SOCIAL and PERSONAL

Sow a Smile
A voice across the telephone
Can make or mar the day;
Be careful of the tone you use,
And think of what you say,
Your pleasant smile cannot be seen
Or know your kindly heart,
For people at the telephone
Are often miles apart.
The girl who answers "Central"
Has a score of lines to mind,
Mistakes are sure to happen,
So be patient and be kind.
For life is like a garden,
Where our daily acts are grown;
And as nature hath ordained it,
We will reap as we have sown.
Then sow a "smile" and reap a "smile"

And in the end you'll find
That nothing pays more interest
Than the art of being kind.

Mr. D. G. Martin has received a Hattisburg, Miss, paper which contains a very complimentary mention of Capt. T. M. Curtis, his relative, and also a close relative of Mr. Earle Curtis of this city. Friends here will be interested in what the Mississippi paper says, as follows:

Captain Curtis' name will go down honored in Forrest county history because of his remarkable achievement in bringing together quickly about 200 splendid young men of the county early in 1917 to fight the Hun, and especially in view of the fact that he organized the battery when two efforts had been made previously and both had failed.

ROCKCASTLE BOY ATTAINS HIGH HONOR

A special from Mt. Vernon to the Courier Journal says: "Word has been received here of another promotion for James McKenzie Brown, son of Mrs. Cleo Williams Brown and the late James Harvey Brown. He is just 30 years old and is now Lieutenant Colonel in the British army. He had been living in London for some time prior to the outbreak of the war and enlisted in the navy. He soon rose to Captain, displaying wonderful courage and skill. He never lost a man or a ship and for this he was decorated by King George with the Distinguished Service Order. After this he was sent to Mesopotamia and at the siege of Bagdad he was put in the army with the title of Major and served under Gen. Maude. A close and intimate friendship between the two developed. At the time he was made Major he was one of the fourth generation in direct line to wear that title, the first Maj. Brown being the late Maj. A. J. Brown, of Garrard, his great grandfather.

Lieut. Col. Brown comes of two families long prominent in public life in Kentucky. His father was the youngest county attorney ever elected in the State, chosen by the voters at the age of 21, and his uncle, Judge R. G. Williams, was the youngest County Judge ever elected in Kentucky. He is a cousin of Frances Scott Key, author of "The Star Spangled Banner", nephew of the fifth generation of Jack McKenzie, who fought in the Battle of New Orleans, and a cousin of the late Robert B. Crow, who fought in the Spanish-American War. Lieut. Col. Brown is a nephew of George F. Brown, of Garrard, who has a son, James H. Brown, still in the service in France.

Was This Real Nerve?

The Maysville wife murderer who swore he would kill himself before he would be taken to Eddyville and left the city in collapse, seems to have regained his nerve before the ordeal came as he wrote as follows to the sheriff as "the dynamo was being turned" to send him to kingdom come: "Death House, Eddyville, Ky., Friday morning, June 6, 1919.—Hello Sheriff: Just a few lines to you before retiring from this old world. I sincerely thank you for the many kind favors you done for me, and I appreciated them to the highest extent, and I wish you a long, happy and successful life. Say, Sheriff, they certainly treated me mighty fine while confined in the death house, and they gave me a big chicken dinner before I died. Of course by me knowing that this would be my last good feed on this old earth, I was nervous, and could not eat very much. All I ate was a whole fried chicken, a big sweet potato pie half of a big cake, about a loaf of bread and some other stuff another prisoner gave me. Now if I had not been scared I could of ate something. Ha, ha! Well don't forget to extend my thanks and gratitude to Mr. Harry Ort and Jailer Watson. Well, as they have got the dynamo all turned up and hitting on all six, I guess I will have to close, so goodby and good luck to you all.

"Louis Alexander Harris"

Letcher Saunders, who has served efficiently as chief deputy to Collector John W. Hughes at Danville for the past five years, resigned and he and his wife will move to Nicholasville. Mr. Saunders has been appointed cashier of the Citizens' National Bank there. The office force, headed by the collector, presented him with a gold watch.

COLLEGE HILL

Mrs. Susie Willoughby, of Richmond, visited friends here for the week-end and attended the meeting.
Mr. and Mrs. Russell Edwards, of Bloomington, Ill., and Mr. and Mrs. Leland Edwards, of Irvine, are visiting their grandmother, Mrs. Nancy Edwards.

Mr. William Noel, of Paint Lick, bought one sow and eleven pigs from William Mellon, paying $110.00 for them.
Mr. K. Moberly was in our midst last week buying calves for veal. He bought one from William Mellon paying $22.50, four from C. B. Combs, one from T. Norris, one from Joe Ginter, paying 12½ cents a pound for them.

The series of meetings which has been in progress for the last 10 days, closed Sunday night. The preacher Rev. Anderson, of Wilmore, did some good preaching. Miss Jenks and Miss Hooker lead the singing and furnished special music on guitar and mandolin. There were 9 additions to the church, everyone seemed to enjoy and was greatly benefited by the splendid preaching on Saturday night. Rev. McClintock easily raised $65 for the workers and on Sunday night $40 was raised by a dime shower. Great crowds were in attendance every evening.

Accomplishing "the impossible" in a cigarette!

It is years back since smokers have heard of any NEW quality in a cigarette.

But here, at last, is a cigarette that does what smokers would never have believed a cigarette could do.

Here's a cigarette that satisfies—Chesterfields.

Chesterfields touch the "smoke-spot." Chesterfields let you know you're smoking. Chesterfields—and Chesterfields only—SATISFY!

It's all in the blend—a blend of the finest selections of Turkish and Domestic tobaccos. And the formula for this blend is the manufacturer's secret. Unlike a patent, it cannot be copied or even closely imitated.

Light up a Chesterfield, some time today, and see how promptly your smoke-sense will put the O. K. on "satisfy."

Helps Sick Women

Cardui, the woman's tonic, helped Mrs. William Eversole, of Hazel Patch, Ky. Read what she writes: "I had a general breaking-down of my health. I was in bed for weeks, unable to get up. I had such a weakness and dizziness, . . . and the pains were very severe. A friend told me I had tried everything else, why not Cardui? . . . I did, and soon saw it was helping me. . . . After 12 bottles, I am strong and well."

TAKE CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

Do you feel weak, dizzy, worn-out? Is your lack of good health caused from any of the complaints so common to women? Then why not give Cardui a trial? It should surely do for you what it has done for so many thousands of other women who suffered—it should help you back to health.

Ask some lady friend who has taken Cardui. She will tell you how it helped her. Try Cardui.
