

The Central Record.

SEVENTH YEAR.

NUMBER 41

LOUIS LANDRAM, Publisher.

LANCASTER, KY., THURSDAY AFTERNOON, JANUARY 3, 1901.

ONE DOLLAR A YEAR

LANCASTER AND VICINITY.

Fresh oysters at T. Curry's.

Boiler fixtures, Engines repaired, Smoke-stacks built by Conn.

Fair warning pay your account and save cost. Logan & Robinson.

Curry sells good goods as cheap as you pay for inferior goods at other places.

For rent, a nice office of two rooms on Lexington street. For terms, apply to Mrs. Dr. O'Neal.

We can save you money on Lime, Cement and Plastering of all kinds. J. S. Minor & Son.

As next Sunday is the first one of the year, the attendance at the churches will be unusually large. New Year resolves, etc.

Mrs. Judson House died at her home on Danville pike December 24th, of consumption. She leaves many acquaintances and friends to mourn her loss.

Remember, we have bargains all the year 'round. We can show you goods and make you prices that will cause competitors to tremble in their boots. J. Joseph.

Coal and Feed. Best coal always on hand, also a cheaper grade, for those who prefer quantity to quality, yet a good cheap coal. Ship stuff, shelled oats, Hay, etc., at Leavel's Mill.

Good Appointment. At the meeting of the Kentucky Educational Association held in Louisville last week, Prof. J. H. Patterson was elected president of the High School department for the State. A better and more competent man could not have been selected.

Ballard Moves to Danville. Mr. Bland Ballard has moved his belongings from Richmond to Danville, which shows he believes a Danville man will land the collectorship. Mr. Ballard is the best revenue man in Kentucky, and has had charge of the collector's office for many years.

Gus Sun's Minstrels is the largest company of the kind on the road. It is endorsed by all leading papers. Their brass band and orchestra are made up of artists. They have fourteen favorite comedians, bristling with wit and noted for fun. At Opera House Thursday night, January 10. Seats on sale at Stormes' drug store.

W. R. Smith's College, Lexington, Ky. Is where hundreds of clerks, farmer boys and others have invested $80 for tuition and board for an education, and are now receiving $1,000 and over per year. Read and keep this notice for reference. Remember that in order for your letters to reach this College you should address only W. R. Smith, Lexington, Ky.

Remembered The Poor. Mr. R. E. Hughes, the popular newspaper man, of Louisville, came up last week to see his relatives. He brought us a box of fine cigars, for which we are very grateful. By the way, Bob is making quite a success with his feature matter, "The World One Hundred Years Ago Today," which is being used by all the prominent daily papers. The matter is quite interesting and required much work.

A Call. The members of the Democratic Committee of Garrard county, are requested to meet at Hon. R. H. Tompkins' office, on Monday, January 28, at 10 o'clock, a. m. being county court day, for the purpose of making nominations for the county offices, and for the transaction of such business as may come before them. All candidates can have a hearing before nominations are in order.

T. B. ROBINSON, Ch'm. M. D. HUGHES, Sec'y. 4t

The Worst in the Lot. We have heard of stingy men, men who will steal bungs and then beg a cooper to make them a barrel around it free of charge; we have heard of a milkman who would skim the milk on top and then turn the bucket bottom upward and then dip the milk at the bottom; of a Tennessean who had a wart on the back of his neck, and used to buy a collar button, and used the wart for that purpose, but such are liberal-hearted men compared with those who will pick up every possible and impossible objection to a paper, and then go around and swipe their neighbor's paper, and piss it to boot. Subscribers who have paid their money, and are bona fide subscribers, can help the enterprise a great deal by closing their free reading rooms. We appreciate sample copies being read, but what we object to is the man who uses our paper, and then commits petit larceny to get to read it.—Exchange.

A $15,000 stock at cost at Logan & Robinson's.

The best bargains in Harness, Saddles, Bridles, &c., at Conn's.

For sale, pure bronze turkey gobblers 4t. J. E. Stormes.

Visit Logan & Robinson's store and buy up-to-date goods at manufacturers cost.

Black Cake, go to T. Curry's and get the ingredients for it. He has the best on the market.

Always on top in quantity and quality, and at the bottom in prices. T. Curry.

All accounts due us must be paid at once. If not they will be placed in the hands of an officer for collection. Logan & Robinson.

Nothing extra for reserved seats to Eli Perkins Lectura. Go early and have choice of seats reserved.

Money for Teachers. THE RECORD is requested by Miss Lusk to say that the last payment for teachers will be ready for them January 12th.

For Sale. An Upright office desk and large book case, also a number of very valuable law books. Apply to Jan-3 Chas. W. Frisbie.

The Middleboro opera house will soon be turned into a livery stable. The papers do not say whether it was sold by the "front foot"—once so important a term, or by the "hind foot." We presume by the latter.

Teacher Resigns. Miss Annie Royston has resigned her position at the Graded School. Miss Royston is a splendid teacher, and the trustees regret to give her up. There are many applicants for the place.

A Saxton Dance. The young men will give a hop, with music by Saxton, next Tuesday evening. Tickets of admission will be issued, as the space for dancing is limited. The announcement that Saxton is to play will bring joy to the young folks, and many of us older ones too. THE RECORD has printed handsome programs for the occasion.

Honor for Lancaster Man. At the election of officers for Post "B", Travelers Protective Association, in Nashville last week, Mr. A. Howard Rice was made president. Considering the fact that he has just moved to that city, this is quite a compliment to Howard. His many Lancaster friends extend congratulations.

A Quiet Christmas. Christmas eve was one of the most quiet and orderly ever known in Lancaster. There was little drinking, and Marshal Turner soon convinced the "shooters" that he would tolerate no monkey business from them. Only a few cannon crackers were fired, and no pistol shooting was permitted at all. Our citizens owe Capt. Turner and his able assistant, "Corporal" Siler, a vote of thanks for the splendid order maintained. A few drunks showed up, but they were of the friendly, harmless variety.

Santa Claus' Novel Ride. At the Christmas tree in the Christian church last week, Mr. H. A. B. Marksby played the part of "Old Santa." He dressed and went to the door, but for some reason was required to wait a few moments before entering. An undertaker's truck had been left in the vestibule, and it being a rather handsome piece of furniture, Old Santa concluded he would ride in and surprise the children. Calling the sexton, he mounted the draped carriage and was quickly pushed to the front of the large audience. The kids were glad to see Santa, but could not understand why he should select so mournful a carriage. As one little fellow remarked, "Well, if Old Santa aint comin' in on a hearse!"

I, Louis Ray, of Buckeye, Ky., wish to make the following statement: I had fever for three months and as I improved I found it settling in my right knee joint. I had several of the best physicians of Garrard and Boyle to treat me without relief. After eighteen months of suffering with crutches and a plaster paris boot they pronounced my case hopeless. I presented a pitiable sight and suffered so much that I was forced to take morphine for relief. I went under treatment of Dr. C. M. Kennedy last January, and after one month's treatment could walk with a cane. Am now entirely well and can do any kind of work. I feel that Dr. Kennedy has saved my limb, and all without the use of drugs or medicines. I know of many other such wonderful cures he has made and would advise any one suffering from any kind of disease to give him a call at his office next door to post office, Lancaster, Ky.

Of Interest to Printers. The craft is well aware of the trouble caused when cold weather strikes a set of printer's rollers, and the rapidity with which they "die." Having had much trouble of this kind, and being of an experimental turn of mind, we made a wooden case, or rack for our cylinder press rollers. It is absolutely air-tight. The result has been that the cold weather has had no disastrous effect at all upon the rollers, and the clear print of this edition shows the condition they are in. Another plan which has probably helped is that we only washed the distribution table, and have never rubbed the rollers at all. While we have a new set "seasoning" and ready, yet the present ones bid fair to run all winter. The plan is inexpensive, in fact the case is a "home made" affair.

Anything you want in the eating line, you can get it at Curry's.

Fun, Comedy and Burlesque in abundance, at Opera House Jan. 10.

If you want pure candy go to T. Curry's and get Shryock's & Co's pure candies.

A handsome rocking chair is a suitable and useful Xmas present. See those at J. A. Beazley & Co's.

Piano For Sale. In fair condition. Will be sold at a bargain. Apply at this office.—n29-tf 90 days to clear a $15,000 stock of Clothing, Shoes, Hats and Furnishing Goods. Everything goes at cost, nothing reserved. Logan & Robinson.

A good lady, who requests that her name be kept out of print, sent us a basket of delicious sausage and spareribs. Verily, we are living on the fat of the land.

Remember the lecture of Eli Perkins is worth a dozen of the other entertainments that will be in Lancaster this season. Reserved seats only 50 cents.

Flour—You can get Ward's White Swan, Minor's 4-X or best; Potts' Perfection; Haughman's No. 1; Ballard and Ballard's Obelisk; J. E. Miles & Son, J. E. M. Take your choice, only 60c. per sack, at T. Curry's.

Distillery to Start. The Hume distillery at Silver Creek which is owned by the whisky trust will resume operations the first of the year. Extensive repairs are now being made on the plant. The Burnam & Bennett plant will not be run the coming year.—Richmond Register.

Prices Reduced. To suit the times and satisfy the public, the admission to Gus Sun's Minstrels, Thursday night, January 10th, will only be 25, 35 and 50 cents. Seats on sale at Stormes drug store. This is one of the best shows on the road, and the price is only put down for the reasons above given. 2t.

Reception By W. C. T. U. The local W. C. T. U., gave an elegant reception at the handsome home of Margaret Gill, to meet Miss Mosher, who is visiting Mrs. Geo. M. Patterson. The hours were from 3:30 to 5:30. A great many ladies were present, refreshments were served and the afternoon most pleasantly spent.

Resolution. At a meeting of the democratic committee of Garrard county, held on Monday, December 24, the following resolution was unanimously adopted: Resolved, That the committee heartily endorses the able and efficient course of Hon. Geo. T. Farris, in the Senate of Kentucky, during the late perilous session, and we earnestly recommend his re-nomination and election to the same office.

T. B. ROBINSON, Ch'm. M. D. HUGHES, Sec'y.

Accidental Shooting. The accidental shooting of Mr. C. C. Becker, the popular Bryantsville merchant, caused much regret among his many friends. Last Saturday he went to his money drawer for change, and in pulling out some papers a large 44-caliber revolver was discharged. The ball entered near his hip, and going through the abdomen, lodged in the backbone. The wound is dangerous and causes great pain. At this writing he is resting easy. The accident happened Saturday.

281 From 1 to 500. That might be a riddle or an invitation to a church fair, but it isn't. It's a concise way of calling public attention to the fact that The Royal Tailors, of Chicago, have authorized us to reduce prices on 281 Fall and Winter Patterns all the way from $1 to $5 per suit—and we've done it! Our prices on this high grade tailoring were very low before, but now they afford absolutely the best investment a man ever made in the way of dress. Come and see these patterns; we have them all; costs you nothing to look at but little to buy—and our guarantee is your safety-valve.

[And here's a friendly tip: They won't last always.] J. C. Hemphill.

The local banks will elect several directors next Tuesday, the 8th.

We mean business, if you owe us, you must pay us. Logan & Robinson.

Go at once to McRoberts and have your seat reserved for Eli Perkins' Lecture.

America's greatest Juggler and best dancers on the stage, will appear in Gus Sun's minstrels, at Opera House, January 10.

Eli Perkins is the most noted humorist in the world. Don't miss this opportunity of hearing him. Reserved seats only 50c.

A few left to go at Cost. As I am increasing and improving my repository, I will sell at cost anything you solicit in my stock of buggies. Call at Conn's Carriage Shop.

New County Attorney. Lewis L. Walker has been appointed county attorney to fill out the term caused by the absence of Letcher Owsley. Mr. Owsley has located in the West.

Swell Colored Hop. The colored hop given last Friday night was quite a swell event among their race in this city. They had printed programs, a large orchestra, good order and a big time generally.

Low Brown Resigns. Lexington papers say Lou Brown has resigned as ticket agent at the C. & O. depot in that city. Lou spent much time in and about Lancaster in his courting days, and has many friends here. He is a splendid young fellow and has a heart as big as box-car.

Masonic Lodge Election. At the annual election of officers of the local Masonic lodge, the following were selected: Louis Landram, W. M., Jacob Joseph, S. W., K. F. Postel, J. W., Robt. Kinnaird, Sec'y., David Ross, treasurer, A. T. Anderson, S. & T. The master appointed E. M. Walker senior deacon and T. J. Hatcher junior deacon. There will probably be third degree work at next meeting.

Good Telephone Service. No town has a better telephone service than Lancaster. Mr. Bastin, the clever manager, puts his whole soul in the management of it, and the service is strictly A. No. 1. The calls are answered promptly, the instruments work well, and, greatest of all, no monkey business is permitted. Its hard to see how we ever got along without telephones.

The Population of Lancaster. The recent census shows Lancaster to have a population of only 1,640 souls. It has been the general impression of our citizens that the town had 1,800 population, and we believe that a thorough canvass, taken with care and time would show this. But these are the figures given to Uncle Sam, and as Teet Baily said when he surveyed the Cemetery, "Figgers wont lie." The report gives Stanford 1,651, Bryantsville 292, Crab Orchard 385, Danville 4,285, Harrodsburg, 2,876, Richmond 4,655.

Will Open Monday. The new Garrard Hotel will open its doors next Monday morning. Mr. Long, the manager, has been at work for two months getting the house in the condition he wants it, and it is now perfect in every detail, from cellar to garret. The company has had a great many improvements made to the house and it is now second to none in the state. Mr. Long has a well-selected lot of help, and begins business with very flattering prospects. THE RECORD bespeaks for the house the large patronage it so richly merits.

MAMMOTH CASH BUSINESS. New Management Under A New System.

We are glad to see our little city improving and moving to the front. Mr. R. H. Batson informs us that he is now remodeling, renovating, barnishing, painting, etc., his already double, handsome store rooms, fitting them up in the most modern style. One of these rooms will be used exclusively and extensively for clothing and gents furnishings, the other for dry goods, notions, fancy goods, carpets and everything pertaining to ladies wear, use, etc. This dry goods room will be solely under the management of lady clerks, the most competent that can be had, four of which have already been employed. Everything will be first class and up to date in both merchandise, fixtures and arrangements. He is the first to introduce a regular cashier system and his business we guarantee will be one of the best systematized in Central Kentucky.

Mr. Batson has not been in the best health for the last year but he is well and strong again and we all know his business ability when on his feet. We bespeak for him a large business. The improvements will be completed by Jan. 30. The Cost Sale will continue until that time.

Pay your account and save cost Logan & Robinson.

You will regret it if you do not see Gus Sun's Minstrels January 10.

A car-load of oranges, bananas and nuts to burn, this week, at T. Curry's.

Bring us the cash and we will give you unheard of bargains. Logan & Robinson.

You need not call at our mill for flour, all grocers keep it. J. S. Minor & Son.

House For Rent. 4-room house at Camp Dick Robinson, known as the toll house. Good garden and outbuildings. 12-7-tf. Banks Hudson.

Mr. Ike D. Currant orders his copy of THE RECORD changed to Sears, Ark., where he has recently bought a farm. He has been living in Garner, that state, since leaving his old home in Garrard.

Please remember the new grocery store near Marksby's Hemp-house, where you can get big value for your money. Our goods are all new and fresh, and the very best quality. Robert Underwood.

Death at Richmond. Members of the press extend sympathy to Capt. S. P. Rock, editor of the Richmond Register, on the death of his wife. She suffered a stroke of paralysis Christmas night, and never recovered from the shock.

Fighting for Uncle Sam. We have received a picture of Taku Forts, sent by Mr. John H. Kirby, a Lancaster boy now in Uncle Sam's service. He signs his name over "Fireman 1st class, U. S. N. on U. S. S. Minocacy, Tongku, China." He enlisted in the Navy some time since.

Emancipation Day. Tuesday was a big day among the colored folks. A big parade was given headed by the popular Reentown band. Several lodges, the old soldiers, horsemen and plain every day citizens took part. Speeches were made by Gov. W. O. Bradley, Prof. J. A. White, of Richmond, Prof. C. F. Anderson, of this city, and Rev. Shaw. At night a big dance was given.

Harding & Miller Music Co. The strong combination of Harding & Miller and Harding & Riehm, the largest line of pianos and organs in central states, lowest prices, easiest terms and best instruments in the world. Business booming. If I am too busy to talk to you, leave your order with E. W. Harris, North West corner Public Square, where you will find samples of our goods for inspection. Geo. M. Overman, Salesman.

Week of Prayer. The topics for the Week of Prayer are those suggested by the Evangelical Alliance and are the same that will be used in all the cities through out the land. The following is the program as it has been arranged by the pastors of Lancaster:

Monday, Jan. 7, at the Presbyterian church; subject:—"Prayer for a better realization of spiritual truth and a better estimate of spiritual realities, a clearer vision of the redeeming Christ, and of the actual need and the divinely intended glory of the world which He redeemed." The sermon will be delivered by Dr. McKee.

Tuesday, Jan. 8, at the Methodist church; subject:—"Prayer for right relations in society and the nation, with the Golden Rule obeyed as between man and man, and all social and political action guided by justice and good will—the Christian ideal." Sermon by Rev. A. R. Moore.

Wednesday, Jan. 9, at Christian church; subject:—"Prayer for a Church which, through faith in Christ, and by the indwelling of the Holy Spirit, shall be wholly Christian, doing God's will and winning the world to Christ." Sermon by Rev. J. E. Wolford.

Thursday, Jan. 10, at the Baptist church; subject:—"Prayer for such Christian character and life as shall be pleasant in the home, honored in business relations, welcomed in the neighborhood, helpful in the church—personal religion being thus manifested in its rightful attractiveness." Sermon by Rev. L. Robinson.

Each service is to be a union service and is intended to last about one hour. Each pastor will have charge of the praise service in his own church and all of the singers are asked to be present and aid in the songs. Everybody is invited to attend and help to make the Week of Prayer a suitable spiritual beginning for the new year and the new century.

Our closing out sale will be conducted on strictly cash basis, goods taken out on approval, must be paid for, if returned in good shape money will be refunded. Logan & Robinson.

Measles are playing havoc with the youngsters in this locality. Several older persons have also been afflicted. We don't know whether the doctors are prescribing the old-time and best remedy or not.

Train Wreck. The afternoon train from Rowland was wrecked just below Gilberts Creek yesterday. A number of cars were derailed and the train did not reach Lancaster until nine o'clock.

Bird Law in Force. The law against killing quail is again in force, and from now 'till next fall any person having a partridge in his possession, no matter when killed, is liable to a fine of $5 for each bird.

Crockery For Sale. Mrs. H. Singleton has rented out the front rooms of her house, but will continue to keep all kinds of crockery for sale at low prices. She will continue to keep the stock at her residence on Lexington street.

Married in Cincinnati. Mr. Cal Neveus and Miss Pearl Phillips were married in Cincinnati yesterday and returned here last night. Mr. Neveus is connected with the Pilgrimage Distillery, in this city, and the bride has had charge of the local telephone exchange for some time. As it was press hour when we received the item, lack of time prevented the extended notice these popular young people deserve.
