

SUNDY CIVIL BILL CARRYING MILLIONS

Reported By House Appropriations Committee—Disabled Men To Get Assistance

Washington, Dec. 29.—The sundy civil service bill, carrying $383,611,000, or nearly 421 million less than asked by the government departments, was reported today by the House Appropriations Committee.

The committee, first taking care of men disabled by war, set only $1,611,000 for actual sundy civil expenses of the government which was within $34,000,000 of the total amount appropriated for 1916, the largest single reduction.

Washington, Dec. 29.—His request for $300,000 was not included in the sundy civil service bill, Attorney General Palmer before the House Appropriations Committee today, emphasized the need of additional funds for the enforcement of prohibition and to cope with the wholesale liquor violations reported from many sections of the country.

He recited that 17,000 prosecutions had been made up to September 30, 1920, of which arose during the last three months of that period. It was expected the ratio to increase with a minimum of 40,000 cases to be handled by District Attorneys next year.

SAWYER SMITH MAY GET SLATTERY'S JOB

The Louisville Herald discounts the story from Washington that Congressman King Swope is to succeed T. D. Slattery as U. S. Attorney in the Eastern District when Harding becomes President. The Herald says:

That Sawyer Smith, of Barbourville, will be the next United States District Attorney for the Eastern District of Kentucky was a "tip" being circulated here yesterday. Mr. Smith served as assistant when Edwin P. Morrow, now governor, was district attorney, with headquarters in Covington. While nothing of a definite nature can be found to indicate that the Barbourville man will land the plum, the Eastern Kentucky politicians are giving the report credence.

Joseph Spears, at present United States Commissioner, located at Catlettsburg, is being backed for United States Marshal for the Eastern District under the Harding administration. Spears was formerly deputy United States clerk, with headquarters in Covington, and his friends in that city announced Monday that there was a movement on foot to secure his appointment at the proper time. There are said to be a number of candidates for the place.

VISITING TOBACCO MEN TEST SLEEP FACILITIES

The visiting tobacco men are occupying all available beds and there was such a dearth of sleeping places Tuesday night that four men from Rockcastle county occupied one bed. They were unable to make the return home and were glad of a place to spend the night out of the cold. There are a number of places where these men have been frequenting for years but all were filled early and some were hunting lodging places late Tuesday night. The rush, it is believed, will be over by the last of the week. Five of the drivers of wagons from Estill county were preparing to solicit a place at the county jail when they were given berths in a private home by a friend.

MERCURY RISING SLOWLY

Tuesday night the mercury did not reach the degree of the night before and there was a general rising of temperature early Wednesday morning, 25 degrees above being registered at 6 o'clock on Monday morning. Indications are that there will be a continued slowly rising of the temperature during Wednesday and Thursday.

GREAT ROAD WEATHER

This is said to be great weather for road work and the finishing touches are being put to a number of bridges and road jobs. It has been the desire of county road engineer Baxter to have the work completed as soon as possible, and with the exception of Christmas day, when the weather was favorable, the men have been steadily engaged.

R. O. MOBERLY FOR COUNTY CLERK

The Daily Register is authorized to announce the candidacy of Richard O. Moberly for the office of county clerk, subject to the action of the Democratic primary to be held on the first Saturday in August, 1921.

Mr. Moberly is a resident and farmer of McCreary precinct, better known as old Union, the banner Democratic precinct of the county. He belongs to a Democratic family of long and honorable high standing in the county, none of whom has ever held public remunerative office. He was educated at Central University and is well qualified for the duties of the office both by character and education. He has many friends and perhaps fewer enemies, if any, than any person who has run for public office in Madison county for a long time.

His qualities for honesty, fair dealing and good sense will enable him to meet and serve the public and perform the duties of his office in a most satisfactory manner. He has had business experience both as a farmer and merchant.

Those who know Mr. Moberly well and who are acquainted with his character and habits and eminent fitness for this office are of the opinion that he will not only make a good and efficient clerk if nominated and elected, but that he will make an exceptionally strong candidate in the final election.

WE KNOW PLACES THAT WERE VERY DRY INDEED

Louisville, Ky.—Internal revenue records show that 1,210,918.9 gallons of whiskey have been withdrawn from Kentucky arsenals since October 1, almost one and a quarter million more gallons than last year. 121 TEACHERS AND 6,014 SCHOOL CHILDREN

In Madison County as Shown By State Directory Issued at Frankfort

(By Associated Press) Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 29.—There are 595 public school districts in Kentucky taught by 13,653 teachers and with a census enrollment of 646,559 pupils, according to a directory of the schools of Kentucky just sent to press by the state department of education. The school districts are divided into 316 graded school districts, 120 county districts and 59 city districts.

The county graded schools have 1,345 teachers and 64,770 pupils, while the county districts have 9,600 teachers, most of them one to a school, and 441,440 pupils and the city districts 2,708 teachers and 140,349 pupils.

The number of teachers in each county district and the children of school age at the last census in this section follow:

Kentucky Woman Claims To Be Heir To Estate

Harlan, Ky.—Before the Indiana superior court rs. Berna Osborne, recently separated from her husband, Clark Osborne, of Diney, Harlan county, is endeavoring to establish her claim that she is the niece and only legal heir of Alfred Lowry, late mayor of Goslen, Ind., who left an estate of $60,000. Denying her claim, the state is attempting to escheat the estate to the school fund. The state of Indiana contends that she is not a daughter of the late Rosa Lowry White, but is a child of Anna Combs Whitte-Gross, of Jackson, Ky., and that her name is Polly and not Berna; also that the prayer book attesting her birth is not 50 years old, but was manufactured in St. Louis in 1896. Mrs. Osborne moved to Bridgeport, Ind., from this county several years ago.

ST. NICHOLAS AND INFIRMARY FOLKS

Generous Donations Enable Them to Enjoy Holidays—Conditions Are Satisfactory

As a result of the co-operation of many throughout the city and county, together with the untiring efforts of Mrs. Sam A. Deatherage, there were many happy hearts at the Madison county infirmary during Christmas, and the conditions at the institution, under the management of Superintendent Roberts and wife, are reported to have been most favorable generally.

The home was visited by Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Turley and Mrs. Deatherage, who spent some time inspecting the premises, both interior and exterior, and were pleased with the manner in which they were kept; also the condition of those making their home there, they being cheerful and happy, and recipients of fruits and candies, together with more substantial presents, as a result of the work and generosity of many contributors. The soliciting continued for some time prior to the holidays with the result that while there was ample provisions, there was not the generous spirit which has characterized former years. There were two extra donations besides those made just before Christmas.

Some of the residents there are greatly interested in work provided by Miss Mary Catherine Jasper, who furnished quilt pieces, and there's some special work being done by her aged and enthused folks there. It is the intention in the early spring to provide new curtains for the windows and to make other interior additions to the furnishings which will add to the comfort and appearances. Appreciation of what was given was expressed by the recipients liberally and those in charge of the distribution desire through the columns of the Daily Register to thank all donors. It is contemplated to make improvements in the manner of furnishing clothing, if possible, and otherwise to add to the comforts of many who will remain there the rest of their lives.

HOW CALIFORNIANS WON THEIR FOOTBALL GAMES

San Francisco, Cal., Dec. 29.—Attacks against opposing lines, mainly off tackle, featured the 1920 offensive of the University of California's undefeated football team which is to play Ohio State at Pasadena, Cal., on New Year's Day.

California made little use of the forward pass this year. Only in the game against Stanford University did the Blue and Gold men "open up" and show they were effective in an aerial offensive. In the last period, with the game already won, California tried several forward passes and most of them were successful.

Charges through center have scored nearly as many California yards as have bucks off tackle. End runs have also brought in gains. But the main attack has been off tackle, with the two big Blue and Gold tackles clearing the way for the backfield men.

JACK ROGERS TO COME TO RICHMOND HOSPITAL

Jack Rogers, well known former Richmond resident and ex-service man, who has been making his home in Louisville for some time, will arrive the first of the week to undergo an operation at the Pattie A. Clay Infirmary. The operation will be performed by Dr. O. F. Hume, who has been making a record since being placed in charge of the surgery work at the local institution where government work of this character is being done. Young Rogers, son of J. J. Rogers, formerly of Richmond, made a brilliant record in army service and is preparing to spend some time here.
