EX-CROWN PRINCE BACK IN GERMANY

Allies View Escape of "Little Willie" From Holland As Fraught With Significance

(By Associated Press)
Paris, June 27—Frederick William Hohenzollern, former German Crown Prince, has escaped from Holland and made his way into Germany. The event has caused considerable stir in peace conference circles. While it is not felt he is a figure around which the reactionaries and monarchists would gather enthusiastically, nevertheless the act is regarded as an event of considerable significance in view of the other German recalcitrancy.

Counter Revolution In Berlin Expected Soon

(By Associated Press)
London, June 27—Bulletin—Disorders are increasing in Berlin, according to Amsterdam reports. Many streets there are barricaded and there have been serious engagements between government troops and mobs. In military circles in Berlin, the dispatch adds, it is asserted a counter revolution will begin as soon as a communist revolt against the government is started.

Von Hindenburg asked by Minister of Defense Noske, concerning the allied rejection of the German reservation in the peace treaty, said in the event of resumption of hostilities the Germans could maintain their eastern frontiers but he hardly was able to reckon on success in the west. "But," he added, "as a soldier, I must prefer an honorable fall to an ignominious peace."

Meanwhile the industrial council has assumed full political and military power in Hamburg and is sitting in the town hall. According to Berlin newspaper advices, a strong force has been ordered to restore order.

Senate Asks House To Expunge Johnson's Remarks

(By Associated Press)
Washington, June 27—Action rare in Congressional history, was taken today by the Senate in unanimously adopting a resolution by Senator Robinson, democrat of Arkansas, virtually requesting the House to expunge from Congressional Record the recent address containing an attack by Representative Johnson, of Kentucky, upon Senator Pomerene, democrat, of Ohio. It was the outgrowth of his controversy with Pomerene over this District of Columbia rent profiteering legislation and which Robinson characterized as "violent, abusive, vituperous and denunciatory."

SAVAGE PAYS $4,500 FOR MOBERLY HOME

The attractive home of Neville Moberly on Woodland avenue was sold to E. W. Savage of the Savage-Smith Lumber and Coal Company, on his bid of $4,500 at the public sale of this desirable place Wednesday afternoon. The sale was conducted by L. P. Evans, local real estate dealer. Many regard it as the cheapest piece of property sold in Richmond in a long time, as the house has every modern convenience. Mr. Moberly plans to erect a home on the attractive site he purchased from J. J. Neale on the Lexington pike a few days ago.

Mr. Evans, who sold the house on the Summit for Miss Margaret Parrish to Wm. Millard, mentioned previously, sold another of Miss Parrish's houses to County Clerk J. W. Maupin Wednesday. It is located on Fourth street and is an attractive little home. Mr. Maupin paid $2,500 for it.

Takes Some Time To Get Fords In Western States

Supt. Handin, of the Ford Assembling plant at Cincinnati, was in Richmond Monday with Manager Galt, of the Sales Department, going over conditions with Madison Garage officials, who have trouble getting enough machines to take care of a constant demand for them. Supt. Handin has just recently been transferred from Salt Lake City, where he was in charge of a lot of territory in the west. He told the local dealers their troubles in securing cars are meagre compared with those in the western states, many of whom have orders as far as two years ahead in the factory for cars.

Hunting Oil In Mercer

Plans for developing oil and gas prospects on a 4,000 acre lease in the Deep Creek section of the west end of Mercer county, are progressing. Mr. Moss, of Louisville, brother of Judge McKenzie Moss, of Bowling Green, was in Harrodsburg and on the lease this week, getting things lined up in a preliminary way. Harrodsburg men will contribute about $20,000 towards financing the oil development and outside interests will supply the remainder. On two farms of this lease there are especially good prospects as one man runs his thrasher and machinery with oil from a well bored about two years ago for stock water purposes, and at the other farm there is a well with a flow of gas so strong that it will ignite from a match held twenty feet above the opening.

Club House Burns On Dix River

The frame clubhouse at Camp Gravey, on the Dix river, was completely destroyed by fire last Saturday afternoon. A house party was being held there at the time of the fire and dinner was being served. The members had just started their noon meal when a terrific explosion was heard in the kitchen. A defective coal oil stove was the cause and so rapidly did the flames spread that every effort to check them was futile. Very little was saved; the members of the party lost $75 worth of personal belongings, and Mike Gearty, who had rented the clubhouse for the summer, lost about $100 worth of furnishings. The house was owned by Ross Penman and carried no insurance. Miss A. Fox was overcome by the smoke while attempting to meet some belongings and was carried out by Lanley Byron who was fighting the flames in the adjacent room. The Dix river has been named by William Brown of Whitesville. It is marked on the map as a tributary of the river.

MRS. WM. DEVORE DIES WEDNESDAY

Mrs. Anna Elizabeth Devore, wife of William Devore, one of Richmond's best known citizens, died at their home on East Main street at 4:15 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Devore was 72 years of age, and though of unusually robust constitution, for the past year she has been failing rapidly of ills incident to years, and the end came peacefully and quietly to this good woman toward the close of the summer's day.

Mrs. Devore was a remarkable woman in many ways. She was a devout member of the Christian church, having been converted under the preaching of the late Rev. George O. Barnes, some 40 years ago. She loved her church and as long as she was able was a constant attendant at all its services. Truly a "Mother in Israel" has gone to her reward.

Before her wedding to Mr. Devore in 1868 she was Miss Anna Elizabeth Jefferon, a member of a well known Madison county family. To this union, always a happy one, 11 children were born, five of whom with the husband and father, survive. They are Mrs. Robert B. Terrill, Mrs. Lena Dickerson, Chief of Police Claude Devore, Miss Katie Devore, and Frank Devore, just back from his country's service in France. A host of friends mourn with them in the loss of their trust and best friend—their mother. A woman of engaging personality and beloved by all, Mrs. Devore's passing takes from her family circle its strongest link and the hearts of her friends and loved ones go out in deepest sympathy to the bereft husband and children, in their hour of sorrow.

Funeral services will be conducted at the home Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, by the pastor of her church, Rev. Homer W. Carpenter. Interment will be in the Richmond cemetery. The pallbearers will be Messrs. N. B. Deatherage, P. M. Pope, J. W. Hamilton, E. V. Elder, B. E. Belue and M. F. Enright.

Local Ice Plant Kept Busy

The Richmond Ice Company is finding business brisk these summer days. In addition to taking care of the needs of this city in plendid shape, a large amount of ice is being shipped daily to Hazard, Beattyville and Berea, whose ice manufacturing plants have been out of commission on account of breakdowns. Local Manager Yates is having no trouble taking care of all demands upon his plant and has it doing first class work.

Start Work on Lancaster's New Big Tobacco Warehouse

Officer Shot By 'Shiners'

Deputy Sheriff Maryland D. Bates, of Thornton Creek, returned in Whitesburg from the mountains near Jenkins, where he had been on a moonshine raid. The officer became separated from his posse and ran upon two moonshiners carrying a quantity of whisky. Deputy Sheriff Bates asked them to surrender, whereupon one of them opened fire at close range. A battle followed. Bates escaped with only a shattered arm and slight flesh wounds in this side and back.

Who Is She?

The Cynthiana Democrat in its Bourbon county news said this week: "The body abandoned a few miles from Whitesburg was claimed by 77 members of the Whitesburg High School." It is a mystery.

MRS. CHENAULT DIES IN MT. STERLING

Mrs. Margaret K. Chenault, a native of Madison and widely related here, died at her home in Mt. Sterling Sunday. The Mt. Sterling Advocate said of her passing:

Mrs. Margaret Kavanaugh Chenault, aged 90 years, one of Montgomery county's most respected and best loved women, died at the home of her son, Judge W. O. Chenault, on Sunday morning, June 22 and was laid to rest in the family cemetery beside her husband and two sons at 2:30 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon. The funeral service was conducted at the family residence by her pastor, Rev. Clyde Darsie, of the Christian church.

In 1852 Margaret Kavanaugh Oldham, daughter of Hezekiah Oldham, of Madison county, was married to Anderson Chenault, son of David Chenault, a famous pioneer Baptist preacher whose work among those to whom he ministered is yet counting for good until the fourth and fifth generations, and came to this county to make their home on her husband's farm, where she lived uninterruptedly and where she ended her days. To this union were born three sons, Judge W. O. Chenault, of this county and Waller and Anderson, these latter preceding her to the other land, and four daughters, Mrs. John T. Woodford and Mrs. James S. Bogie, Sr., of Mt. Sterling; Mrs. W. G. Dearing, of Louisville, and Mrs. Bishop Clay, of Lexington.

Mrs. Chenault was a woman of splendid intellect and a heart so tender that she wanted to mother and relieve every sorrowing, suffering or helpless being that came within her ken. Her charm of manner and cherry smile won for her friends among the most casual acquaintance, while strong character and steadfast dependableness bound to her, with hoops of steel, the friends who knew her best.

It is understood that she plans to erect a handsome home there, and she may go into business in the Fayette capital. Mrs. Flora's many friends here will regret to see her leave Richmond, but she will take their best wishes with her to her new home.

BOLT HITS CHIMNEY

During the severe thunderstorm which visited this section Wednesday about noon, lightning hit the home of Messrs. P. C. and Tom Black on Second street. The damage done was only slight, however, some bricks being torn out of a chimney. Luckily the roof did not catch fire and the damage can be easily repaired. A very heavy rain fell for a few minutes.

THIS WILL KILL BEER

(By Associated Press)
Washington, June 26—The House Judiciary Committee today split its prohibition legislation into three parts with the enforcement of war time prohibition separate and distinct from the others which relate to constitutional prohibition and the manufacture of industrial alcohol. For the first section, the committee decided to submit in whole its war time prohibition bill. While much less drastic than the general measure ages containing more than one-half per cent alcohol. It contains no provisions which would make it unlawful for persons to "possess liquor."

House Defeats "Search" Dry Act

A measure providing for indiscriminate search of private homes for intoxicating liquors after prohibition goes into effect was voted down by the House judiciary committee. A provision of the anti-saloon league in the prohibition enforcement measure, allowing searching of homes on affidavits of "two credible persons," was stricken out, and a new section inserted so that liquor hunting can be done only on a warrant issued by an authorized court. Wets also won a point in eliminating the minimum fine and sentence for violators of the prohibition act. These minimums were $500 and thirty days. The maximum no wstands at $1,000 and one year.

This Doesn't Look So Dry

Collector John W. Hughes at Danville has been directed to make assignments of storekeepers and gaugers to the various distilleries for July just as the prohibition would not become effective. In fact most people are now of the opinion that prohibition will not become effective until the 16th of next January. They hold that the minute the peace treaty is signed the wartime prohibition measure is dead and that unless another prohibition law is adopted the liquor may be sold until next January.

Frankfort Men In Bad On Whisky Selling Charge

Frankfort, Ky., June 26—Warrants of arrest were served on W. J. Kennedy, F. M. Duley and R. E. Noonan yesterday charging them with disposing of whisky without paying the government floor tax. The men waived examining trial and gave bond in the sum of $1,000 each to appear before the federal grand jury. Dailey is county attorney of Frankfort county. Kennedy and Noonan operate the bar at the Frankfort Hotel. All are prominent citizens.

Twins Convicted of Murder

The case was transferred to Bell county for trial when a Harlan county jury disagreed last January. No appeal was made on the decision. Evidence offered was circumstantial. An early application for executive clemency is predicted.

WANT STATE GUARD COMPANY HERE

Plans are on foot for a reorganization of old Company M, of the militia under the State Guard reorganization which is being undertaken by Gov. Black, in conformity with plans of the War Department. A petition is being drawn up for the re-establishment of Richmond's crack company, most of the members of which saw service in the big war. Major Stone Norman has the petition and is at the head of the movement to re-establish Company M here. In the reorganization of the State Guards, he will resume his former position as Major. There are a number of officers just back from active service, who are exceptionally well qualified to command the company. Capt. Willis Kennedy has been suggested as commander of the company, by reason of his rank, and there are a number of lieutenants and non-commissioned officers. It is believed that the boys who are now veterans of the service will take much interest in the organization of this home company for the State Guard. Major Norman is hopeful of having a sufficient number of signatures by Saturday night to insure the assignment of a company to Richmond.
