

Italy Threatens to Withdraw from Conference Conflict With New Jugo-Slav State over Former Austrian Seaport of Fiume Develops Crisis at Paris

(By Associated Press)
March 21—Bulletin — The Italian delegation to the Peace Conference has decided unanimously to withdraw from the conference unless Fiume is assigned to Italy contemporaneously with the conclusion of peace.

The decision of the Italian delegation apparently brings to a head the bitter controversy between Italy and the new Jugo-Slav state over the disposition of land along the Adriatic, formerly belonging to Austria-Hunbary, which both nationalities claim. Italy originally claimed virtually the entire Dalmatian coast including Trieste and Fiume, the latter being the second principal seaport on the eastern side of the Adriatic. Recently it was indicated that Italy was willing to make important concessions if given Fiume. The Jugo-Slavs insisted, however, that that city is essentially Croatian and necessary to the new Jugo-Slav state but apparently Italy has refused to yield on that point.

Just what brought the matter to a crisis, has not been developed in Paris advices.

Claims Against Germany Total $40,000,000,000

(By Associated Press)
Paris, Thursday, March 20—The chief issue of the question of reparation now is not what Germany should pay but what she can pay. The commissions which have studied the subject have reduced claims to a total of about forty billion dollars, of which the United States claims about a billion. One proposal was to spread the payment over 40 years which with interest, would make a total of eighty billions.

The Americans, however, believe twelve billions are about the limit of Germany's ability to pay.

"THE BIRD OF PARADISE"

In "The Bird of Paradise", which will be seen at the Lexington Opera House Friday and Saturday, March 21st, and 22nd, with Saturday matinee you will see a play that is now in its eighth season on the road and each year it seems to entwine itself more firmly around the hearts of theatre-goers. Richard Walton Tully, one of our best atmospheric writers, is the author.

"The Bird of Paradise" is a sound ethical, political and racial lesson. Its lessons are absolute; it is also strong, virile drama, and contains a thoroughly absorbing love story.

Manager Morosco, who has been introducing new leading women each season, this time will offer Florence Rockwell in the role of Luna, and others in the cast include the sweet-voiced Hawaiian singers and players, who help to make this play one of the most interesting stage novelties of the past decade.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. McLaughy and guest, Mrs. Cynda Karr, of Harrogate Tenn., spent Thursday in Lexington.

Mrs. Margaret Sickles, of Lexington, is visiting Mrs. Allen Zaring.

Paderewski Appeals For A Strong Polish State

Warsaw, Tuesday, March 18—"Germany, although defeated in the west is not yet beaten in the east and if her aims in that part of Europe are to be frustrated and there is to be peace there must be a strong Poland." Premier Paderewski declared today. He also said "the same men who organized the present war count on reorganizing Russia in their own interests. If they do they will have an endless supply of labor and raw material and with these reinforcements would inevitably stamp her dominion on the whole world. A strong Poland alone can block that plan."

"THE BONDAGE OF BARBARA"

A smashing climax involving Mae Marsh in a decidedly different role is the feature of the star's newest Goldwyn picture, "The Bondage of Barbara," which comes to the local theatres Friday. Miss Marsh in boy's clothes climbs up to the attic of a roadhouse, where her brother is kept a prisoner. He has been placed there by the men responsible for a theft, which Barbara has paid for with a year of her life in the reformatory. She takes her brother's place and induces him to go to the district attorney and explain everything.

When his captors find her they seek to hurry her out of the place. It is then that Miss Marsh puts up a fight such as will amaze the admirers of the erstwhile portrayer of altogether feminine types. She proves a match for the two men, her struggles being brought to an end only by the arrival of those cognizant of her plan to bring the criminals to justice.

The charm of "The Bondage of Barbara," is manifested in Miss Marsh's mimic home, her devotion to her brother and the love scene with her lawyer sweetheart, all of which blend into an unusually vital photoplay.

A GOOD ROAD'S ARGUMENT

Bad roads in Knox county led to the undoing of an unidentified stranger who was halted near Flat Lick while hauling 24 cases of whisky, valued at $1,000, from Lexington to Lynch, in Harlan county. The team mired in mud and the cargo was discovered. The driver, who refused to reveal his name, was taken before Magistrate Sam Jackson at Flat Lick and fined $10 on five counts and given a ten day jail sentence. The whisky was stored at Flat Lick and during the night was stolen, according to reports from that town, thieves breaking into the warehouse and making off with the entire 24 cases. The owner continued his refusal to tell his name and five additional warrants were taken out.

School Teachers Will Put Money In Circulation

County Superintendent Ben F. Edwards, accompanied by Messrs. A. J. Millon and W. R. Haden, of the County Board of Education, went to Valley View yesterday and tentatively selected three sites for the new consolidated school building, which will house the Valley View and the Miller schools. It is not known as yet positively which site can be secured, so the committee took options on all of them.

Supt. Edwards has received checks from the State Department of Education for the fifth and sixth installments of the salaries of the county school teachers. Each installment amounts to $5,300, so it can be seen that the county pedagogues are going to put quite a bit of money in circulation very shortly.

Thompson and the King boy had had some words over a girl that both had been going to see, but after that no serious trouble was expected. The King boy with his brother, Sam King, went to the depot to go to Mt. Vernon and just a few minutes before the train arrived, the Thompson boy, accompanied by his friend, Frank Boone drove up in a buggy, and immediately drew his gun and instantly killed Pate King, and then fired one shot at Sam King, which took effect in his side. He was not able to attend the trial. Thompson was held over to circuit court without bond and the Boone boy was released on $1,000 bond to appear at the next term of court. Mr. Boone furnished the conveyance and also the weapon for Mr. Thompson. All boys connected were not over 18 years of age.

BLOODHOUNDS ON TRAIL OF BURGLARS

Stanifer's Store Robbed and Lexington Dogs Follow Scent Out Water Street To Railroad.

Capt. V. G. Mullikin's bloodhounds from Lexington trailed from a rear cellar window of J. S. Stanifer's store out Water street, then to the railroad on East Main yesterday, but quit there and it is believed that the burglars who made a good haul at this popular clothing store Wednesday night, caught a train and got out of town.

The robbery was discovered when Mr. Stanifer and his staff opened up the store Thursday morning. No mention of it was made yesterday as Mr. Stanifer was hoping the robbers were in town and that the bloodhounds which were promptly phoned for, might trail him or them.

An iron bar had been prized off one of the rear basement windows. So far the booty that the thief obtained as far as goods in the store can be checked up, were three suits of clothes three pair of $9 shoes, three pairs of $11 shoes and $7 in cash from the cash register.

Footprints that the burglar made in the soft earth outside the cellar window, were plainly visible, and the hounds took trail immediately, going straight to the railroad. A second trail was made and they went the same route over again and all concluded that the burglars caught a train out of town.

MARSHAL FOCH NEVER DESPAIRED

He Says, Speaking To Associated Press, Upon Anniversary of Great German Drive Toward Amiens

(By Associated Press)
Paris, March 21—Marshal Foch reminded today of the anniversary of the great German offensive toward Amiens which he later turned into a retreat, was asked to explain his method. He said there is too much to tell in a few words but that "when one has faith one does not retire. You tell I gave the victory to France. It was our admirable soldiers who gave it. I have but one merit, that of never despairing."

A year ago today, the German army, at the peak of its power, poured down on the British lines in Picardy, bent on winning an overwhelming victory before the Americans should reach the front. Within less than nine months the American first and second armies had broken the hinge of the whole enemy front with the capture of Sedan, while decided victories had been won by the British and French. Today Germany no longer exists as a military power. Her gigantic war machine has collapsed and the American army she sought to avoid stands astride the Rhine with the British and French and all Germany at their mercy.

Restrictions Removed On Italian Lira Exchange

(By Associated Press)
Washington, March 21—All restrictions on the sale or purchase of Italian lira exchange were removed today by the Federal Reserve Board until further notice. This follows the removal of artificial maintenance of foreign exchange rates by the British, French and Italian government and is another step toward allowing free and natural competition in the foreign exchange markets throughout the world. Government officials regard it as a highly important measure accompanying the readjustment of international trade relations to a normal peace time basis.
