JESSE M. DYKES POST STARTS BIG DRIVE

Local Legion Organization Named For Richmond Boy Who Gave Life For His Country

Madison Post No. 12 of the American Legion has started off its drive for new members with enthusiasm. Everyone will approve the choice of a name for local post, it having been decided to name it the Jesse M. Dykes Post, in honor of the son of City Collector and Mrs. J. D. Dykes, who lost his life in fighting on the French front a short time before the close of the war. The Legion members made diligent inquiry of official sources, and so far as it could learn Jesse Dykes the first native born son of Madison to give his life for his country in the fighting on the other side, and it was regarded as extremely fitting and proper that the Madison county post should be named in his honor.

There are about 115 active, paid-up members of the Jesse M. Dykes Post, but it is hoped that the membership can be increased to 300 or 400 during the three weeks of the drive.

Legion headquarters have been opened on Second street in the second floor in the James building, in the rooms formerly occupied by Hon. John Noland as a law office. The drive will be directed from headquarters. A call to service men to help the god work has been issued and reads as follows:

Join the American Legion. We stuck together, and whipped the Hun. Why not join the American Legion and crush Bolshevism, I. W. W. and disloyal Reds? It is just as essential for Madison county to show her strength in the American Legion, as she did in furnishing troops in the world war. Kentucky was in it up to her neck in the trenches. She wants to get in the American Legion over her head. In all of the principal cities of the south and middle west; in fact, all over the United States, Rotary Clubs, Chambers of Commerce and Boosters Clubs are recognizing the potential power of the Legion as an agent for 100 per cent Americanism, and as a permanent factor in all future questions concerning the welfare of the American public, and for the good of their own cities. They have passed resolutions, assuring the commander of their local Posts of the Legion of their undivided support in the campaigns for membership, and in any other objects undertaken by them.

This is the best possible example we can have as to the belief of the American public at large in the worthiness of the Legion.

Every man wearing the Legion button is just as much your Buddie as he was while in O. D. and is a fellow with whom you have something in common, no matter from what walk of life he comes. There are no barriers for the wearer of the badge of 100 per cent Americanism and no American who deserves the title, who will refuse to grant him an interview. As a maker of friends and a getter of business among American strangers, the legion button is second to none. And who wants either the business or friendship of other, than 100 per cent Americans?

MONDAY IN THE LEGISLATURE

Frankfort, Ky., February 3—Two Republicans, Senators Hiram Brock, of Harlan, and White Moss, of Pineville, and one Democrat, Senator Chas. M. Harris, of Versailles, will constitute the committee that is to draft bills abolishing offices as recommended by Governor Morrow. This committee was appointed yesterday by Lieutenant Governor S. Thruston Ballard.

The resolution of Senator Jay W. Harlan, providing for a referendum of all federal constitutional amendments before the Legislature acts on them, came up for passage. After the measure was debated at some length, Senator Harlan advocating it and Senator Brock opposing it, because, he said, two other more important constitutional amendments must be submitted, the resolution was recommitted. A vote, however, was taken, resulting 17 to 13 in favor of the resolution.

The most important measure passed in the House makes it a felony to make, sell or give away a beverage containing denatured alcohol.

The bill of Representative Arch Hamilton, of Fayette County, to make Armistice Day, November 11, a legal holiday was passed, 70 to 7. The bill as passed leaves it optional with banks and public offices to close on that day.

Representative Benjamin L. Cox's bill to require the United States flag to be placed on every schoolhouse was passed, 62 to 26. Some of the Representatives objected to this measure because it failed to provide a fund with which to purchase flags. One Representative estimated that it would cost the state $60,000 a year.

Not a dissenting vote was cast against the bill of Representative R. O. Huntsman to license hat and cloak room privileges.

Representative Huntsman succeeded in having passed his measure to prohibit advertising signs simulating in form and design railroad-crossing warnings. This measure was passed, 67 to 6.

Representative George C. Wagoner's bill to provide commission form of government for fifth and sixth class cities passed, 68 to 3.

The bill of Representative Frank L. Strange, to charge a license fee of $25 for agents of foreign laundries and dye works, was passed, 59 to 9.

The administration bill to take the judiciary out of politics was offered by Senator Brock. It prohibits political parties from making nominations for Circuit Judges and from placing the names of nominees for Circuit Judges under the party device. Senator Starling L. Marshall's bill consolidates the offices of Jailor and Sheriff in all counties other than those containing cities of first and second classes.

The bill of Senator Harris increases salaries of Circuit Judges from $3,000 to $3,800 a year. Indefinite leave of absence was granted to Representative Harry Meyers, of Covington, who has an infected foot.

A resolution asking the Kentucky delegation in Congress to favor a law making Lincoln's birthday a national holiday was passed.

Favorable reports were made in the Senate on the bills of Senator M. C. Swinford to increase Confederate pensions to $15; of Senator Swinford to provide for oiling streets in fourth class cities; of Senator Marshall to permit counties, containing cities of the second and third class, to erect and maintain hospitals, and of Senator Herman F. Monroe to allow stenographers in County Attorney offices $1,200 to $1,500 a year.

The bill to prohibit handbooks, introduced by Senator Simmons of Covington, was reported favorably by the committee. The opinion prevails that it will pass the Senate. A duplicate of this bill was tabled in the House last week.

Representative Hebron Lawrence will introduce in the House a bill putting a 10 per cent tax on gate receipts, purses and prize received and offered at race tracks.

"Before and After" in the Near East

From misery to comfort and self-respect in five days' time, simply through the magic of an American ten dollar bill, is a transformation that is being wrought daily in Western Asia by the Near East Relief of 1 Madison Avenue, New York City. The group of five Armenian children shown in two pictures here have reason to bless the American donor of that ten dollar bill. With this money, the expert workers of Near East Relief in Armenia were able to rid the poor children of their loathsome rags and to clothe them with new garments of alajja cloth, woven in a Near East Relief Industrial plant and sewed into garments by the mother of the children. The mother was also paid a small fee for her services in making the garments.

This was a lucky family. There are thousands of others not so lucky in the Near East, simply because of a lack of other ten dollar bills. Near East Relief is asking the American people to contribute funds to save the starving in the Bible lands. It is estimated that over 1,250,000 adults are in desperate need, and 250,000 children are orphans and must be cared for. For the sum of $180 a year Near East Relief can not only feed and clothe and shelter an orphan child, but can also give a course in education towards ultimate self-support and independence. Many of these orphans are being "adopted" by Americans, who are providing funds for the support of one or more over a given period.

NEWBERRY DEFENSE OUTLINED BY MURFIN

Grand Rapids, Mich., Feb. 3—Truman H. Newberry entered the 1918 Senatorial campaign in Michigan at the solicitation of others and not in furtherance of a scheme to get a seat in the Senate. Attorney James Murfin, of Detroit, said in outlining the attitude the defense will assume towards the charges of conspiracy and fraud for which 123 men are on trial in federal court here. Murfin emphasized that conspiracy is the essence of the charges and not fraud in the election; that the indictment charges the defendants with conspiring with Newberry to spend more of his money than the law allows but, Murfin argues, as long as the election expenses comes within the II enumerated classes in Michigan's laws, there is no limit as to money a committee of the candidates' friends may spend in his behalf.

More Booze Seized

New York, Feb. 3—The $4,800,000 cargo of whisky aboard the Black Star liner Yarmouth, now in New York harbor supposedly undergoing repairs, will be seized tomorrow, according to an announcement made last night by James Shevlin, prohibition enforcement officer for New York. Prohibition officers have subjected the ship and its costly cargo to a sharp watch since "workmen" were seen carrying liquor from the Yarmouth in a small boat headed for the water front. The cargo will be stored under government supervision. The Yarmouth, which is owned and operated exclusively by negroes, sailed from New York for Havana the day before the prohibition amendment became effective, but turned back for "repairs" when but two days out.

What, Some More?

Washington, Feb. 3—Secretary Carter Glass, of the Treasury, has asked Congress for $2,000,000 for use in stopping the smuggling of liquors into the United States. A statement from the Division of Customs, accompanying the request, said that, because of meager facilities for coping with the situation, "the quantity of liquor seized was infinitesimal in comparison with the quantity actually smuggled into this country."

OVERWHELMING EVIDENCE FAST ACCUMULATING

Husband And Wife Both Find Relief From Their Troubles Thru Trutona

Owensboro, Ky., Feb. 2—Additional proof of the unusual merit to be found in Trutona, the Perfect Tonic, comes from Mr. and Mrs. Murray Jones, well known Owensboro people, who live at 811 Center Street. The story of their remarkable relief only adds to the already overwhelming evidence, fast accumulating in favor of Trutona.

"I was suffering from nervousness and severe headaches and Mr. Jones was troubled with rheumatism and constipation," Mrs. Jones said recently. "My husband suffered greatly from pains in his back. The pain in his hips was so bad at times that he could hardly sit down. "We have been taking Trutona for several days now and we are both greatly improved. I have a much better appetite and sleep well at night, too, because my nerves are in such better condition. I'm not bothered with the headaches so much, either. Trutona has relieved Mr. Jones' rheumatism and constipation. We both think that Trutona is a wonderful medicine."

Trutona is now being introduced and explained in Richmond at the Richmond Drug Company, Feb. 3-3w

MAYSVILLE REJOICES OVER "WHITE WAY"

They opened the new "White Way" in Maysville the other day. Maysville is the county seat of Mason county, you know and just a little larger than Richmond. The Public Ledger there says that great throngs were on the streets the first night the new lights were turned on and there was much enthusiasm. Many are hoping that Richmond will soon have similar cause to celebrate. The Ledger said of the opening:

Maysville's new White Way was formally accepted by the city officials Tuesday evening and the occasion was made a great one by the co-operation of many local civic bodies through their representatives on the managing committee which handled matters so well that in many respects the affair was the greatest success of the kind ever held in Maysville.

The celebration was formally started by the gathering of the population in Market street around the Boys' Band Stand. Mayor Russell received the system in a short address in which he rehearsed the progress of electricity in the city of Maysville since it was first introduced until the present day and then he turned the switch which lighted the entire system. At the flashing of the beautiful lights there was a great expression of surprise which was closely followed by loud shouts of praise.

There was then a grand parade headed by the Maysville Boys' Band formed which moved thru-out the entire White Way district. In the parade was to be seen members of the City Council, City Officials, members of the Chamber of Commerce and the Board of Education and then a long line of men, women and children dressed in Mardi Gras attire.

At the conclusion of the parade a large number of the people crowded into Court street where for some time the folks enjoyed dancing to music furnished by the Boys' Band perched on tobacco wagons in the center of the street.

The New White Way is made up of 64 units with 400 candle power high efficiency lamps and they are spaced on an average of 90 feet apart.

The beautiful white globes and canopy produces a very soft and even light which gives the White Way lighting effect. The type of unit used is of the very latest and is now being used extensively in larger cities all over this and throughout foreign lands.

The system is strictly utilitarian and not spectacular, the design of the glass canopy being such that practically no light goes skyward but all is thrown onto the sidewalks.

There are many advantages to this new system over the old, chief of which are the police protection afforded and the great assistance they are to firemen. The best lighted streets always attract the most people and the White Way district will be the section where the crowds can be found of nights in the future.

Maysville's reputation as a real city is growing each day and the new White Way is going to be one of the biggest advertisements the city has had in any years. Strangers in the city Tuesday evening were loud in their praise of the hustle and vim of our local officials and business men to have such a splendid street lighting system and to give such a wonderful carnival at its opening.

TOBACCO PRICES JUMP UP AGAIN

The tobacco market reopened on the Richmond breaks Tuesday morning, with prices taking a decided jump upward. Grades of weed that were decidedly off the past week, when hopping upward and several buyers were unable to get what they wanted. Tobacco has been rolling in to the local market for several days and the end is not in sight.

CIRCUIT COURT GETS DOWN TO BUSINESS

Burt Wilson Gets Top Penalty For Carrying A Gun—"Cold Check" Case Dismissed

After recessing over Monday, county court day, the February term of circuit court got down to business Tuesday morning. Judge Shackelford had his juries quickly empanelled, charged the grand jury and was at work on the docket shortly after 10 o'clock. Judge Shackelford doesn't believe in wasting time, and sets an example in his methods of expediting business that is worthy of emulation in many other circuit courts.

The juries are made up as follows:

Grand jury—Paul Burnam, foreman, Hugh Miller, Vernon Leer, John C. Fisher, Arthur Park, Jas. A. Parks, John W. Thompson, John T. Reeves, Lewis Duerson, Chenault Duncan, Shirley Cotton, Eugene Todd.

Petit juries—Frank Barnett, H. B. Hanger, Jr., Jack Wagers, J. B. Chambers, S. L. Baldwin, R. F. Spurling, J. W. Hamilton, J. H. Dean, B. S. Terrill, Eugene Barnes, Fred Wells, John W. Parrish, Ed Carson, T. M. Warren, Mat Shearer, John Allman, Reuben Baker, Ira Parks, R. C. H. Covington, C. C. Coy, L. R. Blanton, J. G. Million, H. F. Pieratt, Webber Hamilton, John Tribble, Oscar Helton, O. H. Hendren.

Burt Wilson, of near Berea, who was caught with a gun on him pleaded guilty to carrying a deadly weapon concealed. His Attorney E. S. Wiggins, asked for mercy for his client, but since a plea of guilty carries with it automatically the highest penalty, Judge Shackelford gave Wilson $100 and 40 days at hard labor and disfranchisement for two years.

The judge dismissed the case against J. C. Jones, who is charged with giving R. L. Potts a "cold check," remarking that this was another of those cases where under a recent opinion it seemed that debts could be collected by criminal prosecutions, and that a premium was placed on "cold checking." Jones is said to be in Ohio and was not represented before the court.

Judge Shackelford's charge to the grand jury covered the ground thoroughly as usual and yet was not verbose. He told them to do their duty in looking into violation of laws, and told them concisely and in plain terms, and nothing more was necessary.

There was a large gathering for the opening of court. Commonwealth's Attorney B. A. Crutcher and several visiting attorneys were on hand.

Tuesday was largely devoted to the disposal of small criminal cases.

MULE PRICES MONDAY BREAK ALL RECORDS

The mule market was certainly on the upgrade here Monday. Buyers say that they never saw them so high and while many balked for a time at the figures asked, a lot of them took home with them good sized strings of the hybrids before they left. The record price for the day was undoubtedly made by the sale of a five-year-old mare mule by Baldwin & Burke, of Silver Creek. They sold the brute to Will White of the Lancaster pike, for $475. If there was another single animal that sold higher Monday the Daily Register was unable to discover it.

Both of the local stock yards had a big run of cattle with buyers snapping up everything that was offered. There was not much class to the stuff brought in though. Sales ran from $11 a hundred up. Hogs sold at $15 a hundred. All farmers and buyers agreed that they never saw mules sell as high on the local market.

FOR THE CHILDREN

Too much care cannot be exercised in selecting a cough medicine for children. It should be pleasant to take, contain no harmful drug and most effective in curing their coughs and colds. Long experience has shown that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy meets these conditions. It is a favorite with many mothers. Feb.
