PATIENT SOUL

Of Mrs. Catherine Camfield Winged Its Way into Eternity.

Few recent deaths in Louisville have called forth so many expressions of sorrow as that of Mrs. Catherine Camfield, which, while it had been expected, nevertheless caused a shock to her hundreds of friends in the community. Her death occurred at the family residence, Baxter avenue, near Hull street, at 2 o'clock last Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Camfield had suffered from an affection of the kidneys during the past two years, but did not take to her bed until a few weeks ago. Her patient suffering was characteristic of the God-fearing Irish race to which she belonged. She died the death of a Christian mother, fortified by the sacraments of our holy mother the church and surrounded by her husband and children.

Mrs. Catherine Camfield was born in County Galway, Ireland, fifty-four years ago, and came to America when quite a small child. The greater part of her life was spent in Louisville. She leaves her husband, Thomas M. Camfield, and the following children: Misses Annie, Katie and Mary Camfield and Thomas, Jr., and Frank Camfield. Mrs. Camfield was a good neighbor, ever ready and willing to aid those ill or in distress. The sympathy of those aided in word and deed is extended to the family in their great bereavement. The funeral took place from St. Aloysius' church at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning and a large concourse followed the remains to their last resting place in St. Louis cemetery.

PORTLAND

Hibernians Will Celebrate Anniversary of Their Organization.

County President Patrick T. Sullivan presided over the meeting of Division 3, Ancient Order of Hibernians, on Monday night, while Lawrence Mackey acted as Secretary. The principal business of the evening was the discussion of the manner in which the nineteenth anniversary of the founding of Division 3 should be celebrated. Thomas Jordan was elected to membership and all outstanding bills were ordered paid. Attention was again called to the necessity of establishing a company of Hibernian Knights.

County President Sullivan made an eloquent plea for the regular attendance of officers, pointing out the dangers of lukewarmness and the bad example they were setting for others. Absentees should always have a good excuse for failure to attend meetings. Lawrence Mackey suggested that the roll be called at each meeting and that those who were not present without a valid excuse should be fined. George Butler, the State Treasurer, and ex-State Secretary James Coleman also made brief addresses. County President Pat Sullivan read a letter from National Secretary Bree, complimenting the order of this county on the showing made in the past year, three of the four divisions having made a decided gain.

Ex-State Secretary James Coleman urged that application be made for a national organizer to be sent to Kentucky for a few weeks.

Attention was called to the fact that on October 19 Division 3 would be nineteen years old. It was decided to celebrate in a manner befitting the occasion. County President Sullivan and the officers of Division 3 were appointed a committee to arrange for the celebration. It is said that this committee will devise an entertainment out of the ordinary and all routine business will be dispensed with at that meeting. Division 3 will initiate a number of candidates at its next meeting.

MASONIC THEATER.

Edward E. Rose's dramatization of Irving Batcheller's popular novel, "Eben Holden," will be the attraction at the Masonic Theater for the week beginning September 28. The play will be staged exactly as it was in the original production in New York, with all its wealth of scenery and light effects. The company is headed by Henry Horton as Eben Holden, whose impersonation of what has been called the "sweetest character of the stage" is said to be remarkably well brought out, shows close study and the work of a clever character actor. Miss Adele Lane makes a charming Hope Brower, and the cast throughout seems to have been selected with great care as to their appropriateness for the parts they assume.

HOPKINS.

The excellent vaudeville bills at Hopkins' Theater continue to attract crowds to that popular place of amusement. As good as the attendance has been this week, the features on next week's bill promise to draw even larger crowds. Katherine Bloodgood, the famous contralto; Drawee, the juggler, and George W. Day, the monologue artist, and other vaudeville stars well known in this city will appear every afternoon and evening. New pictures have been secured for the biograph.

MACAULEY'S.

That perennial fountain of fun, De Wolf Hopper, will appear at Macauley's Theatre the first half of next week. The vehicle of humor this time is a musical production of "Mr. Pickwick." "The Sleepy King," a musical comedy, will be the attraction at Macauley's during the last half of the week. This production is said to be handsomely costumed and elaborately staged. The usual matinees will be given on Wednesday and Saturday.

BUCKINGHAM.

Weber's Parisian Widows will be the attraction at the Buckingham Theater next week. The company will present two new original burlesques, with the latest and most elaborate musical pot pourri. In the olio will be seen the Bison City quartet, the Simpsons, drum and xylophone experts; Annie Peyser in ballads, Charles Falk in illustrated songs, and several other noted entertainers. The usual matinees will be given.

SERIES OF DANCES.

A series of dances will be given at Norton's Hall, Ninth and Broadway, beginning Monday evening, October 12, and continuing every Monday and Friday evening throughout the season of 1903-4. The committee in charge is made up of John W. Miller, James R. Fitzgerald and Thomas Flahive.

SOCIAL SESSION

Of the Hibernians Served to Draw a Large Attendance.

Division 4, Ancient Order of Hibernians, held the banner meeting of the year last Wednesday night, not less than two hundred members being present. President Hennessey hustled all business through in order that the members might have more time to enjoy the social session. The Visiting Committee reported that Martin Joyce was well, but that Ben Zorn was ill at the City Hospital and Mike Reardon was confined to his home by an attack of rheumatism.

State President Keenan made a brief address, in which he told of the social and financial success of the Robert Emmet centenary celebration given under the auspices of the Ladies' Auxiliary. State Secretary Meehan told of the increase in membership throughout the country in general and in Louisville in particular. The application of Dr. T. H. Mulvey was received. He will be the first physician to enter Division 4. The application of Patrick Flahive was also received. Joseph P. McGinn made a brief address on the principles of the order.

All regular business having been transacted the social session began. An abundance of refreshments had been provided, and while the members regaled themselves a few of their number sang songs and told stories of Ireland. James Kenecaley and John Kenefick sang a duet, "God Save Ireland." The soloists were Mike Welsh, John Swift and Louis Dugan. Mr. Welsh made the hit of the evening and had to respond to several encores.

PONTIFICAL MASS

Celebrated in Honor of Fifty-First Anniversary of Cathedral.

The congregation of the Cathedral of the Assumption celebrated the fifty-first anniversary of the dedication of that church at the late mass last Sunday. Pontifical mass was celebrated by the Right Rev. Bishop McCloskey, assisted by the Rev. Dr. Schumann and the Rev. Father Melody. A number of priests from other parishes occupied seats in the sanctuary. The sermon was preached by the Rev. Father P. M. J. Rock, who reviewed the history of the church and recalled the names of those families who were members of the congregation when the Cathedral was built. Many of these ladies and gentlemen are still alive, while the descendants of others continue to reside in the parish or reside in other parishes in the city. The Cathedral was filled with the faithful not only of its own parish, but of every congregation in the city. The music was in keeping with the solemnity of the occasion.

TRANSFERRED.

The Rev. John A. Creary, who has been for several months past one of the assistant priests at St. Patrick's church, has been transferred to the post of chaplain for the Sisters of the Good Shepherd.

HALF RATES.

The "Big Four" route announces half rates to Chicago and return on account of the Chicago centennial celebration. Tickets will be on sale September 26 to 28 inclusive, and will be good returning until October 2. Tickets and sleeping car berths can be secured at the city ticket office, 259 Fourth avenue.
