NOVEMBER ELECTION.

M. MULDOON,
DEMOCRATIC NOMINEE FOR PARK COMMISSIONER

William Lowry, Vice Chairman of Birr Urban District Council, has given notice to move that the question of lighting the town by means of electricity be considered at the next meeting of the board.

The Mayor of Waterford recently addressed Harland & Wolff, pointing out the great advantages Waterford offers for the purpose of a shipbuilding yard. Waterford is well situated for such an object, and there is a splendid river, with ample depth of water. In view of the great employment that would be given in this neighborhood by the establishment of works of this kind it is hoped Waterford may receive the favorable consideration of the eminent shipbuilders.

At the Athlone petty sessions Patrick Golding was summoned at the instance of Peter Malone, sub-sanitary officer, on two separate summonses under the sanitary act—first for depositing a dead carcass on the public road at Lissywooller, and second for depositing a second carcass in a field within thirty yards of the public highway. The defendant, on being asked to plead, said he was not guilty. Capt. Preston said this was a very important sanitary case and granted an adjournment.

INDORSED BY THE CENTRAL LABOR UNION.

That the Kentucky Irish American is steadily growing in favor with its readers and usefulness to the public is evidenced by the action of the Central Labor Union at a recent meeting in giving this paper its indorsement, which is the more welcome and appreciated because unsolicited and unexpected. The publisher is grateful, and will endeavor to merit this additional recognition. Our friends will be pleased to learn that the proposition favoring the indorsement was unanimously adopted by the delegates of both bodies. The preamble and resolutions adopted by the Central Labor Union are as follows:

Whereas, Many misstatements have recently appeared in the press of this city relative to the Central Labor Union and organizations represented therein; and

Whereas, The Kentucky Irish American has always been a consistent and unbiased champion of the trades union movement; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Central Labor Union indorse said Kentucky Irish American as the official newspaper of this body.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this organization and all affiliated unions be communicated to the public through the columns of the aforesaid paper.

HIBERNIANS.

What They Have Been Doing the Past Week—General News Notes.

The divisions of St. Paul are initiating large numbers of new members.

Division 1 received three applications for membership Tuesday evening.

Division 1 of Bridgeport, Conn., has decided to give its annual soiree in January, having decided not to hold a fair.

Division 4 disbursed $110 for sick benefits during the past quarter. This is an evidence of the benefit of membership in this order.

The County Board will hold its next meeting on Monday evening, October 30. There will be matters of importance to be acted upon.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of Rochester, Minn., will give a series of dancing parties this winter. The initial one last week was well attended.

John Hellon favors and advances many ideas that will enhance the membership of his division. He possesses liberal ideas and a progressive spirit.

The quarterly report of Division 4 was of a most gratifying character, there being a marked increase in both number of members and funds in the treasury.

The indications are that the greatest crowd of the entire carnival will assemble next Tuesday evening, when the Irish-Americans will have their celebration.

Mike Ruhlan is one of the most regular attendants at the meetings of his division. While not often heard from, he is of the class that gives great strength to any order.

The Hall Board showed in a handsome manner its appreciation of the services rendered by James Barry. The wedding gift made to him was more deserved than valuable.

There was a jollification at Hibernian Hall, Tuesday evening over the fine showing made in Monday's parade. All will meet again at the carnival next Tuesday evening, Irish-American day.

The race for popularity between the Hibernian Knights and St. Patrick's Cadets is as interesting as it is friendly. The Knights are indeed proud of their little but earnest competitors.

At the last meeting of Division 5 of Providence a gold badge was presented to ex-President Finnegan in recognition of his past services to the division. This division will give a fair in February.

President Frank Cunningham visited Division 1 Tuesday evening and made an eloquent talk for the Young Men's Division. He also extended an invitation to all Hibernians to come to their meetings.

Division 1 of St. Paul will hold an open meeting next Wednesday evening for all Hibernians and their friends. There will be a good programme of genuine Irish amusements and refreshments and cigars will be served.

In connection with Division 6 of Fall River, Mass., a Ladies' Auxiliary has been established, and at a meeting held recently seventy-six members were present and fifteen candidates for membership were admitted.

The Hibernians of Providence are after the manager of the Auditorium for letting it to the woman "Shepherd." It is said the Democrats will also oppose the hiring of Music Hall for holding conventions in future because the hall was let to this base slanderer of the Catholic clergy and sisterhood.

There was the smallest attendance Wednesday evening at the meeting of Division 4 that has been seen in a long time. The members are recovering from Monday's long walk in order that they may be present at the carnival to hear National President Keating next Tuesday evening.

The County Board of Directors of San Jose, Cal., met recently and selected Father McGuire, pastor of St. Patrick's church, County Chaplain. It is the intention of Division 3 to inaugurate a literary programme and series of lectures for the entertainment of the members of the Hibernian organizations and the public generally during the coming month.

The twenty-fifth anniversary of Division 18 of North Brookfield, Mass., was observed at the town hall. Edward Donnelly, President of the organization, presided. Rev. James Redigan, of Leicester, State Chaplain of the order, and a number of clergymen were present. A solid gold watch chain and charm were presented to Northmeier Howard, he being one of the two charter members now connected with the order in North Brookfield. Michael Noonan, the other charter member, was presented with a gold-headed cane five years ago, when the twentieth anniversary of the organization was observed.

IRELAND.

Record of the Most Important of the Recent Events Culled From Exchanges.

Lord and Lady Wallcourt are now staying at Arifry, their residence in County Galway.

The dedication of the new church of the Assumption at Howth will take place October 15. His Grace Archbishop Walsh will preside.

The funeral of Charles McLean, who died at the residence of his son in Dublin, took place September 23, the interment being at Lusk.

The attendance at the Derry races was generally large and the meeting has been one of the most successful held for some time on the Ballyarnett course.

The death is announced of John O'Rourke at the age of seventy-six. He was for a long time prominently associated with the musical profession of Dublin.

A successful bazaar was held at Naul for the purpose of raising funds for procuring a new bell for the Catholic church there, of which Rev. Father Nolan is pastor.

The funeral of the late C. B. Irwin, the famous athlete, took place in Dunganon and was numerously attended. In athletic circles his death is much regretted.

Bridget McGovern passed away September 23, after a tedious illness at her residence in Clonsilla. She was the wife of Michael McGovern, and her death caused great sorrow.

The death took place on Thursday at Ballybunion of F. Weldon Walsh, agent of the Marquis of Waterford and Viscount Duncannon. Mr. Walsh was formerly manager of the Provincial Bank at Carrick-on-Suir.

The Mayor of Cork refused to put the motion that the Corporation be represented at the laying of the foundation stone of the Parnell monument, after which the matter was dropped. Many other bodies also refused to send representatives.

William Kelly, assistant superintendent at the postal branch of the Limerick postoffice, has been transferred to Cork on promotion. He was held in deserved esteem here by his colleagues, who entertained him at supper previous to his departure and presented him with a handsome gold watch.

On Monday, September 25, in the Town Hall, Carlow, the Catherlogh bazar was opened by the Most Rev. Dr. Foley, Bishop of Kildare and Leighlin. The object of the bazar was to provide new and commodious schools for the 500 children under the care of the nuns of the Presentation Convent.

At the Thurles petty sessions James Dwyer, a corn merchant of Thurles, was charged by Sergeant Caulfield, Inspector of weights and measures, with having in his possession for the purpose of use five weights which were light. Defendant pleaded guilty and was fined ten shillings and costs. The weights are to be forfeited.

Thomas Ahern, a shopkeeper residing at Marden street, Newcastle West, was brought before Thomas Hurley, Justice of the Peace, and charged with taking forcible possession of premises from which he had been evicted the previous day. The accused stated he was evicted illegally. He was remanded to next petty sessions, bail being accepted.

At the meeting of the Athlone Urban Council a reply was received from the Secretary of the Board of Public Works stating that the loan of £4,500 would be granted to the Council for the extension and improvement of the Athlone gas works. In anticipation of this loan the improvements in connection with the gas works are already progressing.

At last Nenagh Municipal Court, before John Harty, acting for Michael McMahon, Municipal Magistrate, a letter was read from the latter expressing regret at the transfer from Nenagh of Sergeant Beegan, who was a most efficient and courteous officer, and hoping that his removal to the charge of Golden's Cross would prove only a stepping-stone to further deserved promotion.

At Thursday's meeting of Portumna District Council the applicants for cottages were in numerous instances evicted tenants, who now ought to have the sites fixed on the holdings from which they were evicted. E. Shaw Tener, Justice of the Peace, agent for Lord Clanricarde, objected most strenuously, but the representation was passed.

The Earl of Wicklow was recently sworn in as Justice of the Peace for County Wicklow before Albert Meidon, R. M., in the Magistrates' room at Arklow court-house. Subsequently he adjudicated for the first time at the petty sessions, which were presided over by the Earl of Carysfort. Lord Wicklow, who only recently attained his majority, holds a commission in the Life Guards.

An Evicted Tenants' Association has been formed in New Ross for the purpose of assisting the evicted tenants in South Wexford generally, and principally with the object of effecting the restoration to their homes of the Coolroe tenants who ten years ago were evicted by the late Mr. Byrne and are ever since living in wretched wooden huts on the borders of their once happy homes.

It has been decided that the Irish Dairy Association shall have a stall at the forthcoming London dairy show and restrict exhibits in this stall to merchants and agents of Irish dairy produce. The Secretary being instructed to make all arrangements and take charge of the stall at the show, and also to offer gold, silver and bronze medals for the best and neatest exhibits of Irish creamery butter.

Constable Lambert arrested a rather elderly man named John Hoey on a charge of loitering and begging in Vernon avenue, Clontarf. When the prisoner was brought to the station he was searched, and from a bundle of rags he had concealed on his person was taken £117 in gold. Hoey, who is a native of Curglass, Cavan, told the Constable that he had only been three weeks back from America.

A serious accident occurred at the Nenagh Maltings, the victim being a young man named Michael Meara, who is in the employment of Messrs. Waller. It appears that Meara was engaged in attending to a separating machine, when from some unexplained cause his right hand and arm got caught in the screen of the machine, which was whirling round with great velocity, and before liberation could be effected the limb was shockingly mangled.

At the Tipperary petty sessions on Thursday a Limerick hurler named John Hynes was prosecuted on a charge of having assaulted a young man named William Fitzgibbons in Tipperary during a hurling match between Cork and Limerick. When the case was called Mr. Yates applied to the court to have the charge reduced to one of common assault, as the injured man had declined to prosecute. The court acceded to the application and the case was dismissed.

THEATRICALS.

For four matinees and night performances at the Temple Theater next week the play to be presented will be "East Lynne," one of the greatest successes on the American stage. Tuesday and Wednesday the Temple will be occupied by the Masonic Grand Lodge, and there will be no performances after Monday night until Thursday night. The version to be presented is the only authorized version of the famous novel, and as the story is so well known it is not necessary to repeat it here. The trials and follies of Lady Isabel have exacted more tears and sympathy than, perhaps, any other stage story. It is an old, old tale, ever new, and will obtain as long as humanity itself. Opinion may be divided as to the weakness of the principal character, but there is no question as to the sincerity of her repentance or remorseful death, and therein lies a healthy moral. This will be followed by "An Enemy to the King," Col. Meffert having succeeded in arranging with E. H. Sothern for its production.

These's amusing burlesque production, "Wine, Woman and Song," which played which played a successful engagement at the Buckingham several weeks ago, will return for another week, commencing with the usual Sunday matinee. The excellent satisfaction given by this meritorious company is the cause of its early return, and it will prove a welcome attraction for the second week of the carnival. The show, were it the same as when seen here on its first visit, would easily pass muster; but the management has added some special features. Chief among those is the latest of Edison's animated picture machines, by which will be exhibited wonderfully life like views, such as the Dreyfus trial, the late war, the Dewey parade and others of equal interest. There will in addition to the olio, while many new songs, dances and ensembles will be introduced and the burlesque will be made prettier by new scenery and light effects. The usual matinees will be given on Monday, Wednesday and Saturday.

THE CARNIVAL PROGRAMME.
