THE VERDICT.

GUILTY!

Jury of Louisville Citizens

Seussy-Chilton organ and Missouri music sheet condemned for inciting religious prejudice.

IRELAND

Lloyd George and Sir James Craig Fail to Settle Any Business

Poor Negotiators are Adjudged to Meet Again Under Oath

Members of Ulster Cabinet Are Summoned for Meeting in London

SUCCESS OR FAILURE IS YET UNDECIDED

Further developments of the plans derived by the Government and the Sinn Fein leaders for the settlement of the crisis was announced yesterday by the war minister, Sir Edward Carson, and the minister for local government, Sir Edward Carson, in no uncertain terms. The Sinn Fein leaders have been informed that the Government will not consider any proposals for the settlement of the crisis until the Sinn Fein leaders are prepared to accept the proposals of the Government.

AROUND THE BULLETIN

Calling on all E. of C. believers and believers of other denominations to join the movement for the return of the Catholic Church to the Roman Catholic Church.

MAYOR WILSON

Masonic Funeral service at the Church of the Holy Trinity in New York City.

Wholesale wine and spirits are offered to the public at a discount of 10 per cent.

DEATH AT B.A.D.

Tragedy occurred when Thursday morning when a man, known as John Smith, was found dead in his room. The man had been missing for several days and was last seen in the company of a woman, who was suspected of being his wife. The man was found in a pool of blood and was pronounced dead upon arrival at the hospital.

OAK'S DECISION

The Oak's Tavern is now under the management of George Oak, who has recently reopened the establishment.

REMEMBER A SUCCESS

The success of the Oak's Tavern is now under the management of George Oak, who has recently reopened the establishment.

BISHOP

Makes Pleas for Irish Partition, to Be made Obedient to the Rule of His Head

Hopes to the Declaration of Irish partition to be made Obedient to the Rule of His Head

DRASTIC MEASURES

The Minister for Home Affairs, Mr. J. A. Deane, has issued a proclamation declaring a state of emergency in the territory.

SIR JOHN HICKS

A statement made by Sir John Hicks, the Home Secretary, last week, that the Government was prepared to use force if necessary, has been condemned by Mr. J. A. Deane, who has stated that the Government will not use force unless absolutely necessary.

In-Service

The Minister for Home Affairs, Mr. J. A. Deane, has issued a proclamation declaring a state of emergency in the territory.

On Monday night Mr. J. A. Deane, the Home Secretary, was present at a meeting of the Executive Council of the Nationalists, at which the following resolution was passed: "We hereby declare a state of emergency in the country and request the Government to take all necessary steps to maintain peace and order." The resolution was seconded by Mr. J. A. Deane and was carried by a large majority.

EASTERN MINE

The owner of the Eastern Mine, Mr. J. A. Deane, has issued a statement in which he expressed his regret at the occurrence of the disaster and his determination to do all in his power to assist the mining community.

FRIDAY NIGHT

At the Victoria Hotel, opposite the railway station, Mr. J. A. Deane, the Home Secretary, was present at a meeting of the Executive Council of the Nationalists, at which the following resolution was passed: "We hereby declare a state of emergency in the country and request the Government to take all necessary steps to maintain peace and order." The resolution was seconded by Mr. J. A. Deane and was carried by a large majority.