Great Gathering of Delegates at the Chicago National Convention.
 Supreme President O'Donnell's Report Shows the Order Still Growing.
 Convention Is Preceded by Solemn High Mass at the Cathedral.
 MEETING AT THE TREMONT HOUSE.

[Special Correspondence of the Kentucky Irish American.]
 CHICAGO, May 17.—The convention of the Catholic Knights and Ladies of America is now on full force. Preliminary to the opening the delegates and visitors attended solemn high mass at the Cathedral, where a special musical programme was rendered by one of the finest choirs your correspondent ever listened to. The celebrant of the mass was the Rev. Father Foley, assisted by Rev. Fathers Connolly, Clancy and Scanlan. After the gospel Father Dorney ascended the pulpit and preached an eloquent sermon, paying high tribute to the Catholic Knights and Ladies of America and commending the order for the great work it has already accomplished. The singing was rendered by a quartet of trained voices and was perfectly grand. Hayden's Sixteenth Mass was rendered. The offertory was a duet by Miss Bessie O'Brien and Mr. George H. Kellond. The soloists were Miss Kate O'Brien, soprano; Miss Kate Coffey, contralto; John Winn, tenor, and George H. Kellond, basso, and it would be hard to describe the divine sweetness of each.
 After the mass the delegates repaired to the Tremont House, where Supreme President O'Donnell called the convention to order. The Credentials Committee not being ready to report an adjournment was taken till after dinner.
 When the convention was called to order in the afternoon by President O'Donnell there were 123 delegates present, with fifty-three more expected on the late trains. After the report of the Credentials Committee was adopted and the transaction of unimportant business an adjournment was taken to Wednesday morning.
 Wednesday's programme included a tally-ride in the morning to the principal points of interest in and about the city and the various parks, which was greatly enjoyed by the delegates and visitors. The morning and afternoon sessions were devoted to hearing the annual reports of the officers and constitution and laws. The order is in a most flourishing condition, though the increase during the past year has not been as great as some had expected. In the evening the delegates and visitors were entertained at an elegant banquet at the Tremont House, where all had enjoyable time.
 The Louisville delegates have been in evidence from the opening session, taking a prominent part in all the proceedings thus far.
 Among the branches that made fine reports was that at Cadillac, Mich., represented by Rev. Father Prudhomme and President Thomas O'Connell, which doubled its membership the past year. President O'Connell has done great work for the order in Michigan.
 Branch 130, of Mobile, Ala., is also in a flourishing condition. The branch owes much of its success to the President, Mrs. Tunstall, and Miss Maggie Welsh, the efficient Recording Secretary.
 Among the prominent clergymen here is Father O'Leary, State Chaplain of the Ancient Order of Hibernians.

SPECIAL MEETING.

Irish-American Society Continues to Grow in Membership.
 Another rousing meeting of the Irish-American Society was held in Hibernian Hall Thursday night, and the greatest enthusiasm prevailed. Five more applications were received, and Messrs. Mike Hyland, Martin Kelly and James Cooney were initiated.
 Chairman Gus Kane reported the work done by the Amusement Committee for the euchre, picnic and hop to be given at Phoenix Hill on Monday, June 4. The action of the committee inviting the Confederate Veterans to be their guests on that occasion was heartily endorsed.
 Two committees were appointed, one composed of Sam Cross, Tom Cleary, Mark Ryan, William Lawler, John Mulloy, Chris Burns and John J. Flynn, the other being Tom Malone, James Kerwin, Mark Ryan, Martin F. Kelly and Mike Kilkelly.
 Chairman Cleary reported that only one member, Martin Minoque, was on the sick list. During the evening short but interesting talks were made by John Kenney, Eugene McShane, President Charles Feeney, Thomas Claire and William Lawler.
 Upon the recommendation of the Amusement Committee a special meeting was called for Monday, May 28, when all the members will be expected to be present and make their reports and returns. This meeting will be an important one, as several committees yet remain to be appointed. President Feeney and the committee urge all to attend.
 The absence of Vice President Murphy and Treasurer Tom Tarpey was regretted. Secretary Joe Byrne was kept busy, and at the close of the session reported the addition of a neat sum to the relief fund. The next regular meeting will be held June 7, when another big batch of applications will be received.

DECIDED SUCCESS.

Bazar For St. Mary Magdalene's Church Being Well Patronized.
 The success of the bazar for St. Mary Magdalene's church, now being held at 616-618 Fourth avenue, is assured, large crowds of patrons attending each day and evening. Thursday afternoon an enjoyable coffee social was largely attended, and many handsome articles were disposed of. There are four neatly arranged booths, each of which has its attractive features. No. 1 is presided over by Mesdames Krieger, Waller, Harrahan, Trebor and Miss Volz; No. 2 by Mesdames Jackman, Simms and Sharp; No. 3 by Mesdames Peter Dowling and Nugent; No. 4 by Mesdames Hoertz, Volz, Dehler and Goss. At each there is a bevy of pretty young lady assistants, who make it pleasant for all who pay them a visit.
 The dinner served daily from 11 to 2 o'clock for the merchants and business men has been made an especial feature by the ladies, who are serving an excellent meal for twenty-five cents. Those having charge of the dining room are Mesdames Smith, Callahan, Netherland, Meehan, Norman, Burkholder, Porter and Crush, assisted by Misses Florence Byrne, May Swann, Mary Slattery, Florence and Anita Bell, Ella Dowling, Lilly and Lottie Vantyne, Samuels and Burkholder.
 Another table that attracts much attention is the one presided over by Mrs. Will Meehan, Mrs. Galvin and Misses Hollenkamp and Buddeke. The Misses Hoertz have charge of the cigar stand, which is doing a good business.
 Thursday and Friday there were large dinner parties, and others are being formed for next week. Father Murphy, though not well, has been untiring in his efforts to make this the banner bazar, and those who have not yet attended should do so next week, when there will be an interesting programme every evening.

Kentucky Jurisdiction Will Hold Reunion Here in September.
 Mackin, Trinity and Satoli Councils Arranging for the Event.
 Uniform Rank From Lexington Will Be Seen in the Parade.
 WILL BRING THOUSANDS TO THE CITY
 The Kentucky Jurisdiction of the Young Men's Institute will hold its annual convention in this city September 3 and 4, which will bring many strangers to town. The members of the three local councils, Mackin, Satoli and Trinity, are arranging for the entertainment of the delegates and visitors.
 The latest report is that a grand reunion will be held at Riverview Park on Monday, September 3. As Labor Day falls on that date, which is also a legal holiday, and there will be numerous excursions to this city, there is no doubt but that thousands will take advantage of this opportunity who otherwise could not come.
 Word has been received from Lexington that the Uniform Rank of that place will run a special excursion and come in full force. The Young Men's Institute has councils in nearly all the cities of the State, all of whom will be expected upon that occasion, and the parade promises to rival that contemplated by the trades unions.
 Various committees will be organized in the near future, when the work of making the final preparations will be vigorously pushed. The three councils will most likely keep open house while the body is in session here and entertain the visitors royally.
 The members of Mackin and Trinity councils are all working zealously for their outings at Fern Grove, the former in June and the latter July 4. The New Albany council has also announced a picnic and excursion to Sugar Grove on June 4.

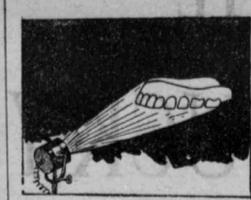

EUCHRE AND PICNIC.

The Irish-American Society Celebration at Phoenix Hill.
 The picnic, euchre and hop to be given by the Irish-American Society at Phoenix Hill Park on Monday evening, June 4, seems already an assured success. The excellent programme being arranged for this first public celebration by the above popular organization should draw one of the largest crowds of the season, as there will be a diversity of amusements for young and old. The committees have about completed all the arrangements, and no effort will be spared to make the occasion enjoyable and one to be remembered.
 Prof. Morbach's military band has been engaged and will give a grand concert in the park, playing a choice collection of popular American and Irish airs. Tom Scally and his excellent orchestra will furnish the dance music, and there will be Irish reels and jigs galore. In addition there will be one hundred tables set apart for the euchre players, who will contest for handsome prizes, besides several novel and interesting amusements in the park.
 The Irish-American Society will also invite the delegates and visitors to the Confederate reunion to be their guests that evening. The hall and park will be brilliantly illuminated, and every Irish-American in Louisville should attend and encourage this worthy society in its good work. The proceeds will go to the relief fund.

Exciting Election.

Officers Chosen by the Typographical Union For the Year.
 The annual election of officers of Typographical Union was held Wednesday afternoon. The contest was the most exciting in years, the nominees working valiantly until the polls closed. John Owen, who succeeds President Binford, polled a very large vote, and his friends are elated over his victory. All the nominees were strong men, and the successful ones will make good officers, giving the union an able administration. The election resulted as follows:
 President—John W. Owen.
 Vice President—Joseph E. Phelps.
 Recording Secretary—John D. Kane.
 Secretary-Treasurer—A. A. Hoffman.
 Board of Directors—Henry Harrington, V. B. Ratterree, W. J. Flannery, E. P. Owen, Nelson Petrie.
 Sergeant-at-Arms—Chas. D. Cully.
 Auditing Committee—John P. Stack, M. O. West, Tom Groark.
 Delegates to International Typographical Union—Ed D. Quinn, Richard W. Parrent.
 Delegates to Central Labor Union—Walter M. Young, Max Traut, James J. Martin, John Slater, Charles Roth.
 James M. Lynch, of Syracuse, was the choice of the Louisville printers for International President. He represented his Union here in 1894, when he made many friends among the local printers. He is also prominent in Hibernian circles in New York State.
