We have the most complete line of

FURNITURE and CARPETS

To be found in the town. Prices low.

R. L. DAVIDSON,
Attorney At Law.

Life insurance policies bought for cash, or loaned on for sums of $500, and upward.

Items of Local Interest.

If the weather continues cool, spare-ribe will soon be ripe.

Lay in your coal. Its climbing higher every day.

Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Rothwell have rented Mr. Ward's house, on Lexington street.

The millinery openings will be held Saturday, and the ladies will turn out in full force.

Mr. Ward is still hauling water for the mills and light plant. This costs like blue-blazes.

THE RECORD is still willing to put up its stack of blue chips on Garrard getting the railroad.

The Graded School has gotten down to hard work, and everything is in ship-shape for a successful year. Prof. Mannix is surrounded by able assistants and good work may be expected.

Danville continues to send out windy reports about the railroad, the Advocate's last say being that surveyors were laying off grounds for the depot. Well, if you want to stretch the blanket, stretch it tight.

Probably the last $1.50 Cincinnati excursion will be run next Sunday. Train leaves Lancaster at 2:44 a. m., and gets back at 12:11 midnight. This gives you all day in the city. The theatres are all open and many other attractions are to be enjoyed.

Sale of Fine Farm.

Geo. Broadus has purchased of Jas. Nave, the latter's farm of 120 acres, price $3,400. The farm lies near Hiattsville, and has a fine house thereon. We understand possession will be given Jan. 1st.

Meeting at Grove Church.

Elder H. C. Garrison will begin a series of meetings at Pleasant Grove Church the first Sunday in October. Every body is invited to come and share in the feasts of good things that will be given by this gifted and consecrated minister.

Silver Tea.

The young peoples missionary society will give a social in the Presbyterian church on the evening of October 3rd, from 7:30 to 10 o'clock. The congregation of the Presbyterian church and all others who regularly attend that church, are cordially invited to attend. Ice will be served free of charge. Come and bring a free-will silver offering for the benefit of the Missionary society.

Don't "knock."

Put away your hammer. Don't knock.

Big Injun Rothwell is reported better. This is good news. The "Injun" has plenty of grit, and will soon be on foot.

Capt. Phil Price, the clever conductor on the local train, is the proud father of a pretty girl baby. The little Miss arrived Friday.

Now listen at the Smart Alecks say "I told you so. I knew they wouldn't build that hotel." We have some brilliant people in Lancaster, who would like to trade for a dog and then kill the dog.

Milton Sneed has just painted the interior of THE RECORD office. We have the best printing office in the state, and if you want to see one well-arranged, come up. Our latch string is always on the outside.

A Good Officer.

U. S. Marshal W. T. Short was here Friday and stirred up the blind tigers with a long pole. At least they all went into a hole while he was around. Capt. Short is a splendid officer and is doing good work for Uncle Sam.

Will Entertain.

The young people's society of the Presbyterian church will give an entertainment in the church Friday evening, to which all members and those interested in the church are cordially invited. Refreshments will be served.

We presume that petition to take a vote on local option has been "mis-laid." The whisky men know they are gnawing a file, and we believe nothing further will be heard of the matter. At least we hope it will end in talk.

Good Indications.

The drill is now passing through a layer of white sand, and this has greatly encouraged those working on the artesian well. A depth of 675 feet was made through a solid rock, and not until then was any sign of water. At this writing, the sand is becoming softer, and there seems no doubt as to success. This means much to Lancaster.

Interesting to 2nd Kentucky.

The Controller of the Treasury has sustained the contention of Capt. C. C. Calhoun relative to Kentucky's Spanish War claim, and today a warrant for $129,809.03, an excess of $52,900.03 over the original allowance, will be drawn on the United States Treasury. The money will be disbursed to officers and men of the first three Kentucky regiments about Christmas each private receiving approximately $50.

Goes to Burnside.

Prof. E. N. Todd leaves this week for Burnside, Ky., where he takes charge as principal of the Burnside Graded School. Prof. Todd held an important position in the Lancaster Graded School and was one of the most painstaking and competent teachers in that flourishing institution. He is a gentleman, in every sense of the word, and we take great pleasure in commending him to the good people of Burnside.

Bro. Robinson Warmly Welcomed.

In ordering his copy of THE RECORD changed to Newport, Rev. L. Robinson adds: "We are settled in our new home, 121 E. 3rd street, and the people gave us a big ovation last night. Our church is centrally located and is one of the largest and most influential in the city. I feel deeply my unworthiness to fill the place. Can never forget the kind friends of Lancaster. If I have not paid my subscription, dun me. Thanking you for past kindnesses, I remain truly yours."

Lancaster Man in Fire.

Mr. J. A. Beazley, the hustling furniture man, was a guest at the Fifth Avenue hotel in Louisville last week when that building caught fire. He and his brother, Lige, had retired for the night, when smoke awakened the Lancaster man and such hustling was never seen as he did to get out. "Hold on Jim, take your time," pleaded Lige. "Not on your life, Lige. I came from a town where we have sure enough fires, and I'm going to leave this place." So he made tall tracks for the street, dressing as he went. Lancaster people know what it means, and the cry of "Fire!" will stampede them. The gable end of Jim's night shirt was slightly singed, but Lige says he ran so fast that it ignited.

Those Who Appreciate.

The impression prevails that THE RECORD is printed Thursdays. It is sent to the post office every Wednesday afternoon, late. This is done to reach our county subscribers. In many localities in Garrard there's only three mails a week, and as it is our county friends to whom we always cater, we take no chances on their missing the paper. We wouldn't give one subscriber out in the county for two in town. The former pay promptly, speak encouragingly of our humble efforts and assist in getting new names. In town, as a rule, people think they know more than the New York World could print, and instead of encouraging a paper, they find fault. This is true, and all newspaper men, that is those who have had experience, know it is so.

NO HOTEL YET.

Company Has Meeting, and Declares to Let Matters Rest. This Means Delay, but While There's Life There's Hope.

The Lancaster Hotel Co., had a meeting Friday and decided to fence in the lot and let matters stand for a while. It is too late to commence a building as large as would be put up, as cold weather is at hand now. It is not certain that the present company will build, but it can be safely said that Lancaster will not remain in the lull longer than through this winter, as we have enough men here who are able to put up the stuff, and who are public spirited enough to take stock in the enterprise. We have men who see that a hotel and opera house could be made to pay, and while Lancaster will not be supplied with enough hotel accommodations for a few months, yet she will not lag at the rear of the procession always. One of the greatest losses is that Mr. and Mrs. Long will leave, thus taking away the best hotel manager in Kentucky, and finding others who could come any way near running a house like they did is a matter that will never be brought to a successful end. The Garrard was pronounced by the traveling men (and they know) to be the best hotel in Central Kentucky, no exceptions anywhere. It was pointed to with pride, and was an enterprise of which Lancaster will never have the equal. Of course Mr. Long cannot remain here in idleness until another house is built, and as we have seen at least twenty offers made him at other points we know he will soon select a location, as any business man would do.

When the Garrard was built, there were people who proceeded to run down the enterprise, and if we were to print some of the slurring remarks made as to the business ability of the stockholders, you would not be surprised at the lukewarmness in rebuilding now. Several men in Lancaster went so far that we heard one stockholder talking of instituting suit for damages. That gaby by a lot of mossbacks, who never help the town and don't want anybody else to help it, did many dollars worth of damage to the house, and a suit for damages should have been instituted. The men who built that house did so as a public improvement, and not one thought of it as a money-making scheme. But the many mean things said about the house, and the silly, idle gab done then is having its effect now. The people who said the house would fall down, are among the ones now who say it ought to be rebuilt. How on earth can a town prosper when public enterprises are to be run down, and every improvement sneered at? What we want to do is to pull together in every thing that is for the betterment of the town, let petty jealousies cease, and when a man, or set of men, undertake an improvement, stand by them, and do not sit idly by and say, "Oh, its no good. I can't see where any money can be made there?" Lancaster is the best town on the map, and, notwithstanding the few knockers, she is coming to the front. That hotel will be built next Spring, and several other improvements made in Lancaster, but to those who "knock," we say "Dont." Hold your tongue, unless you can speak favorably of a matter. Cut out all adverse criticism, stand by the men off of whom you make your money, and give them another chance at it. A house divided cannot stand, so let's all pull together for the upbuilding of Lancaster and Garrard county. Dont sour on the world, and if you are grum and dont want to speak a kind word for any one, take a dose of salts, and you will come all right. The only trouble with most "knockers" is that their livers are not acting. This sounds a little out of place in print, but the truth should be told.

By the way, we want to show you who those parties were who donated toward rebuilding, when we took the paper around. There were a few who we did not get to see, but this shows you the material of which some of our citizens are made. They go down into their jeans, when necessary, and are far from the skin flint element who kick on every improvement offered. Cut this list out and paste it in your scrap book:

This could have been run up to $2,500, and now say Lancaster hasn't enough hustle to get another building? Well, we say she has. The above was a gift, and if it comes to putting it in as stock, enough could be raised to build a house forty-stories high, and in the Spring you will see one almost that high built either where the old one stood, or elsewhere within the corporate limits of Lancaster.

Mr. J. W. Sweeney, whose foot was mashed by a horse falling last week, is mending rapidly, and will soon be able to lay aside his crutches.

N. B. Northcott, one of Lancaster's "hustlinest" hustlers has purchased another large wagon to haul his poultry, ice and coal business.

Some scoundrel has been "lifting" Capt. White's chickens, and as he bought a sack of powder and buckshot yesterday, there's going to be trouble, in that end of town.

The railroad question is being freely discussed. If we could get the people to take as much interest in this all-important matter as they are displaying in the circuit judge's race, we would have trains running here before snow-fall.

Sales of Town Property.

Dr. W. S. Beazley sold to Mrs. Juliet Rogers the property adjoining J. F. Robinson, on Lexington street, for $1,400. Mrs. Rogers bought the place as an investment and will rent it. Dr. Beazley then bought of Mr. Cal Nevie the latter's property, on the other side of the above house for $2,500. He will move to same in a short time. Mr. W. A. Berkeley and family have rented the Methodist parsonage.

An Uncommon Deed.

Jessamine Journal—One day not long since the various ministers of Bardstown each received a letter containing a $200 bill wrapped in a blank sheet of paper. There was no clue to the giver. The letters were directed by the same person and mailed in Bardstown. Who gave the money, or what prompted the gift is unknown. Nicholasville ministers will probably view this with some degree of incredulity. They have never experienced anything like it here.

A Notable Lecture.

Thoughtful people of Lancaster and Garrard county have a most desirable entertainment presented in the Lecture by Rev. Dr. W. E. Barton, of Chicago, Wednesday night, 7:30 p. m., October 15, on "The Old World in the New Century." The large and intelligent audience of Garrard's best people that were so profited by Dr. Barton's last address here, will most cordially welcome him again with a generous hearing. The lecture will be given under care of Ladies' Aid Society at the Methodist church in Lancaster. Let everybody attend.

The other day we heard "one of them" say there is not much chance now for a blind tiger operator. Mat Siler has made it so hot that sales are few and far between.

Policeman Siler gathered in two blind tiger coons Friday, and they were given a big fine and sent to the workhouse.

Cheap Cattle.

The Cincinnati Enquirer says Mr. Jerry Caldwell, of Danville, one of the largest export cattle dealers in his State, was at the Grand yesterday en route to Washington. "The corn crop in Kentucky is so immense this season," said Mr. Caldwell, "that as soon as it is put into the winter fed cattle and they are ready for market the price of cattle will, in my opinion, decrease from the present value of 64 to 7c per pound to the old price of 54 to 6c cents for the best. Instead of feeding 70 cents a bushel corn, as we have been doing, we will get our corn for this winter and spring's feeding at 35 and 40 c a bushel, which is a big difference."

Bro. Stitt Doubts.

Editor H. A. Stitt makes the following reference in the Paris Gazette to "Brother" Barnes:

"Rev. Geo. O. Barnes has been giving heart talks at Odd Fellows' Hall for several nights past. He sits while speaking, but doesn't put his feet on the table. Brother Barnes asserts that an Englishman by the name of Dowie, is the Prophet Elijah, and that the recent volcanic eruptions are the beginning of the destruction of the world by fire. If Dowie is Elijah he ought to be able to prove that when on earth the other time he predicted he would some day be in Chicago and be known as John Alexander Dowie. Also don't you think he ought to tell what became of the twelve tribes of Israel that Louis Saloshin and Twin Brothers are still mourning over? It would be very easy for Bro. Barnes to get Bourbon county people to believe that J. G. Craddock is really Methuselah, and these gold bugs are scraps of Judas Iscariot, but they 'kinder' hang back on Dowie and Elijah."

Was Raised in Richmond.

Richmond Climax:—Mr. Shelby Tribble has returned to his post on THE RECORD at Lancaster, having obtained recovered from the injuries sustained at the recent fire in that city. Shelby is one of the most industrious young men of our city, but he has been playing in hard luck for some months, having twice lost all his earthly possessions by fire, besides being mashed up several times in the printing office. We hope that his evil genius has now done its worst and that fortune may smile on our young friend's efforts.

See our one horse wagon. It's an Old Hickory, and the handiest wagon on the market. Romans & Elmore.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

For Circuit Judge.

M. C. SAUFLEY.

For Commonwealth Attorney.

We are authorized to announce Chas. A. Hardin as a candidate before the Democratic party as Commonwealth Attorney of this, the thirteenth Judicial District.

For Circuit Judge.

We are authorized to announce Hon. W. C. Bell as a candidate before the Democratic party for Circuit Judge of this, the Thirteenth Judicial District.

Dig Your Well Deeper.

Christian Witness—A dry time has always been improved more or less to dig wells deeper. There is no better time to do this than in the time of drought. We know of many old wells that have been made better than new by being dug deeper in the time of drought. When the next time of drought comes they can be relied on as never before. It is a very dry time just now in the religious world, and it is a good time for us all to dig our wells deeper. Do not be satisfied, no matter what your experience has been but dig deeper. The love of many is waxing cold. There never, perhaps, was a time when it required more alertness to keep from spiritual drowsiness and famine than now, and there is no better way to keep awake and refreshed with that living water that Jesus promised than to dig your well deeper, and then "with joy shall ye draw water out of the wells of salvation." Let us all resolve to go deeper! The drier it gets around you the deeper you need to dig.

Do you need an Old Hickory wagon? We can sell you any size you want, with low or high wheels, with wide or narrow tire. Romans & Elmore.

STRAYED—From my place on September 22nd, a black boar, with white face, weight about 200 lbs. Information leading to his whereabouts will be liberally rewarded. R. A. Stone. o-2-11
