AWFUL DEATH. John R. Blandford, thirty-eight years old and a well known switchman for the Louisville & Nashville railroad, met a terrible death Monday afternoon when his body was crushed between two freight cars in the yards at Highland Park.

LIKES OUR CITY. Elmer J. Fox, now general manager of the Superior Optical Company, speaks very well of Louisville and is well pleased with the manner in which the public has bestowed its patronage.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS. New Albany Council, Knights of Columbus, which has largely increased its membership, has elected the following officers for the next year: James A. Thornton, Grand Knight; Eugene Fenger, Deputy Grand Knight; Frank O'Brien, Chancellor; Alfred Dowd, Advocate; Anthony Zoeller, Financial Secretary; Andrew Stiersteadler, Recording Secretary; William J. Reaves, Treasurer; John Quinkert, Warden; Louis I. Vernia, Inside Guard; John A. Cody was elected Trustee for a term of three years, and Henry Keller was chosen Trustee to fill a vacancy.

COMES FOR BRIDE. The marriage ceremony of Dr. Edward J. Tracy and Miss Anna Williams was performed in St. Anthony's church, Jeffersonville, on Monday morning by the Rev. Omer Auer, many relatives and friends being present. The attendants were Miss Margaret Ford and Frank Williams, the latter a brother of the bride. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Tracy and is an internist in St. Elizabeth Hospital, Dayton, Ohio. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Williams. A wedding breakfast followed the marriage in the home of the bride's parents. Dr. Tracy and Mrs. Tracy left in the afternoon for Dayton.

ST. JOSEPH'S CHURCH. Tomorrow the St. Rose Society and the young ladies of St. Joseph's church, East Washington street, will celebrate their anniversary. At 7:30 in the morning there will be a church mass and general communion for the members, and at 2:30 in the afternoon solemn vespers, anniversary sermon and benediction. The Rev. B. A. Ellis, O. P., of St. Louis Bertrand's, will deliver the sermon.

AUTUMN FESTIVAL. Next Tuesday the autumn festival and chicken supper to be given by St. Edward's church, Jeffersontown, should attract many from the city to Bauer's Park on the Taylorsville road. For weeks Father Revermann and his people have been busy preparing for this festival, which should prove one of the best of the season. And the supper be more than a feast.

ECKER BOOSTERS. A V. K. Ecker club has been organized in the East End to boom the chances of Vic Ecker, Democratic nominee for Councilman, and the entire Democratic ticket. Vic is especially popular with the younger element of Democracy and his friends predict that he will be given a banner vote in November, and at the same time bring great strength to the ticket.

HAVE WORKED HARD. The young ladies of St. Boniface congregation have been doing some real hard work and will present an elaborate entertainment in St. Boniface Hall next Wednesday and Thursday. They have arranged some very novel features and promise their friends an evening of enjoyment.

RECENT DEATHS. Monday the final summons came to Anna May Fravert, beloved wife of Fred Fravert, at her home, 632 East Walnut street, whose wide circle of friends were grieved to learn of her death. Her funeral was held Wednesday morning from St. John's church, Rev. Father Schumann conducting the solemn services.

Mrs. Anna Catherine Clear, forty-two years old, wife of John P. Clear, 251 1/2 Cedar street, died Monday afternoon from a complication of diseases. She is survived by four sisters and two brothers. Funeral services were held Wednesday morning at St. Charles church, of which she was a most highly esteemed member.

All for more than a year, Miss Mary Frances McCreedy, aged eighteen, was released from earthly suffering Saturday morning at the home of her mother, Mrs. Michael McCarthy, 526 North Eighteenth street. She was a girl of exemplary character and her death brought grief to many friends. Funeral services were held Monday morning at St. Patrick's church.

George Schaefer, sixty-four years old, a respected member of St. Martin's church, was found dead Sunday morning in a chair in front of his home, the result of a heart attack. He is survived by two sons, George and Harry Schaefer; three daughters, Miss Katie Schaefer, Mrs. Elliott Sheehan and Mrs. Frank Kohler and two brothers and a sister. The funeral took place Tuesday morning with requiem high mass.

Adam Emmetsberger, sixty-two years old and long a conspicuous figure in Louisville Catholic and musical circles, was called into eternal rest Sunday morning, following an illness of only a few days. For a number of years past he had been engaged in the stock brokerage business and enjoyed the confidence and respect of all with whom he had dealings. Of a genial and happy disposition and always ready to help in charity work, he will be missed among his friends and associates. Surviving him are his widow, Mrs. Catherine Kelley Emmetsberger; three sons, Frank, Thomas and Adam Emmetsberger, and a daughter, Mrs. Mary E. Bohlen. The funeral and solemn requiem high mass took place Tuesday morning at St. James church, attended by people from all sections of the city and county.

RECTORY DAMAGED. While engaged in the church of St. Mary Magdalene last Friday afternoon a blaze was discovered in the rectory of Rev. Father William Gausephol, the pastor, at Brook and College street. The fire was soon extinguished, but not before considerable damage had been done.

TAKES LOUISVILLE BRIDE. The marriage of Miss Virginia Patricia Ahearn to John Stephen Quirke, of Brooklyn, N. Y., was solemnized Wednesday morning of last week at Holy Name church by Rev. Father J. T. O'Connor. After the ceremony breakfast was served at the home of the bride, Miss Lillian C. Keating, aunt of the bride, was maid of honor, and Edward F. Quirke, of Brooklyn, was his brother's best man. The bride wore a gown of ivory satin and tulle veil and carried a shower bouquet of Killarney roses. The maid of honor wore a gown of peach crepe meteor and carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses. Upon their return from a short wedding journey, Mr. and Mrs. Quirke will spend ten days with the bride's mother, then will leave for Brooklyn to make their home.

JEFFERSONVILLE. Mrs. Mary Constantine and daughter, Miss Lillie Constantine, Walnut street, Jeffersonville, have gone to Atlanta, Ga., to visit Mrs. Edward Shultz, another daughter of Mrs. Constantine.

Miss Mary Marra, East Court avenue, who was visiting in Chicago, has returned. Miss Daisy Belle Kehoe has returned from Indianapolis and Cincinnati, where she visited. Miss Mary Conroy, Spring street, Jeffersonville, who was the guest of relatives at Columbus, Ohio, has returned. Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Duffy, of Dallas, Tex., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Randall Shannon, Rosedale.

PORTLAND CARNIVAL. The Portland Civic Club announces its first fall carnival, to take place September 24-26. The show will be held on the lot at Twenty-sixth and Alford, where for the past two years the club has had its war garden. As the admission will be free, everything points to the largest crowd ever gotten together in Portland. A vote will be given everyone attending with a chance on high class merchandise worth $150. A band of ten pieces, community singing and numerous other features will provide a good time for all present. The club embraces the most progressive men in the Portland section of the city.

WEDDING JUBILEE. Henry Walter, Jr., and his estimable wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Gebhart Walter, last Saturday celebrated their silver wedding anniversary, when congratulations were received from friends all over the city. The religious celebration and jubilee mass were held in St. Vincent de Paul's church, followed by a reception and festivities in the home, 704 East St. Catherine street. The worthy couple were married September 11, 1894, in St. Martin's church. Three of the ushers at the wedding were guests of the celebrants.

DANCE PARTY. Miss Dorothy Sullivan gave an informal dance party Friday evening at her home on Longest avenue. Those present were Misses Mary Louise Webb, Ambie Kelly, Lucy Anslie, Susie Brooks, Louise Pilcher and Alice Hopkins; Messrs. Robert McDevitt, William Henry Harrison, John Ed Slaughter, Winston Kratz, Charles Boden, Sam Boden and Keith Spears.

DEFIES BRITISH BULLETS. Arthur S. Griffiths, acting President of the Irish Republic, speaking at a Sinn Fein meeting in Dublin Friday night, said he did not care a rap for the Government proclamation of Sinn Fein and since the people had elected him and the other members of the Government to office, falls, bullets and bayonets would not prevent them from carrying out their trust.

CASEY'S COUSIN. Manager Pat Moran, who has succeeded in guiding the Cincinnati Reds to the National League championship, is a first cousin of John M. Casey, of Shelbyville, who had two sons with the A. E. F. in France.

MUSICALES FOR SOLDIERS. Miss Rose C. Henley and ten of her girl pupils gave a most pleasing musical entertainment Sunday evening in the open amphitheater at Camp Knox for the soldiers of the artillery regiments stationed there. The arrangements were made by Chaplains Lemon and Baird.
