

The Club Plan Is What It Means to You

is an extended payment plan instituted purely and convenience of our patrons who wish to buy Household Furniture, Carpets, Rugs, etc.

Join the Club Plan you are asked to pay 3 per cent. of your purchases for joining; for instance the membership fee on a $25.00 purchase would be $1.50.

the membership fee on a $50.00 purchase would be $3.00.

the membership fee on greater purchases would be in proportion.

you are then asked to pay 10 per cent. of your total purchase at first payment. For instance, on a $25.00 purchase you would pay $2.50 down in addition to the membership fee, making a total of $5.00. The goods are then delivered to you and you arrange to pay the balance in small weekly or monthly payments.

When you consider that goods bought on the Club Plan are sold at our cash prices—whether special or regular—you will clearly see that our membership fee is nothing in comparison to the additional cost installment houses place on their goods for the privilege of time payments.

FURNITURE, CARPETS, RUGS, HOUSE FURNISHINGS AND OTHER HOUSEHOLD GOODS ARE SOLD ON THE CLUB PLAN.

For further information regarding the Club Plan will be cheerfully given by our salespeople or at the Credit office on the 4th floor.

BRONCHIAL COUGHS

When the bronchial tubes are affected with that weakening, tickling cough, they need immediate and sensible treatment. The breath seems shorter because of mucous obstructions; usually fever is present and your head jars with every cough. Your chest aches and the inflammation often spreads to the lungs.

THE REMEDY FOR BRONCHIAL COUGHS, WEAK LUNGS ANN SORE CHEST IS

STUART'S LUNG BALSAM

It drives out the cold which is the root of the trouble, and checks the cough by aiding the healing process of the enfeebled membrane.

Preparations are being made for an initiation during the early part of February. Two contest teams have been selected and an exciting contest seems certain. The Basketball League continues to have its weekly games with the Rosebuds still leading. With their lineup greatly strengthened the Braves expect to show up strong in the race and will endeavor to displace the leaders. Mackin's Social Club held its holiday dance Tuesday night, when the largest attendance of the year was on hand and everybody went home well satisfied. Their next affair will be the "calico hop" on Tuesday night, January 12.

MUSICAL TREAT.

A musical treat is in store for all who will attend the grand popular concert which will be given in St. Columba's hall on Tuesday evening, January 5, at 8 o'clock. Among those taking part will be members of various Catholic choirs of the city and of the Concordia Singing Society, as well as a Students' Glee Club composed of Messrs. Henry Dugan, Bernard Sheridan and Clement Boster, of Indianapolis; Joseph Kempf, of Evansville; Thomas Lodge, of Iowa City, and James Maloney, August Fussenegger, cornetist, and Anthony Tompkins, pianist, of Louisville. Others to take part are the following:

Director—John P. Recktenwald.
Pianists—Mrs. Dave Malkemus, Miss Dora Schweitzer and Louis Fitzmayer.
Violinist—Lawrence Fitzmayer.
Sopranos—Mesdames Catherine Newman, G. A. Hulswede, T. J. Bennett, Lela Gunterman, Agnes Wilkerson; Misses Eva Becker, Stella Whitener, Berenita Bennett, Mattie Ament, Catherine Turney, Alma Kipp and Hilda Loew.

Bassos—Messrs. John Hodapp, Julius Schnurr, S. Wilkerson, F. J. Eshner, Harry Soete, Peter J. Hoffman, Louis P. Hoffman, William H. Fritsch and John Grusser.

PLEASANT SOCIAL.

New Albany Council, Knights of Columbus, gave a social entertainment Wednesday night in its hall, Vincennes and Oak streets, for its members and their lady friends. The programme was interesting and was greatly enjoyed by the many present.

MINISTER TO VATICAN.

Sir Henry Howard on Tuesday presented to Pope Benedict his credentials as British Minister to the Vatican. His course at Rome will be watched with world-wide interest.

FATHER KOENIG'S NERVE TONIC

Life Worth Living Again.
New Orleans, La., December, 1912.
Suffering from severe nervousness and sleeplessness, against which Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic has done more for me than doctors, because now I feel life worth living again. The Tonic is worth its weight in gold; the effect of it is excellent; it goes right to the right place to act. J. Riley, 34 Precinct Police Sta. Mrs. F. Holland writes from Fort Pierre, S. Dak., that she became so nervous from overwork that she often commenced to tremble; could scarcely walk across the room. Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic made a great improvement on my whole system and even on the appetite. Miss Delina Williams writes from Santa Fe, N. Mex., that the nervousness which troubled her so that she became dizzy, when walking fast, disappeared entirely after taking Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic and that she suffered no more since.

A Valuable Book on Nervous Diseases and a Sample bottle to any address. Poor patients also get the medicine free. Prepared by Rev. FATHER KOENIG, of Fort Wayne, Ind., since 1876, and now by the KOENIG MED. CO., Chicago, Ill. 62 W. Lake Street, near Dearborn

Sold by Druggists at $1 per bottle, 6 for $5. Large Size, $1.75; 6 Bottles for $9.

AMERICAN CHRONOLOGY.

Timely Record of Some Memorable Events in the Catholic History of America.

By James A. Rooney, LL. D.
January 4, 1894.—Death at Washington of Capt. Louis E. Fagan, U. S. M. C.; convert; served all through civil war and won frequent brevets for gallant service, particularly in night attack on Fort Sumpter in 1863 and at Fort Fisher in 1865; baptized a Catholic in 1872 in St. James church, Philadelphia.

January 5, 1838.—Jesuits opened St. Charles' College at Grand Coteau, La.; arrived at New Orleans on invitation of Bishop Anthony Blanc, January 22, 1837.

January 6, 1643.—Father Julien Garnier, Jesuit missionary in Canada, born in France; known as the apostle of the Senecas; first Jesuit to be ordained in Canada in 1668; died in Quebec in 1730.

January 7, 1806.—Roger Brooke Tanev, fifth Chief Justice of United States, married Anne Phoebe Charlton Key, sister of Francis Scott Key, author of the "Star Spangled Banner," whose daughter Ellen became a convert, and whose granddaughter joined the Sisters of the Sacred Heart.

January 8, 1892.—Death at Boston, aged seventy-three, after a ministry of forty-nine years, of Father William A. Blenkinsop, rector of the Church of Sts. Peter and Paul, South Boston, for twenty-eight years, whose early pastoral charge included a large part of the Connecticut Valley; ordained by Bishop Eccleston in 1845.

January 9, 1857.—The Right Rev. Frederic Baraga, Vicar Apostolic of Upper Michigan, appointed Bishop of Sault Sainte Marie and Marquette; born in Austria, June 28, 1797; ordained September 21, 1823; died January 19, 1868.

AFTER MANY YEARS.

Henry J. Metten rounded out a well spent life Tuesday when death claimed him, following an illness of bronchitis at the home of his sister, Mrs. B. Mueller, 907 Goss avenue. Born in Hanover, Germany, seventy-five years ago, he passed sixty years in Louisville, where he was engaged in the tinning business until his retirement. Mr. Metten was a pioneer member of Branch 6, Catholic Knights of America, St. Martin's Men's Society and the St. Vincent de Paul Society. The funeral services were held at St. Vincent de Paul's church Thursday morning, a long cortege following the remains to St. Michael's cemetery.

THE WRONG ALICE.

Louis Young vouches for the following mix-up: A certain street supervisor, who he calls Mack, is greatly smitten with a young lady, Alice by name, and on leaving her recently one evening requested that she call him over the phone next morning. After a hasty look at the phone directory the next morning the young lady calls a Mr. Mack (not her friend), and after a few queries about the weather, what he expected for Christmas, etc., all being answered in short monosyllabic or polite replies, finally the young lady said, "I don't believe you know this is Alice talking to you," and her listener then informed her she had the wrong Mr. Mack and the only Alice he knew was his colored cook. This broke up the conversation.

MILITARY SUITS.

Military suits are well adapted to young girls.

TRINITY'S INSTALLATION.

Trinity Council, Y. M. I., will install its new officers next Monday evening and at the same time elect a Treasurer, the member chosen at the recent election not being able to serve. The question of raising monthly dues and raising the death benefit will be decided at this meeting, this being the second reading of these by-law amendments. Following are the officers to be installed:

PRESIDENT V. K. ECKER.

President—V. K. Ecker.
First Vice President—B. Elder.
Second Vice President—Henry Dries.

Recording Secretary—Paul E. Bowling.
Corresponding Secretary—A. H. Diernst.
Financial Secretary—C. Edward Mueller.

Marshal—Ben Minsterketter.
Inside Sentinel—John L. Sullivan.
Outside Sentinel—Roger Glenn.
Executive Committee—James B. Kelly, A. G. Schneider, Alex. Kaiser, Frank Brismann, John L. Timmel.
Collector—Edward E. Kelly.
Council Deputy—William Goda.

KEHOE—MILES.

The Rev. Michael Halpin, pastor of St. Augustine's church, Jeffersonville, officiated at the marriage of Miss Estella M. Kehoe and Earl S. Miles at 6 o'clock Monday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Spring and Market streets. A number of relatives and friends were present. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. Kehoe. She is a graduate of Hanover College and until a week ago was a teacher in the Henryville schools. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert R. Miles, of Bethlehem, Ind. For some time the bridegroom has been living at Abingdon, Va., where he is county agricultural agent. He also is a graduate of Hanover College, and it was while the two were studying there that the romance began. They will reside at Abingdon.

CALIFORNIA IS MOURNING.

The Most Rev. Patrick William Riordan, Archbishop of San Francisco, died at his home in the Golden Gate city early Sunday. Archbishop Riordan contracted a severe cold five days before, which developed into pneumonia. The condition of the late prelate took a decided turn for the worse shortly after midnight Saturday. Stimulants were employed to sustain heart action, but he sank gradually until death occurred. Archbishop Riordan was born in New Brunswick in 1841, and was appointed head of the San Francisco diocese in 1884. Archbishop Riordan was the second Archbishop of San Francisco. He was born in August, 1841, at Chatham, New Brunswick, and spent his boyhood at Chicago. His education was received at the University of Notre Dame, Indiana. In 1864 he went to the University of Louvain in Belgium for two years further study. He came to Chicago in 1868 to fill the chair of the theology in the Seminary of St. Mary's of the Lake. Archbishop Riordan held pastorates at Woodstock, Ill., Joliet, Ill., and Chicago. On September 15, 1883, he was consecrated Titular Bishop of Cadesa and Coadjutor with the right of succession to the See of San Francisco, to which he was elevated December 28, 1884. The Archbishop was to have celebrated the golden jubilee of his priesthood in 1915, and arrangements were being made to observe the event when many visiting prelates would be in San Francisco to visit the exposition.

IMPROVING.

Rev. Father De Waegenaeer, pastor of St. Paul's church at Lexington, who for the past month has been confined to his bed at the Good Samaritan Hospital in Cincinnati as the result of a delicate operation, is improving and able to leave his room. His people in the Bluegrass capital are anxiously awaiting his return to their midst.
