BARN BURNS TO GROUND NEAR BERE A

Team of Mules Killed At Depot There But Driver Escapes—Other News

Berea, July 22. On Thursday morning between 12 and 3 o'clock, Mr. Green, an aged farmer, living on the Big Hill pike, three miles from Berea, was aroused from sleep to discover his barn burning to the ground. The barn contained a considerable amount of hay, besides some farm implements and a set of harness and buggy; also a team of mules valued at $500, belonging to Millin Rice. The loss to Mr. Green is estimated at $1,500.

On Thursday, July 14, a team of mules belonging to Walter Abrams, of the Big Hill vicinity, in Jackson county, was struck by a fast train in front of the Berea station and instantly killed. Mr. Abrams, with his team, was on side track opposite the depot. A train had pulled in on the siding, which cut off his view toward the south. He attempted to drive across the track when fast train from Atlanta, struck the team and completely separated it from the wagon and driver. Mr. Abrams escaped injury.

It is stated Lloyd George probably will be able to make a comprehensive statement in the House of Commons next week concerning the terms.

HOUSE PUTS OVER G. O. P. TARIFF BILL

Washington, July 22—The republican protective tariff bill, egiminated by Chairman Joseph W. Fordney to raise around $500,000 in revenue annually, was passed Thursday night by the House by a vote of 289 to 127—precisely the vote by which the Democratic motion or elimination of its American valuation provision was defeated. Seven republicans voted against the measure, while the same number of democrats supported it.

Oil, hides, cotton and asphalt stood up against a determined fight to tax them and remained on the free list.

AT THE MOVIES

The writer knows of several "intellectual" women who claim that Kipling was wrong when he wrote those now famous lines.

However, the authors of "What Women Want," starring Louise Huff, the photoplay which is to appear as a headliner at the local theatre on Saturday, take this thought and have made of it a dramatic story, which even the blaze Broadway critics have commended very highly.

Francine D'Espard held within the hollow of her hand the life and fortune of the man who had promised to make her his wife. She had travelled thousands of miles over land and sea to claim his love and found that he had broken his sacred pledge.

His faithlessness had wrecked her life - she had him at her mercy - was it noble to forgive him to evenge?

Her heart was filled with the fire of outraged love - she chose the path of vengeance - one word her, and her fate lover would be crushed to the dust - the unexpected happened.

This picture will be shown as a special extraordinary attraction at this popular playhouse for Saturday.

PAINT LICK BOY TO JUDGE SWINE

Logan West Among U. of K. Students Entered In Contest For National Show

Lexington, Ky., July 22—Plans are being made to enter a students' judging team from the College of Agriculture in the intercollegiate swine judging contest which will be held in connection with the national swine show at Peoria, Ill., October 3, according to an announcement made here today by L. J. Horlacher, a member of the college animal husbandry staff, who is coaching the team candidates.

The team of five students and one alternate which will represent the state in the contest will be picked from the group of 12 candidates who are trying out for the team to represent Kentucky in the students' stock judging contest at the International Live Stock Exposition in Chicago, November 26. Those who are candidates for the two teams include Frank J. Wedekemper, Louisville; Ralph O. Wilson, Robinson, Ill.; Courtland L. Short, Owensboro; Phillip Edwards, Owensboro; Clyde Watts, Harrodsburg; Scroggan Jones, Buechel; Robt. R. Arnold, Morgan; William G. Finn, Burlington; J. W. Chandler, Van Clave, Cave City; Logan West, Paint Lick; Paul Gregory, Frankfort, and Wm. Howell, Greensburg. The candidates are juniors and seniors in the college.

In preparation for the two judging contests the students will spend several days at the Kentucky State Fair, September 12 to 17, where they will practice judging beef cattle, sheep and hogs. They will also take trips to prominent stock farms in the state for the same purpose in addition to practicing judging on stock at the college farm.

In the swine show contest the students will compete for $450 in team prizes and $150 in individual prizes. The winning team will receive $125. The second team prize will be $100, third $80, fourth $60, fifth $50 and sixth $35. Individual prizes ranging from $50 for the highest scoring individual to $25 for the fourth highest scoring man.

REID RETURNING TO TWIRL FOR BEARS

Sam Reid, the young high school twirler, who has been in Hustonville for the last few weeks, is to return Saturday to pitch the game for the Richmond Bears against a team from Berea. He has been pitching for a team in Hustonville and he is in fine condition. This lad was persuaded to return by B. Z. McKinney, who is the able manager of the Bears. Reid will prove a valuable addition to the Bears and will no doubt make them favorite in the contest. The Bears are composed of local players who were not selected to represent Richmond on the first town team. A fine game is expected and the visiting team is sure to bring the best they have.

AIRPLANE BURNS AT MT. STERLING FAIR

The "Daniel Boone" recently purchased airplane of the Lexington Aviation Company, was completely destroyed by fire Thursday afternoon at Mt. Sterling, where Lieut. J. O. Creech, manager of the company had taken the machine to give exhibition flights. The plane was valued at $5,000, and the loss is only partly covered by insurance.

The fire started when the machine was being cranked to take up two passengers from the Mt. Sterling aviation field on the farm of Judge Henry L. Prewitt, one half mile north of Mt. Sterling on the Maysville pike. The cause of the fire is undetermined. No one was injured as the plane had not taken to the air when the blaze started, but Lieut. Creech suffered slight burns.

Need Attention In March or Face May Stay Covered

Now is the time to take special care of the complexion if you wish to look well the rest of the year. The March winds have a strong tendency to bring out freckles that may stay all summer unless removed. Now is the time to use Othine—double strength.

This preparation for the removal of freckles is usually so successful that it is sold by druggists under guarantee to refund the money if it fails. Get an ounce of Othine—double strength, and even a few applications should show a wonderful improvement of some of the smaller freckles even vanishing entirely. ff

DANVILLE TEAM IS SIMPLY SLAUGHTERED

Richmond Defeats Boyle County Boys By Record Score of 34 to 2 Thursday

The Richmond ball club won a game from the West Danville club on the Normal field Thursday by an overwhelming score of 34 to 2. The team that the local boys expected to play did not arrive, but it seems they sent this team who were easy victims for the local lads. The score made is said to be a record.

Jim Parks held the visitors safe without putting a great deal of stuff on the pill. He also drove out two home runs and had another started but the ball got entangled in a group of on-lookers in center field and Parks was held to a double.

Hembree, who played only three innings, came to the bat three times and drove out a home run, a triple and a double.

Next week the local boys play the fast Irvine team, which is said to be a team that will give the boys a real ball game. No admission will be charged to the Irvine game to compensate the fans for Thursday's fiasco that a big crowd paid good money to see.

The Danville nine changed pitchers every few innings, but all four of their twirlers were batted hard. Richmond played fast ball on the green and the enemy was very tame throughout the contest. Richmond had good batting practice in the eight innings they came to the bat.

The fun was so great that Gentry, the Richmond field captain, let sixteen local boys take part in the slaughter. The local nine seems to be a mighty good outfit and some very strong teams are to be brought here this season. The score:
