GALA CROWD
Expected to Attend Euchre and Dance of Division 2, A. O. H.

Division 2, A. O. H., held a regular meeting Friday night of last week, but when President Con J. Ford formally announced the death of Bishop McCloskey all else seemed to be forgotten. At the suggestion of President Ford the euchre and dance that was to have taken place Monday night at Phoenix Hill Park was postponed out of respect to the Bishop's memory. Vice President Joseph Lynch and Rodney Hall, members of Division 2, went to Nazareth with the Bishop's remains. The picnic and euchre which was to have been given last Monday night will be given at Phoenix Hill Park on next Tuesday night, and all the previous arrangements will be carried out. President Ford, Dan McKenna, Joseph Lynch, Will Meehan and others will see that all enjoy themselves. Harmond Barry will have charge of the euchre and many handsome prizes are to be awarded.

In the dancing hall there will be the usual number of popular waltzes and two-steps, and in addition a number of Irish reels, breakdowns and quadrilles. The dancing party probably be the last outdoor entertainment offered by our Hibernians during the present season. Members of all the other divisions and the Ladies' Auxiliary have been invited to attend.

BRIGHT ENDING
Of Most Successful Baseball Season in Louisville's History.

Next Monday will mark the closing of the baseball season in Louisville, and from present indications it will be the brightest ending for the fans and the public generally in many a year, for barring accidents or a streak of bad weather tomorrow or Monday Louisville will fly the pennant flag as the champions of the season of 1909. The brainy and energetic work of Woodruff, Sullivan, Moriarty and Hughes, and the never-say-die spirit of Manager Heinie Peltz have been the biggest factors in Louisville's success, although every other man on the team has contributed his best efforts toward the Colonels' string of victories, assisted in no small means by the loyal rooters, who have certainly done their part toward "rattling" the visiting teams.

The successful ending of this season under the new management presages a bright future for baseball in this city, both from a pleasure and an advertising standpoint, as it can not be denied that a winning team is a great boost for the city it represents. The regular attendance of the clergy of all denominations and the presence of many of the fair sex have been an aid to the cleanliness of the games and additional proof that baseball is the king of sports. Now let everybody go out for these three remaining games and clinch the pennant by encouraging the boys to do their very best against Tebeau's aggregation.

SHOW RESPECT.

Division 1 Requests Memorial Mass or Month's Mind.

Because many members of Division 1 were at Nazareth attending the funeral of Bishop McCloskey, the attendance at the meeting Monday night was not large. In the absence of President Thomas Keenan and other officers, William M. Higgins presided. Tim Lyons, one of the oldest Hibernians in Louisville, was reported off the sick list. The announcement was hailed with delight by his many friends.

Instead of adopting resolutions on the death of Bishop McCloskey it was decided to have a month's mind or memorial mass at the convenience of the Very Rev. Father Cronin. The meeting then adjourned as a mark of respect to the Bishop.

STRICKEN SUDDENLY.

The funeral of John E. Doherty, who died at Bloomington, Ind., Friday of last week, took place from Holy Trinity church, New Albany, last Saturday morning. Death came suddenly and resulted from heart disease superinduced by overwork. He is survived by his widow and three daughters, Misses Estelle, Era and Helen Doherty; two sisters, Mrs. Edward Fitzpatrick and Miss Mary Doherty; and one brother, Joseph Doherty, Auditor of the Monon railroad. The deceased was fifty-two years old, and was born and raised in New Albany. At the time of his death he was County Surveyor of Floyd county and was widely known and respected. The funeral was attended by many old friends of the deceased in the three Falls Cities.

T. W. TAPPY & CO.

T. W. Tappy & Co. is the name of a new firm of cigar manufacturers located at 112 South Twelfth street. Thomas W. Tappy, head of the firm, is not only well known in Louisville, but is one of the most popular commercial travelers that leaves the city. Percy Pleasants will be associated with Mr. Tappy as Superintendent of the factory, and Mr. Pleasants is an expert cigar manufacturer. The new company will make a specialty of two brands—Lady Dash and Little A. J., said to be the best made in this city.

BENEFIT GAME.

The Colonels and the All Professionals will play a game of baseball at Eclipse Park Tuesday afternoon. The game will be called at 3:30 o'clock and tickets of admission will cost fifty cents. An account of the great showing made by the

FATHER KOENIG'S NERVE TONIC

Not Like Certain Doctors.
Dr. J. A. Dronia of St. Johnsbury, Vt., writes Feb. 20, 1907. I am not a certain doctor, as I am not a doctor, but I know the value of your Nerve Tonic. I have tested its quality a long time ago and have often prescribed the same for persons who applied for it repeatedly afterwards.

Hoperville, W. Va., Sept. 6, 1907.
As farmer being often exposed to the rain I was frequently troubled with Rheumatism and my stomach was also afflicted. The doctors diagnosed my case as indigestion. Last fall I was troubled frequently. A pain beginning in my right side would move towards my stomach and would become so violent that I suffered as much as a human being could endure for hours. I then began to take Father Koening's Nerve Tonic and after having taken the first spoonful the pain stopped. Then I took the rest of the bottle and the pain has not returned.

FRANK HERRIS.
FREE A Valuable Book on Nervous Diseases and a Sample Bottle to any address. Poor patients also get the medicine free. Prepared by the Rev. Father Koening, of Fort Wayne, Ind., since 1870, and now by the KOENIG MED. CO., Chicago, Ill., 100 Lake Street.
Sold by Druggists at 21¢ per Bottle, 6 for Large Size, $1.75; 6 Bottles for $9.

Colonels and the All Professionals a large crowd is expected. Richard Langan, who is managing the All Professionals' part of the arrangements announces the following line up of his team: Crowder, s. s.; Callahan, 3d b.; Harry Lally, 2nd b.; Sabrie, 1st b.; Gnadinger, I. f.; Meyers or Wallace, c. f.; Becker or Reiss, p.; Kalkhoff, c.; Langan, r. f. The proceeds will be given to the members of the Louisville ball team. The Colonels will appear in their regular line up.

VERY WELCOME NEWS.

Peter Caldwell, for many years Superintendent of the Louisville Reform School, has consented to withdraw his resignation, and the news will be welcomed all over the city. Mr. Caldwell is aged and needs a rest, but Capt. John H. Leathers and other members of the Board of Directors have convinced Mr. Caldwell that the reform school needs him at its head. There is no person in Louisville that does not wish him many more years of vigorous life, and all are grateful for the good he has done in an unostentatious way.

LOCATES IN ARKANSAS.

Dr. Vincent Falisi, well and favorably known in local Catholic circles, left Tuesday evening for Little Rock, Ark., where he has been house physician at St. Vincent's Infirmary for a year or more. He will now take up the practice of medicine and will be Instructor of Surgery at the Arkansas University and Professor of Physiology at Literary College, the leading Catholic educational institute in Arkansas.

DIAMOND JUBILEE.

The Rev. Father B. H. Westerman and people of the Church of the Immaculate Conception will celebrate the diamond jubilee of the church on Sunday, October 10. Arrangements are going forward steadily, and it may be possible to announce the full details next week.

GOLDEN WEDDING.

Venerable Couple Will Renew Marital Vows at Altar.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Middendorf will celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding at the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Eighth and Grayson streets, at the high mass at 8 o'clock Sunday, September 26. Very Rev. Father B. H. Westerman will celebrate the mass. The choir will sing Gounod's "Missa Solemnelle." There will be an all-day reception to their friends at 1908 West Main street, and all the friends of the venerable couple invited to call and offer their congratulations. In the evening Mr. and Mrs. Middendorf will have a supper, at which their children, grandchildren and other relatives will be present.

Mr. Middendorf was born at Dink-lazer, Germany, May 12, 1837. His wife, Mrs. Mary Middendorf, was born at Aukum, Germany, December 3, 1842. Mr. Middendorf came to America in 1850. Mrs. Middendorf in 1845. They have five living children, Misses Mary and Annie Middendorf, and Messrs. J. H., Ben and George F. Middendorf, and two grandchildren, Mary and Margaret, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Middendorf. Mr. Middendorf has one living sister, Mrs. George Twieker. Mrs. Middendorf has one living brother, Ben Dierker. The friends of this venerable couple wish them many happy returns of their anniversary.

HANDSOME ANNEX.

Addition to New Religious House in New York.

The Right Rev. Thomas F. Cusack, Auxiliary Bishop of New York, blessed the cornerstone of the new annex to the Convent of Jesus-Mary in that city last Sunday afternoon. The new building will be an addition or annex to the residence called Our Lady of Peace. The present building accommodates only fifty inmates, but when the annex is completed 170 living rooms will be available.

The new building will have a frontage of fifty feet, a depth of 105 feet and will be nine stories tall. The file will be on the floor constructed of Indiana limestone. Those above will be of red brick with terra cotta trimmings. The tile roof will be used as a promenade in summer. On the ground floor will be a tiled dining room, kitchen, refrigerator rooms and pantries. A chapel of Roman style will be on the floor above. On this same floor will be the library and infirmary. Above these will be seven floors of living rooms.

FALL RACES.

Autumn Meet of Louisville Racing Association Opens Today.

The autumn meeting of the Louisville Racing Association opens this afternoon and will close on October 9, giving lovers of the sport of kings thirteen days of excellent races. Some of the best horses seen on the Eastern and Western tracks during the summer will take part in the various events. Charles F. Price will be the presiding judge, with Charles F. Grainger and William Shelley as associate judges. Secretary Lyman H. Davis will act as handicapper, and J. J. Holtman will be the starter.

The stake events will be the Frank Fahr Handicap today, the Seelbach Hotel Handicap on next Saturday and the Vic Lorch Cup on the following Saturday.

Vice President and General Manager M. J. Winn promises great sport to the lovers of thoroughbreds and expects a most auspicious meeting. The track has been put into splendid condition, and all last week the horses were arriving from various parts of the country.

GUEST OF HONOR.

Miss Anastasia Walsh has returned from a pleasant visit to Covington, where she was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. Willenbrink, of 83 West Sixth street. She was the guest of honor at a birthday party tendered her daughter, Miss Mae Willenbrink, and among those present were Misses Bertha Gillespie, Bertha Hutehison, Lillian Sullivan, Sude and Mamie Krize, Margaret Willenbrink, Clara, Marie and Kathryn Luter, Rose McGarvey, Theresa Fleming and Messrs. Henry Smith, William Hufnagle, Henry Bierman, Harry and Joseph Frederick, George Willenbrink, Roy Long, Harry Koverman, John Kent, William Ulrich, Charles Boro, Charles Timmerman, Roger Raywood, W. White, William Tansey, Harry Bittlizer; Messrs. and Mesdames Bert King, John Spellbrink, M. A. Grady; Mesdames Meder, Smith, Willenbrink and Frederick.

ORMSBY AVENUE MARKET.

Peter Herberger, Jr., a popular butcher and handler of fresh meats, has opened the Ormsby Avenue Market, at the corner of Clay and Ormsby streets. He carries a choice stock of fresh meats, vegetables and family groceries, and proposes to make his place the best in that section of Louisville. Mr. Herberger has a reputation for politeness and attention to business. His success seems forerunners.

RECEPTION AND DANCE.

The South Louisville Gaiety Club will give one of its select receptions and dances in the South Louisville Bank Hall next Tuesday evening. It will be the first of a series of six such events. The other dates will be announced later. The club is made up of a number of the best known young men in South Louisville and all their former undertakings have proved popular.
