

THE RICHMOND DAILY REGISTER

Established 1865 — 57th Year — No. 143

Richmond, Madison County, Ky Monday, June 19, 1922

Price Five Cents

CAN'T FIND BULLOCK IN ROCKCASTLE HILLS

Says Sheriff There In Letter To Local Officials—Examining Trials Here Tuesday

County Attorney J. P. Chénault received a letter from the Sheriff of Rockcastle county Monday morning, stating that he and five men searched the hills all of Friday night and are still in quest of Irvin Bullock, who brought copies of the teachers' examination questions to Richmond from Mt. Vernon to have them worked out. The capture of Bullock may reveal the persons in Rockcastle county, who, for years, have been selling the questions and disposing of forged and altered certificates, in the opinion of George Colvin, State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

This man, Irvin Bullock, we hope will be the key to the whole situation, the link between the wholesale disposition of examinations and the leak in Rockcastle, but no he has escaped," said Mr. Colvin. "Bullock was a school teacher and an examiner in the office of Mrs. Alice Davis, County Superintendent of Rockcastle, who is now under indictment. Just how these questions happened to be taken out of the postoffice to or three days before the law permits them to be moved, is something we are trying to find out."

The examining trials are set for Tuesday morning at Richmond before County Judge J. D. Goodloe.

Mrs. Davis' Certificate Revoked

Frankfort, Ky., June 19—The certificate entitling Mrs. Alice Davis, county superintendent of Rockcastle county, to teach school was revoked today by State Superintendent Colvin. The action, if sustained at a hearing here June 20, will automatically remove her from office. Colvin said.

Colvin said he would revoke the certificates of Martha, J. L. and Harold Jones, who were arrested at Richmond last week, charged with trafficking in teachers' examination questions, found at Richmond in possession of unauthorized persons, nine of whom were arrested. They are believed to have come from Rockcastle county.

SENATORS PLEDGE FOR TARIFF AND BONUS

Washington, June 19—Senate Republicans in conference today voted 30 to 9 against laying aside the tariff bill to consider the soldiers' bonus. Resolutions favoring final disposition of both the tariff bill and the bonus measure at this session and before any recess, were adopted 27 to 11.

INJUSTICE DONE IN SCOVILLE CASE

Editor Richmond Daily Register: There have been some very unkind and unjust reports in regard to the sad accident of the drowning of W. Roy Scoville, of London, Ky.

It seems that some one wanted to start a sensation in regard to the matter and in justice to the taxi drivers, I feel it my duty as Coroner to make this statement: Mr. Scoville was undoubtedly seized with cramps while in swimming and no one was responsible for his death.

It is a taxi driver's duty to take his passenger where requested. The fact that it was an unusual hour for a visit to the beach was no concern of theirs. It is very unjust to start such reports. W. N. KINSER, Coroner Madison County.

Farmer Kills His Son

Covington, Ky., June 19—C. B. Brooks, farmer, 65, 8 miles from here, today shot and killed his son, J. L. Brooks, 35, and then ended his own life. The killing came as an aftermath of a series of bitter quarrels.

Pavlowa No. 2!

Though only 10, Dorothy Forestal, daughter of Joseph F. Forestal, Wilkes-Barre, Pa., has completed one vaudeville tour as a dancer and soon will start from New York on another.

TOBACCO POOL ON IN WISCONSIN

Madison, Wis., June 19—A series of meetings conducted by J. D. Craddock, a director of the Kentucky tobacco pool, will be held throughout the growing districts of Wisconsin this week to further northern Wisconsin's pool now being organized. In the northern growing sections sufficient acreage has been contracted for to assure the success of the plan in those districts.

LEGION PLANS FOR ITS ANNUAL PICNIC

The American Legion's annual picnic will be at Boonesboro July 4th. These good times are always the big events of the summer and are anticipated by everyone. This year's outing promises to be exceptionally good as the following committees are in charge:

Charles R. George, chairman of the picnic committee; James Leeds, music; Joe Barnett, concessions and soft drinks; D. Willis Kennedy, tickets and the gate; Harold Oldham, athletics; Alex Turpin, large dance; L. W. Dunbar, publicity.

A new Ford car will be given away at the picnic. This is being furnished by the Richmond Motor Company and may be seen at any time in their display windows.

A baseball game will be one of the big events of the day, with contests in boxing, swimming, diving and dancing. A wrestling match, fat men's and fat lady's races and other contests for the crowd.

The Johnson and Gray Society Orchestra will furnish music for a dance which will be in the Merry Garden Dance pavillion from noon until 3 a. m.

PERJURY CHARGED IN CLAYHOLE CASES

Cattlettsburg, Ky., June 19—Two additional indictments, charging false swearing, against Floyd Napier and Susan Centers asked today by the commonwealth, marked the latest development in the Clayhole election precinct gun fight trial venued here from Breathitt county, in which four persons are charged with murder. The prosecutor indicated the grand jury may return the indictments today.

Meanwhile the second week of the trial opened with the continued expectation that both sides' remaining evidence will be a maze of conflicting statements. It is expected the jury will be charged Wednesday.

Dies At Hospital Here

Mrs. Emily Thomas, of Estill county died at a local hospital early Sunday morning. She was brought to Richmond for treatment several weeks ago, having suffered a severe stroke of paralysis which resulted in her death. She is survived by several children. Remains were taken in charge of Muncy Bros. and the body shipped to Estill county for interment.

HEAR BACCALAUREATE SERMON SUNDAY

Graduates of Eastern Normal Start Commencement Week With Real Message

The 16th annual commencement exercises of the Eastern Kentucky State Normal School began Sunday evening with the baccalaureate sermon on the campus. More than 500 friends gathered to hear this sermon which was delivered by Dr. Roger T. Noe, of Frankfort, to the 78 Normal and Model School graduates.

The improvised stage in the open, decorated in greens, ferns and large bunches of hydrangeas, made a beautiful setting for the splendid address which centered about those words of Scripture: "Ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free." Dr. Noe's message was a splendid one, sparkling with humor, sympathetic in its understanding of human nature, and delightfully touched by poetic quotations from the great writers of time. His simple presentation waxed into oratory, at times illuminating a sublime thought to be remembered and cherished by the graduates who are to go into the world, many as teachers to mold and model the lives which they touch.

A beautiful program of music added to the evening's enjoyment.

NEW MOTOR COP STOPS SPEEDERS

Robert Sharp, the new motor cop, is slowing things up a bit in and around Richmond, so all motorists had better look sharp. He has summoned 43 to appear in court Monday night. This is just a little warning meeting to which a select few have been invited. The next meeting may prove more serious.

QUAKER MAID TO OPEN IN RICHMOND

L. W. Dunbar, of the Freeman Realty Company, rented for E. V. Elder of Richmond, his store building in East Main street to the Quaker Maid Company, of Louisville, which owns and controls 76 grocery stores in the state of Kentucky. This will be the 77th store and they hope to have it open for business July 15. On the same date this company will open a similar store in Irvine. The Quaker Maid groceries always take high rank in any community and the opening of one of these great stores here means a decided addition to the business life of the community.

REGISTRATION SUIT HEARING AT ONCE

Frankfort, Ky., June 19—Hearing on the suit for an injunction to restrain the election board and officials of Franklin county from preparing for and holding registration under the Smith-Minor general registration law, pending determination of its constitutionality, will be held here tonight. The time was fixed today by agreement by the two interested parties, including the Democratic State Central Committee, which is defending the law.

NOTICE GOLF CLUB MEMBERS

You are asked to attend a very important meeting of the Richmond Golf Club Tuesday evening, June 20, 1922, at 7 o'clock at the court house. It is the highest importance that every member of the Club be present as some of the future policies of the Club are to be determined. Meeting will be adjourned in time for 8 o'clock engagements. — E. Deatherage President.

No Game Today

Cincinnati-Boston, rain.

The Weather

Local showers tonight and Tuesday; no change in temperature.

Monday's Livestock Markets

Cincinnati, June 19—Dry fed cattle steady, others lower; hogs steady; Chicago 10c lower; top lambs $13; Jersey $13.50. Louisville, June 19—Cattle 1-500, slow, tops $8.25; hogs 1000, strong, tops $10.75; sheep 4,700, 25c lower, $4.50 down; lambs $12.25.

COMBS KEEPS UP HIS FINE WORK

Earl Combs, Richmond pride, again starred with the Louisville Colonels in a double header against Minneapolis Sunday. In the first game he got two hits out of four times up, and in the second game he got one hit out of two times up, a batting average for the day of .500—which is far above the average. In addition Combs had seven put outs in the first game and one assist. The papers said his work in the field was one of the features of the games. In the second game he had but one put out. The Herald said of his work in the first game: Combs made a great catch of Mayer's fly in the first inning of this bout. Seven of the outfield flies were driven to him. The youngster poled two safeties in four efforts. In the second contest he made a thrilling catch of Schauer's long fly in the eighth. At bat he hammered forth one single in two efforts. He drew two two bases on balls and a laid a sacrifice.

MRS. ARTHUR RIDDELL PASSES TO REST

Mrs. J. Arthur Riddell died at a local hospital Sunday morning at 9:30 o'clock after an illness of several weeks of a complication of troubles. She was before her marriage Miss Dollie Moody, and moved to Richmond from Paint Lick about three years ago. She was a beautiful christian and it was often said of her, she was never happier than when doing something for others. She was an active member in the Christian church, where her presence will be greatly missed.

Surviving her are her husband, two sons and one daughter, a sister, Mrs. D. W. White, of this city, a brother, Ernest Moody, of Fort Wayne, Indiana. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. White, conducted by Dr. Carpenter, interment in Richmond cemetery.

Mrs. S. J. Roberts Refuses To Oppose Cam Cantrill

Lexington, Ky., June 19—Mrs. Samuel J. Roberts, who was active in local republican politics several years, today announced she would not accept the republican nomination for Congress to oppose Representative Cantrill in the 7th district. A move is on foot to have Mrs. Mary C. Love Collins, a Lexington, lawyer, accept the nomination.

Baptist Ladies Working Hard

The young ladies' Serving Circle of the First-Baptist church is standing near the top in the auto contest conducted by the Lexington Herald. It is impossible to find just what place they hold but they are all busy and urge their friends to do their utmost to help during these next two days, as the contest closes June 21.

Hopper Has Good Sale

Long Tom Chenault auctioneered a very successful sale of household and kitchen furniture for Harry Hopper Saturday afternoon at his home on Estill avenue. Mr. Hopper is leaving Richmond to make his home in Lexington.

Colored Humorist Speaks Tonight

Dr. R. Alonzo Scott, world-famous colored ex-slave, poet, singer, orator and humorist, will give his lecture, "The Law and Order Movement," to night at the First Baptist church, colored. Both white and colored are invited to hear him.

CONTRACT TO BE LET FOR ROAD IN ESTILL

Irvine To Madison County Line to Be Built Soon—Boggs to Open Bids Wednesday

(By Associated Press) Frankfort, Ky., June 19—Contracts for construction of 49.1 miles of highway and twenty-three bridges in the state Primary Highway System will be let by the State Highway Commission here Wednesday. Most of the eight projects involved in the road letting are for grading and drainage, the surfacing to be let later. The longest stretch is 14 miles on the Princeton-Marion road.

The letting of bridges will include a 442-foot bridge over the Levisa Fork of the Big Sandy at Pikeville. This bridge is estimated to cost $100,000, the county paying $50,000 and the state paying the same sum, the latter money, however, being in the form of cancellation of a debt owed by the county for convict labor.

The bids will be opened at the office of the commission in the old capitol building here.

The projects to be let follow: Glasgow-South road, Barren county, from the city limits of Glasgow to a point 7 miles south, grade, drain, macadam surface, 16 feet wide; London-Mt. Vernon road, Rockcastle county, 5.3 miles, grade and drain; Louisville-Paducah road, Henderson county, from Corydon to Union county line, 2.8 miles, grade and drain; Morehead-Grayson road, Rowan county from Morehead to Carter county line, 8.5 miles, grade and drain; Irvine-Richmond road, Estill county, from Rice's Station to Madison county line, 4.1 miles, grade, drain and macadam surfacing; Hopkinsville-Elkton road, Christian county, Hopkinsville to Western State Hospital, 1 mile drainage and concrete or asphalt surface; Princeton-Marion road, Caldwell county, from Princeton to Crittenden county line, 14 miles, grade and drain; Harlan-Pineville road, Harlan county, Loyal Station to Wallins, 5.9 miles, grade and drainage.

Bridges to be let include: Grayson-Olive Hill road, Carter county, 100 foot steel span over Barrett creek and two 170 foot spans over Tigert's creek. Hartsford-Owensboro road, in Ohio county, 100 foot steel span over Barnett's creek. Richmond-Berea road Madison county, 20 foot spans over Hayes Fork at Kingston. Pikeville, Pike county, one 162 foot channel span with two 130 foot approach spans. Louisville-Paducah road, Henderson county, one 80 foot steel pony truss span over Highland creek and ten 30 foot T-beam spans.

JUDGE GOODLOE MAKES 'EM HAPPY

The following couples have recently been united in marriage by Judge J. D. Goodloe: June 15, Rutledge Young, 18, of Cleveland, and Miss Nannie Lamb, 21, of Red House. June 10, Leonidas Cecellos, of Constantinople, Turkey, and Miss Martha Margrove, 21, of Hazard. June 8, James Foster, 41, of Cuzick, and Miss Minnie Belle Teater, 38, of Edenton.

Much Mystery Made Of McCormick's Operation

(By Associated Press) Chicago, June 19—Physicians, hospital attendants and friends of Harold F. McCormick, chairman of the executive committee of the International Harvester Company, are still pledged to secrecy today concerning the operation which McCormick underwent last week. All persons who have been at his bedside refuse to comment any on the widely published report that the operation was for transplantation of glands.

LET me figure with you on a hay meadow. Will buy hay standing, or will cut and bale on shares—anyway to trade. F. H. Gordon. 143 1

Labor Preacher

Rev. William Keese was the only ordained minister at the American Federation of Labor conference in Cincinnati. He gave up his church several years ago and is now financial secretary of the Building Trades Council of New Orleans.

JOHN W. YERKES CRITICALLY ILL

(By Associated Press) Danville, Ky., June 19—John W. Yerkes, former United States Commissioner of Internal Revenue, is critically ill here. His son, Lovell Yerkes, of Birmingham, Alabama, has been called to his bedside.

LAKELAND INMATE KILLS COMPANION

(By Associated Press) Louisville, Ky., June 19—Antonio Montedonica, Jr., 42, a former city sanitary inspector, died today at the Central hospital for the insane at Lakeland from injuries inflicted by another inmate whose name is being withheld. Montedonica was knocked down and trampled by his assailant.

CITY SUES FOR STREET PAVING TAX

Suit has been filed by the city of Richmond against heirs of John B. Miller for street taxes on the property on East Main street known as the old Richmond cemetery between what is now occupied by E. C. Cornelison's meat market and the house owned by Sam Rice. The tax, interest and penalty will amount of about $1,500. City Attorney Rice filed the petition.

Col. Richardson Here

Col. W. Vernon Richardson, the distinguished editor of the Danville Advocate, and formerly private secretary to the late Senator Ollie M. James, was in Richmond Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Mary Neale. Col. Richardson is one of the democratic leaders of his section, and has often been spoken of as a prospective candidate for Congress in the 8th district. He has many warm friends here who gave him a warm welcome.

CORBIN WINS HARD GAME FROM HUSTLERS

At Skinner's Park in Corbin Sunday Corbin defeated the Blue Lick Hustlers from Berea in a hard fought game all the way through. The Hustlers had the game all their own by the score of 5 to 3 until the seventh inning when the Hustlers pulled the walk and error stunt, giving Corbin three runs. Both teams played good and bad ball, but the Hustlers had the edge on Corbin in fielding. Martin pitched a good game for Corbin, being quite strong with hits in the pinches. Kinnard pitched good ball for the Hustlers and deserved to win with the right kind of support. Final score, Corbin 6, Hustlers 5. Umpires Johnson and Farmer. Time of game 2 hours. Attendance 500.

This is Fish Season. Every variety received daily. Dressed chickens always on hand. Neff's Phone 431.

MRS. MARGARET NEALE GOES TO HER REWARD

Beloved, Noble Woman Passes To Eternal Rest At Home of Son Sunday Morning

Mrs. Margaret Jones Neale, widow of Benjamin Howard Neale, on Sunday morning, June 18th, 1922, at Lynwood, the home of her son, Lewis N. Neale, passed through the gates of death into life eternal. The end came after an illness of three weeks.

She was born October 3, 1850, and was united in marriage to Mr. B. Howard Neale on November 19, 1868. Mr. Neale died July 6, 1909. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Newland Jones, both long since deceased, and was the eldest of four children, of whom only one survives, Newland Jones, Jr., of Phoenix, Arizona. Her elder brother, James S. Jones, died early, after having graduated from Yale in the class of 1872, with the honors of his class a fact in which she took much pride.

Mrs. Neale was a woman of splendid business ability, not only directing her own affairs with wisdom, but assisting others in meeting the problems of life. In mind and person she was possessed of exceptional grace and beauty and always in her presence radiated the manners and graces that characterized the charming woman of her generation. As long as she presided over her own home, she dispensed a gracious and beautiful hospitality, which will ever be remembered with pleasure by those who enjoyed her charm and her housewifely skill. She was graduated from Madison Institute in 1868 in a class noted for the many charming women it gave to this and other communities. For many years the Alumni Association of Madison Institute was a factor in educational circles and Mrs. Neale was active in promoting its work and in advancing the interests of her Alma Mater. She was descended from families distinguished in the colonial history of Virginia, and from the heroic men and women who helped to found Fort Boonesborough and Madison county. She was a charter member of the Boonesborough Chapter D. A. R. and until recently its Treasurer, and one of its most active members. It was largely through her efforts that the monument was erected on the site of Fort Boonesborough.

Mrs. Neale was devoted to her church of which she had been a member since early girlhood. She met all of the duties of life, whether in the home, in the church, as a private citizen, or rendering some public service, with dignity and courage, thereby setting an example of duty well done to all who came within the range of her influence.

Her interests extended not alone to her own community and state, but throughout her own country and to distant lands and climes. To her sister, Mrs. Logan, who devoted the last years of her life to missionary work in Korea, her letters were a constant source of encouragement and strength. She often expressed her gratitude for those precious and priceless blessings, the home, the church, children, relatives and friends, education, books—things that make life valuable and kindle hopes for this world and the world to come.

She leaves to mourn her departure her daughter, Mrs. Mary Neale Thompson; two sons, J. J. and Lewis Neale; five grandchildren and one great-granddaughter.

Her death is the occasion of deep regret to a broad circle of friends, both in the community in which she lived and in this and other states. No life can be pure in its purpose and strong in its strife and all life not be purer and stronger thereby. With an unflinching faith she has entered the Courts of God.

"To Thy Beyond no fear I give; Because Thou livest, I shall live; I walk through Thy fair universe with Thee, and sun me in Thine immortality."

The funeral will take place Monday afternoon at 3:30, from Lynwood. Dr. H. W. Carpenter, her pastor, conducting the service. Burial will be in the family lot in the Richmond cemetery.