NORMAL DEFEATS STANFORD HIGH

Vandever Strikes Out 17 Men and Holds Fast Youngsters To Two Hits—The Score

Robert Vandever, pitching his first game for Eastern Normal School, came very establishing a record when he struck out 17 Stanford High School players and allowed only two hits. His wildness prevented him from establishing a strike out record as six men were walked after he had secured two strikes on them. The Normal School won by the score of 5 to 4.

Embry, who pitched for Stanford, was effective. He allowed only 7 hits and struck out 6 men. This youngster, who shoots them over with a wicked left arm, has always proven a hard man for the Normal to beat.

Withers of Stanford connected with one of Vandever's fast balls in the ninth inning for a home run. The hit was one of the longest ever made on the local diamond.

Third Inning—Walters out at first on easy grounder to first baseman. Neivius walked. Withers flied out to center field. Smith struck out after Neivius stole second.

Howard flied out to center field. Bourne walked. stole second, and went to third on overthrow at second. Lackey safe on high infield fly, which Embry let fall safe after misjudging it. Combs singled over short stop Bourne scoring. Lackey stole third. Gray beat out dropped third strike. Rice flied out to center field. Lackey scoring. Combs caught of second. Walters to second baseman.

Howard singled to center. Howard forced at second on Bourne's slow grounder to third. Bourne stole second. Lackey walked. Bourne caught off second. Embry to second baseman. Combs singled through short. Lackey scoring from second, which he had purloined just before Combs hit safely. Gray flied out to center.

Rice struck out. White safe when Walters dropped high fly to center. Mainous forced White at second on easy roller to short. Vandever singled to right. Mainous going to third. Howard flied out to center.

Seventh Inning—Embry out Vandever to Bourne. Bryan out same way. Walters walked. Neivius bit through second base for Stanford's first hit. Walters scoring. Withers safe on low throw by Combs after spectacular stop of fast grounder. Neivius scoring. Smith safe when Bourne dropped Combs' assist. Proctor struck out.

FAYETTE SCHOOLS MAY BE CLOSED

Lexington, Ky., April 5.—As result of a conference held at Frankfort Monday morning, attended by Dr. Gilbert L. Bailey, chairman of the Fayette county board of education, State Superintendent of Public Instruction Colvin and Assistant Attorney General Fowler, it was found that Mrs. Nannie G. Falconer, county superintendent, and old board of education of which she was ex-officio executive head and treasurer, have borrowed available school funds up to the limit allowed by law and that unless a plan to raise the money needed is devised all of the county schools of Fayette county will have to close for the remainder of the school year.

The new board, assisted by Mr. Colvin, is endeavoring to find some way out of the dilemma and, Dr. Bailey said upon his return from Frankfort, the new board will do all it possibly can to get the funds needed to keep schools in operation until the end of the term. He admitted, however, that the situation is serious as the county school fund has been exhausted.

50c Whisky Tax Again Held Unconstitutional

Judge Robert L. Stout, of the Franklin circuit court, has declared that he would follow the decision of the United States Supreme court in the case of E. H. Taylor, Jr., Sons & Co. against State Auditor John J. Craig holding the Vance 50-cent whisky tax to be a property and not an occupational tax and, therefore, invalid.

Attorney General Charles I. Dawson said that he would immediately take an appeal and endeavor to have the case advanced by the Court of Appeals for decision this spring.

Cut Out Bric-a-Brac

London, April 5.—A "Swat All the Needless Ornaments" campaign has been inaugurated by women's institutes throughout England. Its sponsors claim money, time, dusters and maids' tempers will be saved and neater, more tastily decorated homes will result.

THIS BERGDOLL MUST STAY IN JAIL

Topeka, Kans., April 5.—Efforts of Erwin R. Bergdoll, draft evader, to obtain his release from the Leavenworth army disciplinary barracks, were defeated today when Federal Judge Pollock denied Bergdoll's application for a writ of habeas corpus. Pollock's decision in effect upholds the draft act. It is the first court decision on that particular phase of the act which provided that inducted men may be notified by mail. Bergdoll's attorneys contended their client had not received notice through the mail that he had been inducted into the army. The court said the draft board's notice was sufficient and it was up to a drafted man to receive his mail.

All low grades of tobacco that were bought by the houses of pinhookers and left on hand were purchased from them by W. S. Judy, R. J. Reynolds's buyer here Monday. It is estimated that he will get about 200,000 pounds and that the average price he paid was from one to two cents. From Will Luxon, of the Home House, he got about 140,000 pounds and from O. Head, buyer for Lorillard he got perhaps 60,000. As much of this sort of weed was purchased from a quarter of a cent to one cent a pound, the buyers will realize a nice profit on it.

Mr. Judy will be here for the next couple of weeks, preparing to handle this tobacco. He will stick and hang it and redry thoroughly before packing into hogsheads, as it is in such shape that it cannot be handled now.

BOSWELL DENIES OFFICER'S STATEMENT

Jack Boswell, well known Rec House pike farmer, cited to appear in county court for alleged failure to obey the compulsory education law, denies the statement of Deputy Sheriff Johnson that he said the reason he did not send his two young sons to school was that they had no clothes. Mr. Boswell says that he told Mr. Johnson that bad weather had largely prevented his children from getting to school. Deputy Sheriff Johnson who is truant officer, preferred the charge against Mr. Boswell, and the latter will have a hearing in county court Friday.

Old Sam Hurst Pleases 'Em

Plain old Sam Hurst on the bench that use to be before the bench. He even chews the same kind of tobacco that he did when arguing cases, though we believe he has cut down on the size of the chew. There is no air of superiority being from another sphere come down to earth to weigh in the Scales of Justice the right and wrong of mere man—there is no superfluous dignity of supercilious attitude about Sam Hurst, Judge. In the four weeks' court here he has shown himself to be an impartial judge, a just judge, a "human judge."

Some folks are willing to be on the level, but they want to fix their own level.

The new legislator never seems happy unless he is tossing something into the hopper.

HARDING NOT FOR QUICK PEACE NOW

Washington, April 5.—President Harding is not committed to any definite program in regard to a congressional declaration to declare a state of war with Germany at an end. While the president voted for the Knox resolution when he was a member of the senate and spoke favorably in regard to it in his address of acceptance, he is understood to feel there is no occasion for precipitate action at this time. The president's views in regard to the peace program are expected to be made known at the opening of the new congress, which the executive may address in person. In the meantime it has become known that the president and his advisors are growing more convinced there is no practical way to consider the Versailles covenant.

BILLY SUNDAY SPEAKS AT PARIS

After Seeing Man o' War at Lexington—Great Crowd Throngs Tobacco Warehouse

Paris, Ky., April 5.—The blue grass region of Kentucky captivated Billy Sunday Monday and he in turn captivated the audience of more than 10,000 persons who gathered from all parts of Central Kentucky to hear him. When he arrived at 1:20 Monday afternoon the police had to fight their way through a crowd in order to clear a way to the platform. When Mr. Sunday mounted the platform a cheer went up from the audience, which was answered by Mr. Sunday with a smile and wave of the hand.

Choir Leader Rodeheaver put the crowd in a good humor with a humorous story and then asked all to stand and sing "My Country 'Tis of Thee."

"The blue grass region," said Mr. Sunday "is the prettiest place on earth, and I have travelled in every state except Maine," introducing his secretary, Robert Mathews, of Carrollton, Ky.

Following the collection, which amounted to $675, Mr. Sunday spoke for one hour and twenty minutes.

"Everything is done within the province of God, but you must help," Mr. Sunday said. "God ain't going to send angels down here to plow these blue grass fields. The Bible is the only book and the greatest book. But it tells of many sinners. Abraham lied. I'd lie any day to save Ma Sunday from an old lobster. I'd fix it up with the Master afterwards."

At the close of his address, dripping with perspiration, Mr. Sunday seized a pitcher of ice water and half emptied it, and replaced his collar, tie and coat as he fought his way to the auto in order to board the train for Cincinnati.

Mr. Sunday also paid a visit to Hinata Farm, near Lexington, for the purpose of seeing Man o' War, America's champion thoroughbred race horse, now retired to the stud, and he permitted himself to be photographed with this wonderful animal. Mr. Sunday came from Cincinnati and after having expressed his admiration for Man o' War to Miss Dangerfield, owner of Hinata Farm, and members of his party he proceeded to Paris, where he addressed a large gathering of people.

The Enquirer had the following about Billy Sunday's Sunday night sermon in Cincinnati:

The Night Sermon
Billy Sunday paid his respects to a whole host of modern-day tendencies, which he said partake too much of things worldly and not enough of things spiritual, (Continued on 5th page)

RODES TERRILL JOINS CHIEF AT CAPITAL

Rodes S. Terrill left on the 1:30 L. & N. for Washington, D. C., Tuesday afternoon, where he will assume his duties as secretary to Congressman Ralph Gilbert. Harvey Wilkinson, of Stanford, who has been appointed clerk to the congressman, is already at the capital. Mr. Wilkinson held the same position under Congressman Heim.

Friends of Mr. Terrill saw him off and extend every good wish for success in his new career. He will see active service at once as the new congress has been called into special session for April 11 by President Harding. Mr. Terrill is one of the best known young men of Richmond, and a popular democrat. He is a son of R. B. Terrill, wheel horse democrat for years, and will have a great opportunity at the nation's capital to meet the big men of the nation and see how big things are done.

A dispatch from Washington says that Congressman Gilbert will probably be given appointment on the District of Columbia Committee, which is a very nice assignment. It has been held by Congressman Ben Johnson, who will probably go to the Appropriations committee.
