Federal Inquiry or Railroad Strike?

Faced by demands from the conductors, engineers, firemen and brakemen that would impose on the country an additional burden in transportation costs of $100,000,000 a year, the railroads propose that this wage problem be settled by reference to an impartial Federal tribunal.

With these employes, whose efficient service is acknowledged, the railroads have no differences that could not be considered fairly and decided justly by such a public body.

Railroads Urge Public Inquiry and Arbitration

The formal proposal of the railroads to the employes for the settlement of the controversy is as follows:

Our conferences have demonstrated that we cannot harmonize our differences of opinion and that eventually the matters in controversy must be passed upon by other and disinterested agencies. Therefore, we propose that your proposals and the proposition of the railroads be disposed of by one or the other of the following methods:

Leaders Refuse Offer and Take Strike Vote

Leaders of the train service brotherhoods, at the joint conference held in New York, June 1-15, refused the offer of the railroads to submit the issue to arbitration or Federal review, and the employes are now voting on the question whether authority shall be given these leaders to declare a nation-wide strike.

The Interstate Commerce Commission is proposed by the railroads as the public body to which this issue ought to be referred for these reasons:

No other body with such an intimate knowledge of railroad conditions has such an unquestioned position in the public confidence. The rates the railroads may charge the public for transportation are now largely fixed by this Government board.

A Question For the Public to Decide

The railroads feel that they have no right to grant a wage preferment of $100,000,000 a year to these employes, now highly paid and constituting only one-fifth of all the employes, without a clear mandate from a public tribunal that shall determine the merits of the case after a review of all the facts.

The single issue before the country is whether this controversy is to be settled by an impartial Government inquiry or by industrial warfare.

HIBERNIANS.

What They Have Been Doing the Past Week—General News Notes.

Division 3 will meet next Monday evening. Frank Byrne is recovering from his recent injury. Division 2 of Syracuse is meeting with encouragement for its building. An athletic club has been organized by the council at Fond du Lac, Wis. The veteran Thomas Shelly was given the glad hand by all at the meeting of Division 1. Division 6 of Indianapolis has contributed $50 to the Friends of Irish Freedom relief fund. The Ancient Order was prominent in the Flag day exercises at Terre Haute. There were 30,000 people at the field day of the Philadelphia Hibernians. The meeting of Division 4 for July 10 has been postponed until the following date. The national convention meets in a time without parallel in all the history of mankind. The County Board held a short business session at its meeting Wednesday evening. Pittsburgh Hibernians have appropriated $3,000 to the St. Paul Orphan Asylum fund. The Indiana State convention will be held at South Bend the last three days in August. Ladies' Auxiliary 2 of Minneapolis initiated twenty new members at an enjoyable meeting last week. Calumet Council, of Chicago, suffered damage of $15,000 in the fire that took place in its building. One of the striking features of the Milwaukee Memorial day parade was the division the Hibernians occupied. National President McLaughlin makes a strong appeal for the widows and orphans of the Irish soldiery. At the recent initiation at Yonkers, N. Y., twenty-one new members were added to the ranks of Division 2. At Boston will be unveiled the curtain that now enshrouds the potent power of Irish public opinion in America. Both President Mark Ryan and the members were highly pleased with the proceedings at the meeting of Division 1. Slowly but surely former active Hibernians are drifting back into active participation in the work of their divisions. The membership contest of Division 2 of Syracuse is attracting interest, the prizes being $50 in gold and a gold watch. All the councils in Northern Michigan were represented at the initiation of a large class last Sunday at Escanaba. Denver Hibernians will celebrate the Fourth at Tolland. They will have field sports, mountain climbing, snowballing and trout fishing. Judge James E. Doery, of Indianapolis, State President, and Mrs. John Arthur will head a big delegation to the national convention. Lawrence Meaney and Dave Burke, of Division 4, have gone to Akron, Ohio, to accept employment with the Goodrich Tire Company. The Hibernians of Portland, Ore., held a public meeting Sunday night to raise funds for the sufferers in the recent uprising in Ireland. Father George Thompson presided and Archbishop Christie was one of the speakers. Councilman Tom Dolan's tardy appearance deprived the members of Division 1 of some of his Aldermanic and mother wit. His interest in the welfare of the order makes him exceedingly popular with all Hibernians. Upon the twenty-fifth anniversary of Division 4 of Philadelphia James McEliane, who has been President during all the years of its existence, was presented with a life-size portrait of himself, ex-Congressman Michael Donohoe making the address.

ROGER NOHALTY ARRESTED.

The West End was thrown into quite a panic last Saturday evening when it was learned that Roger Nohalty, the well known Democratic leader in that district, had been taken into custody by the police of the Fourth district. A delegation headed by Councilman Tom Dolan and Harry Leachman went to the station house and after quite a lengthy argument with Capt. Ed Palford as to allowing Mr. Nohalty out on bail, during which discussion the prisoner was getting his Irish up more and more as it developed that he had never learned why he had been arrested. Finally he was released and led to his own domicile, where he had a fish lunch and Dutch supper had been arranged in his honor, and the first one to greet him was the smiling Capt. Palford, who had beat him home.

SACRED HEART SCHOOL.

The Sacred Heart Graded and Commercial School, Seventeenth and Broadway, one of the best in the State, finished another most successful year with the end of last week. Dispensing with the extra time and work necessary for a commencement, thus enabling the pupils to work up to the last minute, the school closed with simple services immediately after the night of Sunday morning when the Rev. Father Walsh, the pastor, distributed the diplomas, medals and certificates. The church was thronged with friends of the pupils, who were impressed with the serene words of Father Walsh, whose interest in the welfare of the school and children has been unceasing.

CONDITION IMPROVING.

The Rev. Father Berresheim, pastor of Holy Trinity church, East Kentucky street, who has been ill at St. Anthony's Hospital for the past two weeks, is improving slowly but surely. Yesterday was his feast day, and the people of Holy Trinity were keenly disappointed over his inability to celebrate it with them.

Catholics were proud of the showing made by the Knights and other societies in the Flag day pageant under the auspices of the Elks. The Junior Order accepted the invitation an then refused to take part in the patriotic event.

BECOMING ENTHUSED.

Warm weather did not deter members of Division 1, A. O. H., from holding a pleasant and spirited meeting on Thursday of last week, the officers being encouraged by the presence of many of the old guard. The joy of the evening was enhanced by the report of the Visiting Committee that they had none on the sick list, and also the increase in the treasury, against which there were no claims. President Mark Ryan announced that the bills enacted by the last Legislature pertaining to fraternal insurance did not affect the Ancient Order. For the good of the order short addresses were made by Thomas Shelley, Martin Gavin, Thomas Cleary, William Cushing, Edward Glancy, Thomas Keenan, Daniel McCarthy and others. The division will not meet again until the fourth Thursday of this month.

EXCURSION.

The Catholic Knights of the city are busy making preparations for their big excursion to Jasper and Ferdinand, Ind., on Sunday, July 30. It will be under the auspices of the Central Committee, which has met with unflinching success for many years.
