Where the Home Visited.

Dolph Rice was here Monday.
Capt. W J Kinnaid was here a few days this week.
Bowen Fox, of Danville, was among the court day visitors.
Col. W S Furgerson returned to Covington Sunday night.
Miss Denny is visiting Mrs James N Denny, at Hiattsville.
Miss Walker, of Atlanta, Ga., is visiting Mrs Dorcas Walker.
Misses Cotton, of Bryantsville, are guests of Miss Lena Rigney.
Miss Eveline Kendrick, of Monticello, is visiting Miss Nell Johnston.
Miss Kate Arnold left Sunday to visit her brother, Henry, in Paris.
Mr and Mrs Charles Richardson, of Somerset, are visiting Lancaster relatives.
Miss Lena Rigney has returned from a delightful visit to relatives in Danville.
Miss May Robinson, of Marcellus, is visiting her cousin, Miss Mattie Mae Robinson.
Miss Mertie Walker and Mr. Davis, of Perryville, have been visiting Mrs. Edwin Arnold.
Miss Julia Mae Gaines, of Danville, has been spending a few days with Mrs Sam Haselden.
Mr Tom Fish, wife and children, of Vincennes, Indiana, are visiting the family of Mr W A Arnold.
Miss Margaret Hackley, of Georgetown College, has been spending a few days here with relatives.
Mr. Jim Doores and sister, Miss Bettie, have rented the Thompson residence on Paulding avenue.
Bourbonville Pathfinder:—Mr Joe Hays, of Garrard county, was migrating with old acquaintances here last week.
Lexington Herald:—Miss May Gallier, of Lancaster, is the guest of Miss Clara Hayden, at her home in the country.
Miss Mildred Hemphill, who has been the guest of Misses Bella and Allie Arnold, left Saturday for her home in Nicholasville.
Danville Advocate:—Miss Irvine, who has been with the Misses Noel the past season, left for her home in Louisville this morning.
Miss Lucy Teale left this week for her home in Richmond, Ind. She will return in September and resume her position with the Noel Sisters.
Mr. Dolph Smith, a popular commercial man, and two pretty little daughters, passed through Lancaster Sunday evening en route to Mankinsbury.
Ed. Walton represented the Inter- or Journal Monday and made us the most pleasant call. Ed is the kind of fellow one likes to have call and stay a long time.
Miss Lear, the young lady brought from Lowell to the Best Hotel to be placed under the treatment of Drs. Acton and Kinnaid, is improving, although her suffering is great.

FRISBIE'S DRUG STORE.

lots of goods in this section.

Dr. R. Goldstein, the celebrated optician, will be at the Garaard Hotel July 1st and 2nd.

Misses Christine Bradley, Altie and Bessie Marksbury, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Landram, Jno. Burns, Branham Beazley and several others attended the Elks reception at Richmond last night.

Misses Allie Louridge and Daisy DeLong, two handsome young ladies of Lexington, passed through this city Monday enroute to the Kilgore-Parks wedding at Paint Lick, notice of which event appears in our Paint Lick letter.

Our good friend, Col. Andrew Rice, was able to come to town Monday, after having been cooped up by rheumatism for several weeks. Everybody was glad to see "Big Rice" and learn that he is rapidly regaining his health.

Nicholasville Journal:—Mrs Samuel Haselden, of Lancaster, spent several days this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Powell Duncan. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. F. Denman attended the Yantis-Conkright wedding at Winchester, Wednesday.

Mr and Mrs W B Jarvis will leave July 1, for an extended visit to friends and relatives in McAlister, Indian Territory, Paris, Texas, Carmi and Decatur, Ills., and Springfield, Ohio. They will remain away until some time in September. Mr Jarvis recently sold his farm in Garrard and will spend a time traveling over the country before locating again.

Lexington Leader:—Miss Lillie Dale of Shelbyville. Is the guest of her sister, Mrs. C C Freeman, of this city. Miss Dale has the distinction of having just won a very interesting contest in Shelbyville, the prize being a two weeks' trip to the Pan-American Exposition offered by Caldwell and Harbison, a prominent firm there, for the most popular teacher in Shelby county. Miss Dale's vote was 1,614 ahead of any of the other contestants.

Col. Will Ferguson came in from Covington last week just in time to assist in entertaining the Louisville people. Although here on important business connected with his farm, he readily consented and was ready to do anything or go anywhere to assist. He went to Richmond with the committee, worked like a Trojan here in town, and then went with Jno. Farra and Louis Landram with the train to Stanford and Danville. Not only is Col. Ferguson ready to "go," but he is equally as ready to delve into his jeans and help the boys to pay expenses. If Lancaster had about twenty-five fellows who were as ready and willing to go into a proposition to help the town, we would soon have a city ahead of any in this section.

Democrat:—The Baptist church was crowded Wednesday night to witness the marriage of Elijah Lear Yantis and Miss Mary Nelson Conkright. The church was beautifully decorated in green and white, and potted plants added to the artistic effect. The bride and her maid of honor, Miss Nellie Hall, came down one aisle and the groom and his best man, Guy Davidson, of Lancaster, came down the other, and met in front of the altar. Rev. B. B. Bailey in a beautiful ceremony, pronounced the words that bind for all time these two lives and destinies. The bride was gowned in a lovely dress of white Paris muslin trimmed in applique and lilies of the valley. She wore the conventional veil similarly draped, and carried a bouquet of bride roses. Miss Hall, the maid of honor, wore Paris muslin trimmed in lace and carried a bouquet of tea roses. After the wedding, the bridal couple, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Denman, cousins of the groom, drove to Lexington and the following day were given a reception at Lancaster by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lear, uncle and aunt of the groom. The groom is a son of S. S. Yantis and formerly lived here, but now reside near Lancaster. The bride is the youngest daughter of Judge J. N. Conkright and is one of the loveliest of Winchester's fair daughters. Mr. and Mrs. Yantis will make their home at Lancaster.

Mr. R P Adams, the well-known Lexington traveling man, was in town Monday. His wife and baby were with him, making the trip. Bob is a mighty clever fellow, and sells George Smith represented a number of daily papers at Crab Orchard Springs during the druggist meeting there.

Richmond Pantagraph:—Mrs D M Lackey, of Lancaster, is visiting relatives here. Miss Louise Kaufman, was the guest, this week of Miss Hattie Letcher.

Judge N. Sandifer has been spending a few days with relatives in Lancaster. He has a great many friends in this, his old home, who are always delighted to see him.

Hon. Wm. Owsley, of Burksville, has been visiting relatives in this city. He is a brother of the late Judge M. H Owsley, and a polished gentleman, in whose company it is a pleasure to be.

A HOT RACE.

Louisville Man Tackles Old Abe Dorsey for a Foot Race and is Distanced.

The strenuous proprietor of Seelbach's elegant hotel in Louisville, Col. Louis Seelbach was undeniably the handsomest man in the Louisville delegation, and had not been in town fifteen minutes until he knew half the people on the streets. He is frolicsome as a colt and is always eager for anything that promises a bit of sport or excitement. On the street here he happened to run across a well-known character named Abe Dorsey, who, although sixty years old, can run faster, "holer" louder and jump higher than any other man in this province. Abe's fame as a tough old sprinter has spread even to Louisville, and in less time than it takes to tell it the Colonel and he had agreed privately to make an impromptu dash of a hundred yards. And suddenly away they went, lickity-split, right across the public square, fairly burning the wind. Dorsey came out a clean twenty yards ahead and uttered such a whoop that the town clock struck. It was a very strenuous contest and those who saw it laid back an "jes laffed." "The trouble is Colonel," remarked Abe, shaking hands with his perspiring but good natured competitor, "You can't work your underpinning quite fast enough. You can run a hotel to beat Texas, but you can't run yourself." The hash-disher blushed slightly at these remarks and passed around the cigars, declaring that he was getting entirely too stout to propel himself with celerity. And this is true, for he is accumulating adipous tissue at a terrific rate, having gained fourteen pounds since leaving Louisville on the excursion.

A Most Deplorable Death.

El Dorado (Ark.) Times:—Last Saturday morning our town was shocked and grieved by the intelligence that Mrs. T. E. Adams had been found dead in her bed. The exact hour when the summons came was not known to any one. She had been suffering with heart disease for sometime and her health had been failing and she died while peacefully sleeping. Mrs. Adams was a noble, christian lady and a devoted wife and mother. The summons found her prepared and the sleep begun on earth was but the awakening of her soul in the realms of paradise. She leaves a devoted husband and four small children to mourn their irreparable loss. To them we extend profound and heartfelt sympathy.

The deceased's maiden name was Maggie Smith, and she was a sister of Mr. John Smith, who resides in the Paint Lick neighborhood. Many Garrard county friends extend sympathy to Mr. Adams, who is left with four little daughters to mourn her loss.

Question Answered.
Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers' and grandmothers' never thought of using anything else for indigestion or biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of Appendicitis, Nervous Prostration or Heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. Get Green's Prize Almanac at Storms Drug Store.

When a woman gives you the sack you need not expect her to give you the trousers also; she will wear them herself later on when she has reconsidered the matter.

A Good Cough Medicine.
It speaks well for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy when druggists use it in their own families in preference to any other. "I have said Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for the past five years with complete satisfaction to myself and customers," says Druggist J Goldsmith, Van Etten, N. Y. "I have always used it in my own family both for ordinary coughs and colds and for the cough following la grippe, and find it very efficacious." For sale by R E McRoberts, Druggist.

It is better to have loved and lost, than never to have loved at all. It is better for the jeweler, the florist, and the messenger boy—and sometimes for the lawyers.

"A few months ago, food which I ate for breakfast would not remain on my stomach for half an hour. I used one bottle of your Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and can now eat my breakfast and other meals with a relish and my food is thoroughly digested. Nothing equals Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for stomach troubles. H S Pitts, Arlington, Tex. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat. F P Frisbie.

The wise virgins of olden times kept their lamps trimmed and burning; but those of the present generation keep the gas turned low, and they manage to catch as many suckers.

Call at McRoberts' Drug Store and get a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They are an elegant physic. They also improve the appetite, strengthen the digestion and regulate the liver and bowels. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect.

Come and see me if you want good eyes on the shares; want them on two years time, with good paper, or will take horses or mules in exchange. I have 400 2 to 5 years old Southdown and 400 2 to 5 years old if you want sheep. Come with your trading clothes on.

Good Advice.

Although Sam Jones frequently sets his mouth to going when he has nothing to say, he frequently gives some timely advice, the following, for instance: "I want you, my sinner, to kiss and get married and then devote your time to morality and money making. Then let your homes be provided with piety, pots, kettles, brushes, brooms, benevolence, bread, charity, hope, crackers, faith, flour, affection, salt, sincerity, onions, integrity, virtue, bacon and wisdom. Have all these things on hand and happiness will ever be with you. Don't drink anything intoxicating, eat moderately, go about your business after breakfast, lounge a little after dinner, chat after tea, kiss after a quarrel, and all the bliss this earth can afford will be yours until the grave closes over you and your spirits are borne to the higher and happier world."

"The doctors told me my cough was incurable. One Minute Cough Cure made me a well man." Norris Silver, North Stratford, N. H.—Because you have not found relief from a stubborn cough, don't despair. One Minute Cough Cure has cured thousands and will cure you. Safe and sure. F. P. Frisbie.
