

KENTUCKY IRISH AMERICAN.

Devoted to the Social and Moral Advancement of Irish Americans and Catholics Officially Indorsed by Ancient Order of Hibernians, Young Men's Institute and Catholic Knights of America.

KENTUCKY IRISH AMERICAN PRINTING CO., Incorporated, Publishers SUBSCRIPTION PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR SINGLE COPY 5c

Entered at the Louisville Postoffice as Second-Class Matter. Address all Communications to the KENTUCKY IRISH AMERICAN, 319-21 West Green St.

LOUISVILLE, KY. SATURDAY, MARCH 19, 1910.

ONE REST DAY.

New York has started a crusade for the stricter observance of the Sabbath, and the working people are giving the movement hearty support. It is estimated that more than 300,000 men in New York alone are compelled to labor on Sunday, and amendments are proposed to the State laws which will remedy this condition.

Gov. Willson will not lose any friends by refusing to call an extra session of the Legislature.

DEFER TO LADIES.

Division 1, A. O. H., Act Part of Courtly Cavaliers.

There was a rousing attendance at the meeting of Division 1, A. O. H., Tuesday with President Thomas Walsh in the chair. The applications of James J. Reilly and Joseph M. Harding were received.

ASQUITH.

Herbert M. Asquith, whose retirement from the Premiership of Great Britain and the leadership of the Liberal party is predicted for the very near future, is the strongest man in the Liberal party today.

When in 1892 the Liberal party was returned to office and power everybody who had watched that career knew that the admission of Mr. Asquith into a new Cabinet was inevitable and that the office he would be called upon to fill would be very close to the top.

WAIT AND SEE.

According to advices from Rome, uncertainty prevails as to the plans of ex-President Roosevelt when he reaches that city. Owing to the existing differences between the Vatican and Quirinal, visits of great personages are met with difficulty.

According to a decision of Judge Parker, of the Fayette Circuit Court, men indicted for buying registration certificates are immune from punishment for that offense.

SOME SNOLENCE.

Phil J. Sandmann can take a prize as a champion sleeper if not as a bowler. Phil went to the bowling tournament in Detroit and showed that he is in possession of a clear conscience. On the night of the tournament Sandmann retired before his room-mate, Frank Deuser. He locked the door and when Deuser arrived at the hotel he was unable to awaken the sleeper.

REMEMBERS FRIENDS.

Bernard (Toots) Flynn, who is holding down an important position in a railroad office in Houston, Texas, remembered many of his old friends in Louisville by sending picture postals on St. Patrick's day.

SOCIETY.

J. H. Campbell has returned from a week's visit to West Baden Springs.

J. X. Kinberger has been spending a week and enjoying the waters at West Baden.

Phil Mazzoni is expected home today, after a two weeks' sojourn at French Lick Springs.

Miss Rose Henley will be hostess to her card club at her home in Portland on March 30.

Dr. M. Casey, of Carrollton, arrived Wednesday to spend St. Patrick's day with his Louisville friends.

Miss Martha Burke, of New Albany, arrived home Saturday from a visit to friends and relatives in Chicago.

John Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Al P. Martin, is suffering from the grip at his home, 432 East Gray street.

Mrs. J. E. Sheridan and Myron Sheridan, of Meadowbrook, will soon move into their bungalow home on Kenwood way.

J. J. McGrath and Frank P. Carroll were among the number from Louisville sojourning at West Baden Springs this week.

Mrs. Matt McDonald, of Mobile, Ala., who was formerly Miss Rose Jansen, of this city, is here visiting her parents and other relatives.

Mrs. Walter Wallpoll, of Parsons, Kas., who was Miss Annie Conroy, will arrive today to spend six weeks with Mrs. Dan Lucey on Gallagher street.

Mrs. Edward Keating has recovered from an illness of considerable length and has returned to her home in South Louisville for the past two weeks.

Mrs. Nora Cronin, of Lexington, spent several days here this week as the guest of her distinguished son, the Very Rev. Administrator James P. Cronin.

James C. Lyons, well known to the people of New Albany, has been confined to his home, 210 West Second street, by illness since the first of the week.

Henry Bosquet and wife are expected home today from West Baden Springs, where they have been in the hope that Mrs. Bosquet will regain her health.

Misses Anna and Florida Hayes, who were the guests of Miss Dominica Blanford in South Louisville, have returned to their home at Hodgenville.

Mrs. K. V. Morlan, of Meadowbrook, has returned from Shelbyville, where she accompanied her granddaughter, Miss Shannon, for a visit of several days.

Messrs. John T. Malone and W. C. Nones, accompanied by Misses Edith Malone and Mattie Nones, will leave Easter Monday to spend several weeks in New Mexico.

Mrs. J. B. Ohlgeschlager and children have returned to their home in the Highlands, after a visit of several weeks with Mrs. Ohlgeschlager's mother at Augusta, Ga.

Miss Florence Pilcher, who is completing her education at St. Mary's College, Knoxville, Ill., is home to spend the Easter holidays with her parents in the Highlands.

Daniel Russell, of Chicago, who is returning from a Southern trip, was in New Albany this week visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Russell, East Oak street.

Misses M. Monahan, J. Laven and M. Connaughton, T. Grady, J. B. Doherty and H. F. Lennin, who were last week registered in New York City, will all be home for Easter.

MACKIN'S MEMBERS

Keep Busy With Many Very Worthy Projects.

Mackin Council had a very well attended meeting Monday night with President John T. Kenney in the chair. Joseph Wald and H. Thiemann, who had been ill, were reported well, while Joseph Schrems and F. J. Kistler were reported improving.

UNITY COUNCIL.

The principal feature of the meeting of Unity Council, Y. M. I., of New Albany, on Tuesday night was the obligation of five new members. Three applications were received and two members were elected, John S. Martel, on behalf of the Gallagher Club, presented the council with a dozen handsome chairs for the library.

applause and many members signified their intention of attending the forthcoming jubilee.

LADIES' AUXILIARY, A. O. H.

There was a nice meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary on Wednesday evening with Miss Rose Sweeney presiding. It was announced that the paraphernalia for the degree team had arrived, and will be used at an initiation to be held after Easter.

ST. CECILIA'S BAZAR.

The great event of April in Catholic social circles will be the bazaar at Mackin Council's club house for the benefit of the new Church of St. Cecilia from April 4 to 11 inclusive. Tickets of admission are only ten cents, and no soliciting of chances will be allowed on the floor.

FAIRY PLAY.

The people of Clifton and the entire eastern section of the city are looking forward with pleasant anticipation to the evening of Friday, April 1, when the children of St. Francis of Rome church, of which the Rev. Thomas W. White is zealous pastor, present the fairy play entitled "The Fairies' Carnival."

MANY MOURN HIS DEATH.

The many friends of D. J. McNamara, formerly of Frankfort, but more recently of Lexington, were shocked to learn that he had died of the Bluegrass capital on Tuesday of last week.

VISIT FROM GRAND PRESIDENT.

Grand President Robert T. Burke, Grand President of the Y. M. I., Kentucky jurisdiction, has returned from Frankfort, where he paid an official visit to Lambert Young Council, one of the oldest in the State.

ORPHEUM OPENS TODAY.

The new Orpheum Theater, by many experts considered the handsomest moving picture house in the South, will throw open its doors, 332-334 West Jefferson street, this afternoon. It was intended to open on the opening of St. Patrick's day, but the embellishments were not completed.

SUPPER AND EUCHE.

The ladies and gentlemen of St. Columba's parish are arranging a social eucue and supper for the benefit of the church. It will be given at Pfister's Hall, Twenty-fifth and Market streets, on the afternoons and evenings of Tuesday and Wednesday, March 29 and 30.

ECCLIASTICAL MESSENGER.

The Rev. Father Michael E. Melody, chaplain at St. Vincent's Orphan Asylum, has been selected to go to Indianapolis this year to secure the holy oils for use in this diocese. They will be blessed by Bishop O'Donoghue in the Cathedral of Indianapolis on Holy Thursday, March 24.

KENTUCKY GIRL HONORED.

Miss Nancy Johnson, daughter of Col. Ben Johnson, of Bardstown, the Representative in Congress from the Fourth Congressional district, will be the sponsor for the new steamer Kentucky, which is being built for the Hawaiian Steamship Company.

NEED NEW SCHOOL.

A new parochial school is needed in St. Vincent de Paul's parish, the ground for which was purchased by the late Bishop McCloskey, and the pastor, Very Rev. Father Thome, is anxious to build a modern school house on the site.

BUILDING STARTED.

Work has begun on the magnificent new sanitarium of the Sisters of the Incarnate Word at Shreveport. This building will cost $150,000 when completed.

Advertisement for Keaney's Cut Rate Drug Store, Sixth and Oak Streets. Lists various medicines and their prices, including Bells' Pine Tar Honey, Chamberlain's Cough Cure, and various ointments.

Advertisement for MacAuley's, Henry Miller and Company, featuring 'HER HUSBAND'S WIFE' and 'A STORY OF TODAY'.

Advertisement for Saturday Night Ends, featuring a special sale of men's and youths' suits for $5, $7.50, and $10.

Advertisement for Bishop to Meet Knights, mentioning the Right Rev. Denis O'Donoghue, Bishop of Louisville.

Advertisement for Junior Order Banned, stating that the ban has been placed on the Junior Order of American Mechanics.

Advertisement for Pardonable Error, mentioning an anniversary of the death of the late James T. Campbell.

Advertisement for Attains Seventy Years, mentioning Jared S. Moore and his 70th birthday.

Advertisement for Goldsmith Not Forgotten, mentioning Very Rev. Dean Kelly, of St. Peter's church.

Advertisement for Stewart Dry Goods Co. featuring an invitation to an exhibition of Irish lace making, with a harp logo.

Advertisement for Levy's Special Premium Offer, featuring a 42-piece dinner set.

Advertisement for Kentucky Irish American magazine, offering a 42-piece dinner set with a year's subscription for $2.00 in cash.

Advertisement for Casino Theater Hopkins, featuring first run films and a motto: 'First Run Films Our Motto'.