Stone—Carson

Wm. A. Carson, Jr. surprised his family and many friends here by taking unto himself a wife in the person of Miss Eloise Stone of Versailles, at present Mr. Carson's home. They were married in Louisville last week at the Seelbach, and have since been enjoying a honeymoon, touring this section of the country. His bride is a daughter of Col. J. Miller Stone, a prominent citizen of Woodford county, and she is a beautiful girl of 18 summers. Mr. Carson is connected with an insurance company and has more than made good since he has been away from Stanford. They arrived last night for a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Carson, Sr., sister, Miss Annel Carson, and brother, Stewart Y. Carson.

Beauty is Harmony

There can be no harmony, and therefore no beauty, in a home in which the wife and mother is cross and irritable and dull-spirited. Often as not, disease is at the bottom of such a condition. Let the woman who is always tired and who sniffer from low spirits and mysterious aches and pains, only try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. She will then see that the beauty and harmony will be restored to her home with the return of her health and good spirits.

son, and his family. Those who have met Mrs. Carson are delighted with her and all congratulate Mr. Carson on winning such a charming bride. Everybody is wishing them every good thing possible and are craving for them a long, happy and useful married life.—Stanford Journal.

Cow Honor Roll

(By Associated Press)

Lexington, Ky., June 1—Fifty three Kentucky dairy cows owned by 24 different farmers and including seven Holsteins and 46 Jerseys won places for themselves on the April honor roll by producing more than three pounds of butterfat during the two days in which they were tested under the supervision of the Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station, according to announcement made today by J. J. Cooper, head of the dairy department. This is the largest honor roll ever reported, the professor said, and marks an increase in the popularity of the cow-testing work in the state. A total of 179 cows in forty herds were tested during the month.

Star Belle DeKol Lyons, owned by the Coldstream Farm, Lexington, led the list with a record of 7.19 pounds of butterfat during the two days. Springside Palatin Pauline, owned by W. H. Newell, Jr., Maysville, was second, with a record of 5.35 pounds of butterfat, while Majesty's Golden Elsie, owned by J. C. Askew, of Trenton, was third with a record of 4.81 pounds of butterfat.

Allendale Farms, Shelbyville, placed the largest number of cows on the list, six of their animals making records.

Montana was treated to a snow storm Sunday.

How a prospective mother prepared for baby's coming

Nature's Evolution

Of all the vital adventures in life, the birth of a baby is the climax of nature's most wonderful evolution.

During this period, nature is supposed to be preparing the internal organism of a woman for a safe and speedy delivery; but it is more the exception than the rule when nature, unaided, performs her part at the crisis in a manner to relieve pain and contribute to comfort.

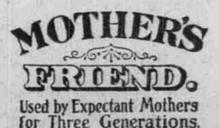

"I was afraid," writes a prospective mother, "until an experienced mother told me about MOTHER'S FRIEND."

"—but now I cannot recommend MOTHER'S FRIEND too highly for I know it helped me wonderfully, and I can almost say my baby was born without pain. At the present time I am using it again, as I do not want to go thru the ordeal without it."

Three generations of prospective mothers have used MOTHER'S FRIEND. When gently applied, during the period of expectancy, it soothes the fine network of nerves, lubricates the broad, flat, abdominal muscles and prepares the way for an easier, quicker and practical delivery.

For valuable booklet—"MOTHERHOOD and The BABY"—free, fill in coupon below and mail direct to the makers of MOTHER'S FRIEND.

WARNING: Avoid using plain oils, greases and substitutes—they act only on the skin and may cause harm without doing good.
