INDIAN WAR IS FEARED IN UTAH

Salt Lake City, Utah, May 30.—Heavily armed posses are resting on their arms at Bluff, Blanding, Monticello and other sections in the Indian Bad Lands, in San Juan county, Southeastern Utah, awaiting the outcome of a parley being conducted in Allen Canyon between a friendly Indian runner and a band of renegade Ute and Piute Indians, estimated to number more than fifty.

The Indian runner was sent to Allen Canyon by Sheriff R. Lynn Hyde, of San Juan county, to offer the renegades an opportunity to surrender before the posses are ordered to "close in" on them.

The situation at Bluff, center of the Indian uprising that took place Saturday, following the killing of one of the braves and the wounding of another, today still is tense, and authorities fear that the Indians, who are known to have posted smoke signals thru-out the day and builded fire signals during the early evening, are awaiting re-enforcements before continuing their reign of terror.

HARDING SAYS FIRST DUTY IS TO OUR OWN

(By Associated Press)
Washington, May 30.—A nation loyal first of all to itself, but never failing to measure up to the demands of advancing civilization was pictured by President Harding today in his Memorial address at Arlington National Cemetery. He said American heroes of every war, accomplished far more than the immediate ends for which they fought, because they helped to erect a shrine for the liberty loving of every race. He declared the whole mission of America had become an unrealized dream if this heritage was ever sacrificed.

"Our country never failed to measure up to the demands presented in behalf of humanity and never will," he said. "When it ceases to meet these drafts it no longer will be our country. It will be a wretched and decaying memorial of another civilization that has crumbled, of another ideal which has failed, of another ambition for men's happiness which somehow has gone awry."

In equal emphatic language the President asserted "this duty to civilization could only be accomplished if the nation first took care of its own integrity. I counsel no selfishness," he said, "no little Americanism. When I urge our first duty is to our own and that in the measure of its performance we will find the true gauge of our capacity to be helpful to be helpful to others."

BAILEY REMOVED TO JAIL IN LOUISVILLE

Louisville, Ky., May 30.—John Bailey, charged with the murder of Beverly White, of Versailles, near Barboursville in April, was brought here Saturday from Mt. Vernon, where he had been confined since his arrest, and was put in the Louisville jail for safekeeping. Bailey was moved at the suggestion of Attorney General Charles I. Dawson.

The removal followed a legal controversy in which power of W. M. Carmichael, Mt. Vernon, police judge, to grant Bailey hearing for bail was questioned. The county and circuit judges are disqualified to act in the case, and Carmichael was prepared to hold the hearing Friday, when a writ of prohibition was filed in the supreme court. June 10 was set for the hearing in the case.

Bailey was indicted in Knox county and granted a change of venue to Harlan. Later he was transferred to the Rockcastle jail at Mt. Vernon for safekeeping, when Judge W. T. Davis on his examining trial refused to grant bail. A wholesale jail delivery was recently staged at Mt. Vernon, when every prisoner but Bailey escaped.

On this occasion Bailey went to the home of the jailer and reported the escape. He requested the jailer to go back with him and spend the night, declaring he was "lonesome." Bailey was brought to Louisville by W. G. Nicely, of Mt. Vernon.

The shooting occurred April 15 as White stepped from the train at Heidrick Station, Knox county. The trouble is said to have been the result of the feud of long standing between the two families. White was on a business trip to the mountains, his first visit in many years.

Bailey escaped into the hills after the shooting, but later surrendered on being promised safe conduct to the Harlan jail. He went to Harlan surrounded by an armed group of kinsmen, who accompanied him with a party of deputy sheriffs to the Harlan jail.

METHODISTS RAISE $4,500 SUNDAY

Richmond Almost Reaches Its Quota First Day—Good Reports From Others

Richmond Methodists almost "went over the top" in their Christian Education Drive here Sunday. Of their quota of $5,000 they secured $4,500. Campaign Chairman C. C. Wallace is confident that the balance will easily be subscribed this week. The drive continues all this week. News came to Dr. W. O. Sadler, local pastor, that many other Methodist churches in this section, easily made up their quotas Sunday. Among them were Maysville, Shelbyville, Harrodsburg, and Epworth church in Lexington.

Local Methodists and others gave liberally to the fund which is being sought.

The appeal will close June 5. However, leaders express the opinion that quotas will be completed long before the close, as many laymen have made up their minds as to their contributions.

Six Kentucky schools and colleges are interested in the outcome of the movement. The sum of $1,120,000 is being sought in Kentucky, $600,000 in the Louisville Conference and $500,000 in the Kentucky Conference.

ELMER DEATHERAGE IN SHERIFF'S RACE

Popular Democrat Says He Has Long Had Ambition—Pledges Law Enforcement

Formal announcement is made today of the candidacy of Elmer Deatherage for the democratic nomination for Sheriff of Madison county.

Mr. Deatherage is too well known to need any sort of compliments or encomiums from any one. He is one of Madison county's most popular citizens, esteemed and beloved by all known for his unflinching democracy, his loyal friendship, generosity, charities, and personal gentility.

For a long time he has had an ambition to be sheriff of Madison county, and he says he still has it. Many of his friends have become convinced that now is the accepted time, and he has determined to pitch his hat into the ring, and go after this, the principal political honor of old Madison.

That he will make a good sheriff of the county if nominated and elected, goes without saying. In his card to the voters, he pledges himself to strict enforcement of the law without fear or favor. And his promise that he will rigidly enforce the law will win him a lot of friends all over the county.

He makes his announcement short and to the point. To the voters he says:

To the Democratic Voters of Madison County:

In response to the insistence of many friends and my own ambition, I hereby announce myself a candidate for the office of Sheriff of Madison county, subject to the action of the Democratic primary on August 6, next.

If you honor me with this office I promise to give you faithful and efficient service in every possible way, and will do everything in my power to see that the laws are enforced, strictly, without fear or favor.

I will appreciate your vote and support.

ELMER DEATHERAGE.

PROCLAMATION TO LEGION MEMBERS

(By Associated Press)
Indianapolis, Ind., May 30.—F. W. Galbraith, Jr., National Commander of the American Legion, today issued the following proclamation to the Legion members:

"Today a mighty nation bows its head in memory of the men who have died that the nation might live—men of Bunker Hill, of Gettysburg, of Santiago, of the Argonne.

"The American Legion joins the nation in its reverence for the dead; but the Legion also claims a deeper kinship for those who gloriously fell in the world war. For these men were our comrades-in-arms, linked to us by the strongest of ties.

"We shall visit every grave today, at home and abroad, and speak words of comfort to the dear ones who mourn. But we shall not only give, we shall receive. For, as we stand at their graves today our comrades will speak to us. They will remind us of the dangers that best our beloved land, of the enemies, with in and without; of the long fight that must be waged. The voice of our comrades comes to us, like a call to arms. 'Fight on,' it urges us."

PUSHING SOLDIERS' DAWSON HOSPITAL

(By Associated Press)
Dawson Springs, Ky., May 30.—Work at the government recreation here, where a sanitarium unit of 22 buildings for disabled soldiers and sailors is being built is being pushed as rapidly as possible in order that eight of the fireproof structures may be ready to house the disabled men as soon as possible. Buildings on which special effort is being put forth are the main infirmary, one semi-ambulant buildings and six ambulant buildings. Work on the powerhouse for which the contract recently was let, has begun.

The sanitarium unit, when completed, will be composed of 22 buildings, which originally were to cost $1,500,000. This sum was found, however, to be inadequate for the construction of fireproof buildings and rather than build some non-fireproof materials the work has been held up. An additional appropriation of $750,000 now is pending in Washington.

PARK PITCHES NO-HIT GAME

Jim Park, who showed the local fans some real pitching in the region game a couple of weeks ago, is going "great guns" with his team in Lexington. He won their first game last Sunday week and Sunday held a strong Cincinnati team to a no-hit game. The Lexington Herald said of his work:

Jim Park, one time major leaguer, whose arm is said to have gone bad, and who is now manager-pitcher for the Lexington Reds, made Lexington fans wonder yesterday why he is practicing law instead of playing baseball. Park set down the H. & T. Auto Club, of Cincinnati, without a hit, besides striking out 16 of the visitors to Devereaux Field. The Reds won by a score of 10 to 2. About all there was to the game when the Cincinnatians were at bat was Park's pitching. During the first three innings of the local hurler set 'em down one-two-three, whiffing eight batters in the first four innings.

SOLDIERS' GRAVES ARE DECORATED

Memorial Day Carries a New Significance—Governor's Beautiful Proclamation

(By Associated Press)
Louisville, Ky., May 30.—The graves of soldier dead in the four Louisville cemeteries were decorated here today by committees from the Woman's Auxiliary of Jefferson Post of the American Legion. Services were held in each.

At Cave Hill, Evergreen and St. Louis cemeteries, a cross similar to the ones that mark the graves of the American dead overseas was erected at each grave and a wreath put on each. These will be permanent markers. In the Jewish cemetery the Star of David was placed upon each of the graves.

Jefferson Post of the American Legion participated in the services.

The Memorial Day address of the United Confederate Veterans was held Saturday, May 28, when the graves of the Confederate dead were decorated. Dr. John M. Van Der Meulen, president of the Presbyterian Theological Seminary, delivered the address. A number of solos were sung and an industrial band furnished the music.

In an address to the people of Kentucky, Governor Morrow calls on them to remember all of the dead from Valley Forge to Chateau Thierry and to make Memorial Day a day of consecration and rededication to the service of our country. The address of Gov. Morrow to the people of the state, follows:

"On this day every son and daughter of the republic should pay tribute to those who have made and kept us a nation. It should be a day of memory and acknowledgement—memory of how and at what price America has been bought and made and kept—acknowledgement of our debt and obligation to the deathless dead, and to the heroic living who gave or offered all to preserve for us the great, free, common heritage of our citizenship.

"On this day our lips should drink anew of the fountains of liberty prepared for us by the service, heroism and sacrifice of all those who have marched or fallen beneath the flag.

"Today we remember all the dead from Valley Forge to Chateau Thierry, and with hearts swelling with gratitude we should see in our dead, those who are maimed, and disabled, and wounded, the great national sacrament as their lives and deaths cry out to each of us in this land of freedom, and free chance and open opportunity—'this is my body, broken for you.'

"Memorial Day should be a day of reconsecration and rededication to the service of our country; thrilled with memories of the past; glorified by the recollections of our heroic traditions; touched and saddened by the broken and disabled of our last great war around us, let us solemnly determine that our dead shall sleep in honor; that we shall keep and hold that for which they died and transmit to our children and our children's children the heritage bought for us at the great price and that with God's help we shall hold fast to the faith of the founders and builders of the republic to the end that our country shall go on to the accomplishment of its mission and the fulfillment of the destiny of old blood.

"Great Lord of Hosts, be with us yet, lest we forget—lest we forget.

"EDWIN P. MORROW.
"Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky."
