POLICEMEN.

Their Bondsmen Can Not Be Held Liable for Imprisonment.

A case which affects every member of the Police Department of this city was decided Monday last by Judge Shackelford Miller in favor of the policemen. Some months ago a member of the department arrested a man for a minor offense who subsequently brought suit for false arrest against the officer. There have been a number of like suits during the past few years, and in several instances the bondsmen got the warm end of the decision. After the argument had been finished Judge Miller decided in favor of the defendant. This decision means a great deal to the policemen of the city. In rendering his opinion Judge Miller stated that the policemen were only required to give bond for their good behavior and honorable conduct while members of the Police Department, and that bondsmen can not be held responsible for arrests. The case was bitterly fought, and the decision will have the effect of stopping petty prosecution of the members of the police force for a performance of their duty.

SOCIAL ORDER

Lodge of Knights of Columbus to Be Instituted in This City Tomorrow.

A Catholic Social and Benevolent Society With 45,000 Members.

Matt Winn Will Be Honored With the Office of First Grand Knight.

BANQUET AT THE LOUISVILLE HOTEL

To-morrow night their will be instituted in Louisville the first branch of the Knights of Columbus, a most powerful Catholic social and benevolent society, which has a large membership in the East. The initiatory steps were mentioned in these columns some time ago, since which a charter list of eighty names have been secured, with a bright outlook for the future of the local body, as it will be composed of the best people in the city.

Much of the success of the undertaking is due to the untiring efforts of Mr. Matt Winn, the popular Fourth-avenue merchant tailor, who will be honored by being made the first Grand Knight. The other officers will be R. A. Watson, Deputy Grand Knight; Walter P. Lincoln, Advocate; J. J. Fitzgerald, Chancellor; James F. Hines, Financial Secretary; J. W. Jenkins, Recording Secretary, Leo Schumann, Lecturer; J. J. Caffrey, Warden; Al S. Smith, Treasurer; Charles T. Raffo, Chaplain. Trustees—Spaulding Coleman, Frank A. Menne, W. B. Harris, T. J. Tierney and W. H. Newman.

The Knights of Columbus is an organization similar to the Elks with three degrees. The membership is composed of successful business and professional men, who meet for fellowship and benevolence. Those who desire to do so can join the insurance branch. The installation of officers and conferring of degrees will take place at the Elks' Hall beginning at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning, after the visitors and members attend mass at St. Louis Bertrand church. The installation of degrees will be conferred by John J. Cone, of New York city, Supreme Grand Knight; Warren E. Mosier, of Youngstown, Ohio, Supreme Deputy Grand Knight and William A. Maling, also of Youngstown, Grand Organizer. The first degree will be conferred by the Cincinnati and the second by the Chicago branch. The ritual is a very impressive one. After the first two degrees have been conferred a banquet will be tendered the national officers and visitors at the Louisville Hotel, and the third degree will follow in the evening.

Prominent members will be here from New York, Philadelphia, Chicago, Cincinnati, Pittsburg, Joliet, Youngstown and elsewhere. Two hundred are expected, and the number may be larger.

The charter list embraces the names of Hon. E. J. McDermott, Dr. Ouchterloney, Henry F. Cassin, James M. Petter, Dr. William B. Doherty, M. J. Duffy, Edward T. Tierney, Dr. Charles G. Lucas, W. B. Lucas, Dr. Max M. Eble, J. J. Flynn, George A. Burkley, T. E. Henchey, George W. Wolf, Daniel J. Leahy, John S. Silburg, Thomas J. Keenan, C. R. O'Brien, Dr. A. W. Smyth, George Muligan, W. J. Harahan, J. Walter Morgan, Martin Kirwan, John M. O'Neill, John H. Shea, John R. Pfanz, J. M. Ryan, Matt O'Doherty, J. R. Kirwan, Sam Bolderick, P. M. O'Reilly, L. Jacques, Frank A. Geher, Sylvester Rapier, E. J. O'Brien, E. J. Langan, R. W. Langan, Harry D. Wilkes, M. J. Burke, E. A. Laveley, John Mivelaz, Joe McWilliams, John Reese, Francis Bolling, W. R. Ruffner, E. J. Tierney, Albert Wolf, J. F. Flynn, R. C. Waggoner, C. J. O'Malley, Robert J. Hagan, John T. Garrity, T. A. Bower, John H. Wilms, J. T. Moran, S. M. Raffo, John T. Donovan, Owen Sullivan, N. A. Napier, Charles T. Byrne.

As above stated, it will be seen from the foregoing list of members that the organization has within its ranks some of the leading professional and business men of Louisville. It is reported to be their intention to have an elegant club house in the near future. The organization is a thoroughly American one. All the odes and songs are patriotic, one of the objects of the order being to encourage patriotism.

There will no doubt be many other names added to the list when the workings of the order come to be better understood.

NEGRO MINSTREL SHOW.

St. John's School Union has reorganized for the purpose of giving entertainments for the benefit of the poor of the congregation. A meeting was held Sunday afternoon in the Music Hall, at which it was decided that a "negro minstrel" be given at the school hall on January 25 and 26. This minstrel show will be one of the best of its kind ever put before the Louisville public by amateur artists. It will be directed by Mr. Bernard Specker, who for a number of years traveled with one of the leading minstrel companies in the country. Mr. William Meehan was elected President. Several committees have been appointed to begin work, as follows: Music Committee—M. F. Hill, chairman. Stage Committee—Michael Reichart, chairman. Hall Committee—L. D. Bax, chairman. Printing Committee—Joseph E. Hill, chairman. Rehearsals will begin on next Tuesday night at the Music Hall.

It is said that Watts would like to meet Frank Craig, the Harlem coffee-cooler. Craig is in England, where he is quite popular.

man withdrawn and that body upon which the nation relied for its independence dissolved forever.

That was the last meeting of the Volunteers. Lord Charlemont never called another meeting, and they dwindled away by degrees. The sudden and arbitrary dissolution of the Volunteers by Charlemont has been variously explained—some explaining that the British Government had an understanding with Charlemont—others laying it to his weak fear of an open quarrel—his desire for the tranquility of the country.

Lecky, the English historian, gives it as his opinion that had that reform bill introduced by Flood at the instance of the Volunteers, passed in that Irish Parliament the Catholics would soon have shared to the full in its benefits, the blood of '98 never been called for, nor the infamous Union consummated. It was a double triumph to bigotry and to the British Government to reject that bill and dissolve that Volunteer Convention.

HENRY C. LAUER.

This week we present to our readers the cut of Mr. Henry C. Lauer, an enterprising and popular German-American citizen doing business at 407 East Jefferson street. In another column appears his advertisement, offering a first-class whisky for holiday use at $2 per gallon. In addition he has purchased a fine line of imported and domestic wines, and residents of the East End will save time and money by calling on him.

LITTLE LOCALS.

Mr. John Maloney, who recently sustained a very severe cut in the hand, is again able to resume his position, with the Louisville Packing Company.

John Hickey's opening and reception to his friends was very largely attended. All parts of the city were represented by his friends, who met with those of Limerick in making the occasion an enjoyable one.

Branch 2 of the Catholic Knights and Ladies of America will elect officers for the ensuing year next Wednesday evening. This is the largest branch in America, and there is much interest taken in the result.

His friends in the L. & N. blacksmith shop are always delighted when James Naughton discourses on his game chickens, which he claims are the champions of their class in this city. He asserts that his "Topsy" can whip any of Paddy Connelly's flock.

The Right Rev. Bishop McCloskey has appointed Very Rev. Thomas J. Hayes, of Bowling Green, to serve as Dean for the counties of Warren, Barren, Edmonson, Hart, Logan and Simpson, and Rev. William A. Pike, of Danville, for the counties of Boyle, Anderson, Lincoln, Mercer and Pulaski.

On Sunday, December 18, Rev. Father Weiss will place a new set of stations of the cross in St. George's church at Eighteenth and Standard avenue. Father Raffo will preach the sermon, and a fine musical programme will be rendered. As Father Raffo is one of the leading pulpits orators of the city the church will be taxed to its fullest seating capacity.

There will be on exhibition tomorrow at M. J. Winn's, Fourth and Green, a fac simile of the battleship Kentucky, presented by D. J. Crowley, of Eighteenth and Portland avenue, to the St. Joseph's Aid Society of St. Patrick's church. Monday night will be "City Hall night" at the bazar. Mayor Weaver and all other city officials are expected to be present.

St. Joseph's Aid Society of St. Cecilia's church held an enjoyable and successful social and bazar last week, in which they were aided by members of Mackin Council and Ladies' Auxiliary in recitations and vocal and instrumental music. This aid society is doing a creditable work in supplying the poor with clothing and teaching sewing to the girls, holding a sewing class every Friday afternoon after school.

Mary—Look here, Clara, there are some questions that I would like to ask you.

Clara—Well, what are they Mary? I'll answer them if I can. What are they?

Mary—Well, when is a lady's dress like a chair?

Clara—When it's sat-in.

Mary—Yes; but why are blind persons compassionate?

Clara—Because they feel for other persons.

Mary—That's so; but why should a man never marry a woman named Ellen?

Clara—Because he rings his own (k)nell.

Mary—Oh, ain't you smart; but tell me this: Why is an interesting book like a toper's nose?

Clara—Because it is red (read) to the very end.

A FEEBLE JOKE.

Some person with a very poor conception of humor started a report last week that a certain well-known young man of Limerick was dead. The report, although having no foundation whatever, caused a great deal of useless worry and annoyance to the young man's friends and relatives. The joker (?) who started this should turn his attention to some other less harmful channel in which to vent his humor.
