Social and Personal

Smith - Holland

Eumorfopoulos, Mrs. Theo, Henderson, has been a recent resident of this city. She will be read with interest by her many family here.

Beautifully in place and prettily arranged were the rooms of Miss Smith's Ball at Smith's Deep Richard, of New York. Miss Smith, who now resides here, is noted for beautiful and impressive arrangements. Miss and Mrs. Smith's descriptions were elegant and charming. The flowers were wondrous in the selection of white orchids entwined with black ribbon and lilac. There were green chrysanthemums on every table. The rooms were tastefully decorated with flowers and chrysanthemums. Mrs. Charles Smith, his wife, and Miss Smith, attended the reception.

Mrs. W. C. Cochran, who was a guest at the reception, was greeted with much applause. The social was enjoyed by all present.

The bridesmaids were Misses Smith, Mrs. Smith, and Mrs. Smith, and the maid of honor was the sister of the groom. Miss Evelyn Smith, his bride, is in her prime of life.

The bride entered the reception hall in a gown of white lace, and was met at the altar by the groom, Mr. Smith, who is a leading business man.
