HIBERNIANS.

What They Have Been Doing the Past Week—General News Notes.

Remember the lotto and dance to be given by Division 1 on Friday night, January 17.

President-elect Toner is a worker who will increase the membership of Division 1 of Covington.

The first division in Kentucky was organized in Covington, with Louisville following soon after.

Division 7 of Utica, N. Y., offers $25 in gold to the one securing the most members before March 1.

Rev. Father Shine, Nebraska's new State President, will tomorrow complete the organization of a division at Lincoln.

Seven members were elected at the last meeting of Division 2 of Utica, N. Y., at which a musical entertainment was given.

Seventeen years ago the Ladies' Auxiliary had a membership of only fifteen. Today the order has 881 divisions and numbers 65,000.

Every division in Louisville has made gains this year. Despite the many extraordinary calls they are all in good financial condition.

Prof. Rohan has issued a neatly printed report of progress in the work he has in charge in promoting the study of Irish history in parish schools.

Prominent in the parade that preceded the dedication by Archbishop Prendergast of St. Edmund's church in Philadelphia were divisions of the Ancient Order.

Indianapolis Hibernians have launched preparations for their St. Patrick's day celebration. Past County President Maurice Donnelly was chosen Grand Marshal.

Division 2 will hold its initial meeting in St. William's Hall, Thirtieth and Oak, next Thursday night. All members are invited to be present and help make the housewarming a notable one.

Congressman Joseph Taggart, from the Second Kansas district, is a prominent member of the Ancient Order. A year ago he won by 1,000 votes, and in the recent election his majority was increased to 3,124.

Ladies' Auxiliary 1 of Syracuse entertains its members with "devil's auctions." This is one of the leading auxiliaries of New York State, and for the next year will prosper under the administration of Mrs. Anna Lynch.

Col. M. J. O'Brien, of the First Ohio regiment, complimented the Hibernian Rifles of Columbus upon their success the past year and urged the members to make a most creditable showing in the inauguration parade January 13.

DEATH FROM GRIEF. St. Augustine's church in Jeffersonville mourns the death of Mrs. Mary Anderson, one of its first and oldest members. The cause of her demise is attributed to grief over the death of her husband, John Anderson, three months ago, which proved a great shock, from which she did not recover. Mrs. Anderson was a native of Ireland and was originally Mary Gorman. She was about seventy-five years of age and had been a resident of this country from girlhood, when she was brought to America by her parents. Her home had been in Jeffersonville for years and she was married there to John Anderson more than a half century ago. The immediate survivors of Mrs. Anderson are a son and daughter, David Anderson and Miss Eva Anderson, both of Jeffersonville. Mrs. Anderson had been a member of St. Augustine's church practically from its founding, and the funeral was conducted from there Monday morning. Rev. Father O'Connell officiating at the solemn obsequies.

BUSY TIMES FOR TRINITY. Trinity Council, Y. M. I., will entertain their members, families and lady friends on New Year's afternoon with a reception from 2 to 6 o'clock, and will have pool contests, plonche contests and a large Christmas tree with free distribution of toys for the children. A musical programme will be rendered during the evening, including vocal selections by John M. Hennessy, Coleman Ridge, John L. Dunliffe and others. The newly elected officers will act as a reception committee and will have charge of the afternoon programme. The installation of officers will take place Monday, January 6, and a smoker and luncheon will be held in connection. The Trinity Musical Club will give dances at the club house on Wednesday, January 15, and Wednesday, February 5, the proceeds to be used in defraying expenses of the "Dolly Dollars" production.

PADUCAH. A Christmas eve event of society interest in Paducah and Owensboro was the marriage of Miss Ellen Rehkopf, a popular young woman of Paducah, and James Fleming Slack, of Owensboro, which was solemnized Tuesday morning at the parsonage of St. Francis de Sales church. The Rev. Father H. A. Connolly officiated. Miss Madge King, of Brookport, Ill., was maid of honor, and Richard Slack, of St. Louis, was best man. Several out-of-town guests were present. Among them were Mrs. R. W. Slack, of Owensboro, mother of the groom; Mrs. J. B. Riley, of Evansville, Ind.; Miss Madge King, of Brookport, Ill.; and Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Dole, of Danville, Ill. Mr. Slack belongs to a prominent Owensboro family and is an official in the Postoffice there.

ANCIENT ORDER OFFICERS. Division 1, A. O. H., of New Albany, organized many years ago and one of the strong Catholic fraternal societies of Indiana, held its annual meeting Sunday afternoon and elected the following officers for the coming year: Chaplains, Rev. Charles Curran and Rev. Michael Shea; President, Daniel Walsh; Vice President, John Winn; Recording Secretary, J. F. Goulding; Financial Secretary,

OWENSBORO

Young Men's New Year's Will Eclipse Its Predecessors.

Sarto Council, Y. M. I., of Owensboro, obligated George Kapler and Joseph Zimmerman at a very interesting meeting last week, at which the Social Committee announced a New Year's eve dance that will eclipse all others held this year. Monday evening the Ladies' Auxiliary gave an elegant luncheon that all very much enjoyed and express hope that another will be soon given. The Bacchelor's Club had another meeting and spread Sunday evening, when Leo

Eger, the Royal Chef, announced

"barbecued lamb with trimmings" for their next gathering. "We meet to eat" is the motto of this popular club, and every bachelor is required to be on hand. Officers elected for 1913 held a meeting Sunday afternoon at the club rooms for the purpose of working out their plans so they may take up the work immediately upon being installed. They are meeting with success in their preliminary efforts and will show a banquet of applications the night they are inducted into office. Minutes of the Pittsburgh meeting were read with interest, and the feeling is that the Y. M. I. will soon show a lively growth as a result of its action. The installation of officers will take place

January 2 and will bring together the Catholic young men of the city.

HAPPILY WEDDED.

Prof. Edward Morback, the well known musician, and Mrs. Adeline Montedonico Reeb, gave their many friends a surprise Thursday morning by being quietly married at St. Louis Bertrand's church, of which both are members. The ceremony took place at a nuptial mass at 8 o'clock, at which the Rev. Father McGovern was the officiating priest, and so quiet was the secret kept that only immediates relatives of bride and groom were present. Both have a wide circle of friends, who are showering them with congratulations on their happy union. Prof. and Mrs. Mor-back will go to housekeeping and reside at 316 West Breckinridge street.

JAILER PFLANZ BETTER.

News of the sudden and serious illness of Jailer John R. Pfanz spread rapidly Monday and caused much anxiety among his wide acquaintance. Jailer Pfanz was stricken with cerebral hemorrhage as he entered the jail lobby, falling into the arms of Deputy Tom McCullough.

Physicians were hastily summoned and they worked with their patient several hours before he could be removed to his home on Rudd avenue. Until Thursday he was kept perfectly quiet, when his condition was reported much improved. Jailer Pfanz is one of the most efficient and popular officials Jefferson county ever had.
