JIM PARKS TO PITCH
HERE ON WEDNESDAY

Baseball fans of this city and community will be given an opportunity of seeing Jim Parks in action once more if they go to the baseball game Wednesday afternoon on the Normal campus. Jim is an ex-service man, a member of the local American Legion post and eligible in every respect to represent it on the baseball field. If his brother, Curt, does not catch him, Arnold Hanger will be behind the bat. A strong lineup has been secured and every position on the team will be held down by a player of experience and ability.

The local boys plan revenge. Berea defeated them on the football field and the basketball court and if the boys from our neighboring city bring the team expected it will be nine innings before the contest Wednesday will be decided.

The game is in charge of the American Legion Post. The boys tried to arrange for a band, but all of the musicians are scheduled for Mt. Sterling tomorrow and cannot be present. The game will start promptly at 3:30 o'clock. An admission will be charged at the gate. The net receipts will go toward further equipping the Legion Club rooms.

Middlesboro Schools Victors In Tournament

Pineville, Ky., May 17—More than 200 school children representing public schools of Harlan, Manchester, Middlesboro, and Pineville, competed in the first Southeastern Kentucky Public School Tournament, which closed here last week after a four day meeting.

Middlesboro was the winner in all classes of competition, including, with high points in public speaking, domestic science and instrumental music.

Pineville was winner in vocal music and athletics. Winchester, the dark horse in the athletic field, beat Harlan in the baseball finals after Pineville and Middlesboro had been beaten in the semi-finals.

The tournament was the first annual meeting of the schools of this section.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ryan, of Ravenna, were recent guests of Mrs. John Malloy.

Colored Farmers' Clubs Presidents

(By Henry A. Laine)

Readers of the Daily Register have, during the last two years, read my quarterly reports to our county fiscal court, about the work of our various rural clubs, and doubtless many would like to know the kind of people who are managing these clubs; what they are doing, and the object of it all. Although there are fourteen farmers' clubs, 29 home makers' clubs, and 6 junior clubs with a total membership of one thousand men, women and children, I shall only speak here of the 13 farmers' clubs with their 300 members, and the kind of men they have for presidents. I will speak first of Moses Hutton, president of the Four Mile Farmers' Club. He is a good man, industrious and progressive, who lived as the trusted servant of Mrs. Margaret Noland in her declining years. His family ranks as one of the best in the county. James Jackson, president of the College Hill club, who, for 35 years past has served the wealthy Covington families, as servant and tenant, is a man who enjoys the respect of both races in his community, earning this esteem by hard work and unwavering devotion to duty. He is an ardent churchman and believer in education. He owns a nice home and has an interesting Christian family.

Wm. Daniels, president of the Waco Club, is also a devoted churchman, industrious, and progressive, and always ready to help along a good cause. He is a faithful servant and tenant of Hon. C. L. Searcy, the Waco banker.

David Owens, president of the Moberly Club, is generally regarded as the best club president in the county. He is modest, quiet, courteous, and makes no attempt at display; but he believes in agricultural extension work and is doing all he can to advance it in his community. He enjoys the confidence of his club and they stand with him for race advancement.

Wm. Daniel, president of the Waco Club, is also a devoted churchman, industrious, and progressive, and always ready to help along a good cause. He is a faithful servant and tenant of Hon. C. L. Searcy, the Waco banker.

C. C. Chadwell, president of the Brassfield club, is one of the most remarkable characters in the history of Madison county. Coming from Virginia, a barefoot lad 40 years ago without a dollar, today he and his family own 300 acres of land, stocked with hogs, cattle and sheep, and he also conducts one of the most successful general stores in the southeastern part of Madison county. His customers are mostly white people who regard "Cal" as one of their leading men. He is kind, polite, accommodating, with tact and insight into human nature rarely found. He is a churchman and Master Mason, and the history of his life ought to inspire every colored boy in the county. I was talking to him last court day in Richmond, and in a short time half a dozen white men walked up, shook hands with him, joked a bit, expressed their friendship for him and passed on. The colored citizens of the county have a right to feel proud of Mr. Chadwell.

James K. Collins, president of Pleasant Grove Club, Silas Simpson, of the Farristown Club, Gilbert Tribble, of Red House Club, and Ernest Gentry, of Concord Club, are all good citizens and christian men.

Rice Cousins, president of the Kirksville Club, owns a large farm in the rolling bluegrass hills of Silver Creek, near the Garrard county border. He is a credit to his race.

Dean Chenault, president of the Shallow Ford Club, is a quiet, genial, christian gentleman, the hospitality of whose home has gladdened many a heart. He has the welfare of his community at heart, and Shallow Ford would miss him if he were gone. Wm. Maupin, president of Maupintown Club, is one of the best farmers in the county. His improvements in soil building, his system of rotation, his constructive repair work on worn spots, gullies, and soil breaks, his grading up of live stock, his ideal home life and public spirit, stamp him as one of the most scientific and progressive farmers in the county. Another good man is "Cal" Embry, of Newby, president of the Silver Creek Club. He is a good citizen and farmer, has a nice home and lives well and enjoys the esteem and confidence of both races. James Munday, president of the Bobtown Club, is a hard working, honest farmer, and a good club president. Bobtown club will entertain all the farmers' clubs Saturday, September 10th, with a program of speaking and music and dinner on the ground. These Clubs hold monthly meetings where they study soil building, improvement in crop grades, home comforts, good health and good morals, co-operation and loyalty.

These clubs stand for the better methods of farming; better grades of live stock and poultry; a better system of crop rotation; and soil building. They stand for better schools, better roads and bridges. We believe that whatever is good for the white people is also good for colored people, and that whatever is bad for one is bad for the other, and that the future welfare of this country depends in a large degree upon inter-racial good will and friendship. The clubs feel grateful to the fiscal court for endorsing a continuation of this work and we shall continue doing what we can to assist our people to a higher standard of living.

About Rheumatism

People are learning that it is only a waste of time and money to take medicine internally for chronic and muscular rheumatism and about ninety-nine out of a hundred cases are one or the other of these varieties. All that is really necessary to afford relief is to apply Chamberlain's Liniment freely. Try it. It costs but 35 cents per bottle. Large size 60 cents.

Do Your Best
Everyone should do all he can to provide for his family and in order to do this he must keep his physical system in the best condition possible. No one can reasonably hope to do much when he is half sick a good share of the time. If you are constipated, bilious or troubled with indigestion get a package of Chamberlain's Tablets and follow the plain printed directions, and you will soon be feeling all right and able to do a day's work.

LIGHT ELECTRIC

THE owner of a Milburn Light Electric becomes more attached to his car every day, it is so handy and convenient.

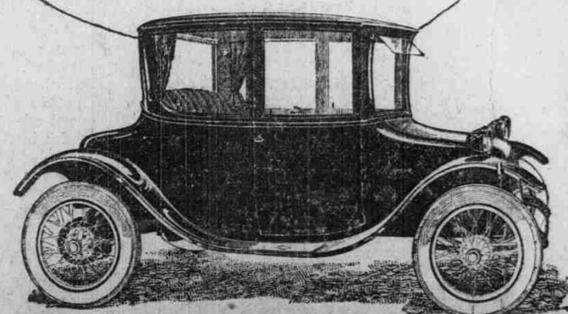

The low-swung beauty of line, the seat at just the proper height, the seats at just the proper slant, the finishings of just the right shade for harmony and good taste.

And so the owner goes on finding unexpected new pleasures at every turn, from ease in driving to the greatest economy of upkeep.

You would delight in the unusual features of this modern electric.

Flivver Wheeze No. 1234567890

Sir: A heavy-set man with a perspiring visage was trying with great enthusiasm and very little success to squeeze himself under the steering wheel of a widely-known, medium-priced car. The high gloss of the car indicated it was newly purchased and the efforts of the fat person soon began to attract the attention of pedestrians who stooped to watch him. The incumbent was about to abandon his efforts when an unfeeling spectator remarked, "Serves him right for not trying it on before he bought it."

Suggestions For a Camping Trip

Buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy before leaving home. As a rule it cannot be obtained when on a hunting, fishing or prospecting trip. Neither can it be obtained while on board the cars or steamships and at such times and places it is most likely to be needed. The safe way is to have it with you.

Mrs. Charles Williams, who has been ill, is improving. Mr. and Mrs. Dock Whitaker spent Thursday evening with his sister, Mrs. Charles Williams. Mr. Earl Whitaker attended the social Saturday night in Garrard, which was given by Mr. and Mrs. Clay Hardin. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Williams entertained a number of relatives Sunday. Those present were Miss Maggie Carr, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Whitaker and children.

Mrs. Joel Lamb and daughter, Hettie, spent Friday in Richmond.

Three Drown In Ky. River

Jackson, Ky., May 17—Three men were drowned Monday while crossing the Kentucky river in a small boat at Chavies, Breathitt county. Several others fell into the water, but were saved. The dead are Wm. Collins, W. A. Neace and J. N. Mullins, all married. The bodies of Neace and Collins have been found. A large party of men is dragging the river for Mullins. The men were said to have been returning from a party at a neighbor's house and too many men crowded into the boat.

For a Weak Stomach

As a general rule all you need to do is to adopt a diet suited to your age and occupation and to keep your bowels regular. When you feel that you have eaten too much and when constipated, take one of Chamberlain's Tablets, may
