FATHER O'CONNELL

With the passing of the Rev. Dean Cornelius J. O'Connell the Louisville diocese and State of Kentucky suffers a distinct loss.

IRELAND AND BELGIUM

During the war, and remember it was war time, indignation was widespread over the stories that the German army was deporting Belgians and locking up citizens without charges.

BOYCOTT NECESSARY

The stories of the rapid fire divorces and remarriages of Mary Pickford, Douglas Fairbanks, Owen Moore, Charles Chaplin and others of the moving picture world is pretty disgusting to the average man and woman.

LITTLE EFFECT

Agitation against the high cost of living still continues, but apparently it has little effect. Various schemes are proposed to bring down prices of commodities.

SECRET TREATY

A correspondent now reports that Turkey and Great Britain entered into a secret treaty a year ago without the knowledge or consent of other powers.

SHOCKS EVEN ENGLISH

It was a shock to pro-British newspapers in this country which have monopolized the task of approving Lloyd George's, or rather Sir Edward Carson's, current home rule measure.

and impractical scheme and the greatest travesty of self-government ever offered a nation.

MONEY CANDIDATES

The Steel Trust is putting up a big campaign fund to advance the cause of Republican candidate Wood because of the latter's militaristic tendencies.

MISS MARtha SANDERS

The instructor of "home distic" classes at the Red Cross teaching center, 642 Fourth street, Miss Martha Sanders, is highly qualified as a teacher, being a graduate of the course in two institutions, Purdie College and the State Normal School of Danville, Ind.

PEOPLE MUST DECIDE

The adoption of the prohibition amendment to the Constitution has not removed the question from the sphere of politics.

LADIES SERVE SUPPER

The Ladies of Holy Trinity church, St. Matthews, will serve an elaborate supper at the church next Wednesday evening.
