Postponed a Few Days.
Sheriff Sanders has been so busy in court this week that it was impossible to get the sale for taxes made out. This gives the delinquents a few days more in which to settle. The list will probably be ready by next issue of THE RECORD.

Old Ulimas Dead.
Ulimas, the fine stallion formerly owned by Mr. M. T. Warren, of Eaton, Pa., but lately the property of R. M. West died this week of cholera. Ulimas was an extra fine animal and had few equals. He was the last son of Hamiltonian 10.

Distillery Starts.
The pilgrimage distillery started up a few days ago, making about ten barrels of whisky per day. This is one of the largest, as well as best plants in this section, and its manager, Col. J. W. Miller, and distiller, Cal Nevius, are up to date in their respective positions.

Granted a Divorce.
Mrs. Emily Bristow was granted a divorce from Frank L. Bristow, at Covington. Mr. Bristow relinquishes all claims for dowerage, and Prof. Bristow is to pay $25 per month for the care of his daughter, who will be in custody of her mother. Bristow is the proprietor of Fallades at High Bridge.

Acquitted.
Wm. Wrenn, the first man to be indicted in Kentucky under the anti-mob law, was acquitted in the circuit court Tuesday on the charge of raiding a gate on the Richmond pike last winter. Wrenn has another indictment against him for shooting at the gatekeeper, but it was put off until next court.

Splendid Mail Service.
Lancaster never had as excellent mail service as it has today. The night trains bring mail from the cities written that day, and it frequently happens that Chicago letters are delivered here the next morning after they are dated. The patrons of the post office are delighted with this arrangement and will see that it is kept on.

Moved to Covington.
Mr. George R. Hardin and family left Monday night for Covington, where they will make their home in the future. Our people dislike to lose this excellent family, as their sterling business and social qualities had endeared them to all. Mrs. Hardin was engaged in the millinery business here for a number of years, and by her close attention to the wants of her patrons, and honest dealings, built up a splendid trade. THE RECORD wishes them much happiness and prosperity in their new home.

Interesting Revival.
The meeting commenced at the Methodist church Sunday is proving to be very interesting and large crowds are attending. Services are held every night and afternoon. Morrison is a preacher of extraordinary ability, and his sermons are highly complimented. Those of our people who have not heard him should avail themselves of the opportunity. Rev. Morrison has plenty of material to work on here in Lancaster, and we hope he will succeed in turning many from the error of their way.

The new type recently purchased has arrived and is in our office, but it takes some time to "lay" it in the cases. The attachments for the big news press have been put on, as the good impression of this issue goes to show.

Pettus-McCarley.
The marriage of Mr. Joe Pettus, of Lebanon, and Miss Maggie McCarley was solemnized yesterday afternoon at the home of the brides parents Mr. and Mrs. James McCarley. The groom is engaged in business in Lebanon and is a prosperous and popular young gentleman. The bride is one of Garrard's most popular and accomplished young ladies. Immediately after the ceremony they left for the home of the groom. THE RECORD joins many admirers in extending congratulations.

Beautiful.
A RECORD man took a saunter around town Saturday afternoon and was amazed at the large and exceedingly fine stocks of holiday goods our merchants have on display. We have never seen so brilliant array as has been brought this season. Lancaster people have the reputation of buying the best to be had, and if they can't get this they simply do without. Nearly every store in town has been put in extra fine shape, and those having special bargains announce that fact through the columns of THE RECORD.

Badly Hung.
The jury in the case against William McCoy, charged with killing his father-in-law, Whitehead, could not agree on a verdict and it is believed they were the worst "hung" lot that ever tried a case. Three were for hanging, two for acquittal, three for life and the others ranged anywhere from ten to twenty years. A juror told us they might have staid in the room six months, and would not have come any closer together. Judge Sauley discharged them and McCoy was taken back to jail to wait 'till next term of court when he will be tried again.

Kay Peas, go to the lodge tonight. You are wanted.

An excellent letter from Preachersville arrived too late for publication.

From my home on Danville street, black sow, just weaned pigs. J. W. Sweeney.

The grand jury returned fourteen indictments Wednesday morning. They were all for misdemeanors.

The Masonic Lodge meets Monday night, and it is hoped as many members as can conveniently so will be present.

Only a few small Commonwealth's cases were tried in the Circuit Court this week, though the civil docket was greatly reduced.

Dolls, toys and everything in that line. Bring the children to see them. If you don't see what you want, call for it. At Thompson's.

Be sure to visit our store at night, when you get the 2,000 candle power electric light, which makes the room lighter than day. Thompson, the Jeweler.

Died in Texas.
News was received here Wednesday of the death of Ed Walker, son of Mr. Steve Walker, in Texas. We learn this morning the remains will be brought to Kentucky for interment.

Gets Two Years.
The negro, Jim Rothwell, who was arrested for breaking into Frank Lackey's store, had his trial this week and given two years in the pen. Rothwell went into Lackey's bedroom and stole money from under the latter's head while he snored away.

Still Improving.
The Cincinnati Conservatory of Music, which is by far the best institution of its character in the south, or outside of New York City, continues to add to its splendid facilities. The Commercial Tribune says: "Miss Rose C. Gores, a clever little Cincinnati woman, recently returned from a six years' course of study in Berlin at the Royal High School of Music, has been added to the faculty of the Conservatory of Music. Miss Gores will deliver a series of lectures on musical history, the first to be given in Recital Hall, December 1, at 5 o'clock. Study-ing under Spitta, the great authority on Bach and Hans Mueller, Miss Gores is undoubtedly constituted to render good service in the branch to which she is assigned."

A report has gained circulation to that Dr. Acton will locate at Hiattsville. We are glad to say this is a mistake and the doctor will remain in Lancaster.

We understand the Christian Sunday School will have a Christmas celebration during the holidays. A miniature Ferris wheel is talked of.

Our letter from Stone last week has never reached this office yet. As there are only two rehandlings of the mail from this point we are at a loss to know what became of it.

The veteran typo, Capt. E. J. White has been confined to his room this week by slight illness. We are exceedingly glad to say there is nothing seriously the matter with our old friend, who is the mainspring of this office.

Society Organized.
Quite a number of young girls and married ladies met with Misses Nell Marrs and Oracie Kinnaird Wednesday afternoon and organized a "Social club". The club meets once a week with the different members and the hostess of each week will be president for that time. The next meeting will be held with Miss Mae Hughes Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Ready for business.
Dolph Rice has moved into the handsome new stable just completed at Danville, and is thoroughly equipped for feeding, hitching and furnishing first-class livery. Swell Landau for weddings, a specialty. Ask for the Rice Stable when you go to Danville and you will be given the best and your patronage appreciated. tf

Here's Genuine Friendship.
Ellsworth, Kas. 12-7-98.
Dear Louise—Realizing that it takes something more substantial than wind to run a newspaper, I inclose a small token of my appreciation of your journalistic proclivities, and hope you may continue to publish the best paper in Central Kentucky.

Fraternally Yours,
J. R. Torrey.

Competitive Examination.
On Saturday, Dec. 17, at the office of the County Superintendent, an examination will be held for teachers who desire an appointment to the Normal Department at State College. This is a competitive examination and is therefore open to all teachers. Four appointments are to be made and those teachers obtaining the highest average in Arithmetic, U. S. History, English Grammar and Geography will be entitled to the appointment.
