REJOICES OVER PRESENT HEALTH

Mrs. M. Dunn Relates How She Found Relief From Taking Tanlac.

Louisville, Ky., May 11.—Mrs. M. Dunn, of 1617 Rowan street, Louisville, is one of hundreds who have used, and who have voiced their praise to its merits. She says she found relief by using this peerless preparation after she had tried many other medicines in vain.

"I suffered many months from vertigo," Mrs. Dunn said recently. "At times I was not strong enough to leave my bed. Often, when I did get up, was so weak and dizzy that I could hardly walk across the room. Several times I fell to the floor in a faint, and I even fainted in the street.

"I read in the newspapers that Tanlac was helping others, and decided to try it. It has relieved me of my trouble. I don't suffer any longer from dizziness and my strength has come back to me in a most remarkable way. I owe it all to Tanlac."

Tanlac, the premier remedy, has done for many others as much, and in many cases even more, than in Mrs. Dunn's case. It has proven beneficial in cases of rheumatism, catarrh, kidney, stomach and liver troubles, coughs and colds. It is especially valuable as a tonic. This preparation is now being sold in Richmond at H. L. Perry's drug store.—adv.

Better Times.

Business is on the upgrade in Kentucky and throughout the country generally. This is due to the increased price of cotton and the fine prospects of bumper crops.

An Old Relic

Col. David G. Martin while stringing the soil on his farm in Rockcastle county came across what appeared at first to be a trifle smaller than an old-fashioned one cent copper piece and although rusty the words were found to be on one side "General Winfield Scott, First in Peace and First in War." On the other side "Union and the Constitution Forever". It is supposed to have been a bronze badge used by General Scott, the Whig candidate for the presidency of the U. S. in 1852 when he was defeated by Franklin Pierce the democratic candidate.

Put A Bet On Him.

Don't poke fun at the boy who comes in from the forks of the creek, with seed in his hair and mud on his face, patches on the north department of his pants, and just one gallus on. He may look seedy now, but ten years from now he may be president of some bank, pastor of some church, judge of some court or physician to some people. Just because a boy lives in town, wears two kinds of socks, parts his hair in the middle, smokes a cigarette, curls his hair on his mother's curling tongs, and has a daddy with spondylitis to burn, that is no sign that he is going to run this country in the future. We'll put our money on the sound, sane and sensible boy from the forks of the creek.

"I DO LOVE A TREE"

I DO LOVE A GOOD TREE. There it stands, so strong and sturdy and yet so beautiful, a very type of the best sort of man. How proudly it lifts its bare head to winter storms, and with what a full heart it rejoices when the spring has come again! How grand its voice is, too, when it talks with the wind! A thousand aeolian harps cannot equal the beauty of the sighing of a great tree in leaf. All day it points to the sunshine and all night to the stars, and thus, passionless and yet full of life, it endures through the centuries, come storm, come shine, drawing its sustenance from the bosom of its mother earth.—Rider Haggard.

STOCK AND FARM

M. J. Farris, Jr. of Danville, returning from Cincinnati, where he witnessed an inspection of horses by government representatives, says the demand for sound horses for army use is practically unlimited, but horses that will pass the rigid inspection they are subjected to about as scarce as hen teeth. Mr. Farris was tendered a contract to supply horses, but declined on account of the extreme scarcity of horses in the country that come up to the specification required by the buying agents.

Sam L. Hays and a number of other farmers of the Alico section of Boyle sold their lambs to George W. Crain, Jr., to go June 1 to 10, at eight cents a pound.

J. W. Peck, of Turnersville, has delivered to Pence & Hill, of Stanford, his wool crop for the season, amounting to 135 pounds, for which he got 32 1/2 cents a pound. His fleeces averaged about four and a half pounds to the sheep.

The value of mules and horses exported in March amounted to $861,188.00 more than in the same month in 1914.

George M. Abell, of near Bardston, bought on December 16, a Hereford heifer, tipping the scales at 770 pounds, the cost three and one-half cents a pound. Mr. Abell sold the same cow last week to Joe Brown at 6c a pound, this time weighing 1,025 pounds. This cow was fed by Mr. Abell sixty days, the feed consisting of cotton seed meal, corn and clover hay, and in that time gained 255 pounds, or an average of four and a quarter pounds a day.

S. S. Ball, of Sharpsburg, sold to J. F. Cook, Lexington, for a Maryland buyer a handsome pair of mare mules, three and four years old, for $600. The mules weighed over 3,000 lbs. and were 16 1/2 hands high and premium winners.

Wheat at $1.10.—Mr. J. G. Cecil, of Danville, has sold his growing crop of wheat at $1.10 per bushel.

Big cattle deal.—Mr. Tom Bond, of Lawrenceburg, sold to Henry Knight and son 400 of the finest cattle ever fattened in Anderson county. This averaged about 1185 pounds and brought 7 1/4 cents per pound. A little figuring will show that there was over $36,000 involved in the deal. The cattle were shipped at the Bond & Lillard distillery near Lawrenceburg. The cattle were weighed up and shipped Saturday to the eastern market.

Lambs are plentiful and growing well. With good grass there is no reason why this country should not have one of the best crops of lambs ever raised. Some of the best pigs ever fattened in this country are reported this time, and they are making rapid growth.

Crop reports are showing larger acreage than ever in the history of the country, with good condition, but prices for wheat refuse to come down. Europe is laying in heavy supplies, and there is still a shortage in this commodity, although India and South America have followed our last harvest with supplies. The British government has been buying wheat in large quantities, and it develops, without the knowledge of the importers into that country.

Young animals, lambs, colts and calves are thriving, streams are replenished and there seems to be nothing lacking for the encouragement of the farmers.

A horse valued at $200, belonging to Roscoe Linville, near Millersburg, fell in a well one day last week and was drowned.

A fine walking horse, which was recently sold by Mr. Luther Hamilton to Clarence L. Kerr, of Lexington has been purchased by the Governor of Maryland at a fancy price. This horse is by Will Boggs, Lynn Boyd and was sold by Mr. Hamilton for $250. It is understood he eventually brought more than $500.—Winchester Democrat.

Suit Filed Against Clemmon's Estate
Suit for five years back taxes against the estate of Rankin Clemmons, the late eccentric holder of many acres of Blue grass land, was filed in Fayette county last week by Revenue Agent R. J. O'Ma honey, asking for the payment of taxes on $17,000 alleged to be held in a Harrodsburg bank. The years in which it is declared the taxes were not paid on the money are 1910, 1911, 1912 1913 and 1914.

THREE BAGGERS BY BILLY SUNDAY

Epigrams Typical of the Strenuous Evangelist.

SHADOW BOXES WITH SATAN

Declares That There Are Lots of "False Alarms" Who Are "Mean and Contemptible Even if Baptized Every Fifteen Minutes"—Great Moral Tide is Sweeping Over the Country.

THOSE who have followed Billy Sunday declare that the sermon he delivered on the opening day of his strenuous campaign in Paterson, N. J., is one of his best. In part it is as follows:

"They used to tell me that Paterson was a conservative town, but I have found more vigor, vim, tabasco sauce and peppero here than I ever saw before at an opening meeting.

"The eyes of the country are on Paterson today. We can do great things here if you will do your part. You know when you heard of Philadelphia you used to think of William Penn and the Indians, the Declaration of Independence and Benjamin Franklin munching a dry loaf and firing a kite with a key on the end of it, but now we think of it as the city where the Many Are Devil's Children.

"I do not believe in this cant about the universal fatherhood of God and brotherhood of man. We are not the children of God unless we are Christians. There are people in this world who are the children of the devil. All who are not saved are the children of the devil. You may say that all are creatures of God, but so are the beasts, so is the hog at his trough, but there is a heap of difference between being a creature of God and the son of God.

"Faith can tumble mountains into the sea. You remember when Joshua was fighting the enemies of God, and had a big hog at his trough, he saw the sun declining in the skies and called out to God that, if he would stop the sun and give him more daylight, he would whip that run soaked, idol worshiping crowd to a frazzle. Then God gave word to the sun to stand still until his servant Joshua gave him the high sign.

"There are three kinds of Christians. The first is those who become members of a church as insurance against eternal burning. The second is those who talk such trash as 'latent power.' God and the Holy Ghost are not in the church for them, and to them the church is but a third rate amusement bureau or a fashionable club. The third is the class from which the prophets of God come, from which Moses and Gideon came, from which Daniel came when he refused to hit the booze of Babylon.

God's Word Lost in Sham.
"God's Word is lost in sham, formula and ritualism.

"Now, I don't want you to think that I am a pessimist. I am an optimist. I believe that there never dawned in the United States a brighter day than this for true religion. I believe there was never a time when the people were thirstier than they are now for true religion, but there certainly never was a time when they were more disgusted with religions in which the meaning of the Word of God is lost in sham, formula and ritualism.

"Some people come to me and say, 'Bill, the trouble with the churches is that they need organization.' Oh, they are organized to death. The machinery of the church squeaks when you turn on the steam, but there is not enough of the true oil of faith in them to grease one axle in the chariot of the Holy Ghost.

"Why, we have all the societies and organizations in the world. There are the Y. M. C. A., the S. E., the Y. P. S. C. E., the W. C. T. U., the W. F. M. S. Oh, yes, and there is the J. E. L. Y. too. Why, they've got every combination in the alphabet.

"I believe that a great moral tide is sweeping the country and that you can no more stop it than you can dam up Niagara with toothpicks and cambrie needles.

"But no church door should be opened, no sermon should be preached, no
