RAIL ROAD HEADS REJECT COMPROMISE

Vote Overwhelmingly Not To Accept Brotherhood's Set- tlement Plan

New York, Aug. 24—The association of railway executives by vote of 254 to 4 Wednesday rejected the proposals of the big five train service brotherhoods that the carriers and the nationwide shippers' strike by reinstating the men with seniority unimpaired, and Bert M. Jewell, official spokesman of the strikers, declared the association had closed the door to peace and voted for a lockout to smash unionism.

At the same time, splitting away from the majority, was a group of 25 railroads, principally western lines, which debated a new suggestion of the brotherhoods that individual settlements be effected.

This minority, while professing to stand with the majority in reaffirming the stand on seniority, still indicated that it desires to hear further regarding the individual settlement.

Hale D. Holden, president of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy, who attended a meeting of the minority after the general membership of the association had ended its session, joined with members of the majority group in denying that there was a split.

"There is no question of a split," he asserted. "The railroads are all standing pat on seniority and any individual settlement will have to be made in the light of that understanding."

The day's proceedings may be outlined as follows:

1—The association met as a whole Wednesday morning, almost unanimously decided to continue its stand against restoring the strikers with their ranking unaffected and directed its committee, which met last week with the brotherhood chiefs, to draft a resolution embodying this decision.

2—The committee submitted the resolution after the noon recess and after its adoption left for the grand central station and transmitted the message to the committee representing the ruing trades, who have stepped into the shoes of mediators. These mediators, before going into conference, issued a statement asserting that the strike must be settled because the public demanded it, and setting forth that "the crews who now operate the trains from that part of the public which knows best why settlement must come."

NEXT MOVE UP TO SHOPMEN

(By Associated Press)
New York, Aug. 24—"It is now up to the shopmen," said representatives of the Big Five brotherhoods after a conference with a committee representing twenty railroads on the proposition affecting separate settlements of the individual roads and the striking shopmen.

At that moment heavy firing swept the road from both sides. "The next moment," the boy said, "he saw Collins fall, shot through the head. ALVERSON CHANGES PAPER TO REPUBLICAN

His host of friends over the state will be greatly surprised by announcement of Hon. J. M. Alverson that he has converted his paper, the Harlan Enterprise, into a Republican organ. Alverson is a born and bred democrat of the old school, and has been repeatedly honored by his party. In making his announcement, he says:

Upon the present ownership assuming charge of The Enterprise, it was announced at the outset that the policy of the paper thereafter would be an independent paper. Having been on the ground and in charge of the paper for several months, and becoming acquainted with the people of the community, with the circulation of the paper, and with local conditions generally prevailing here, we are convinced that the policy of our excellent predecessor in conducting a republican newspaper was the correct one, and we have decided to conduct The Harlan Enterprise henceforth as a republican newspaper. However, this does not mean that the paper will interfere in any local or state faction fights in the republican party, but its columns will always be open to the proper use of all candidates for office, and anyone aspiring to a political office can rest assured that he will be treated fairly and squarely by this paper. A newspaper is and should be a community builder, and this is what we propose to make of The Harlan Enterprise. It is our purpose to espouse the cause of and encourage any and all laudable enterprises which look to the development and advancement of the community and of Harlan county. To do this, we hope to have the hearty co-operation of the people of this community and county, and we want them to feel that this is their paper, and to work with such co-operation from the people, we hope to make The Enterprise a paper which the people can point to with pride.

In fact we want to see Harlan, with its great industrial interests, grow and prosper like a green bay tree; with better churches, better roads and better schools, and to that end The Enterprise hopes to bend its every energy under the present management.

POULTRY EXHIBIT AT BERA SATURDAY

All the Rhode Island Red breeders of Madison and Rockcastle counties are invited to exhibit poultry with the Bera Rhode Island Red Poultry Association next Saturday for the purpose of making the selection of the standard breed to be exhibited at the State Fair in September.

Last year the Bera Rhode Island Red Poultry Association won second place at the State Fair. This association is made up of members from Rockcastle and Madison counties. This year it is expecting to take first prize, and with the cooperation of all Rhode Island breeders plans to bring home the blue.

Next Saturday a selection of 32 birds will be made from the exhibit to be sent to the fair in September. Mr. Smith, poultry specialist from State College of Agriculture, will be at Bera to make selections.

It is requested that all people who bring birds, bring dinner. This is customary. The dinner is one of the most enjoyable affairs, because there is always chicken, and most of the time "Reds."

All who are interested in poultry should visit the exhibit in Bera and look the birds over. This exhibit is worthy of the attention of all who are interested in better poultry production.

HORSE BACK TOUR OF CLUB MEMBERS

Young Agr'cultivists Ride Thro' Rockcastle Inspecting Farms and Orchards

Fourteen club members on horseback with County Agent Spence made a tour through Rockcastle county Monday, August 21, stopping at the following farms: Clark's fruit farm, Davis farm, Royal Oak, Red Hill and Conway Junior Agricultural Club and W. T. Hicks' farm.

At F. O. Clark's fruit farm pruning, spraying, cultivation and spraying of orchards were discussed. At each of the Junior Clubs the boys were introduced and a sketch of work by Madison county clubs given by County Agent Spence. Royal Oak and Conway clubs greeted the visitors with club yells and songs.

The party arrived at W. T. Hicks' at 12:45. Mrs. Hicks had the table ready for the party dinner to be spread with hot coffee, buttermilk and real cold spring water. The party accepted Mrs. Hicks' hospitality with all the appreciation that could come from a crowd of tired, hungry, thirsty, dusty boys who had ridden 15 miles in the dust without water. Horses were watered and ate while the party enjoyed the spread.

After dinner (no time being wasted) Mrs. Hicks called her fine flock of Rhode Island Reds out for the boys to look over. Her flock is headed by 15 roosters. She also showed the boys her purebred Collie dogs.

Mr. Hicks and his boys took great pains in showing us the Shorthorn cattle and selecting three of the finest cows and three young bulls out of his herd for the boys to score and place them as to first, second and third. When Mr. Hicks announced the best in each ring the boys rejoiced. Mr. Hicks talked to the boys about cattle in general, breeding, etc. On leaving the farm the club boys gave a rousing yell for "Hicks."

The party reached Bera at 5:45. After watering horses and giving a club yell the boys returned to their homes.

This horseback tour was enjoyed by all and another is being planned for two days through Rockcastle county. The Madison county boys were glad to get acquainted with Rockcastle county boys and girls.

Rockcastle county clubs are planning a horseback tour thru Madison in the near future.

REYNOLDS REVIVAL AT CALVARY CHURCH

Rev. J. R. Reynolds, of West Monroe, La., former pastor of this church, will be at Calvary church next Sunday morning. His many friends here will be glad to hear him again.

Rev. Reynolds has just closed a successful revival at Viney Fork church with excellent results. There were 8 additions to the church and the spirituality and consecration of the membership deepened very much. Large crowds attended each night, the largest attendance the church has had for many years. Several members that had not attended any services of the church, except funerals, for several years, came to this revival. The church members were stirred deeply and many careless, lukewarm Christians were moved to tears and a new resolve to live better lives.

Rev. Reynolds condemned sin and worldliness with such biting, scathing language and emphasis that some got a little "sore." But they will soon see he is right and love him for the uncompromising stand he has taken.

Mrs. J. R. Reynolds rendered very efficient service at the piano. She is a very fine, sweet-spirited worker and she won the hearts of all the people. She will visit in Richmond this week while Rev. Reynolds goes to West Virginia on a visit and business trip. They are stopping at Mrs. J. R. Shaw's. Rev. Reynolds will return here Saturday for the meeting, which will last about two weeks.
