DOYLE'S GIFT.

Presents Division 4 With Magnificent Picture of Robert Emmet.

Enjoyable Reception Given a Large Number of Young Hibernians.

Preparing For Meeting and Address by Judge Matt O'Doherty.

A BIG INITIATION NEXT TUESDAY

Hibernian Hall was thronged with members of Division 4 Wednesday night, when the reception and "doings" in honor of its large number of newly elected candidates took place. President John Hennessy was in the chair and no delays occurred. John Welch and Harry Kerr were elected members, and the resignation of Harry Brady accepted with regret. John P. Hellen was elected to fill the term. Eugene Sullivan and Pat Mulloy were reported improving and five applications were referred. Before adjourning for the social session, which was a "hummer," Joe McGinn, on behalf of Michael Doyle, just back from Ireland, presented the division with a magnificent steel engraving of Erin's martyr, Robert Emmet, which was received by President Hennessy with appropriate remarks. Two hours were spent in enjoyment and a splendid entertainment was given by the McGinn vaudeville company, the stars being Profs. Weaver and Palmer and Prestidigitateur Lindsay Coleman.

Division 2 also held a rousing meeting Thursday night, Judge Matt O'Doherty and John Barrett being among the welcome visitors. Judge O'Doherty accepted an invitation to deliver an address on Thursday, November 18, for which occasion the division will make extra preparations. Division 1 has issued invitations for the initiation next Tuesday night. All members of the order will be welcome. The newly-elected State officers will be the guests of honor, and a large gathering is predicted.

BACK FROM ERIN.

Michael Doyle and his mother, Mrs. Ellen Doyle, 1313 Seventh street, arrived here Sunday last after a six weeks' trip to Ireland and England, most of the time being spent with relatives in Dublin and Manchester. Both are in excellent health and express themselves delighted with their reception, especially in the Emerald Isle.

CATHOLIC KNIGHTS.

Spirited Meeting of St. John's Branch Last Monday Night.

St. John's branch of the Catholic Knights of America entertained a large number of visitors last Monday night, and the meeting was the most spirited held for many months. There was a big turnout of members and much business of importance was transacted. President Martin presided and introduced the visitors, the first being Very Rev. Father Bax, State Spiritual Director, who made a number of suggestions as to how best promote the interests of the branch and the order. Supreme Delegates Reichert and McGinn took part in an interesting debate relating to the late State convention and explained the changes in the laws. President Michael Sheehan, Anthony J. Sheridan and Joseph Rickelmann were visitors from Branch 642, and they were given a cordial reception, to which they made happy response. Others who contributed life to the proceedings were Secretary Mann, Charles J. Desse, Will Meehan and Bro. Minton.

THEATRICAL.

For next week the Avenue announces Miss Rose Melville, who has become famous as Sis Hopkins and needs no introduction to local theater-goers. Rarely is there seen in stage work such a really enjoyable combination of comedy and humor and deep pathos as is shown in her delightfully quaint play of country life in Central Indiana.

Otis Skinner will be at Macauley's the first three nights next week with his new play, "Lazarre," founded upon the well known romance of Mrs. Catherwood. He will be supported by a company in every way worthy his great talent. For the last half of the week Collier's "Would You For Five Million?" is announced. Matinees Wednesday and Saturday.

Another brand new show to the Louisville public, and said to be an exceedingly clever attraction, is the Moonlight Maids, which come to the Buckingham for next week. This company has been well received everywhere, and the popular vaudeville house will doubtless be crowded nightly. An original musical comedy, "A Day and Night," will be presented by a large and competent company, and the olio will introduce some of the best known celebrities on the vaudeville stage.

IRISH FAIR

Will Be Held at the Horse Show Building Last Week of This Month.

Ancient Order of Hibernians Have Taken Hold of the Matter.

A Miniature Emerald Isle Will Be on Exhibition Day and Night.

HELP THIS GOOD WORK ALONG

Two weeks ago the Kentucky Irish American urged an Irish Fair for Louisville and showed how it could be made a success. The suggestion has been adopted and Louisville is to have an Irish Fair under the auspices of the Ancient Order of Hibernians. That the members of this patriotic order have taken up the matter is a sufficient guarantee that the fair will be high class; that there will be nothing to offend the people of the Irish race.

The fair will be held in the Louisville Horse Show building during the week beginning October 27. There will be Irish jaunting cars, Irish pipers and harpers, Blarney Castle with the Blarney Stone, the Lakes of Killarney, the Bells of Shandon, Irish hedgerows and Irish cottages. One special feature will be a miniature map of Ireland laid out in turf brought from Ireland. This map will show the four provinces, the thirty-two counties and every river, city, town and village in the Emerald Isle. This map will be an education in itself. In short, it is the intention to have a fair of such a nature that the clergy will not only visit it and become interested, but will recommend it to the teachers of the parochial schools. It will be an object lesson on Ireland.

The money derived from the fair will go to the Ancient Order of Hibernians to be used as a nucleus for a new building fund.

Now that the matter has been taken up it behooves every Irish man and every Irish woman to help the good work along. From an artistic and an educational standpoint it will be a grand success. It remains for the Irish people of Louisville to make it a financial success.

FRANK LEVERONE'S DIAMOND.

Popular Frank Leverone is the center of attraction these days. He is the first Louisville man to wear one of the "Black Diamond" stick pins, now all the rage in New York. The pin is hand-somely mounted and was sent to Mr. Leverone by a friend. Money won't buy it.
