McClure—Elmore

Numerous relatives and friends here will be interested in the following clipping from the Central Record, Lancaster. Mr. Elmore is well known in Richmond, where he frequently visits his uncle, Cabell Chenault, and other relatives. The Record says:

"The marriage of Miss Lolo McClure to Mr. Chenault Elmore took place Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank McClure, in Shelbyville, the Rev. Walker officiating. There were no attendants. The bride wore a traveling gown of dark blue, with hat to match, and a corsage of white roses, sweet peas and maiden-hair fern. After the ceremony and congratulations the bride and groom left for a trip in Central Kentucky. They will go to Akron, Ohio, where Mr. Elmore is engaged in business. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank McClure and is unusually charming, accomplished and an exceptionally fine young lady. She is well remembered here where she frequently visited Mr. Elmore's sister, Mrs. Dunlap Blanton. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Elmore, of this city, and is a popular young business man. The reception room in which the ceremony was performed was decorated artistically with a variety of roses. Only relatives and a few intimate friends were present."

Miss Elizabeth Burnam returned today from the New England Conservatory of Music, Boston, having completed four years of study there.

 By a unanimous vote the Paris commercial club decided to request the Paris city council not to permit any street or carnival company to exhibit in the city hereafter and to enforce strictly the law against the violation of the traffic ordinances.

Booze is Not a Good Cure
 (From the Ames, Iowa, Intelligencer)
 When a man comes to you all doubled up with pain and declares he will die in your presence unless you procure him a drink of whisky, send him to a doctor or else give him a dose of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy. There is a mistaken notion among a whole lot of people that booze is the best remedy for colic and stomach ache.
