Fall Fashions,

After they had tumbled to the fact that they were somewhat in need of a Cloak. Their primitive garments were made of fig leaves, but you don't want to take a leaf out of their fashion book. Those fall styles are somewhat old and out of date, so you had better come in and see our new styles.

With your permission, we appoint you a committee of one to ascertain where you can make your Cloak and Cape purchases with best advantage to yourself. We freely believe that if you investigate the subject thoroughly you will buy here. That is why we suggest the idea to you. We admit our motive is a selfish one, for we expect to get your trade, but if you can profit by taking our advice you will doubtless pay little attention to the motive which prompts us to offer it. Look where you will, get as many prices and facts as you can, and then come to us. It will not be difficult for us to convince you that here is the place for you to buy, and we will save you from 15 to 25 per cent.

Pate de foie gras, truffles, too; Terrapin, duck, champagne—The man of millions sits and views, And he sighs; but alas! in vain. He thinks of the Thanksgiving turkey, And again, in his mental gaze He's a lad at the farmhouse dinner, Back in his boyhood days. —[Jean C. Haves

Robt. Underwood has opened a first-class grocery store adjoining Marksbury's granary. All kinds of produce bought at highest price. New goods, low prices.

The windows of the court house have been overhauled and put in repair. They were badly in need of this. A stitch in time saves making an entire garment.

The local telephone wires have been undergoing much improvement lately. A. B. Maple, of Harrodsburg, has been doing the work, which is pronounced first-class.

Notwithstanding the disagreeable weather, a fair crowd came in Monday. Business was pretty good with the merchants and trading fairly good. About 150 to 175 cattle on market. Butcher stuff brought 5cets, yearlings 3 1/2 to 3 3/4, mules $7.50 to $115. Not much demand for horses.

For Sale. Mammoth Bronze Turkeys, fine ones, toms $2.00 hens $1.25. Mrs. G. T. Higginbotham, Marcellus, Ky.

The National Museum of anatomy will exhibit in the Gaines store room, commencing Thursday night, Nov. 29 to Dec. 1st. Admission 25cets. Age limit 17 unless with parent or guardian.

By some hook or crook, no papers came on Saturday night's train, and aside from the Bible, our people had no reading Sunday. Its needless to say few injured their eyesight that day.

Coal and Feed. Best coal always on hand, also a cheaper grade, for those who prefer quantity to quality, yet a good cheap coal. Ship stuff, shelled oats, Hay, etc., at Leavell's Mill.

Lost. On Lexington pike, between town and Marksbury, a shopping bag containing a pair of glasses, and a few other articles. Finder will please leave at this office and get reward.

Mr. J. W. Elmore bought of Misses Lucy and Jennie Arnold the residence on Danville street for $1,505. Mr. Elmore will move to town and occupy the property. He's a good man, and THE RECORD welcomes him to our midst.

Business Men's Jubilee. Miss Dove B. Harris is making arrangements to give a "Business Men's Jubilee," at the Opera House Dec. 14. The principal characters will be taken by young ladies of Lancaster. Full particulars next issue.

A Candy Kitchen. D. C. Payne, of Crab Orchard, was here again last week looking for a store room, with the view of opening a candy kitchen. Mr. Payne is an expert at the business, and could make it pay in Lancaster.

The Light Fantastic. As we go to press, a hop is being given at the Mason hotel in honor of Miss Burnside's lady visitors. The young men are talking of giving a big hop in Sweeney's storeroom, Christmas, with music by Saxton.

Card of Thanks. We take this method of thanking the many kind friends who rendered so valuable assistance during our recent bereavement. We will ever remember your kind acts.
Mrs. T. T. Pollard and family.

Business For Sale. Having made arrangements to engage in other business, will sell my entire stock of General Merchandise, storehouse and dwelling at cost. Anyone wishing a good bargain can secure one here.
C. C. Becker, Bryantsville.

Card of Thanks. We again ask space in THE RECORD to extend our heartfelt thanks to the kind friends for their assistance during our latest bereavement. We will ever remember those who helped us by their kind words and deeds.
J. T. Leavell and family.

Foot Ball Today. The local foot ball team, which, by the way, has never been defeated, will tackle the Central University team of Richmond this afternoon at 2 o'clock, at Dr. Herring's field. A rattling game will be played, as both teams are good ones. Admission 25 cts. kids 15c.

A Good Crop. One of the finest crops of corn raised in the county was that of Monroe and Turner Floyd, colored men, near Bryantville. Mr. C. A. Robinson, who bought it, tells THE RECORD he has never seen a more carefully attended or better crop. He bought 100 barrels at $1.85.

Communion. Rev. Horace Turner, of Richmond, will preach at the Methodist church, Saturday evening at 7 o'clock, and Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. The sacrament of the Lord's supper, at Sunday morning service. Quarterly conference in connection with Saturday night service.

Printer Turns Farmer. Mr. T. Curry advertised an "Alderney" calf in last issue of THE RECORD but Frank Pumphrey, of this office, turned farmer and concluded Mr. Curry didn't know anything about calves, so set it in type an "albany" calf. Mr. Curry has had many inquiries as to the new breed of stock.

All weekly payments to the Lancaster Building and Loan Association must be made by Saturday or Saturday night of each week, or a fine of five cents per share. We cannot receive payments on Monday for the Saturday previous without charging the penalty.
Respectfully,
J. C. Hemphill, Secy.

Thanksgiving Services. The Thanksgiving services today will be held at the Christian church. Rev. Mr. Woolford, of the Baptist church, will preach the sermon. The music will be made a feature of the service. The people should attend this service and show that they are thankful for some of their many blessings.

Information Wanted. Henry Malengren, writing from Huston, Texas, asks for information regarding some people named Croit. He says between 1830 and 1835, Daniel P. Croit came to Kentucky, married and went to Texas. He left three sisters here, Mary, Harriet and Emily. He has valuable information for any of these parties.

Good Citizen Leaves. Mr. John C. Burdett and family, left last week for Bainbridge, Indiana, where they will reside in the future. We regret to see Mr. Burdett leave, as he is one of our best citizens. He is a hard-working, honest man, one that is a benefit to any community. THE RECORD bespeaks for him great success in his new home.

Enormous Assessment. The State Railroad Commission met last week and increased the assessment on the Rowland branch of the L. & N., to five thousand dollars per mile. Had they put the value of the entire branch at this figure, it would come nearer covering the case. Railroads in Kentucky stand about as much show as a snowball in perdition.

Didn't Sell. Mr. S. A. Wortham came over from Stanford Monday to sell the property advertised in THE RECORD. The weather was so bad that few people came up when the property was offered, and the highest bid was $860. Mr. Wortham took the place down and did not sell. He will sell it privately now, and anyone wanting a desirable piece of property will do well to write him at Stanford.

What to Give. The trouble around Christmas time is to know what to give, and if the present is not to be bought, how to make it. The Delineator for December is full of Christmas suggestions. Several pages are devoted to holiday fancy work with illustrations, also to the latest designs in crocheting, drawn work, and modern lace making. Puddings, cakes and Christmas candies likewise come in for attention in the December Delineator.

Meeting Closed. After a very successful week's meeting at the Christian church, Elder Allen R. Moore, the pastor, concluded to close until this (Wednesday) evening, when, all things favorable, he will resume his preaching every night 'til end of the week. There was much good done in the church and his sermons greatly enjoyed by the people. Mr. Moore is not only a splendid preacher, but an exceedingly good man and christian gentleman.

Come and See. THE RECORD never blows about its circulation, but we would like for our advertisers to drop in the office and look over our lists of bona fide subscribers. You will be surprised at the number of names. The quality of the people is something of which we are very proud. We don't want the rag-tag and bobtail element, at any price, and there are none of that class taking the paper. Our books are always open to inspection by patrons of the office.

Baking in Shiekles. Mr. E. C. Walton, of the Stanford Interior Journal, was here Monday in the interest of his paper. Since mounting the editorial tripod, he is kept much busier than before, but says he takes time to attend the courts. He has been doing outside work for the Interior for nearly twenty years and knows more people than any man in this section of the state. By the way, he is keeping the Interior right up to its high mark of excellence. If there was ever a fellow who deserved success, it's Ed Walton, and that his fondest hopes may be fully realized is our earnest prayer.

281 From 1 to 500. That might be a riddle or an invitation to a church fair, but it isn't. It's a concise way of calling public attention to the fact that The Royal Tailors, of Chicago, have authorized us to reduce prices on 281 Fall and Winter Patterns all the way from $1 to 85 per suit—and we've done it! Our prices on this high grade tailoring were very low before, but now they afford absolutely the best investment a man ever made in the way of dress. Come and see these patterns; we have them all; costs you nothing to look and but little to buy—and our guarantee is your safety-valve. [And here's a friendly tip: They won't last always.] J. C. Hemphill.

The Contest to Night. All arrangements have been completed for the Contest to night. The speakers are in fine trim, and one of the most stubborn contests is expected. Friends of the various county schools will be on hand to root for their representative, and a big crowd will fill the Opera House. Reserved seats are on sale at McRoberts' Drug Store, and a great many have been sold. Secure a seat, or you may have to stand.

Circuit Court. The November term of the Garrard Circuit Court convened Monday with Judge M. C. Sautley on the bench. The judge charged the grand jury with their duties, and in his usual clear manner called their attention to the many evils which they can to a great extent put a stop to. The following is the GRAND JURY. C. W. Anderson, E. W. Morrow, Chas Poindexter, J. A. Doty, M. G. Aldridge, John King, J. F. Gallaher, D. M. Lackey, John Flowers, George Robinson, M. F. Route, T. B. Robinson, foreman.

PETIT JURY. Ike Arnold, H. A. B. Marksbury, W. B. Jarvis, G. S. Greenleaf, John Eason, W. L. Lawson, A. B. Brown, Jr., J. R. Henry, J. W. Boyston, D. S. Lane, T. E. Adams, O. J. Hendron.

The Commonwealth docket was first taken up and many little 2x4 cases disposed of. Harve Robinson, a one-eyed descendant of Ham, was fined $50 and sent to jail 30 days for carrying a pistol.

Commonwealth's attorney, John S. Owsley, is attending court, performing his duties without fear or favor. Sam is all right, and can count on many warm friends here.

Among the visiting attorneys are Hon's. Robt. Harding, of Danville and R. C. Warren, of Stanford. They are both very popular in Garrard and get much to do in this court.

The smiling countenance of Keg Mason is quite familiar behind the clerks desk.

The case of Rouse against Wallace was on trial yesterday.

Less Green was acquitted in three cases on the charge of selling liquor.
