THE PRESIDENT'S SPEECH.

President Wilson in a speech delivered at the Manhattan Club on November 4th, said:

"The only thing within our own borders that has given us grave concern in recent months has been that voices have been raised in America professing to be the voices of Americans which were not in deed and in truth American, but which spoke alien sympathies, which came from men who loved other countries better than they loved America, men who were partisans of other causes than that of America and who had forgotten that their chief and only allegiance was to the great government under which they live. These voices have not been many, but they have been very loud and very clamorous. They have proceeded from a few who were bitter and who were grievously misled. America has not opened its doors in vain to men and women out of other countries. The vast majority of those who have come to take advantage of her hospitality have united their spirits with hers as well as their fortunes. These men who speak alien sympathies are not their spokesmen, but are the spokesmen of small groups whom it is high time that the nation should call to reckoning."

In this utterance, President Wilson will receive the cordial support of every citizen who loves this country either as his native or adopted home. We have had quite enough of the hyphenated American. We are Americans, all. Otherwise we have no country, no government stronger than the foreign faction that claims allegiance to its mother country. One of the tests of citizenship should be that he renounce his native country and give his allegiance, his love to this country. When this is done, there is no necessity for the hyphen. Until the foreign element in this country love this country as their own and are willing to follow the flag in the thickest of the battles for the defense of their homes and friends, they are not entitled to citizenship. So far as we are concerned, we welcome all comers of whatever nationality and hope to see them come and become a part of our national life.

THE ELECTION.

The election is over but the contest for the office is still raring at fever heat. Charges and counter charges of fraud are heard on all sides. We take it that all fraud is not on one side. Now is a time for calm consideration and honorable and upright conduct from both sides. If the highest office of the state becomes a mere pawn to be bartered away by a few corrupt election officers, then the right of suffrage is a mere pretense, worthless to delude the honest yeomanry. With this condition of affairs, a dollar bill and a foster placed in juxtaposition are the real rulers of the country. And this condition will continue just as long as the honest man lies supinely on his back and allows the courts to make a farce of enforcing the laws against corrupt elections.

UNANIMOUS.

The name of Mr. John W. Crooke was presented to the caucus of the newly elected Councilmen and he was unanimously endorsed. This is a worthy selection and will meet with universal favor in this city.

Mr. Phil Moynehan has the contract for putting in the concrete abutments for the bridge to span the creek at Paint Lick, which is a sufficient guarantee the work will be first class.

Our Best Seller.

We are selling more of Meritol Eczema Remedy than all the others put together. This large sale is due to the fact that it is a preparation of unusual merit, made expressly for one purpose, eczema in its various forms.

Turkeys Moving.

The movement of turkeys is beginning over the State much earlier than last year. The raisers are beginning to realize that the turkey dressers must have the birds earlier in the month so as to get them on the Eastern markets. Already you can see wagons loaded with fat turkeys on our streets. The local dresser, F. H. Gordon, says that while there is a shortage reported here, there will be plenty of the white meat for everyone. Dressers over the State are paying 14 and 15 cents delivered at pens. This is from 2 to 3 cents more than was paid last year. If weather conditions are right the turkey dressers will be through by the middle of this month.

Colds Do Not Leave Willingly.

Because a cold is stubborn is no reason why you should be. Instead of "wearing" it out, get sure relief by taking Dr. King's New Discovery. Dangerous bronchial and lung ailments often follow a cold which has been neglected at the beginning. As your body faithfully battles those cold germs, no better ally can be given than the use of this remedy. Its merit has been tested by old and young. Get a bottle to day, 50c and $1.00. All druggists.

Special Services Sunday at Methodist Church.

At the morning hour 10:45, Dr. Crabbe will conduct the services and speak on the topic, "The Purchasing Agent's Story." What he bought, what he paid, what he got. Special music under direction of Miss Mary Traynor. At 7 o'clock, the hour will be given over to a Praise and Song Service. Vocal numbers will be arranged by Miss Traynor. The Orchestra, Mr. A. C. Marshall, Director, will assist in the program, rendering the following: Overture, Rossini Selection, Lucia di Lammermoor Donizetti. Clarinet Solo, "I Puritani," Luigi Bassi. Mr. Ralph Calla. Correct. Lives of some rich men remind us. You'll agree with me, I'm sure. That if wealth with greed must blind us. It is better to be poor.

The Wise Fool. "A man is known by the company he keeps," observed the sage. "Yes, and he is also known by the photograph records he buys," added the fool.

You Know Him. He often catches me to traps. I hate to hear him blow. He thinks that all the world's a stage. And he's the whole blame show.

Ruhl. "I see that they are talking of a plan to stamp the site on eggs the day they are placed in cold storage," observed the old fogey. "What's the use?" asked the grouch. "Ink fades after fifteen or twenty years."

Oh, Very Well. Dear Luke: "I thank you for the flowers you sent," she said. And then she smiled and hung her head. "I'm sorry for the words I spoke last night. Your lovely flowers convince me you were right. Forgive me!" He forgave her. And as they walked and talked for many hours He wondered whoever sent her those flowers. —McConnelville, O.

A Sure Thing. "An eastern man is going to start a school to teach housewives how to spend money," remarked Mrs. Gabb. "It is a lead pipe cack that the blamed fool is a single man," growled Mr. Gabb. "I suppose some other cheerful idiot will open a school to teach women how to talk."

Tough. You'll find the world is cold, I fear. When for some old you holler. For all your friends will shed a tear. But none will shed a dollar.

These Are Plenty Just Like Her. New Haven, Conn., claims to have discovered a young lady who, when asked by her grandmother what needles are for, answered that they are to make the phonograph play.

Brings Good Price. The sale of Mr. Wilson Tate, who lives on the Irvine pike, and advertised in the Climax-Madisonian, was well attended and everything brought good prices. Mules sold for $130; cattle $6.50 per hundred; corn in the field $2.65 a barrel. The farm was not sold.

A Happy Boy. Master Harry Hopper, Jr., the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hopper, is the happiest boy in Richmond, and possibly in Kentucky. Master Harry was the winner in the pony contest inaugurated by a number of our leading merchants, he having secured nearly two million votes in the contest. The pony and cart was awarded the winner at the Grand Opera House last Thursday night.

Fine Work. A large delegation of Million Rebekah Lodge, No. 28, of this city, piled into the big auto bus of Mr. Wm. Devores, and were driven to Lexington, where they attended the Grand State meeting of the order Wednesday and Thursday. Million Lodge is said to have the best degree team of any lodge in the State, and it put on the floor work at the Grand lodge to a queen's satisfaction. The staff is composed of the following: Mr. Byroo Just, Captain; Mrs. H. Just, N. G.; Mrs. E. E. Adams, V. G.; Mrs. T. S. Todd, P. N. Jackson, Mary Shaw and Sam P. Jones.

Get Ready

Everybody get ready! On next Wednesday night at the Grand Opera House in this city, the Big Home Talent Minstrel will take place. The "boys" have made unusual efforts to make this one of the banner attractions of the year, and it is needless to say it will come up to expectations. The "good things" of the season will be introduced by our local artists and you will miss a rare treat if you fail to attend. Following is the splendid program offered: Alabama Jubilee, Willie Elder My Dream Girl, E. S. Miss Wright's Organ Recital.

There are many things of which we may be justly proud, of none more so than the splendid recital at the Christian church. Its admirable qualities were shown to good advantage last night under the masterful touch of Miss M. Eva Wright, the new teacher of music at the Normal School. Miss Wright came recently from Norfolk, Virginia, where she had one of the largest and best organs in the South. Her program was well selected and brought out not only the possibilities of the organ but displayed her broad musicianship and superior technique. In phrasing and tone coloring, in the Suite, by Boellmann, and in the final number, Finlandia, by Sibelius, the performer exhibited a depth of emotion seldom heard from the organ. The initiated in music probably appreciated most her rendition of the Symphonie Pathetique, by Tschaiikowsky, and the extremely difficult Fugue in D minor, by Bach. In these numbers her technique was put to a supreme test, and she proved her mastery. The March of the Magi, by Du Bois, with its sustained B throughout the composition, has never before been heard here and the audience received it most favorably. Miss Wright's work on the pedals was refined and consistent throughout. She had a perfect control of all the registers of the organ as well as a flawless mastery of the organ touch, which is so difficult to acquire by pianists. Miss Wright was assisted by Miss Jeanie Haron Hurst, who read three numbers. Miss Hurst always gives us good things, and the readings were in her usual lofty and charming style. Her voice and her stage presence gave genuine pleasure to her hearers. A surprise was offered in the violin playing of Miss Helga Pratt Young, of Harveysville, who assisted Miss Haron in her reading of "The Wild Rose" by Roscoe Gilmore Stout. She also played the melody of the folk song in the Finlandia. Miss Young's playing was broad and soulful and her intonation was perfect. This bright young lady is making special work in music at the Normal school.

Dr. Barnes and President Orabbe gave some timely remarks on organ music. They expressed the hope in which we join them, that we might have a number of these recitals through the years.

For the past two years he has resided in Richmond, being a member of the Grand Opera House Orchestra. He is a high-toned gentleman and we gladly welcome him to our fold.

E. O. Harrington, Democrat, was elected Governor of Maryland by 3,503 majority.

The Kentucky Legislature, which meets the first Monday in January, will have 91 Democrats and 47 Republicans, a gain for the latter. There will be 63 Democrats in the House to 37 Republicans, and 28 Democrats and 10 Republicans in the Senate.

West Virginia elected a Legislature pledged to the passage of a State-wide amendment.

The new Constitution in New York was rejected by the voters.

For the second time in the history of the Sixth Kentucky Judicial District a Republican was elected Circuit Judge. R. W. Slack defeating Judge T. E. Burkhead, Democrat, by a majority of 727. Hon. Ben D. Ringo, who has been Commonwealth's Attorney for 12 years, was defeated by Mr. C. E. Smith, Republican.

Garrard county gave Stanley, Democrat, 58 majority for Governor over Morrow, while it gave Judge Lewis L. Walker, Republican candidate for Lieutenant Governor, a majority of 42.

Knox county gave Morrow, Republican, a majority of 830 for Governor over Stanley, Democrat. Judge James D. Black, Democratic nominee for Lieutenant Governor, carried Republican rock-ribbed Knox by 99 majority, thus attesting his popularity at home.

The Republicans elected Puchta Mayor of Cincinnati by a majority of 23,157.

Republicans also captured the New Jersey Legislature.

Hon. A. O. Stanley, Democrat, was elected Governor of Kentucky over Hon. Edwin P. Morrow, Republican, by a very narrow margin—the smallest margin ever given a gubernatorial candidate within the history of the State. Both sides are claiming the victory, but from the most authenticated reports, conceding everything claimed by the Republicans, Stanley has a lead over Morrow of 185 votes, and there is no possibility of Morrow winning.

Judge Jas. D. Black, Democrat, easily defeated Judge Lewis L. Walker, Republican, for Lieutenant Governor over Judge Black ran ahead of Stanley.

The remainder of the State Democratic ticket won by small majorities. Judge W. R. Shackelford had no opposition.

OF LOCAL INTEREST

Some People We Know, and We Will Profit by Hearing About Them.

This is a purely local event. It took place in Richmond. Not in some faraway place. You are asked to investigate it. Asked to believe a citizen's work. To confirm a citizen's statement. Any article that is endorsed at home is more worthy of confidence.

Than one you know nothing about. Endorsed by unknown people. Mrs. Morris Peel, 412 Walnut st., Richmond, says: "I always suffered from my back and nothing seemed to help me. In the State Senatorial race Dr. Evans, Republican, of Beattyville, beat to a frazzle Judge N. B. Turpin, Democrat, of this city,—about 700 votes.

For Representative of Madison County, Burrell Moore, Republican, defeated John F. White, Democrat, by 254 majority.

James W. Wagers, Democrat, defeated W. H. Grider, Independent Republican, for Circuit Court Clerk by a majority of 877.

Circuit Judge Chas. D. Kerr, who was re-elected Judge last Tuesday made a special charge to the Fayette County Grand Jury concerning violations of election laws in that county. He said: "Outrageous frauds have been committed, and it is your duty to punish those who are guilty."

Mayor elect James C. Rogers, Republican, who defeated James A. Watkins, Democrat, for Mayor of Lexington, in an address to the Board of Commerce said: "I have been designated in the campaign just closed as a liberal. I am liberal, but not in the sense that my opponents intended to convey. There will be no violation of the law while I am mayor. There will be no 'open town.' There are in Lexington 100 saloons. Let them open on Sunday and there will be just so many less saloons in Lexington on Monday."
