New Albany Hibernians Now Boast the Banner Indiana Division.

Hundreds Witness the Initiation of New Members Thursday.

Officers and Visitors from Kentucky Given a Hearty Reception.

ANOTHER GREAT DAY FOR THE IRISH

Last Thursday marks another great epoch in the history of Division 1 of the Ancient Order of Hibernians of New Albany, the banner division of the State of Indiana, which now has a membership of nearly two hundred.

It will be remembered that last year fifty new members were initiated at one time, and since then the good work has been kept up by County President Pat Kennedy, Secretary James O'Hara, President Dan Walsh, John Winn, James McBaron, Messrs. Russell, Lee, Lyons and the young men, who are now largely in the majority, with the result that some time ago Division 1 stepped into first place in the State, closely followed by Jeffersonville. Proud of their success and determined to maintain the lead all went to work to still further increase the membership. The effort has been most successfully carried out, and last Thursday night the following were added to the rolls: Daniel Burke, John Cody, James Goulding, Edward Vernia, James Normally, Thomas S. Kelly, William Enslinger, Edgar Gregore, James Hennessy, Owen Cullinan, James Hammer, James Kilfoy, John Moore, Edward Moore, Emmet O'Brien, John Maguire, Thomas Gibbons, John Burke, Thomas Kennedy, Michael Thornton, James Kanabel, Louis Vernia, William Carroll and Frank McManus.

The admission of the foregoing was celebrated with a cake party and smoker, to which had been invited the officers and members of the order from Louisville and Jeffersonville, who attended in goodly numbers.

President Dan Walsh presided and administered the obligations to the candidates in an impressive manner. The new members are all young men, which augurs well for the future prosperity of the flourishing organization. After the regular order had been passed President Walsh called upon the visitors for remarks, Messrs. Newton G. Rogers, Pat Sullivan, State Secretary Coleman, President Tom Dolan and the representative of the Kentucky Irish American making brief but happy responses, congratulating their New Albany brethren upon their prosperity, dwelling upon the fundamental principles of the order and the beauties of the new ritual, and closing by promising all a hearty welcome when they visit the Louisville divisions.

County President Pat Kennedy, who was late in arriving, was received with enthusiastic applause, as was also Officer Thomas Tully.

Among the visitors from Louisville were State Secretary Coleman, President Tom Dolan, George Butler, Newton Rogers, Denny Coleman, Pat Sullivan, Joseph Woods, Pat Begley, James Gillespie, Jerry Hallahan and William M. Higgins, of the Kentucky Irish American.

Refreshments were served during the evening, there being an unexhaustible supply of lemonade, cakes and cigars. The prize cake was cut by John Lyons, the genial and good-natured hotel-keeper.

This meeting was indeed an enjoyable one and those present hope for another before long. There are now several more applications pending, but the good work will not cease till the second century mark is passed.

TUESDAY EVENING

Youth and Beauty Will Gather at Fountain Ferry Park.

Should the weather prove fine next Tuesday evening there will be a beautiful scene at Fountain Ferry Park, where the Young Ladies' Auxiliary of Trinity Council, Y. M. L., will give their reception and dance. Many society people are looking forward with a great deal of interest to this event, and already several parties have been organized to attend from different parts of the city.

The reception committee is composed of Misses Gertrude Huckenbeck, Mayme Kiley, Anna Daley, Emma Sholtes, Lillian Ackerman, Mayme Burke, Blanche Graff, Anna McHilliott, Mayme Fink, Carrie Uhlen, Mayme Weber and Alice Ellard, who will provide pleasing attractions for their guests. The young ladies will be assisted by Messrs. Joe Piazza, Tom Garvey, William Oertel and James Davern, and the indications are that this will prove the most popular reception and dance ever given by this splendid East End organization. Those who would spend a really enjoyable evening should secure invitations and visit Fountain Ferry Tuesday night.

QUINTET DANCING CLUB,

The Quintet Dancing Club will give a select dance at Fountain Ferry Park, on Tuesday evening, May 28. The committee having the affair in charge are: Edward Proctor, Leo Schindler, August Jungbluth, George Rautenbush and Walter Proctor. The above members are past masters in the art of entertaining, and guarantee the lovers of terpsichorean gyrations who may attend a first-class time.

RECENT DEATHS.

The death of Annie Mary McLaughlin, which occurred Tuesday morning at the residence of her parents, William and Bridget McLaughlin, occasioned inexpressible sorrow among her friends and acquaintances. Her funeral took place Thursday morning from the Cathedral, large numbers attending the requiem high mass and following the remains to their last resting place.

All that was mortal of Mrs. Margaret Jacquemin was tenderly laid to rest Monday morning, after a solemn requiem mass had been sung over her remains at St. Cecilia's church. She was the wife of the late Charles Jacquemin, a devout Catholic and a woman of many Christian virtues. Her loss is one that will be felt in the community in which she resided. Her home was at 215 Twenty-sixth street, where large numbers tearfully viewed her remains.

The funeral of Mrs. Ellen Guilfoyle, widow of Daniel Guilfoyle, who resides at 1706 Shelby street, New Albany, took place Monday morning from Holy Trinity church, Rev. Father Kelly being the celebrant of the requiem mass. Mrs. Guilfoyle's death occurred unexpectedly, she having been ill only a short time, and the sad news came as a shock to her many friends and relatives. She was seventy years old, and leaves four children, two daughters and two sons.

Robert Moosman, one of the well known and highly respected residents of the West End, died Monday morning at St. Joseph's Infirmary, where he had undergone an operation. The deceased was a successful merchant tailor and had conducted an establishment at 1425 West Market street for over thirty years. He leaves a grown son, Louis Moosman, to mourn the loss of a kind and generous hearted father. His funeral took place Wednesday morning from the Church of the Immaculate Conception, of which he had always been a devout member, and the solemn services were largely attended. The interment was in St. Louis cemetery.

The death of Annie Mary McLaughlin, which occurred Tuesday morning at the residence of her parents, William and Bridget McLaughlin, occasioned inexpressible sorrow among her friends and acquaintances. Her funeral took place Thursday morning from the Cathedral, large numbers attending the requiem high mass and following the remains to their last resting place.

SPLENDID SUCCESS.

President Michael Reichert and the Catholic Knights who visited Covington and Newport in the interest of that great order are home again. Their mission was very successful and will result in renewed activity in that portion of Kentucky. All were hospitably entertained in the two sister cities.

Belts are a feature of every fashionable dress and are shown in many new varieties. Draped girdles are much worn. They are very wide and are either straight around or pointed in front. The foundation is of elastic, which gives graceful lines to the figure. Sashes are again seen.

What They Have Been Doing the Past Week—General News Notes.

A new division has been formed in Cambridgeport, Mass.

Louisville ought to have a Ladies' Auxiliary with at least 500 members.

The divisions of New Hampshire are preparing for the annual elections next June.

President John Hennessy, Joe McGinn and Dave Reilly visited Division 3 this week.

Louisville has now two degree teams, and was the first city to exemplify the new ritual.

Fall River, Mass., has a new company of Hibernian Knights, affiliated with Division 11.

President Tom Dolan was among those who visited Division 3. His remarks were well received.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of Concord, N. H., have made elaborate arrangements for their May party.

Both degree teams are hard at work and a real and pleasant surprise is in store for all members of the order.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of Anacosta, Mont., which seems always busy, announces another pleasant card party for May 20.

Company C, Hibernian Rifles, has completed all arrangements for the first excursion of the season of the Providence Hibernians, June 2.

State Secretary Hennessy and Secretary Clark have instituted another division in Montana, located at Missoula, with thirty-six members.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of Division 6 of Providence gave a dancing party last week which was attended by the State and county officers.

Division 1 of Dover has prospered during the past year, says the Manchester Emerald, and President Mannus will be re-elected next month.

The deeds for the house lots donated for the Providence union excursion were received last week and the committee reported satisfactory progress.

Lawrence Mackey, George Daniels and Murt Gallagher are applicants for admission to Division 3. The two first named have done excellent work for the order in years gone by.

Division 3 has accepted an invitation to attend the entertainment of the Catholic Knights at St. Mary's Hall on May 26. Joe McGinn made a neat speech in extending the invitation.

Delegates were present from all the Irish societies and the Hibernian Rifles gave an excellent exhibition drill at the ball of Division 5 of Providence. It was the thirty-first May eve dance of the division.

The only fault that could be found with the twenty-fifth annual ball of the Los Angeles Hibernians was that the elegant hall was not large enough for the crowd present, and the tickets were $1 each at that.

Thomas Murphy, President of Division 5 of Midland, Md., was presented with a handsome gold jewel by Baltimore Hibernians who took part in the St. Patrick's day festivities under the auspices of their Midland brethren.

Division 7 has the handsomest and most commodious rooms in Rochester, N. Y., on Clinton avenue. Recently the County Board was entertained, and all present were given a pleasant and thoroughly enjoyable time.

The standing committee appointed to raise funds for the maintenance of the Providence Hibernian Hall has begun work by electing Capt. Coleman Chairman, and this week gave two socials, which will be continued until the weather becomes too warm.

"Wheel" meetings are now being given by the Ladies' Auxiliary of Minneapolis. The ladies furnished the entire programme at the last one, held with Division 2, when several hundred people were present. The auxiliary will continue these entertainments until all the divisions in the city have been visited and the last spoke of the wheel placed in position.

Lawrence O'Connor, of Boston Music Hall, the well-known young composer and pianist, conducted a monster concert in the Park Theater last Sunday night. Besides the vocal and instrumental programme there were attractions from all the theaters in Boston, and in addition selections were rendered by a grand orchestra of fifty pieces under the leadership of Augustus Coule. The entire performance was given for the benefit of the charity fund of Division 40.

The Syracuse Sun says one of the largest and most successful parties of the season was that given by the Ladies' Auxiliary of Division 7. When the President, Miss Margaret Kelly, called the combatants to order for the purpose of instructing them in the game nearly 200 contestants faced each other. At one time it looked as though the Rev. Father Magee, of St. Patrick's, would be a sure winner of a prize, but fortune changed and he failed to land better than ninth. After the prizes were awarded refreshments were served and everybody joined in saying the ladies were royal entertainers.
