WAR-TIME PHONE RATES TILL AUG. 1

Are Granted By City Council—Mayor Wants All Complaints of Poor Service

After a lengthy and prolonged argument, participated in by a number of prominent citizens of Richmond, as well as councilmen and officials, the council by a vote of four to two Tuesday night, decided to allow the Cumberland Telephone and Telegraph Company to continue war time phone rates until August 1 next. At that time, the financial status of the company's business here is to be submitted to the council, and an estimate made as to a reasonable and fair rate for service in the city, provided that the council has reason to believe that there has been good service rendered. Many of those speaking at the meeting said they had no objection to paying a higher rate if the company furnishes a satisfactory service something which it seems to be agreed on nearly all sides, it is to be agreed on nearly all sides, it is not doing now.

Councilmen who voted for the ordinance which continues the war time rates were Messrs. Mereson, Terrill, Allman and O'Neil. Those who voted against it were Messrs. Golden and Powell.

Action of the council was taken in response to a letter making this proposal from D. F. Turnbul, which was published in these columns several days ago. Frequent discussion of telephone rates before the council, has brought the constant insistence on the part of the company that it is not able under the pre-war rate to make a reasonable and fair interest on its investment in Richmond. Several of the speakers at the meeting Tuesday night, questioned the correctness of the valuation of $116,000 placed upon the company's capitalization here. It was brought out that the plant here is assessed for taxation at only about $31,000.

A proposal to name an arbitrator after August 1st, if the council and company are unable to agree upon a fair and reasonable rate at that time, was stricken out from the ordinance adopted, it being argued that the council could not delegate its authority. Several members of the council felt also that they were elected to act for the people and should not seek to pass on the responsibility to some other.

Among those who spoke on the matter before the council were Messrs. Waller Bennett, W. B. Smith, G. Murray Smith and others. Attorney J. J. Greenleaf represented the company. Judge Murray Smith contended that the Fiscal Court of Madison county has a binding contract with the company for service to the people of Madison county, and that the people of Richmond were governed by this contract as well as the people of any other part of Madison county. He argued that the council has no power to make a contract that will seek to supersede, or override the prior contract which the Fiscal Court has made for the whole county. It was intimated that Judge Smith may test out this question.

Councilman Terrill pointed out that efficiency of service to the people will be the governing base of the proposal before the council; that if the company does not give improved service it can no longer hope for councilman agreement to permit the war rates to stand. In line with this Mayor Evans states that he is desirous of having complaints against the telephone service reported to his office by telephone between the hours of 10 and 3 each day. His photographer will make note of complaints. The mayor says that he is determined that the people shall have a better service if they are to continue the war time rates.

Some question was raised as to whether the company can collect war time rates for the service it rendered during December. No lawyer contended that it could, for the government's war time restrictions expired December 1 and the council has no power to pass retroactive measures.

BALLARD OPPOSES WOMAN SUFFRAGE

Madison Representative Votes Against Ratification of Federal Amendment

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 7.—Ratification of the federal amendment looking to woman suffrage assumption of the whip hand by Senate democrats, and delivery of the Governor's message marked the opening day's session of the 1920 Kentucky legislature.

The democratic Senators, with their majority of two, took the "bit in their teeth" immediately after the election of senate officers nominated by naming a Senate Rules Committee, empowered to draft rules to govern senate proceedings and to name the Senate's standing committees.

Both houses were adjourned late this afternoon to be convened again Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock. In the meantime work of drafting rules and naming standing committees will have been completed.

Only democrats have places on the standing rules committee, headed by President Pro Tem Charles M. Harris, of Versailles. The remaining eight are: John Nunn, Marion; Frank Rives Hopkinsville; Haynes Carter, Elizabethtown; Wm. A. Perry, Louisville; Robert C. Simmons, Covington; L. M. Smith, Harrodsburg; J. W. Harlan, Danville, and J. D. Whitaker Cannel City.

The joint resolution calling for ratification of the federal woman suffrage amendment passed the Senate by a vote of 30 to 8. It had previously passed the House by a vote of 71 to 25.

Those who voted against it on the final roll call in the Senate were C. W. Burton, Haynes Carter, A. A. Demunbrum, T. T. Gardner, J. W. Harlan, H. T. Morris, Frank Rives, and L. M. Smith, all democrats except Demunbrum and Morris.

Johnson, Kelly, Kimbrough, Laughlin, Knott, Laughlin, Myers, Minor, Nelson, Rogers, Strange, J. Mack Thompson, Wheeler, Williamson, and Wynn, seven of whom are republicans. ## URGES CHURCH TO MOBILIZE RESOURCES

The Union Services continue with increased interest in the various churches of the city from night to night. In spite of the unusual weather conditions last night an excellent service was held at the Methodist church. The attendance was unusual for the night. The period of intercession in behalf of the church in relation to the world field was conducted by Dr. R. L. Telford. Dr. H. W. Carpenter made the address on "The Church Awakened by a Vision of the World's Need". He called attention to the fact that in addition to the open world door in non-Christian before the church of a decade ago now all of Europe is in decade revolution and unrest and that no prophet could understand to foretell the outcome of conditions there.

Mr. Carpenter made an appeal for the immediate mobilizing of all the resource of the church, for the raising up of adequate leaders and for the arousing of every latent energy of the rank and file of Christendom declaring that the church had the only message that could possibly stabilize the economic, political and religious life of the race. He said that the supreme need of the church was "not adherents but crusaders".

Tonight the meeting will be held in the Sunday school auditorium of the First Christian church and Dr. F. C. Moore will bring the special message. Mrs. Pickels and her music committee will have charge of the music.
