The Easiest Way To Make a Fortune

THE REGULAR, PERSISTENT INVESTMENT of small sums is, after all, not only the most certain, but the easiest way to gain an income-paying fortune.

OUR INTERESTING LITERATURE tells how and why. Free on request.

NO FEDERAL INCOME TAXES are paid on our 7 per cent. Preferred Stock by the investor whose net income does not exceed $5,000 a year. There are no City, County or State taxes on the Preferred Stock when it is owned by residents in Kentucky.

BUT THE CAPITALIST with a large income must pay the Federal Income SURTAXES which materially reduce his net dividend yield.

THIS IS ONE OF THE REASONS WHY the investment merits of our 7 per cent. Preferred Stock appeal particularly to the small and medium-size investor.

THERE ARE NOW APPROXIMATELY 3,500 home investors interested in the Louisville Gas & Electric Company. We want to add 1,500 new Preferred Stockholders by 1922. Let us place your name on our ownership lists

RECENT DEATHS.

Monday morning funeral services for Mrs. Ellen E. Smith, wife of Edgar Smith, 135 West Market street, were held at St. Michael's church. Besides her husband she is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Louis Joseph, and two sons, Walter and Joseph Smith.

In the death on Tuesday of Mrs. Mary Cunningham, beloved wife of Patrick J. Cunningham and mother of Mayme and J. J. Cunningham, 531 North Twenty-first street, St. Patrick's parish loses another of its respected members. Funeral services were held Thursday morning.

News of the death of Miss Cecelia McManaman on Saturday evening at St. Joseph's Infirmary caused inexpressible grief to her many friends. Her funeral took place from the residence of her sister, Mrs. Nellie Ewing, 105 North Bayly avenue, with the last solemn rites at the Cathedral.

News has just been received here of the death of Mrs. Nancy Joyce in the County of Galway, Ireland. Mrs. Joyce is the mother of Mrs. Robert Seaton, Mrs. William Hennessey, of this city, and Mrs. Robert Lutz and Martin Joyce, of Indianapolis, and the sympathy of many friends is extended to them in their hour of bereavement.

Funeral services were held Monday morning at St. Francis of Rome church over the remains of Mrs. Margaret A. Caplinger, widow of William F. Caplinger and long a resident of this city. She was sixty-seven years old and resided at 240 South Bayly avenue, and surviving her are seven daughters and a son. Rev. Father John Riley was the celebrant of the requiem mass.

The funeral of Charles J. Cochran, a veteran of the civil war, who died at Sandusky, Ohio, took place Monday morning from St. John's church. Besides his widow, Mrs. Ella McCarthy Cochran, 814 East Ormsby avenue, he is survived by two sons, John and William Cochran, and four daughters, Mrs. E. K. Fleming, Mrs. William Teel, Mrs. David Frazier and Miss Virginia Cochran.

TWIN CITY LEAGUE.

Trinity and the K. of C. club staged a "thriller" in the Twin City Baseball League Sunday afternoon at Shawnee Park. Rudy Summers and Elwood Harper, the rival twirlers, being on edge and hits were scarce as hen's teeth. Summers struck out ten men and refused to let the K. of C. sluggers hit the ball when it counted. Trinity winning by a score of 4 to 1. Macklin went into second place by beating DeLisle, and the St. Xavier Champs won out against the Knights of St. John. Tomorrow's games will be the drawing card of the season. Trinity meeting Macklin, the closest competitor for first honors, and the K. of C. meeting St. X. for second honors, while a battle royal is on tap between DeLisle and Knights of St. John as to who will get out of the cellar position.

TRIBUTES WELCOME.

Tributes to the Knights of Columbus for their patriotic services in peace and war are welcome testimonials of the brand of Americanism that the Catholic Church produces.
