Blackleg Among Cattle

An outbreak of blackleg has occurred among the cattle in some sections in the northern part of the State. H. M. Herndon, living at Falsom, in Grant county, is said to have lost several head of cattle from the disease. Mr. Herndon is a brother of Mr. Jake Herndon, of Madison county, and well known to many of our citizens.

New Serial Story

Our readers will find in this issue, the first chapter of the beautiful story, "Santa's Sweetheart," by Imogen Clark. The children as well as the old folks, will take great delight in this story. It is a fine piece of literature. The concluding chapters will end about Christmas time. Read it and tell your neighbors.

New County Judge

Mr. Lee Evans, who was elected to fill the vacancy caused by the death of his father, Hon. J. H. Evans, County Judge of Clark county, was sworn in at Winchester last Thursday. Hon. J. M. Stevenson was appointed by Governor McCreary to fill the vacancy until an election could be held. He was not a candidate for the office for the remainder of the term, as he would not give up his large law practice for a county office.

Hobbs Wants To Be Speaker

Hon. W. C. G. Hobbs, representative-elect from the city of Lexington, wants to be speaker of the Lower House in the next General Assembly. His most formidable opponent for the place is Representative J. M. Duffy, of Crutcher, who is being backed by Northern Kentucky friends. Mr. Hobbs is a forceful speaker and has many friends throughout the State who would be delighted to see him win the honor. He served in the Legislature during the memorable session of 1898-1900, is past grand master of the Kentucky Odd Fellows, president of the Board of Control of the Fyffian Home, and was for two years vice-mayor of Lexington under both the administrations of Mayor Duncan and Mayor Combs and served as special judge in four judicial districts of the State by appointment of the Governor.

Result For Twenty Years

The following record of elections held in Kentucky in the last twenty years is of interest just now:

In 1895 Bradley, Republican, was elected Governor of Kentucky by 9,000 plurality.

In 1896 McKinley, Republican, carried the State 283.

In 1899 Taylor, Republican, on the face of the returns had a plurality for Governor over Goebel, Democrat, of 2,300.

In 1900 Beekham, Democrat, had a plurality for Governor over Yantis, Republican, by 8,500, and Bryan, Democrat, carried the State over McKinley, Republican, by 7,500.

In 1903 Beekham, Democrat, was again elected Governor over Balknap, Republican, by 28,000.

In 1904 Parker, Democrat, carried the State over Roosevelt, Republican, by 11,000.

In 1909 Wilson, Republican, was elected Governor over Hager, Democrat, by 19,000.

In 1908 Bryan, Democrat, carried the State for President over Taft, Republican, by 8,500.

In 1911 McCreary Democrat, was elected Governor, over O'Rear, Republican, by 31,000.

In 1912 Wilson, Democrat, for President, received 210,523 votes, and Taft and Roosevelt combined received 218,278 votes.

Carry Big Stocks

Tobacco manufacturers and dealers, in their semi-annual reports to the United States Census Bureau, stated on November 2 they were carrying in October 46,000,000 pounds of Burley tobacco more than at this period in 1914, and 14,000,000 more than October 1, 1913, according to statistics announced.

Increases over last year also are shown in the dark product of the Kentucky and Tennessee district and that of the Henderson district, but there is a decrease in the Green River and one sucker variety. In all varieties of Kentucky tobacco, the report shows, the manufacturers are holding less than on April 1, the date of the last census.

The report, which is published in conformity with the Cantrell act, requiring dealers and manufacturers, other than growers to state the amount held by them, shows there was more tobacco in the bonded warehouses of the Nation October 1 than in the fall of 1914 and 1913. The figures are: October 1, 1915, 1,205,762,948; 1914, 1,108,059,959; October 1, 1913, 1,108,779,052. The stock on hand April 1 of this year was 1,481,028,438.

FAY TO REVEAL GERMAN PLOTS

Reported Teuton Spy Has Confessed to Chief.

HELDS LONG CONFERENCE

Said to Have Told Story of the Activity of the German Secret Service in the United States to Chief Flynn—Revelations May Be Startling.

New York, Nov. 15.—The alleged German spy, Robert Fay, who, after fighting in the German army in the trenches, came to this country to carry on a plot for destroying ships of the allies, sailing from this port with munitions of war, sent a hurry call from his cell in the Tombs for William J. Flynn, chief of the secret service, and John C. Knox, special assistant United States attorney.

The ex-lieutenant was eager to talk to somebody. It was clear that he had come to some decision about his future attitude regarding the charges against him and he must unburden himself at once. Mr. Knox could not be reached, but the chief reached the Tombs just as reporters were gathering there in the hope of communicating with Fay.

The reason for Fay's apparent change of attitude toward the government officials has been apparent for several days. Though he has done everything in his power to shield men associated with him, he has learned that certain persons who were allied with him have not been as staunchly faithful as he.

For more than an hour the chief talked with Fay in the counsel room and he is reported to have taken notes even more copiously than a reporter. What was discussed between the two men is not known, but it is believed that the bomb plotter could not be learned from Mr. Flynn.

From reliable sources, however, the following three significant facts were learned:

First, that Fay has offered to turn state's evidence.

Second, the story which Fay has told about himself has been verified in Europe almost to a word.

Third, the United States has evidence corroborating Fay's story, as already printed, and connecting the German secret service with the plans to wreck munition ships, blow up or set fire to munition factories in this country.

If Fay swings over to the prosecution's side, it seems certain that Walter Scholz, his mechanic and chief aide, will do likewise, however, was not called in to the conference.

Lexington Indicted.

This may mean a clean sweep of all fruit stands from the city's thoroughfares.

Robert B. Lovel Dead.

Maysville—Robert B. Lovel, seventy-seven years old, dropped dead in the bathroom at his residence here last night, having just returned from the theater. Heart disease was the cause. He was born in Lewis county and served that county as sheriff for years and was for two terms State Senator from this district. He was an uncompromising Democrat. He had been this city's leading grocer for thirty six years.

CLUB NOTES.

The General Federation has undertaken nothing more important in the quarter ending with the election of the Executive Board which it is promoting for next March 4th. The November General Federation Magazine contains many details in regard to this celebration, and other matter bearing on the subject will appear from time to time, both in the public prints and in communications to clubs. This is a tremendous undertaking, but when it is remembered that our country allows the sacrifice each year of thousands of infants whose lives might be saved under proper conditions, and that every man and woman in the country is responsible in a measure for this waste, universal interest and co-operation should greet the enterprise. Let club women everywhere be on the lookout for items in regard to this event, and let all join hands to make Baby Week a grand success.

The Women's Club of Stanford, Kentucky, is to be congratulated upon a most unique and delightful entertainment in the way of a "Ladies' Minstrel" given by the members. There were eighty people in the performance, each one deserving special mention. Miss Esther Burch especially deserving of much credit in directing the minstrel. The first part was particularly clever. The ladies had an elevated stage built and when the curtain rose on some thirty or more of them all wearing "Swallow Tail" coats, white waists and skirts and otherwise "dressed to kill," the scene was an inspiring and pretty one. There came in the eight jolly end women blacked in regular minstrel style, wearing suits of red, trimmed in white, with the jauntiest little hats imaginable. Ladies be seated, said the interloper—Mrs. William Severance—and then the fun began. The jokes were all funny and new and the "take offs" on many of the people of Stanford, brought forth much laughter. The singing of Dixie, Yankee Doodle, Old Kentucky Home and other old melodies by the big chorus, directed by Mrs. T. J. Hill, was a pleasing feature of the evening program. A nice sum was realized and it will go toward buying new books for the library.

The first number of the Kentucky Women's Journal, official organ of the Kentucky Federation of Women's Clubs, has made its appearance, and it fulfills in every respect the hopes of club women in the State, who for six months have been looking forward with interest to the initial issue.

Too much praises can scarcely be given to the editor, Mrs. J. H. Dickey, who has labored so faithfully to make it successful. Having served as chairman of the Press Committee of the State Federation for several years, and having been a newspaper correspondent during those years, Mrs. Dickey is well fitted to hold the position of editor which was assigned to her at the last annual meeting of the Federation in Lexington.

GERMAN SPY SYSTEM IN U. S.

Charges Violation of Neutrality by Spending Millions.

Providence, R. I., Nov. 15.—The Providence Journal says: "A vast fund of money, amounting to between $25,000,000 and $40,000,000 has been spent in this country in the past four months for propaganda work against the allies, under the immediate supervision of Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, and Dr. Heinrich Albert, privy councillor who describes himself as the fiscal agent of his government."

"The Journal has positive record of the receipt by Ambassador von Bernstorff and Dr. Albert of at least $10,000,000 in the time mentioned. A great deal of this money has come through the Guaranty Trust company of New York."

The Journal charges that not one dollar of this money has been spent for legitimate purposes, but that all of it is going for propaganda work of the most vicious description. One item alone, the maintenance of a bureau for dragging men out of munition factories, amounts to many millions of dollars.

SERBS SLOWLY FALLING BACK

Driven Through Mountains by Teutons.

ALLIES WIN SUCSESSES

Bulgars Delt Hard Blows by Anglo-French Forces—Political Situation in Greece Presents Grave Possibilities—Russians Victorious Again.

London, Nov. 15.—Before the advance of the Austro-German armies the Serbians are falling back from mountain ranges. Reports enumerate the capture of one thousand or more prisoners daily, a few guns and quantities of stores.

For the moment, the political situation is graver than the military. The central powers again have protested to Greece against the landing of allied troops at Salonika. King Constantine is reported to have replied that he has no intention of Greek rights in the landing and that Greece will remain neutral until one of the belligerents has transgressed against those rights.

The Serbians are fighting continuously, however, and are inflicting considerable losses on their pursuers.

Along the eastern front the Serbians appear to be holding their own against the Bulgarians and are making a stand on the western bank of the Morava river. So stubborn has been their resistance the Bulgarians have had to call for assistance from the Austro-German artillery in their effort to drive the defenders out of Katchanik pass. Thus far they have been unsuccessful.

The British and French troops, which are receiving reinforcements, are meeting with some success, and, besides repulsing the Bulgarian attacks, have undertaken small offensive movements with good results. The Austro-Germans and the Bulgarians, however, made such progress from the beginning of the campaign that it will take serious work now to check them.

The Serbians have definitely repelled Field Marshal von Hindenburg's drive toward Riga and Dvinsk and along the Dvina river and have themselves been able to make only slow progress in the marsh region west of Riga.

Along the Styr river in the south the Austro-Germans by a counter-stroke have pierced the Russian lines and captured 1,500 prisoners, according to the Berlin official statement.

On the western front there have been no events of importance.

The Italian government has sent an official communication to the neutral governments dealing with the sinking by a submarine of the Italian liner Ancona, which was sunk in the Adriatic. The note denies that the Ancona carried any arms or contraband or persons in belligerent military service, or that there were any circumstances justifying such an attack as a necessity of war.

WARNED BEFORE BEING ATTACKED

Austrian Government on Sinking of the Ancona.

ASSUMES FULL RESPONSIBILITY

Official Report Says Austrian Submarine Gave the Italian Commander Forty-five Minutes to Abandon the Liner and Blames the Crew for Loss of Life—Adds That Vessel Attempted to Escape.

Washington, Nov. 15.—The case of the Italian liner Ancona, which has been a puzzle to the state department ever since she was torpedoed in the Mediterranean last Tuesday, was presented in still a new light with the issuance of a statement by the Austro-Hungarian embassy giving the official account of the destruction of the liner. In this statement the Austro-Hungarian government assumes full responsibility for the sinking of the Ancona—that is, that they lost their lives on the vessel when she was torpedoed before it was supported by proof before it will be accepted as a basis for action by this government.

While the Austro-Hungarian statement, if accepted as correct, disposes of the question as to whether the Ancona was warned before being attacked, it raises still another issue in which the United States government may prove to be vitally concerned. In case it is shown that any Americans were killed by the actual torpedoing of the Ancona—that is, that they lost their lives on the vessel when she was torpedoed rather than by being hit by shells, or after leaving the ship in lifeboats—it is believed the United States would demand satisfaction from the Austro-Hungarians.

The Austro-Hungarian statement says that after fifty minutes the submarine submerged and torpedoed the Ancona because another steamer was coming up. Reports of survivors have indicated that this took place before all had left the ship. Precisely the same thing happened in the Falaba case, and resulted in one American losing his life.

The official statement of the Austro-Hungarian embassy, which consisted of the text of a dispatch from the Austrian admiralty, was as follows:

"The submarine fired one shell before the steamer's bow upon which the steamer fled under full speed. According to orders of the Italian authorities steamers must flee or attempt to sink submarines. The submarine pursued the steamer and continued firing at the steamer which stopped only when hit several times. The submarine allowed forty-five minutes to abandon the steamer. Panic reigned, but only small boats were lowered, and they were occupied principally by the crew. A great number of passengers were killed, and many passengers, remained unoccupied. After fifty minutes, the submarine, in presence of approaching steamer, submerged and torpedoed Ancona, which sank after forty-five minutes. If passengers, who were in the lifeboats, were attending the market, the submarine fired on the lifeboats as pernicious inventions."

Austrian Aeroplanes Drop Bombs on City of Verona.

Rome, Nov. 15.—Thirty persons are dead in Verona as a result of three Austrian aeroplanes dropping bombs on the city. The other persons were seriously and slightly injured. The bombs of the air craft found most of their victims in the principal square of the city, where citizens and peasants from the outlying districts were attending the market. Nineteen persons were killed by one bomb. The aeroplanes visited various parts of the city, but none of the missiles dropped by them fell near any of the military buildings.

WEEKLY WAR REVIEW

Teutons and Bulgarians the past week continued their efforts to cut off or annihilate the Serbian army. These efforts, however, are growing more difficult, as the Serbians now have occupied, according to their official report, defensive positions in the mountains. Heavy fighting is reported on the Moravia. Big battles also are proceeding in southern Serbia between the Bulgarians and the Anglo-French troops. Rome announced Nov. 13 that Italy had decided to send troops to aid the English and French. The common landing of British and French troops at Salonica caused Bulgaria and Turkey to send fresh protests to the Greek government. A dispatch dated Nov. 14 states that four German officers arrived at Salonica from Sofia on Oct. 25 and spent three days motoring in that district, especially in the section where the allied troops were concentrated on the 23rd. It is said that the Germans constitute a special mission, whose object was to establish relations between the governments at Athens, Constantinople, Bucharest and Sofia.

Try It Yourself.

In Missouri where they raise more mules and children than in any other place in the world, a certain resident died possessed of seventeen mules and three sons. In his will he disposed of the mules to his sons as follows: One-half to the oldest, one-third to the next and one-ninth to the youngest. The administrator who went to divide the property drove a span out to the farm, but when he went to divide the 17 into halves, thirds and ninth he found it impossible with live mules; mules not being very valuable, he unhitched one of his own, putting it with the others, making 18, when he proceeded to divide as follows: One half, or 9, to the eldest; one third, or 6, to the next; one ninth, or 2, to the youngest. Adding 9, 6 and 2, he found he had 17, so he hitched up his own mule and went home rejoicing—Ladies Home Journal.

Clean-Up Day.

Friday and Saturday, November 19th and 20th, have been set aside by Mrs. Andrew J. Campbell, Chairman of the Clives in the Kentucky Federation of Women's Clubs, as "Municipal House Cleaning Days" for the State.

This is a call to the 24,000 Club women of Kentucky to see that the cities and towns in which they live are cleaned on those days.

Clubs are asked to have the mayors of their cities to issue a proclamation declaring these days "Clean-Up Days," urging all citizens to enter into a joint effort to make their city perfect.

Following are some of Mrs. Campbell's suggestions:

1. Take all ashes and trash from your rubbish to the dumping ground.
2. If the city does not furnish teams, suggest to the men owning them that they drive through the streets with a sign—"Clean Up Wagon"—on their wagons with a bell calling attention.
3. Burn all rubbish that will burn. Clean your vacant lots and alleys.
4. Make your streets and parking look as neat and well kept as possible.
5. Refrain from throwing rubbish in the streets.
6. Sow grass seed and plant flower bulbs to make your home as beautiful as possible.
7. If your store front is dingy, paint it.
8. If you have unsightly dumps in your back yard, remove them.
9. Tear down unsightly sheds on your premises; they detract from the beauty of your home and town. Open spaces and fresh air are better.
10. If your walk is an eye-sore to those traveling over it, repair it or build a new one.
11. Clean out the alleys back of the business houses at once.

By all means do your part to make your town cleaner and more attractive.

Admits Defeat For Governor.

Hon. Edwin P. Morrow, Republican candidate for Governor against Hon. A. O. Stanley, Democratic Governor elect of Kentucky, issued a formal statement to the people last Thursday, in which he concedes the election of his opponent. Mr. Morrow's statement breathes the spirit of a patriot and conclusively proves he is an upright, courageous and manly man. He has emboldened himself in the hearts of his constituents, and gained the respect and confidence of thousands who do not favor him politically. Mr. Morrow disclaims any and all intentions of instituting a contest before the Legislature. Following is his statement:

To the People of Kentucky: After eight days of doubt the closest election the State ever knew is at an end. The official count now discloses Mr. Stanley's election by a small plurality, and however, or by what methods, obtained I shall accept it as final.

To plunge the State into a contest before the legislature would retard its progress, stop its development and create strife and bitterness. The welfare of Kentucky, its people and its material prosperity is above the ambition of any man or the success of any party. Although defeated, I feel that out of my campaign has and will, come only good for my State. I believe I have awakened the conscience of Kentucky to extravagance and inefficiency in the conduct of the public business, to the desperate condition of the public treasury and, above all, to the truth that broken promises to the people bring only evil consequences.

The next year will see enacted an anti-lobby law to destroy the "Shack That Graft Built," a corrupt practice act to protect the ballot and the public office, a scientific and equitable tax law. And in all the departments of State there will be an awakening and a guard placed over the expenditure of the people's money. Believing I will have been instrumental in procuring these results I feel that I have not labored in vain.

I thank the people of Kentucky without regard to party for their personal kindness to me throughout the campaign and for their confidence in me as expressed at the polls. To those who fought and labored for me I attempt to give no word of praise—my gratitude is above words. With all my power I shall continue the battle for the good of Kentucky and the welfare of her people.

EDWIN P. MORROW.

WEEKLY WAR REVIEW

Teutons and Bulgarians the past week continued their efforts to cut off or annihilate the Serbian army. These efforts, however, are growing more difficult, as the Serbians now have occupied, according to their official report, defensive positions in the mountains. Heavy fighting is reported on the Moravia. Big battles also are proceeding in southern Serbia between the Bulgarians and the Anglo-French troops. Rome announced Nov. 13 that Italy had decided to send troops to aid the English and French. The common landing of British and French troops at Salonica caused Bulgaria and Turkey to send fresh protests to the Greek government. A dispatch dated Nov. 14 states that four German officers arrived at Salonica from Sofia on Oct. 25 and spent three days motoring in that district, especially in the section where the allied troops were concentrated on the 23rd. It is said that the Germans constitute a special mission, whose object was to establish relations between the governments at Athens, Constantinople, Bucharest and Sofia.

Try It Yourself.

In Missouri where they raise more mules and children than in any other place in the world, a certain resident died possessed of seventeen mules and three sons. In his will he disposed of the mules to his sons as follows: One-half to the oldest, one-third to the next and one-ninth to the youngest. The administrator who went to divide the property drove a span out to the farm, but when he went to divide the 17 into halves, thirds and ninth he found it impossible with live mules; mules not being very valuable, he unhitched one of
