Mrs. Bennett Writes From France
 Mrs. Samuel Bennett has written ten letters and postals telling of the delightful and interesting trip abroad she is having as the guest of her cousins, Dr. and Mrs. William Dudley. They were first in England and then in France. On the 15th of November, writing from Paris, Mrs. Bennett says: "The world war has been brought home to me by visits to Chantilly, General Joffre's headquarters during the battle of the Marne, and to poor little Senlis a lovely old French town, battered to pieces. We hope to go to Rheims and Verdun this week, but it has been so cold. This cutting bitter wind shows me some of the suffering of the soldiers." Mrs. Bennett and Dr. and Mrs. Dudley will sail tomorrow for home.—Lexington Herald.

Mrs. Ernest Parrish, of Red House, spent Thanksgiving with Mrs. Harry Scrivner at Winchester.

Miss Mary Louise Covington and Coleman Covington returned to their school duties at State University Monday.

 Mr. William Rogers left Saturday for Havana, Cuba, for an indefinite stay.

Mrs. Charles H. Kellogg and daughter, Miss Elizabeth, of Cincinnati, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Clark Kellogg, having come to see and welcome the new baby in the family, Miss Douglas McCown.

Miss Dovie Parrish spent the Thanksgiving holiday with relatives and friends in Mt. Sterling.

Mrs. J. G. Goins and daughter, of Springfield, Ky., were recent guests in the home of the former's sister, Mrs. Robert Elkin, at Waco.

Dr. Homer W. Carpenter has returned from a ten days' stay in Birmingham, Alabama.

Mrs. Charles H. McLaughlin has returned to her home in Covington after a visit of several days with Mr. and Mrs. Clark Kellogg. Mrs. McLaughlin is pleasantly remembered as Miss Dorothy Kellogg.

Mrs. Nora Perkins has returned from Cardome Academy, at Georgetown, having accompanied her daughter to resume her school work after spending the Thanksgiving holiday here.

Announcement is made of the arrival of a lovely little daughter at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Davis at Avondale, Florida. Miss Davis was before her marriage Miss Mason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Mason, of the county, and has a host of friends here interested in the news. The little girl has been christened Barbara Francis.

Mrs. Joe Panther and children have returned to their home in Louisville after a pleasant stay with Mr. Joe Giunehigliani and family.

Miss Margaret Scrivner, of Winchester, is the guest of relatives here this week.

Mrs. Willis Hise will leave Thursday to spend the winter months with her daughter, Mrs. Fred Rogers, in Independence, Missouri, having spent the summer with relatives here.

Miss Jane Goodloe submitted to an operation for removal of her tonsils at college hospital, Berea, Saturday. Numerous friends here will be glad to know she is doing nicely.

Miss Fay Price has returned from a visit to her aunt, Mrs. Henry C. Anderson, in Stanford.

School For Farmers

Lexington, Nov. 30—Kentucky farmers and their wives will be given an opportunity of going to school again under a plan for two day schools being developed by the extension division of the College of Agriculture, University of Kentucky, for a number of counties of the state, according to N. R. Elliott, leader of specialists at the college under whose direction the schools are being planned.

Ethyl-Ester For Lepers

Manila, P. I., Oct. 20 (By Mail)—The extension of the ethyl-ester treatment to all lepers in the Philippine Islands is the chief problem engaging the attention of Dr. Victor G. Heiser, chief of the Far Eastern section of the Rockefeller Foundation, who is making an investigation of health conditions in the archipelago for that organization.

Bible Thought For Today
 GIVING AND GETTING—Give, and it shall be given unto you, good measure, pressed down and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom. For with the same measure that ye mete withal it shall be measured to you again.—Luke 6:38.

Pendleton's New School Head

Falmouth, Nov. 30—Prof. H. G. Wells, of this city, has accepted the appointment as county superintendent of schools in Pendleton county which office he will assume January 1. Prof. Wells now is superintendent of schools here. He will succeed J. E. Drahe, of Butler, as superintendent.

Many Are Needed

Wilmore, Nov. 30—A new fence along the Harrodsburg pike leading down the Brooklyn hill, is said by motorists to be a safeguard against going over the cliffs along the Kentucky river.
