

The Central Record.

TWELFTH YEAR

Entered at the Post Office in Lancaster, Ky., as Second Class Matter.

NUMBER 30

LOUIS LANDRAM, Publisher.

LANCASTER, KY., THURSDAY AFTERNOON, OCT. 31, 1901.

ONE DOLLAR A YEAR

We have the largest and best line of

HEATING STOVES

We have ever carried and they go at

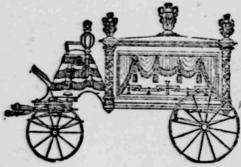

BOTTOM PRICES.

Call, see them, and you will find bargains.

J. R. Haselden.

J. A. Beazley & Co.

Funeral Directors.

Arterial and Cavity Embalming
A Specialty.

Full Line of . . .

Furniture and Carpets.

R. L. Davidson,
Attorney At-Law.

Life insurance policies bought for Cash, or loaned on for sums of 500. upward.

THE HOME NEWS.

Come in and vote, then go home.

The polls open Tuesday at six o'clock a. m., instead of seven as of old.

A splendid, new saddle and bridle for sale cheap, at Arnold's livery stable.

Come in Tuesday, vote and go home. Then you are certain to get into no trouble.

The stores close at 7 o'clock in order that all may attend the meeting at the Methodist church.

Old booze was very much in evidence Monday, many of the boys surrounding more than they could manage.

The last $1.50 excursion of the season was run to Cincinnati Sunday and many took advantage of the low rate.

Educational ballots for the town race can be had at this office, 150 for one dollar.

Sympathy For Bro. Rock.

THE RECORD extends sympathy to Editor Rock, of the Richmond Register, on the death of his father, who died last week.

The hoodlum element was largely in the majority here Monday, some of as tough looking customers as one ever sees being on hand to pull the legs of candidates.

Meeting Postponed.

The meeting of the Ladies' Cemetery Committee has been postponed from next Monday to Monday week, on account of the election.

Water Scarce.

Quite a number of cisterns in town have gone dry, and drinking water is being hauled from springs in the country and is costing twenty-five cents a barrel.

Going On The Road.

"Harris Mastodon Minstrels," an organization composed of local colored boys, will start on the road next week. They will take the Reentown band, and Manager Harris says they are well fixed for the show business.

A Treat In Store.

Do not fail to see "Side Tracked" at the opera house, on Thursday night, Nov. 7th. It will be a good place to meet after the election and forget your sorrows over defeat or express your joy over victory.

Another Paper At Mt. Vernon.

The Kentucky Colonel, formerly published at Livingston, has been purchased by Mr. W. B. Hudson and moved to Mt. Vernon. It is republican in politics and is filled with local and general news.

Cartwright Goes North.

H. P. Cartwright, who was connected with THE RECORD for a number of years, has accepted a position in Bay City, Mich., and has charge of the mechanical department of a large printing house. He has resided in Lexington since leaving Lancaster.

"Side Tracked."

One of the most popular attractions on the road, will be at the Opera House on Thursday night, Nov. 7th. In several towns this season, the troupe has had packed houses, and people failed to even get standing room.

Moves Back to Lancaster.

Mr. W. K. Shugars, who has been residing in Lincoln for some time, has returned to Lancaster and taken a position in Frisbie's drug store. He was with C. C. & J. E. Stormes for many years and is a splendid prescription man. Mr. and Mrs. Shugars have rooms at the Mason hotel.

No Services Sunday.

As the pastor, Rev. J. E. Wolford is engaged in a protracted meeting at Dry Run, near Georgetown, and in order to give way to the protracted meeting at the Methodist church, there will be no services at the Baptist church next Sunday, morning of evening.

Should Be Done Here.

Harrodsburg Democrat.—About 40 of our best farmers have issued notices in this paper that they will prosecute violators of the trespass law. They have been forced into this on account of the wanton carelessness of hunters and pilferers. They are resolute and prosecution is sure to follow trespassing.

Meeting.

The revival began Tuesday night at the Methodist church. The evangelist, Rev. Jno. P. Lowry, of Little Rock, Ark., is assisting the pastor. He is a man of wonderful resources and has a splendid presence, is magnetic in address and a chorister of great fame. If he can't get people to sing, they have very little music in their soul. Services every day at 10 a. m. and 7 p. m.

Court Day.

An immense crowd of people came to town Monday. The merchants report a good trade, though the warm weather gave heavy goods quite a setback. There were probably 500 cattle on the market, which, Mr. G. A. Swinebroad tells us changed hands at from 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 cents. The candidates were in hot water all day, the old float being much in evidence. While there was much drinking, yet there was no disorder, save the running in of two country plain drunks.

Rev. J. E. Wolford Accepts.

At last Sunday's services at the local Baptist church, Rev. J. E. Wolford announced that he would accept the call extended by the church for another year and remain with them. He was engaged indefinitely when he first came to Lancaster, but the call was extended at the end of his first year merely as a compliment. Mr. Wolford is a hard-working, earnest minister, and is doing much good for his church. THE RECORD is glad he has decided to remain with us.

The Small Tax Payers.

Winchester Democrat.—Some in this city have an idea, and are heartless enough to give expression to it, that the small tax payer should not be considered in this election. Their contention is that if the heavy taxpayers are content to pay the highest possible rate, the smaller tax payers should do it without making wry faces. We take a different view. We know there is no escape for the small tax payers. Their property is assessed at its full value, and they must pay their taxes in full, while this is not always the case with richer men.

Stock Items From Lincoln.

Sam Harris sold to Well 70 export at 5 cts. T. L. Carpenter sold to same a carload of cattle, averaging 1250 to 1500 lbs at 5 cts. . . . The Isaiah White sale was well attended. Long yearling, 850 lbs, sold at 34, some yearling, 850 lbs, heifer calves $9.50 to $11 per head, sheep $1.50 to $2.90 per head, horses from $49 to $75, mules $65 to $85, corn $2.50 bbl at heap . . . At the Root and Carter sale, the farm was withdrawn at $49.90 an acre, mules brought 80 to $100, cows 17 to $35, yearling cattle $23.75, steer calves 10 to $15, corn $2.37 at heap, hogs $5.20, shoats $4 to $4.50, hay, clover mixed 35 to 50 cents. . . . Dr. Owsley sold the Golina farm of 500 acres at $60 per acre. He recently paid $55 per acre for same.

Garrard County Bible Society.

The annual meeting of the above society will be held in the Presbyterian church Lancaster, the second Monday in November, at 7:30 o'clock p. m. As there is important business to be transacted, THE RECORD is asked to give this early announcement that all interested will bear in mind the date and attend the meeting.

A Card.

To the Voters of Lancaster:—Since the party lines have not been drawn in the race for police judge, and as this is not a political office, I ask the support of all classes and parties in that race. I have always favored the mental illumination and the moral improvement of man, regardless of race, color or previous condition. I claim to have some conception of justice, and, if I should have the honor to be your police judge, I will dispense it alike to all classes. I have acted in the capacity of judge and justice of the peace. Having been a licensed lawyer for ten years, I have some knowledge of the rules which should be observed in the production of evidence and the application of the law.

Voters in the city, are qualified as those in the precincts of the county. The city vote will be taken on a separate ballot. With malice toward none, and good wishes for all, I urge my friends to remember to put the cross under the horse and rider. Very Respectfully,
M. D. HUGHES.

Lancaster Men Interested.

A Frankfort special says amended articles of incorporation increasing the amount of capital stock of the Cumberland and Nashville Railroad Company and announcing a proposed extension of its line were filed here today in the office of the Secretary of State and the Railroad Commission. The increase of capital is from $10,000 to $22,000, and the extension is from Burnside Pulaski county, to the Tennessee line. The extension is to begin at or near the town of Burnside and running through the counties of Pulaski, Wayne and Clinton, passing through the cities of Monticello and Albany to a point on the State line between Kentucky and Tennessee, southwest from Albany a distance of about forty-five miles. The stockholders who get an increased amount of stock by the amendment are S. Woodard, of Morrow, Ohio; Guy W. Waller, of Cincinnati; Judge James Denton, of Somerset; L. F. Hubble, J. M. Logan, W. H. Kinnaird and G. M. Patterson, all of Lancaster, Garrard county.

Y. M. C. A. Meeting.

The "Young Men's Sunday," observed last Sunday, was very successful. Two services were held, one at 2:30 p. m., for men men only, and the other at 7 p. m., to which all were invited. Mr. Lake, one of the traveling secretaries for the state Y. M. C. A., addressed the men's meeting earnestly, ably and effectively on "Jesus as a Young Man," he who was "tempted in all points like as we are, yet without sin." At the union service, Mr. Smith, the county secretary of Shelby Y. M. C. A., told of his work in that county, and Mr. Lake closed with a few strong words on the work. Both meetings were well attended and all present seemed much interested. A few years ago a Y. M. C. A. organization was attempted in Lancaster and failed thro' attempting too much at once. But we understand that before winter is over an organization will be formed in a more discreet manner. The state Y. M. C. A. will assist and the work will embrace not Lancaster alone but Garrard county. We have every reason to believe from the men who are heading this movement and from the spirit and feeling which shows itself among men that this movement will succeed.

The Contest.

The opera house was well filled Friday evening with people from all over the county to witness the contest between the pupils of the different schools. Each representative had her friends in the audience who enthusiastically applauded her, but when the decision was announced there was no murmuring and the successful ones were congratulated heartily. The first prize, a gold watch, was won by Miss Lillian Poore, of Buena Vista, and the second prize, a gold ring, was awarded to Miss Edna Kavanaugh, of Antioch school. The recitations were all good, each young lady receiving many compliments. The meeting was presided over by Miss Elisa J. Lusk, who made a timely talk in regard to the schools of the county. The music by the local orchestra was applauded liberally, from which we suppose the people were pleased. Miss Amanda Anderson, who got up the entertainment is entitled to much praise for its success. As stated above a large crowd was present, but the receipts just about paid the expenses. The cost of such an entertainment is much greater than one would suppose, and this, being in the interest of the schools, should have been liberally patronized by every lover of education and good schools.

More Local on page 3.

A Hot Election.

While the local election is attracting much interest in Garrard, there is another one in the city of Cincinnati that is of vastly more interest to the people of Lancaster and Garrard county than the question of who are to fill the local offices. We refer to the question of extension of the lease of the Queen & Crescent route by the Southern Railway. The writer was in Cincinnati the other day, and took occasion to make many inquiries as to the outcome of the vote. We found that the largest shippers of the city were against it teeth and toe nail, saying that the road, under the present management, discriminated against the city in matter of rates, and Louisville and other northern cities feed on the fat of the land, while Cincinnati caught it in the neck. On the other hand, a great many business men and prominent citizens are for the lease, claiming that the city can not operate the road and are bound to grant the lease to the Southern people. Every one we approached said he was in doubt as to the outcome, as every voter in the city had taken sides one way or the other, and there was no telling how an election would go, especially in Cincinnati. They all agreed that if the city did not grant the lease the building of the Burgin-Jellico extension would be commenced within the next month or so. Asked as to whether it would be built if the lease was granted, they said it would certainly be built some time, but it may be several years before it would be done. We talked to a prominent railroad man, and he said he didn't believe the lease would go through, as the merchants "had it in" for the Southern because it was an indisputable fact that the Southern discriminated against Cincinnati in the matter of rates and gave that city's every enemy, Louisville, the best end of every thing that came up. He said the Southern, by hauling to Louisville, frequently got to haul stuff on to the northern cities, where if brought to Cincinnati they got no more show at it. He said that he had looked into the Burgin-Jellico matter and could not see why the Southern should hesitate a moment on beginning construction, as it was the best, shortest and cheapest route they could ever hope to get to the South, "and," he said, "they will have to either build it or double track the C. S., as the one track can hardly accommodate the business now, and it's constantly increasing." The election will be held next month and the result means much to our people. When it is built, it will come by Lancaster, and there's no use wasting time talking about that point.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

TO THE CITIZENS OF GARRARD COUNTY:

At the practically unanimous demand of my own party and urgent solicitation of other friends, I have at last consented to become a candidate for the office of County Attorney on the Republican ticket.

I had not expected to again ask for the suffrage of my fellow-citizens, but in view of the great number of electors, regardless of their party affiliation, who have seen proper to insist on my nomination, I have, with some reluctance, consented to accede to their request.

In thus again asking the citizens of my county for their support for this, one of the most important offices in the gift of the people, I am not unmindful of the fact that it is an office fraught with the gravest responsibilities and duties, it having not only an important influence on the maintenance of peace and good order throughout the county, but is also perhaps, the most important factor in shaping and controlling the amount of taxes that your Fiscal Court finds it necessary to levy on your property each year to meet the current expenses of your county affairs.

And in this connection, I hope I may be pardoned for referring with some pride to my former administration of this important duty during the term I had the honor to occupy the office, and when, after my repeated assaults on all useless extravagance, and on certain most time honored leaks in your county treasury, the levy necessary to meet all the current expenses of your county, and then leave a handsome surplus in your treasury at the close of the year, was less than one-third, barely more than one-fourth, of the amount of each and every successive levy for county purposes made since my retirement from that position.

And since the late decision of the Court of Appeals that the Court of the city of Lancaster no longer has jurisdiction to try whisky cases, and with blind tigers not only flourishing throughout the county but, with their Government Licenses all over the corporate limits of Lancaster, actually boasting of their dispensing to your sons, each and every week, three barrels of whisky and over two thousand bottles of beer, with the county attorney being hereafter practically the only safeguard to prevent their extending their sphere, and running even wider open than now,—this office is of even greater importance than ever before to such of our parents as wish to protect their boys from this most vicious and destructive influence, and it well behooves them to make no mistake in selecting and deciding who shall hereafter say whether this condition of things shall continue to exist.

With a high conception of the duties of this office, with a higher conception of my obligation to my own and my neighbor's sons, having steadfastly during the twenty-two years of my law practice refused to defend the keeper of a blind tiger, nor in the thirty-nine years of my existence taken a drink of whisky, if honored again by your election to this high trust, I pledge you, that whatever of experience, ability or talent I may possess, shall be exerted to so administer its important duties as to not only encourage and promote peace and good order and a strict obedience to the law throughout the county, but also to prevent any and all illegitimate, improper and unnecessary drains and expenses on your county treasury.

Fearing that pressing business engagements, and the limited time left for my canvass may prevent my seeing each of you personally, I take this method of announcing my candidacy and assuring you that if my candidacy meets with your approval, I shall be very grateful for whatever assistance you may render toward promoting my election.

Aug 19 11.

W. McC. JOHNSTON.

See our

OVERCOATS.

We have the Smartest and Handsomest Overcoats that have appeared this season. They're full of that Style and Dignity that come from the finest tailoring. They have all the touches that give character to the appearance. The First Tailors in the Land cannot produce handsomer coats. You'll know what this means when you see the coats.

There is a distinctiveness that puts them in a class of their own. The combined skill of Cutter and Tailor has brought out the points that you always find wanting in ordinary coats. That's why our coats are not the kind you find in every store. Prices from $5. to $15.

H. T. Logan,

The One-Price
Clothier and Furnisher.

CLOAKS AND FURS.

You should not fail to see our line of Cloaks and Furs before you buy. We have the largest stock we have ever shown, and prices are very reasonable.

SPECIAL VALUES

in Ladies Ribbed Fleeced Vests at 15, 20 and 25cts.

GOOD VALUES

in Ladies Union Suits at 25, 35 and 50c. Misses and Childrens' Union Suits at 25, 35 and 50 cents.

Our line of Outing Flannels 5, 8 and 10c are the best we ever had.

The great volume of our preparations and our extensive engagement for the fall of 1901 enables us to care for the wants of our customers in a manner not equaled in up-to-date distribution. We herewith suggest the importance of an inspection of our departments, for we want to demonstrate the fact that HERE IS LEADERSHIP in style and prices named throughout the house that are unquestioned.

Lgan Dry Goods Co.