

Dr. Mutchler is without doubt the best informed man in Kentucky on farming, farm conditions and farm possibilities in this State. For years he has owned and operated a farm in Western Kentucky and has been a highly paid official of the Government Agricultural Department. His farm extension work in the last three or four years has done more to advance agriculture in Kentucky than any one thing this State has had the benefit of in a generation. He knows your soil and what it will produce better than you do. Hear what he has to say about it.

All over the State farmers are organizing and discussing control and better prices for tobacco and other farm products. This meeting will mark the beginning of the forward movement in the county of Madison. Be there—Saturday afternoon, Feb. 13, at 1:30 p. m.

What the Farmers' Union can do for the farmer Dr. Mutchler will explain to you at the following places:

Richmond Saturday, Feb. 13, at 1:30. Cotoonburg, Monday night, Feb. 15, at 7:30 p. m.

Burton School House, Tuesday night, 16th, at 7:30.

Newby court house, Wednesday night, 17th, 7:30.

College Hill, Thursday, 18th, 7:30.

Waco High School, Friday night, 19, 7:30.

These talks will be full of valuable information for the farmer. T. H. Collins, the farm demonstrator, will be on hand and have something worth telling. Everybody invited. J. Ed Tudor, 5-21 President.

Rheumatism In Joints

Pain Disappears and Swelling Vanishes In a Few Days.

That is what happens if you use Rheuma, the wonderful remedy that B. L. Middleton and all druggists sell. It is the "money back if not cured" plan. There is a vast amount of rheumatism in the vicinity, and if you know any sufferer, call his attention to this generous offer. Rheuma is a quick-acting prescription. You will know your rheumatism is leaving 24 hours after you take the first dose. It dissolves the uric acid and drives it from its lodging place.

Mrs. Alice A. Brown, Ithaca, N. Y., writes: "For seven years I suffered greatly with rheumatism in my leg, at night I was scarcely able to sleep. One bottle of Rheuma cured me."

That sounds miraculous, but Rheuma does miraculous things. Fifty cents a bottle of B. L. Middleton, and all druggists—Adv. feb. 3-10.

in Chicago the night of the day on which Mr. Lincoln was nominated for president by the Republican convention, in May, 1860, and all unconscious of the terrible tragedy, she played with uncommon cleverness, and while yet the theater was ringing with laughter and applause, came the crack of the pistol shot from the president's box that plunged the country into mourning.

After Mr. Lincoln had been shot he was removed across the street from the theater to the residence of William Petersen, a highly respected merchant tailor, who lived directly opposite the playhouse, at 516 Tenth street. This house is still standing, as is also the old Ford theater, and both are now owned by the government. There have been few changes in the Petersen house.

For 40 years Osborn H. Oldroyd has been devoting himself to the assembling together of an invaluable collection, in which are included more than three thousand relics, which constitute, as Elizabeth Porter Gould has said, "one of the most interesting and valuable ever collected in behalf of a human being." The collection contains 250 funeral sermons, about seventy pieces of music, a thousand portraits, busts and medals, photographs of Booth, pictures of the assassin, the family cradle in which the Lincoln children were rocked, an original black locust rail split by the young man, then never dreaming of the place he was to fill in the history of the world; the family Bible from which Lincoln's mother read to him when he was a boy, and literally thousands of other things in some sort associated with the murdered president.

"The First American." As Lowell said of him, Lincoln was the first American. Whitman calls him "the sweetest, wisest soul of all my days and lands. And today he, the leader in a great civil war, is loved and revered by the South as well as the North. Some of the noblest tributes ever paid to him have been those paid by the Southerners. He belongs to the whole nation, and he is the only man since Washington of whom that can be said.

CATARRH OF KIDNEYS AND BLADDER
Peruna Saved Me

Mrs. A. T. Powers, whose address is given below her portrait, is an ardent friend of Peruna. She says: "I am thankful to tell you that my old trouble has never bothered me any since you received my testimonial. Any one wishing to know the facts in my case, if they will write me I will be glad to answer. Your medicine has saved me, and gave me perfect health. I frequently meet friends that know me when I was in poor health. They ask me what has made such a change in me. I always tell them that it was the nerve remedy, Peruna. I shall praise Peruna as long as I live!"

Those who object to liquid medicine can now procure Peruna in Tablet form.

Catarrh of the Internal Organs

Mr. James M. Powell, No. 1620 W. Walnut St., Rosedale, Kansas, writes: "About four years ago I suffered with a severe catarrh of the bladder, which caused continued irritation and pain. I was miserable and could not stand up or walk for any length of time without extreme weariness and pain. I began taking Peruna and it greatly relieved me and in eleven weeks I was completely cured, and felt like a new man."

Always The Best. Mr. M. Hamilton, who always has the best in the beef line, authorizes us to say to the people of this city that he has purchased some of the finest beef cattle to be found in the county—regular export beefs, which he is singling out for his exclusive trade. His large experience enables him to know "what is what" in cattle and he knows when and how to buy.

Recognized Advantages. You will find that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has recognized advantages over most medicines in use for coughs and colds. It does not suppress a cough, but loosens and relieves it. It aids expectoration and opens the secretions, which enables the system to throw off a cold. It counteracts any tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia. It contains an opium or other narcotic, and may be given to a child as confidently as to an adult. For sale by all dealers—Adv. feb.

For Rent. My two-story frame dwelling on Collins street, six rooms, bath, etc. Good stove. Apply to J. W. Hamilton, Phone 18. Mrs. W. B. Wearner. 9-1f
