

The Central Record.

ELVENTH YEAR.

Entered at the Post Office in Lancaster, Ky., as Second Class Matter.

NUMBER 37

LOUIS LANDRAM, Publisher.

LANCASTER, KY., THURSDAY AFTERNOON, DECEMBER 13, 1900.

ONE DOLLAR A YEAR

Court Day Dinner.

The ladies of the Baptist church will serve an elegant dinner in the Gaines store room next county court day. For the small sum of a quarter they will give you a good, square meal. This money goes toward paying for the parsonage. Help 'em along. tf

Gen. Collier a Candidate.

THE RECORD asked Gen. D. R. Collier if there was any truth in the report that he would be a candidate for the state senate. He said that many of his friends had prevailed upon him to make the race, and he had concluded to do so. He will go into the fight to win. No one is more widely known or more popular in the district than Gen. Collier, nor has anyone done more hard work for the republican party.

Nothing in Anything.

Lawyers say there is nothing in their profession any more. Doctors say there is nothing in theirs. Grocers, dry goods merchants, hardware dealers, harness makers, shoe makers, chinaware dealers, clothiers, hotel men, druggists, livery men, furniture dealers, declare there is nothing in their business. There seems to be no profit in anything, says an exchange. It is up to the preachers and editors, and blessed are they who expect nothing for verily that's what is coming to them.

Wined and Dined.

The Red Men, of Stanford, put the big pot in the little one last night by giving one of the swellest banquets of the season. Members were present from many neighboring towns, and good cheer and oratory reigned supreme till the early hours of this morning. Those who attended from Lancaster lodge were G. B. Swinebroad, Wes Zanone, Dr. Kimair, Bob Davidson, Dr. Wesley, Ed Perkins, Geo. Smith, Will Collier, Ed Ross, Will Hamilton, J. N. Vanhook, Will Hill, Swartz Bishop, J. D. Baker and Mack Petty.

281 From 1 to 5.00.

That might be a riddle or an invitation to a church fair, but it isn't. It's a concise way of calling public attention to the fact that The Royal Tailors, of Chicago, have authorized us to reduce prices on 281 Fall and Winter Patterns all the way from $1 to $5 per suit—and we've done it! Our prices on this high grade tailoring were very low before, but now they afford absolutely the best investment a man ever made in the way of dress. Come and see these patterns; we have them all; costs you nothing to look and but little to buy—and our guarantee is your safety-valve.

[And here's a friendly tip: They went last always.] J. C. Hemphill.

Fresh oysters at T. Curry's.

A $15,000 stock at cost at Logan & Robinson's.

Surrey and buggy curtains put on at Conn's Carriage Shop.

Mr. J. Tom Palmer has rented the Stormes barn in this city, and will buy tobacco in this section.

We have a few winter buggy robes left they go at a sacrifice. W. J. Romans.

We can save you money on Lime, Cement and Plastering of all kinds. J. S. Minor & Son.

For seedless raisens, evaporated apricots, cooking figs, layer figs, fine California prunes, etc., go to Patterson & Sympton's.

90 days to clear a $15,000 stock of Clothing, Shoes, Hats and Furnishing Goods. Everything goes at cost, nothing reserved. Logan & Robinson.

Deputy Collector West destroyed a moonshine still in Estill county the other night and poured out several hundred gallons of beer. The shiners escaped.

We are now better prepared to do all kinds of carriage repairing than ever before. We have first-class mechanics in every branch of the business, call and see. W. J. Romans.

A Washington special says Representative Gilbert has introduced a bill to pay the estate of Jacob Robinson, of Gilbert's Creek, $840 for damages caused by the Union army during the civil war.

Lost

Three black, barrow shoats, weigh about 100 pounds each. Marked with underbit in right ear, and split in left. They have been missing about ten days. J. S. Baughman.

The ladies of the Methodist church will have an exchange at Patterson & Sympton's store on Saturday and Monday before Christmas. Those desiring a nice Christmas dinner without the trouble of preparing it at home, will do well to give them a call.

Sale of Land.

Mr. A. H. Bastin, of this city, sold his farm near Crab Orchard, to J. G. Livingston for $1,800. It is situated on the Cedar Creek pike and contains forty-one acres. Mr. Bastin has now disposed of all his Crab Orchard property, save his telephone interests.

At His Post of Duty.

Hon. G. G. Gilbert orders his copy of THE RECORD sent to his Washington address. He was on hand promptly at the opening of the present session of Congress. His private secretary, Mr. Lem C. Conner, is with him. Mrs. Gilbert and Miss Mary Gilbert will soon join him in Washington.

Proud Of His County.

Judge Sauley appointed Judge M. D. Hughes, M. F. Rout and Sterling Davis jury commissioners and instructed them to select the names of 250 "sober, discreet" men to fill the wheel. Judge Hughes jokingly asked the court where he must go to find that many "sober, discreet" men. "Why, to Lincoln county, of course," replied Judge Sauley, "We dont have any other kind over there."

This is Gospel Truth.

There are a good many things to add happiness and sunshine to a man's life as he travels through this benighted vale of politics and cucumbers, but there is nothing that soaks a man's system so full of ethereal calm and benignity as the smile of the man who always looks on the bright side of everything. When the chronic grumbler dies, humanity feels as though it has a good joke on the devil, but when the man of perennial sunshine passes away, the selfish world stops, for a moment and drops a tear on his grave—Prowler in Winchester Democrat.

Death of Mrs. Scott.

After a lingering illness, Mrs. Todd Scott died at her boarding house in this city Tuesday evening, about six o'clock. She was a sufferer from consumption, and recently sold her farm near Marksbury, and moved to town hoping to profit in strength by the change. She was Miss Alice Route, married several years ago, and has always resided near the Fork church, in this county. She was a member of one of the most widely-known and popular families in this and adjoining counties, and was beloved by all who knew her. She was a consistent member of the Baptist church, and always ready to do a kindness for those in need. Funeral services were held at the Lancaster Cemetery yesterday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Mr. Copass, of the Fork church, in the presence of a large number of friends.

For Sale.

My modern eight room residence, all necessary outbuildings and improvements, with eight acres of land attached, well watered, and an abundance of fruit. Possession given January 1st. Mrs. Jessie Walden. 12-6-tf

Married in Madison.

Capt. F. J. White, of this office, received an invitation to the marriage of Miss Levinia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Breckinridge Maupin, to Mr. Alexander White Parrish, which took place at Mount Zion church yesterday. Both parties are related to Captain White, and he says may God bless the young couple.

Cure for Cigarette Smoking.

"The laying on of the hands" is said to be a cure of the cigarette habit if attended to at the proper time, says the Winchester Democrat. The left hand should be placed on the youngster's neck with a gentle, but firm pressure downward and forwards. Bring the urchin in a proper attitude over the parental knee, then apply the right hand where it will do the most good. Two or three treatments will generally effect a cure.

Death of Little Kathleen.

Somerset Journal:—Lovely little Kathleen Richardson is dead! Ill, but oh, so ill, only a few hours, with the dread monster scarlet fever. Plucked as a beautiful bud of promise from the parent stem by a passing angel and borne away upon a bosom pure into the home of the gentle, loving Savior to add another precious jewel to the myriads of "His loved and His own." The bereaved and desolate father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Richardson, of this city, have our deepest and sincerest sympathy. For consolation they may anchor safely 'neath the Rock of Ages.

The Official Count.

The State Board of Election Commissioners have completed the official count of the vote in the Governorship and Congressional races.

The plurality of Gov. Beckham over Mr. Yerkes is 3,689, and the majority of O'Rear over Hall in the Seventh Appellate district is 3,564.

The following named persons received the number of votes set opposite their names for Governor, viz:

J. C. W. Beckham	233,052
John W. Yerkes	229,363
A. H. Cardin	2,666
John D. White	1,269
W. C. P. Breckinridge	408
James Doyle	456
W. T. Roberts	154
J. Y. Brown	1
J. P. Chinn	1
W. S. Danley	1
W. C. P. Breckinridge	1
J. M. Holmes	1
S. B. Buckner	1
P. Wat. Hardin	1

Give us an order for statements, envelopes and bill heads. We can please you in both price and work.

25 new patterns in ladies gold watches, and other jewelry at Thompson's.

All accounts due us must be paid at once. If not they will be placed in the hands of an officer for collection. Logan & Robinson.

Go to the Opera House Friday night and help the ladies in their efforts to raise funds for a noble work. The entertainment is a fine one.

Minstrels.

Look out for Barlow and Wilson's Minstrels at opera house Dec. 21. Brass band, plenty of fun and everything in a first-class show.

House For Rent.

4-room house at Camp Dick Robinson, known as the toll house. Good garden and outbuildings. 12-7-tf. Banks Hudson.

I am now located with Mr. W. J. Romans, and am prepared to do all kinds of wagon, plow and machine work, also horse shoeing done in the very best manner. Ned Burdett, with W. J. Romans.

Hung Jury.

After deliberating for half a day, the jury in the case against young Ray reported to Judge Sauley that they could not agree and were discharged. We understand they stood seven for acquittal and five for conviction.

Mr. Long, who has taken charge of the Garrard Hotel, has a force of h a n d s putting things in shape and cleaning house from cellar to garret. The reading room out off in the main office is quite an improvement, and will be appreciated by the drummers.

Open Session.

The C. W. B. M., will hold an open session at the Christian church next Wednesday evening, the 19th, at seven o'clock. Miss Sublett, the state organizer, will deliver an address, that promises to be very interesting to all. The members have arranged an interesting program for the evening. Everybody cordially invited to attend.

Hatcher.

Mrs. T. J. Hatcher died at the family residence in this city yesterday afternoon at five o'clock. She had been ill for some time from consumption, and for the last few days her death has been expected. Mrs. Hatcher was a native of Wayne county, Ky., and was in her forty-eighth year. She was a member of the Baptist church, and a woman of noble character. She leaves her husband and four children to mourn her loss. Funeral services will be held at the Lancaster Cemetery this afternoon, conducted by Rev. Mr. Woolford, of the Baptist church.

To The Ladies.

Although the season is growing late we still have in stock elegant lines of dress goods, shoes, underwear, blankets, comforts, and in fact everything to be found in an up-to-date store. We are satisfied you will agree with us that these goods are as good as can be bought in the cities, and that our prices are marvelously low. It is our rule to sell out everything, and carry no goods over, so a call at our store will reveal many rare bargains such as you little expect to find outside the cities. We prove all our assertions, and advertise nothing that we do not carry out to the letter. J. Joseph.

An Empty Menace.

The following, from the Greenville News, should be perused by some of the Lancaster pistol toters who go about armed to the teeth, fearing a bear will catch them: "When a man carries a pistol constantly, slipping it into his pocket every morning and taking it out at night; feeling its constant pressure against his body—these things tend to familiarize his mind with the idea of killing and lowers his conception of the sacredness of human life. What does a man carry a pistol for? To shoot some other man with. The miserable thing is made expressly to kill human beings with, it has no other earthly purpose. What a hardening effect it must have, then, upon the conscience and heart of a man who carries it constantly in his pocket and lives in daily contact with it, and with the idea it constantly suggests to his mind."

Dolls and toys in variety at Thompson's.

Horse shoeing and crooked feet treated at Conn's.

Quick sales and small profits is the motto at Conn's Carriage Shop.

Mr. R. H. Whittaker has decided to move to Kansas, and has posted a sale of his effects for Saturday, the 15th, at his home near Bettis post office.

Ell Perkins.

The greatest living humorist will lecture in Lancaster January 9th. For the people of this section this is an opportunity of a life-time.

Marshal S. D. Turner went to Corbin and arrested Rowland Wheeler and Linda Nelson, colored, charged with felony, and brought them back to jail. They can't go far enough to get out of Dee's reach.

Business For Sale.

Having made arrangements to engage in other business, will sell my entire stock of General Merchandise, storehouse and dwelling at cost. Anyone wishing a good bargain can secure one here. C. C. Becker, Bryantsville. tf

A Card of Thanks.

Mrs. Martha Anderson and family, of Buckeye, ask space in your paper to express their heartfelt thanks to their friends and neighbors for the kindness and sympathy shown their relative, James Ward, dec'd., during his last illness, and to say they will ever be remembered for their kindness. Respectfully, Mrs. Martha Anderson.

Children's Meeting.

Dr. McKee will preach to the children at the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock. He also invites all the older folks to come. In making his announcement last Sunday, he said he had received poor encouragement in Lancaster in holding these children's services, and if next Sunday's meeting proved a failure he would try it no more here. No minister has been more successful in preaching to children than has this beloved man of God.

Popular Young Couple To Wed.

Next Thursday morning, promptly at eight o'clock, Mr. John M. Farra and Miss Jennie Burnside will be married at the home of the bride's parents, near Hiattsville, this county. The ceremony will be said by Rev. H. N. Faulconer, who will come from his home in Ohio for that purpose. Immediately after the ceremony, they will be driven to Danville, where they take the Queen & Crescent through train for Atlanta. They will spend a few days there, and probably visit other points of interest before returning to Lancaster. The wedding will be a quiet affair, only immediate relatives and a few friends being present.

Well Known to Other Citizens.

Speaking of Spencer G. Dabney, whom many of our older citizens remember well, ex-Governor Bradley said to a reporter of a Cincinnati paper: "He was the most accomplished anecdotist and raconteur I ever heard. He incensed his stories in the warp and woof of his own imaginative and intellectual brain. He had been a sadder, lawyer, poet, scholar, orator, politician and was the first drummer, or traveling men as they are now designated. He was too versatile, as men of genius are oftentimes, and the sum total of his life was a failure, as far as making a fortune or enduring fame in one pursuit, but in his lifetime he afforded entertainment and pleasure to thousands of people, who, when he died, in their hearts said peace to his kindly soul. He was buried in an untouched grave on the mountain top overlooking Jacksboro, Tenn., and the traveling men of America should have a monument erected to his memory as the first of their line."

Scalding boxes built to order at Conn's.

Pay your account and save cost. Logan & Robinson.

For a high cut shoe or a pair of boots, see Patterson & Sympton.

Notice To "Kay Peas."

An important meeting will be held tomorrow, Friday night. Be sure to be on hand. G. B. Swinebroad. K R S

Joseph is not selling out at cost, but giving the people genuine, rich bargains. He has bargains every day, as his many customers well know.

The end of the year is close at hand, and THE RECORD is bound to have every cent owing it. Those in arrears will do us a favor by coming up to the scratch.

Arrangements are being made for a Christmas tree in the Christian church Mr. H. A. B. Marksbury has the matter in charge and tells us all are welcome to put presents thereon.

Coal and Feed.

Best coal always on hand, also a cheaper grade, for those who prefer quantity to quality, yet a good cheap coal. Ship stuff, shelled oats, Hay, etc., at Leavell's Mill.

Messrs Tom Palmer and Jas Clark have bought in the neighborhood of 100,000 pounds of tobacco. They have two barns in town, one at Pt. Leavell and one at Paint Lick. They have paid from two to six cents.

Improvements.

The office of the famous old Mason Hotel has been undergoing improvements and is now as cozy and neat as any office in this section of the state. A steel ceiling has been put on, the walls papered, a new floor put down and all the wood work painted. Everyone who stops there compliments Mrs. Simpson's table, and it justly merits it.

Behind Time.

Part of THE RECORD's engine broke last week, and it became necessary to send to Waynesboro, Penn., for repairs. The attachments were shipped from that point on the 10th, but up to the present time of speaking have not shown up at the Lancaster express office. We loosened the steam fixtures and, after almost a night's work, succeeded in getting the "coon power" attachments to work properly. Two strong (in more ways than one) colored men are now grinding out the first side of the paper. We hope to get this issue to our readers ere the spring time comes, gentle Annie, and ask your indulgence for this once.
