PRESIDENTS

And Officers Chosen For
St. Joseph's Orphan Society.

Last Sunday afternoon Central officers of St. Joseph's Orphan Society for the ensuing year were elected at a largely attended and enthusiastic meeting of representatives of the twelve parish organizations held in St. Boniface Hall. The work of the outgoing officers was commended and the reports for the past year are most satisfactory. Much interest was taken in the election, which resulted as follows:
President—Joseph Schlidt.
Vice President—Ben Stoesser.
Recording Secretary—D. Lubbers.
Corresponding Secretary—B. J. Geher.
Financial Secretary—S. O. Hubbuch.
Treasurer—John H. Wilms.
Meetings were also held at the various German Catholic churches and the following parish Presidents elected: St. Martin's, John G. Steinmetz; St. Helen's, John Hartage; St. Boniface, Jacob Graft or G. William Frank, who were tied; St. Mary's, Joseph E. Wuerach; St. Anthony's, William Schmitt; St. Joseph's, John Peters; St. Francis, John Allgeier; St. Elizabeth, Joseph Herbig; St. Peter's, Herman Steinlage; St. Vincent de Paul's, L. H. Harping; Holy Trinity, John Kottman; Holy Trinity, St. Matthews, Dominick Zehnder.

AGED INSPECTOR DEAD.

An exemplary character was called to his eternal reward Monday afternoon in the person of Michael J. Fahy, of the Dominican parish. Mr. Fahy was a shining example of Catholic manhood, ever attentive to the duties of his holy religion, and his character and life will ever stand as a model to those whose privilege it was to know him. Born in Ireland seventy-seven years ago, he came to this country when a boy, and for over half a century he had been an industrious and respected resident of this city. Mr. Fahy was one of the oldest employes of the Louisville & Nashville railroad, and for forty-five years had held the position of car inspector, retiring five years ago on account of age. Until last week he enjoyed good health, when he was stricken with apoplexy and gradually sank, fully prepared for the end. He was a pioneer member of the Catholic Knights of America, and that body had charge of the funeral. Surviving Mr. Fahy are his wife and eight children, who are James Fahy, official stenographer in Judge Lincoln's court; John J., of Birmingham, Ala.; William B., of the Kentucky Central Life Insurance Company; Mrs. E. J. Stator, of Chicago; Mrs. Paul Lamson, of Cincinnati; and Mrs. Helen McCloy, and Misses Mary and Margaret Fahy, of Louisville. The funeral was held Wednesday morning from St. Louis Bertrand's church, and when the ceremony had been concluded the body was interred in St. Louis cemetery to rest peacefully until the Resurrection day.

ON UNFAIR LIST.

The Grocers' Baking Company, located at Seventh and Magnolia, has been placed on the unfair list by the local Trades and Labor Assembly and the members of organized labor are planning a determined warfare on this company and its products.

MEMORIAL.

Hibernians Will Tomorrow Pay Tribute to Their Dead.

Tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in St. Louis Bertrand's Hall the County Board and Ancient Order of Hibernians will hold their annual memorial services in honor of the deceased members of the order. The County Board at its last meeting arranged a most excellent programme, and Hibernians in Louisville should feel it their duty to be present. A feature will be the musical numbers to be rendered by the excellent choir of the Ladies' Auxiliary. Rev. J. P. Cronin, V. G. County Chaplain of the order, will offer the opening prayer, and the Ladies' Auxiliary choir will render "The Angelus." County President W. J. Connolly will be the first speaker, and will be followed by James P. Barry, of Division 1, and William T. Meehan, of Division 2, who will deliver addresses and present resolutions. "Face to Face" by the choir will be the next number, followed by the addresses and resolutions of Edward J. Mackey for Division 3 and William P. McDonogh for Division 4. After the "Ave Maria" by the choir State President P. J. Welsh will be heard, and the closing remarks will be made by the Very Rev. James P. Cronin. Members are requested to bring their friends and relatives of deceased members to these services.

SHELBY CLUB SANTAS.

Next Wednesday afternoon the Shelby Democratic Club, through the efforts of Squire Frank Dacher, its president, and Judge Herman Gocke and the Christmas Tree Committee, will have the choicest and best Christmas celebration that the club has ever given. It will take place at the club's hall, Shelby and Roseland, and the public cordially invited to participate and see what this organization is doing for the children of the Second and Third wards. There will be plenty of goodies and toys on hand for every girl and boy, and also special gifts that were donated for the little ones holding the lucky tickets. Charles Mann, Frank Dacher, John Sandmann, Dr. C. W. Schmidt, Phil Fleig and Fred Mueller, who are experienced Santa Clauses, will be in their glory, for none know better how to amuse and make the little ones happy. For the joy it brings the Shelby Democratic Club deserves continued success.

ST. PETER CLAVER'S.

Under the direction of Rev. Father Constantine many noticeable improvements have been made in St. Peter Claver's church on Lampton street for colored Catholics. Father Constantine has had the exterior painted and the interior beautifully tinted and frescoed. In addition a handsome high altar has been erected and the side altars painted and renovated. Father Constantine has made an extensive study of the social, moral and intellectual condition of the negro race and is very successful in his work.
